Index

a priori segmentation, 119–21
absurdity, 144
abuse of privilege, 186
acceleration of time, 138–41 access to elusive segments, 188
accessibility, 162
accountability, 163
achieving an intelligence capability, 37–76
architecture of information, 37–40
cognitive responses to information, 48–56
conclusions, 72–6
data, information and knowledge, 40–45
information as currency, 47–8
information and organization, 65–70
technology at the crossroads, 57–65
theory of information, 45–7 value of historical data, 70–72
achieving segmentation and differentiation, 105–128
conclusions, 126–8
market segments vs customer segments, 110–114
measures of segmentation, 116–18
segmentation in the post-industrial society, 114–16
technical analysis of segments, 124–6
technical approaches to customer segmentation, 118–24
understanding segments, 105–9
acquisition, 126
ACSI see American Customer Satisfaction Index
advantages of using the Internet, 187–8 advertising, 117, 137
aerospace, 60
aesthetics, 70
Age of Information, 22, 52, 84
agents, 158
alienation, 62, 80, 145, 212 allegiance to group identity, 78
Amazon, 94, 97
American Customer Satisfaction Index, 196 analysis of segments, 124–6 analysis-paralysis syndrome, 69
angst, 46–7
anodyne messaging, 98
AOL, 94, 173
apartheid, 157
approaches to customer segmentation, 118–24
approximation, 220
architectural focus, 62
architecture of information, 37–40
aristocratization of the masses, 81–4
art of differentiated marketing, 78 artificial intelligence approach, 105
asymmetry, 219
AT&T, 126
ATMs, 3, 30, 80, 221
atomicity, 8
atomization, 56, 212, 215 attitudes and opinions profile, 118 authorization, 199–200
automated-teller machines see ATMs automation, 80, 216–17

banal conclusions, 46
bandwidth, 139, 221
basket analysis, 11, 60
behaviour, 193–5
behaviour profile, 118
behaviour segmentation, 122

being first, 55
bell curve, 19, 25, 81, 95, 115
benchmarking, 55
benefits segmentation, 122–3 Bernstein, Peter, 50–51
bias, 50, 125
bifurcation, 29–32, 104
Big Brother, 157–8
biological human data, 3
blindsidedness, 8, 50, 219
Blitzkrieg, 153
bloodbath, 210, 216
blur of change, 108
boldness, 228
bona fides, 179
bounded rationality, 38
bricks and clicks businesses, 101, 102 bricks and mortar, 93–101, 131–2, 173 broadband, 100, 133
brokerage agency, 172
Brown, Stephen, 20
BTO environment see build-to-order environment Buffett, Warren, 53–4
bugs, 196
‘build it and they will come’ mantra, 54, 64 build-to-order environment, 79 building blocks, 107
bureaucratic policy parameters, 15 business focus, 62
business landscape, 4
business model inversion, 14–18 business process framework, 15 Business Week, 157
business-to-consumer enterprises, 23
buyer-readiness segmentation, 122
call centres, 12–13, 62–3, 66 capacity costs, 87
CAR see cash, additionality and recency
case for self-regulation, 177–80
cash, additionality and recency, 116 Casserly, Dominic, 106
causality, 189, 217
caveat emptor marketing, 20
certainty principle of information, 53 chance, 114, 204
change, 14
charter for consumers, 197–9
cherry-picking, 95, 164
chess, 210–11
Chief Information Officer, 223
choice, 77, 114
churn, 27, 58, 80–81, 91–3, 150–51
analysis, 150–51
definition, 91
guide to average levels, 92
CIO see Chief Information Officer
CIOMagazine, 117
civil liberties, 170
class, 107
classes of consumer
information, 160–1
click stream analysis, 13, 84
closing the loop, 185–202
charter for consumers, 197–9
concept of dialogue, 185–91
conclusions, 201–2
consumer motivation, 199–200
declared behaviour and observed behaviour, 193–5
information disclosure compact, 191–2 underestimating the information feedback loop, 195–7 clout, 19
CLTV see customer lifetime value cluster segmentation see clustering clustering, 60, 107, 119–20
cognitive responses to information, 48–56
cold calling, 86, 186
collapse of time, 131–54, 223
conclusions, 151–4
event oriented analysis, 146–51
impact of the Internet on time, 136–8
measuring message quality, 141–6 collapse of time (continued)
  mobile commerce –
    accelerating time, 138–41
  psychosocial impacts of
technology, 133–6
  and space, 223
  time as a product, 131–3
colouration of communication, 108 Columbus, Christopher, 214 commercial centre of gravity, 11 commercial ecosystem, 10
commercial landscape, 113
commitment, 185, 222
communication colouration, 108
compact on information
disclosure, 191–2
competence, 143
competitive necessity, 228
compliance audit, 179
components of consumers’
charter, 197–9
computer ethics, 161–2
counter revolution, 19–29
computerization, 80
concept of customer
intelligence, 3–36
  concept of a customer, 3–7 concept of intelligence, 10–14 concept of a product, 7–10
  conclusions, 32–6
  counter revolution, 19–29
  inverting the business model, 14–18
  myth of bifurcation, 29–32
  concept of dialogue, 185–91
concept of permission, 170–5
conditional purchase event, 9 confidence, 124, 143
confidentiality, 155–83
connectivity, 154
consolidation, 210
consumer focus, 63
customer information classes, 160–1
consumer motivation, 199–200
consumer vigilance, 133
consumers’ charter, 197–200
  components of, 197–9
  contradictions, 206–7
  control, 198, 200, 212, 228
  controllable variables, 112 convenience, 188
  convergence, 134
  conversion of data into
    knowledge, 40
  cookies, 156, 183
  core competencies, 113
  corporate complacency, 81
  corporate radar, 64
  cost effectiveness, 187
  cost justification, 57
  counter revolution, 19–29, 94
  courtesy, 82
  craftsmanship, 212
  credibility, 102
  credit scores, 44
  crisis of identity, 75
  critical mass, 13, 92
CRM see customer relationship management
cross-selling, 12, 17, 60, 66, 90, 120, 159
currency, 47–8, 200
Customer Age, 148
customer charter see consumers’ charter customer as concept, 3–7
customer detection, 136
customer information exchange 2000–2010, 129–228
closing the loop, 185–202
collapse of time, 131–54
customer privacy and confidentiality, 155–83
new practice of marketing, 203–228
customer information exploitation 1990–2000, 1–128
achieving an intelligence capability, 37–75
achieving segmentation and differentiation, 105–128
concept of customer intelligence, 3–36
eclipse of mass marketing, 77–104
customer intelligence, 3–36 customer interaction, 211–16 customer lifetime value, 90
customer loyalty, 89–93
customer privacy and confidentiality, 155–83
case for self-regulation, 177–80
classes of consumer information, 160–1
concept of permission, 170–5
conclusions, 180–3
impact of the Internet on privacy, 175–7 paradox of privacy and personalization, 155–60 providing legislative remedies, 165–70
sociopolitical impact of information, 161–5
customer relationship management (CRM), xvii, 23, 58, 66, 85 customer satisfaction, 186 customer segmentation, 110–114 technical approaches to, 118–24 customer segments, 110–114 customer turnover, 91
customization, 77–81, 215
cybernetic machines, 224
cyberspace, 95–8, 101, 132, 162
data, 93–102
cynicism, 63, 145
data cleansing, 13, 59–60, 95
data in cyberspace, 93–101
data embargo, 166
data, information and knowledge, 40–45
data integration, 13, 58, 61
data mining, 13, 60–62
data to knowledge, 37–75
data warehousing, 58–60
Davis, Stan, 77
decade of customer information exchange, 129–228 decade of customer information exploitation, 1–128 decision-making behaviours, 49–50 decision-trees, 60
declared behaviour, 193–5
deductive reasoning, 56
deduplication, 151
delaying, 65
Dell, 79
demand-side proponents, 69
demarcation, 209
demographic segmentation, 122
denial, 50
depersonalization, 33, 163
derived data, 161
design customization, 89
determinism, 227
devices, 212
dialogue as concept, 185–91
dialogue integration, 188
differentiated marketing, 10, 78, 81
differentiation, 105–128
diminishing returns, 68
direct marketing, 85–6
disclosure, 191–2
discontinuity, 218
discordant message, 144
discounters, 19
discretionary data, 156, 193
discrimination, 164–5
disillusionment, 201
disintegrating enterprise, 219–23
disloyalty, 91–3, 151
see also loyalty; negative loyalty dissonance, 41, 65
dot com, 75, 95, 97–9, 103–4, 132
mania, 75, 103
downsizing, 65–6
Drucker, Peter, 40
dynamism, 188
dysfunction, 224
dysfunctional information environment, 182
e-commerce wars, 94
e-fluentials, 108
e-tailing, 22, 94–5, 98
everly adapters, 108, 196
eBay, 97
eccentricity, 31
eclipse of mass marketing, 77–104
aristocratization of the masses, 81–4
conclusions, 102–4
customer loyalty, 89–93
economies of mass customization, 87–9
from bricks and mortar to cyberspace data, 93–102
from mass marketing to personalization, 84–7
nature of mass customization, 77–81
Eco, Umberto, 214–15
economic food chain, 113

economies of mass customization, 87–9

economies of soul, 4

educational attainment, 115–16, 156

efficiency factors, 27, 32

electoral register, 167

emotional response, 48

empowerment, 189

endgame, 210–11

engagement, 199

enlightenment, 55

Enron, 75, 224

enterprise disintegration, 219–23

entropy, 45

equilibrium, 27

ergonomics, 140, 221

erosion of social solidarity, 163–4

ethics, 123

ethnic segmentation, 122

European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, 170

event monitoring, 150

event oriented analysis, 146–51

event-trigger, 146–7

Evernet, 132–3

evolution, 43, 66

exception processing, 101

exchange, 199

exchange relationship, 208

exclusivity, 21

eyeballs, 97, 98

Fair Trade Commission on Online Security and Access, 165

fatigue, 63

FCC, 168

fear of being left behind, 216

Federal Reserve, 29

feedback loop, 68, 195–6, 200

fickle customers, 108, 113, 132, 205

fidelity, 162

fire in the theatre, 46

First Amendment Rights, 170

flawed reactions, 50

flight paths, 64

Fortune 1000, 117

fragmentation, 4, 13–14, 58, 63

fraud, 79, 142

Freedom of Information Act (US), 169

freeware, 69

frequent flier programs, 23

friction, 27

Friedman, Thomas, 157–8

from bricks and mortar to cyberspace data, 93–101

from mass marketing to personalization, 84–7

Fukuyama, Francis, 166

functional stove piping, 37, 92, 118, 151

funky universe, 4

fusion, 64

fuzzy to focused, 105–128
Gates, Bill, 171
geometric algorithms, 60
geodemographic analysis, 114–15 geographic and channel profile, 118 geographic segmentation, 122
glitz, 19–20
global knowledge society, 4
globalization, 116
gold standard, 47
good judgement, 204
grammar, 228
granularity, 128
group identity allegiance, 78

halo effect, 88
Hamel, Gary, 27
handcuffs, 228
hard-nosed pragmatists, 69
hardwired evolutionary cortex, 42 hazard, 91, 226
hedging, 109
Herculean efforts, 64
herd instinct, 75
‘high-tech, low touch’ syndrome, 206 high-value skew, 4
historical data, 70–72
Holiday Inn, 84
Homo sapiens, 52
homogeneity, 85
honesty, 188
hot dogs, 55
hotel industry, 17–18, 79–80, 82–3
human interaction, 13
see also customer interaction; interaction human relay switch, 65
hyper-profitability, 21
IBM, 127
ideology, 107
ignorance, 224
immediacy, 136
immunization, 109
IMODE standard, 140
impact of information, 161–5
impact of the Internet on
privacy, 175–7
impact of the Internet on time, 136–8
impact of technology, 133–6 imperfect data, 160
imperialist models, 116
incubus of bureaucracy, 38 independent purchase event, 9 indiscriminate interruption marketing, 170–1 inductive reasoning, 56 industrial revolution, 82, 114
inertia, 24, 27, 81
inevitability, 64–5
inflation, 48
information architecture, 37–40
information cartel, 158
information as currency, 47–8
information disclosure compact, 191–2
information exchange, 189, 208 information feedback loop, 195–7
information and organization, 65–70
information paradox, 216–19
information warrior, 111–13, 128, 215, 223 ingenuity, 225
integration, 13, 58, 61, 188, 194
integrity, 179, 182
intellectual property, 57, 114 intellectual stalwarts, 61 intelligence capability, 37–76 intelligence as concept, 10–14 intelligent value proposition, 185, 195 interaction, 211–16
interaction segmentation, 122 Internet, 191
advantages of, 187–8
impact on privacy, 175–7
impact on time, 136–8
intimacy, 159–60, 212, 216
invasion of privacy, 186
see also privacy
inverting the business model, 14–18
involuntary churn, 92, 151
irrelevant message, 144 irresistible maturity continuum, 86

knowledge, 40–45
see also data, information and knowledge
Kotler, Philip, 203
Krugman, Paul, 51
language preference, 107
lapsed to real time, 131–54
late adopter, 106
latency, 116, 150
LBP see location-based positioning legal instruments, 156
legislative remedies, 165–70
Levis, 84
Levitt, Theodore, 88
LGD marketing, 203
lifecycle analysis, 11
lifecycle segmentation, 122
lifestyle analysis, 114–15 lifestyle profile, 118
lift, 124–6
Little Brother, 158
lobbying, 177
location neutrality, 136, 188
location-based positioning, 138 locus of value, 114
logic, 188–9, 227
logistics, 216
looking in the right place, 39 lowest common denominator, 78, 220 loyalty, 89–93, 116, 150
see also disloyalty; negative loyalty loyalty cards, 6, 22, 89, 97, 174, 183

junk mail, 11, 98, 102, 132, 144, 159
see also SPAM
loyalty segmentation, 122
lunch, golf and dinner, 203
luxury, 82–4

McCain, Senator John, 169
McCarthy, E. Jerome, 112
McKean, John, 222
McKinsey & Co, 106
manoeuvrings, 210
many to one, 77–104
Marco Polo, 214
market segments, 110–114
marketing, 203–228
marketing mania, 88
marketing mix, 32, 112
Maslow’s hierarchy, 4
mass affluence, 223
mass customization, 77–81, 84–7 economies of, 87–9
mass marketing eclipse, 77–104
maturity continuum, 86
measurement of message quality, 141–6
measures of segmentation, 116–18
mediocre performers, 134
megaphone broadcast, 101
memory collapse, 137
merging, 107–8
message quality measurement, 141–6 messaging, 97
meta segments, 110
metrology, 60
microsegments, 79, 108, 157
Microsoft, 70, 94
migration, 92, 151
military disasters, 49
mix and match, 127
mobile commerce, 138–41
mobile phones, 7, 80, 92, 138–41
momentum, 49–53, 85
Monet, 126
monologue to dialogue, 185–202
monopoly, 180
monotone branding, 20
motivation, 123, 199–200
MP3 player, 135
mutual dependency, 121
myth of bifurcation, 29–32
myth of perpetual turbulence, 203–211

NASDAQ, 154–5
nature of mass customization, 77–81
navigation, 203
negative loyalty, 91

see also disloyalty; loyalty negative self-image, 157 Netscape, 93–4
neural networks, 60
neurotic peers, 134
new entrant, 106
new practice of marketing, 203–228
conclusions, 223–8
disintegrating enterprise and random acts of marketing, 219–23
myth of perpetual turbulence, 203–211
resolving the information paradox, 216–19
revising perceptions of customer interaction, 211–16
New World, 48
Niagara, 37
niche markets, 5, 35
no frills budget airlines, 23, 35
noise, 45–6, 50
non-disclosure, 99
non-response error, 187
non-wired thinking, 134 Nordstrom, Kjell, 4
novelty-seeking, 133
nugatory organizational dysfunction, 224
number portability, 27
obfuscation, 20, 99
observed behaviour, 193–5
occasion segmentation, 123 online grocery shopping, 82 operational focus, 63
operational necessity, 26, 28
optimization of business processes, 200 organization and information, 64–9 PAPA group, 162
paradox of information, 216–19
paradox of privacy and personalization, 155–60 Pareto, 80/20 rule, 31–2
partitioning, 105, 117
passive data, 160–1
passivity, 140
pathological optimism, 52
pathological pessimism, 52 PDA see personal digital assistant pendulum effect, 49
penetration, 126
Peppers, Don, 9
perception map, 214
perceptions of customer interaction, 211–16 perfect data, 160
perfect prediction, 154 permission marketing, 170–5, 198 perpetual turbulence, 203–211 personal digital assistant, 135
personalization, 84–7, 198–200, 207 versus privacy, 155–60
pervasive technologies, 211
Picasso, 127
pirates, 18
Pizza Hut, 20
policy, 29–30, 192
policy vacuum, 162
pollution, 57
poor-quality marketing messages, 144 portals, 57, 93–6, 173, 176, 226 Porter, Michael, 39, 87
positional messaging technologies, 135
positive self-image, 157
post-industrial society
segmentation, 114–16
postcodes, 115
Potemkin’s villages, 98
practice of marketing, 203–228
pragmatists, 69
precision delivery capability, 117
prejudice, 50–51
primary separation, 125–6
primitive retailing, 87
privacy, 155–83, 197, 206, 224
impact of the Internet on,
175–7
versus personalization, 155–60
probability, 45–6
probity, 199
process reengineering, 9, 12, 15, 54, 61
procrastination, 74
product affinity analysis, 150 product as concept, 7–10 product to customer, 3–36 production capability, 87 profile, 3, 205
profitability, 90
profitability segmentation, 123
promiscuity, 80, 98
propensity scoring models, 149–50
protection, 198, 207
provision of legislative remedies, 165–70
psychographic segmentation, 123
psychographics, 116, 191
psychology, 95–6
of denial, 50
psychometrics, 128
psychosocial impacts of
technology, 133–6
public concern, 169
quasi-virtual organizations, 87
quick fix, 146
radio frequency
identification, 26
random acts of marketing, 219–23
randomness, 45
rationalization, 6, 213
rearguard action, 211
recency, frequency and monetary value, 116
reengineering, 9, 12, 15, 54, 61
Registration process, 200
regression, 65
Reichheld, Frederick, 34, 89
Relais & Chateaux group, 83 relationship building, 80, 95–8, 188–9
reliability, 107
religion, 107
religious organizations, 18 remote diagnostics, 3
remoteness, 162
remuneration, 131
reorganization, 213
repeat message, 144
resentment, 79, 81
resistance, 212
resolving information paradox, 216–19 responses to information, 48–56 responsibility, 46, 159, 163
retailing, 113
retention, 126
revising perceptions of customer interaction, 211–16
RFID see radio frequency identification
RFM see recency, frequency and monetary value Riddelstrale, Jonas, 4
ring tones, 7, 135
risk, 53, 109, 142, 228
risk profiling, 58
Rogers, Martha, 9
S-shaped adoption curve, 73
sales event, 16
sampling, 220
sanctions, 180
scepticism, 98
scrutiny, 222
SEC, 163
Second World War, 153–4
secondary separation, 125 segment of one, 78–9
segmentation, 105–128
categories, 122–3
measures, 116–18
segmentation matrix, 105
segmentation in post-industrial society, 114–16 segmenting, targeting and positioning, 203 selection customization, 89 self-regulation, 177–80
selling to buying, 203–228 sensory overload, 38
sentiment, 51
separation, 125–6
Service Age, 148
service excellence, 23
service sanity, 10
shallow incentives, 174
Shannon, Claude, 45–6
share of wallet, 15
share-dealing, 136
shareware, 68
shrinking time, 133
silver bullet, 60
simplification, 7, 27
SMS, 140–41
social insurance numbers, 55
sociopolitical impact of information, 161–5
soft seduction sales techniques, 42 sophistication, 18, 81, 106, 145 sound bytes, 135
SPAM, 21–3, 100, 163, 166, 168–9
see also junk mail
Sparta, 29
specialization, 7
speed, 188
splitting, 107
SPS messaging, 139–41
stability of civic institutions, 107
stagnation, 69
stalking, 20
standardization, 7, 82, 212
Star Trek, 220
stickiness, 97
stock-picking, 53
STP marketing, 203
substantive incentives, 174
superstition, 50
supply–side proponents, 68–9
Supreme Court, 165
surfing, 162
surveillance to permission, 155–83
synchronized decision-making environment, 39
synergies of size, 192

targeted marketing, 85–6, 174–5
Taylor, Frederick, 224
technical analysis of segments, 124–6
technical approaches to customer segmentation, 118–24
technology at the crossroads, 57–64
technology bubble, 51
technology’s psychosocial impacts, 133–6 Telco operators, 94
telemarketing, 12, 23, 151
tension, 155
tequila effect, 51
termination, 199
terrorism, 28
time collapse, 131–54
Time magazine, 82
time as product, 131–3
Times Square, 143
timidity, 210, 228
tolerance threshold, 101	totalitarianism, 158, 166
trade war, 166
traffic patterns, 150–51
transaction immediacy, 136–8
transformation, 214
transmission, 143
transparency, 99, 136, 169, 198, 210
trial-and-tempt approach, 11
trust, 107, 185
turbo-charging operations, 94, 176
turbulence, 203–211
Turner, Ted, 127
two-way communication, 191, 201
benefits of, 199–200
uncertainty principle of information, 52–3
3G networks see third generation networks 3G networks

tides of innovation, 176
time collapse, 131–54
Time magazine, 82
time as product, 131–3
Times Square, 143
timidity, 210, 228
tolerance threshold, 101
totalitarianism, 158, 166
trade war, 166
traffic patterns, 150–51
transaction immediacy, 136–8
transformation, 214
transmission, 143
transparency, 99, 136, 169, 198, 210
trial-and-tempt approach, 11
trust, 107, 185
turbo-charging operations, 94, 176
turbulence, 203–211
Turner, Ted, 127
two-way communication, 191, 201
benefits of, 199–200
uncertainty principle of information, 52–3
underestimating information feedback loop, 195–7
understanding segments, 105–9
unique visitors, 97
unprofitability, 92
unqualified message, 144
unskilled player, 106
untimely message, 144
up-selling, 12, 17, 66, 120
usage segmentation, 123
utilization, 198
validation, 195–6, 200
value of historical data, 69–71
value proposition, 5, 100, 123–4, 132, 155–6, 160
transparency, 136
value of time, 6
vigilance, 133
violation of customer privacy, 155
virtual interaction, 162 visibility, 63, 103, 149
visionary zealots, 68
voluntary associations, 18
vortex of mass communication exchange, 134–5

Wall Street Journal, 29
WAP see wireless application protocol watchdog bodies, 180
weapons of mass marketing, 85
Web self-service, 67
White House, 143
winner–loser bifurcation, 104
wireless application protocol, 138–41 wireless messaging, 13
world without turbulence, 203–4

Yahoo!, 94, 97, 173
youth cult, 139
zealots, 68
zero sum game, 157