Contents

Series Editors’ Preface viii
Acknowledgements ix

Introduction: Space, Contestation and the Political 1

Part I Networking the Political 13
1 Place and the Relational Construction of Political Identities 15
2 Geographies of Solidarities and Antagonisms 36

Part II Geographies of Connection and Contestation 57
3 Labourers’ Politics and Mercantile Networks 59
4 Making Democratic Spatial Practices 79
5 Counter-Global Networks and the Making of Subaltern Nationalisms 99

Part III Political Geographies of the Counter-Globalization Movement 119
6 Geographies of Power and the Counter-Globalization Movement 121
7 Constructing Transnational Political Networks 149

Conclusion: Towards Politicized Geographies of Connection 177
Notes 190
References 196
Index 221