INDEX

A
Abilene paradox, 91–92
Abrashoff, D. Michael, 65, 300
Access (presentation element), 260, 266–267
Accommodating (conflict management approach), 94–96 Accountability, 65, 66
of boards of directors, 163 of corporations, 158, 162 to goals/budgets, 231 of team members, 73
Acres of Diamonds (Conwell), 4 Action imperatives, 17–20 collaborate, 17, 20
  compete, 18, 20
  control, 17, 20
  create, 18, 20
Action plans for goal setting, 185
  for managing conflict, 98 for personal development, 42 for strategic planning, 230 for team performance, 84, 87–88
Actual cost of work performed (ACWP), 139–141
Ad hoc teams, 73
Adhocracy (organizational culture), 9, 222, 318
Advanced beginner (mastery step), 324
Advanced change theory, 304
Advocacy, for managing conflict, 97
Advocacy groups, guidelines for, 99
Affective criteria, 72
Agendas
  hidden, 51
  for meetings, 51, 80
  in OABC method, 114
  for self-improvement, 326–327
Agreeableness (personality trait), 40
Agreement, negotiating, 283–294
ALAPA model, 20–21
Annual performance review, 61–63 Appeal (influence tactics) inspirational, 250
  personal, 250
  upward, 250
Arguments (creating and evaluating), 23–27
Assertiveness, 94

Authority
  decision making, 214, 215 delegation of, 65, 66
  hierarchy of, 6 legitimate, 250
  lines of, 5, 213
  and power, 244
  and responsibility, 5
  scalar principle, 5, 213
  span of control, 213–216
  unity-of-command principle, 5, 213–217 Autocratic decision making, 75 Autonomy, 198, 204, 214, 297
  and delegation, 66, 73
Avoiding (conflict management approach), 90, 94, 96

B
Baldrige criteria for performance excellence, 149–151
Bar Chart Cost Schedule, 138
Bargaining (influence tactic), 250 Barnard, Chester, 7 Barriers to creative thinking, 275–278 between departments, 216 to effective communication, 50–54
BCWP (See Budgeted cost of work performed)
Behavioral complexity, 15–16, 30, 316–318, 327–328
Brainstorming, 279–280
Budgeted cost of work performed (BCWP), 139–141
Budgeted cost of work scheduled (BCWS), 140, 141 Bureaucracy, 5, 6, 9, 212
Burnout, 9

C
Carl Jung’s theory of psychological types, 40
Centralization, 5, 214
Challenger role, 79
Change
  advanced change theory, 304
  approaches to bringing, 301–305 forcing, 301–303
    implementing, 301–305
    participating, 301, 303–304 telling, 301, 302
    transforming, 301, 304–305
  designing, 298–299
forces for, 295–297
resistance to, 297–298
Claim (in an argument), 24–27
Clan (organizational culture), 221, 223
Climate set for effective presentations, 260–262
Coalition formation (influence tactic), 250
Coercive power, 250
Cognitive complexity, 15–16
Collaborate (action imperative), 17, 20
Collaborating (conflict management approach), 95, 96
Collaborator role, 79
Command, unity of, 5, 213–217 Commitment
building, 33
to goals, 186, 187
and motivation, 195
negotiating, 283–294
to vision, 171, 176
Communication
barriers to effective, 50–54
defensive routine in, 52 definition of, 48
interpersonal, 48
barriers to effective, 50–54
model, 49–50
organizational norms and patterns of, 52
reflective listening, 54–55 rules for effective, 54 skills, development, 55–56 structure in teams, 69–70 style, 51
types of managerial, 257–259 informational messages, 258 promotional messages, 259 relational messages, 258 transformational messages, 259 of vision, 175–177
Communicator role, 78, 79
Compete (action imperative), 18, 20 Competencies, 17, 20, 34–35, 109 assessment
anchors and oars, 35–36 communication skills, 47–49 conflict, managing and encouraging constructive, 88–90 performance evaluations, 58–59 positive habits development, 36–37 team player, 70–72
evaluation matrix, 166
identifying managerial, 19
as mastery step, 324
Competing (conflict management approach), 95, 96
Competing values framework (CVF), 12–14
Completeness, 146
Compliance attitudes toward, 153–154 costs and paradoxes of, 160–162 enabling, 153–155
and ethics programs, 163–164 guidelines for compliance and ethics programs, 163–164 organizational, 162–164 outside the workforce, 164–165 policies and practices, organization, 165 strategies destructive deviance, 161–162 direct financial costs, 160 for encouraging, 158–160 missed opportunities, 161 reduced compliance and effectiveness, 161 understanding noncompliance, 155–158
Conflict
advocacy and inquiry, 97 approaches to managing, 92–93, 96 accommodating, 94–96
avoiding, 94, 96
collaborating, 95, 96
competing, 95, 96
compromising, 95, 96
handling orientations, dimensions, 94 handling strategies, 88–90 levels of, 92–93
managing, 102–103
perspectives on, 90–91
process of managing, 97–98 sources of, 92–93
stages of, 92–93
stimulating, 98–99
time spent on, 90
types (relationship and task), 90–91
Conscientiousness (personality trait), 40, 155
Consensus decision making, 75
Consultative decision making, 75
Content set for effective presentations, 262, 264
Content theory, 196–197
Contextual factors, 74
Contingency theory, 9
Contributor role, 78, 79
Control (action imperative), 17–18
Cooperativeness, 93
Co-optation, 250
Corrective feedback, 50
Costed WBS (work breakdown structure), 133
Cost/schedule integration, 139–141
Counterarguments, anticipation of, 263
Counterproductive work behaviors, 155
CPM (See Critical Path Method), 134
Create (action imperatives), 18, 20
Creative thinking, 274–283 barriers to, 275–278
   brainstorming, 279–280
   building a creative space for, 278 characteristics of, 271–272 versus critical thinking, 273 and habit, 274–275
   importance of, 280
   and innovation, 274–275
   nominal group technique, 279–280
   skill development in, 274 Credibility
   of recommendations, 22
   set for effective presentations, 262 Critical Path Method (CPM), 134–136 identification, 135–136
   PERT/CPM diagram, 134
   PERT network with, 134–135
Critical thinking, 22 versus creative thinking, 273 Cross-functional teams, 73, 119–128, 217 challenges of, 123
   examining, 128
   guidelines for managing, 123–125 identifying right members for, 125–126 mapping organization, 119–120 student orientation, 127 within traditional work structures, 121–122 Culture(s)
   assessing, 211
   diagnosing and aligning, 223–224 links to strategy and structure, 217–218 types of organizational, 211, 217–222 adhocracy, 222
      clan, 221, 223
      hierarchy, 221
      market, 222
CVF (See Competing values framework)

D
Data overload, 109–113
Decentralization, 13
Decision making, 72–73, 123–124
   advantages of, 75–76
   approaches to, 75
      autocratic, 75
      consultative, 75
      participative, 75
   authority, 75, 214, 215
   and dialogue, 287
   disadvantages of, 76
   and levels of mastery, 323–325 and personality types, 41
Defensive routine situation, 52 Defensiveness, 44
   in negotiations, 287 Delegation, 65–67
   effective (See Effective delegation) elements in accountability, 65, 66
      authority, 65, 66
      responsibility, 65, 66
Demotivation, motivation to, 206–207 Departmentalization, 216 conflicts among principles in, 216 differentiation and integration, 215–216 by division, 217
      by function, 216
      by matrix, 217
Designing organizational structure, 211–222 elements of, 211, 212, 214, 215 organizational culture as frame for, 220–222 Dialogue
   when giving feedback, 62, 63 when managing conflict, 97 when negotiating, 285–287 Differentiation
   behavioral, 316
   structural, 121, 122, 214–216, 221, 226 three orientations toward goal, 215
      interpersonal, 215
      time, 215
Direction, unity of, 5 Discipline, 5, 229
   and creativity, 275
Disengagement, 204, 205
Distribute notes, meeting, 81 Division
   departmentalization by, 217
   of labor, 6, 212, 214, 215 Downsizing, 9, 149, 220
Driving forces, 298–299
Drucker, Peter, 38
   on MBO (management by objectives), 184, 188 on time management, 66–67
e-commerce, emergence of, 11
Education performance metrics, 152–153 Effective delegation employees development through, 65–66 steps to, 66–67
Efficiency, 6, 7, 9, 17 and departmentalization, 216, 217 as a force for change, 296, 297 measuring performance, 145
  personal, 112
  and structure
    differentiation, 121, 215–216
    division of labor, 212
    formalization, 213–214
    integration, 215–216
    specialization, 212
    standardization, 213–214
Electronic media, 116
E-mail, managing, 114–119, 237 Emotions, 39, 44–45 contagious, 321
  negative, 44, 291
Emotional intelligence, 37–39, 82
  emotional awareness, 39
  self-awareness, 39
  self-confidence, 39
  self-management, 39
Emotional-laden environment, 116 Empathic listening, 44
  feeling the experience, 45 Empathy, 44
  and lift, 125
  and reflective listening, 54–55
Employees
  coaching and mentoring, 63–64
  developing, 58–67
  engagement, 204–205
  employees types, 205 empowerment and, 208–210 misbehavior, triggers for, 155–158 Empowerment, 203–204
  employee engagement and, 208–210 Encouraging compliance, 154–155 reactions to methods of, 153–154 strategies for, 158–160
Energy break, 234
Enterprise Project Management (EPM) Solution software program, 131 Enterprise resource planning (ERP), 151
Envisioning, career, 182–183
Equity, Fayol’s principle of, 5
Equity theory, 197–198
Esprit de corps, 5
Ethics task force, 86–87
Evaluation matrix
  collaborate, 103–104
  compete, 238
  control, 166
  create, 308–309
  summary, 314–315, 329
Exchange (influence tactic), 250 Execution crisis situation and, 235–236 culture of, 232
  individual level, 232–235
  managing, 227–232
    leader behaviors, 231 operations process, 230–231 people process, 229–230 right people in the right places, 232 strategy process, 230 Expectancy theory, 196, 197, 199, 200 manager’s perspective, 201–203 Expert power (expertise as power), 246–247 and rational persuasion, 250 Expertise (mastery step), 325 External environment and forces for change, 297 of group, 83, 90
  and organizational culture, 220–222
  transforming, 304
Extraversion (personality trait), 40
Extrinsic motivators, 196
Extrinsic rewards, 161, 202
Face-to-face meetings, necessity of, 51, 73, 116
Failure, fear of, 276
Fayol, Henri, 5, 6, 121 general principles of management of, 5 Federal sentencing guidelines for organizations, 162
Feedback
  coaching and mentoring, 63–64
  and execution, 230, 232
  guidelines for, 43, 62, 63 loop, 50, 150
  monitoring performance with, 144–145 from performance evaluations, 60–63, 189 positive, 50
  receiving, 45–46
  reciprocal flow of influence, 318
Index

and reflective listening, 54
and self-awareness, 42–44 soliciting, 46–47, 260
in teams, 78, 82, 84
types of corrective, 50
  informational, 50
  reinforcing, 50

Fifth Discipline, The (Senge), 10 Five-Factor model of personality, 39–40 agreeableness, 40
  conscientiousness, 40
  extraversion, 40
  neuroticism, 40
  openness to new experiences, 40

Flat organizations, 213
Flexibility, 13
Float (in project schedules), 135, 136
Force field analysis, 295, 298–299 Forces for change driving, 298–299
  resisting, 298–299
Forcing strategy approach to change, 301–303 conflict management approach, 95
Ford, Henry, 4
Functions
  departmentalization by, 216
  managing across, 119–126

G
Galbraith’s star model, 218–219
Gantt chart, 137–139
  Bar Chart Cost Schedule, 138
  as monitoring tools, 138 personnel task assignments, 138, 139 specialized, 137–138
Glass-Steagall Act of 1933, 146
Goals
  aligning with strategy, 186 management by objectives, 184 of management models
    human relations, 33
    internal process, 108
    open systems, 242
    rational goal, 170
  and performance management, 185–189
  SMART, 189–191
Goal-setting theory, motivation, 198–199
Grounds (to support an argument), 24–27

Group maintenance roles, 78 Groups management, 72–73
team player, 70–72
Groups versus teams, 72–73
Groupthink, 76

H
Habits development, positive, 36–37
Hawthorne studies, 7
Health care industry, performance in, 151–152
Hidden agendas, 279
Hierarchy culture, 221
Hierarchy system, 213
How to Win Friends and Influence People (Carnegie), 7
Human relations model, 6–7, 10, 12, 13, 16, 17
Human resource matrix, 138–139

I
Ineffective team meetings, 76
Influence strategies, 249–250
Influence tactics, 249–250
  Bargaining/Exchange, 250 Coalition formation, 250
  Cooption, 250
  Ingratiation, 250
  Inspirational appeal, 250
  Legitimate authority, 250
  Personal appeal, 250
  Pressure/Coercion, 250
  Rational persuasion, 250
  Upward appeal, 250
Informational feedback, 50
Information flows organizing, 109–116 audience and, 115–116
  data and information traffic, 118–119 data inflows, 111
  using traffic method, 117–118
  data overload, 111
  and information gaps, identification, 109–110 OABC method, 114–115, 118 prioritizing action items, 113 time management matrix, 113
  TRAF system, 111–113
Ingratiation (influence tactics), 250 Innovation
  fueling and fostering, 272–283
  as a habit, 274–275
Inquiry (for managing conflict), 97
In Search of Excellence (Peters and Waterman), 10
Inspirational appeal (influence tactic), 250
Integration
  and behavioral complexity, 316–318 and differentiation, 215–216, 221 Intentional change theory, 42
Interim performance reviews, 84
Internal process model, 5–7, 10, 12, 13, 16, 108
Interpersonal communication, 48 barriers to effective, 50–54
  differences in style, 51 distractions, 51
  hidden agendas, 51
  hostility, 51
  inarticulateness, 51
  organizational norms, 52
  status, 51
  left-hand-column issues, 52–53
model, 49–50
Interpersonal competence, 77
Interpersonal orientation, 215
Interpersonal skills, 19, 55, 124, 125
Interruptions, 81, 113
Intrapersonal competence, 37
Intrinsic motivation, 161, 196, 203, 204 and job characteristics, 198
Intrinsic motivators, 196
Introversion-extraversion MBTI dimension, 40

J
Jigsaw puzzle metaphor (vision), 174
Johari window, 42, 44–47
Judging-perceiving MBTI dimension, 41
Jung, Carl (psychological types), 40

K
KaiZEN, 151

L
Labor, division of, 6, 212, 214, 215
Leadership
  crafting, 181–182
  and execution, 232
  paradoxes, 242
  story, 181–182
  task orientation, 227–229
  and vision, 171–177
Learning process (ALAPA model), 20–21
Left-hand-column issues, 52–53
Legitimate authority, 250
Lewin's force field analysis, 295
Lift, 125, 248–249, 321–323

Lift: Becoming a Positive Force in Any Situation (Quinn), 125
LiquidPlanner web-based program, 131
Listening, reflective (See Reflective listening)

M
Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Awards (MBNQA), 150
Management by objectives (MBO), 8, 184, 188, 191, 192 Management information system (MIS), 8 Management models competing values framework, 12–20 evolution of, 2–11
  human relations model, 6–7, 10, 12, 13, 16, 17
  internal process model, 5–7, 10, 12, 13, 16
  open systems model, 7–10, 12, 13, 16, 18
  rational goal model, 4, 10, 12, 13, 16
Managerial User's Manual, 43
Managers versus Managerial leaders, 316
Managing across functions, 119–126
Market (organizational culture), 222
Maslow’s Hierarchy of Needs, 197 Mastery, 312–329
  integration and behavioral complexity, 315–321
  and lift, 321–323
  master manager profile, 318 personal strategy for, 328–329 road to mastery, 323–327 and self-improvement, 325–326
  stages of, 323–325
  thinking (ways of), 318–319
Matrix
  competency evaluation
    collaborate, 103–104
    compete, 238
    control, 166
    create, 308–309
    summary, 314–315, 329
    time management, 113
  departmentalization by, 217
  human resource, 138–139
  time management, 234
MBO (See Management by objectives)
MBTI (See Myers-Briggs Type Inventory)
McClelland's Learned Needs Theory, 197 Measures (hierarchy of), 146–147
Meetings (increasing effectiveness of), 79–81 Mentoring and development, 59
  employees, 63–64
  performance evaluations, conducting effective, 59–60 Micromanaging, 83, 123
Microsoft Office’s Standard Project 2007 software program, 131
MIS (See Management information system)
Models (See Management models) Motivation theories, 196–203
content theory, 196–197
extrinsic motivators, 196
intrinsic motivators, 196 needs (innate and learned), 196–197 process theories, 197
equity theory, 197–198
expectancy approach to, 199–203 goal-setting theory, 198–199 job characteristics model, 198
Mutual meaning, purpose, and respect, 285, 287
Myers-Briggs Type Inventory (MBTI), 40, 41 introversion-extraversion, 40 judging-perceiving, 41
sensing-intuition, 40
thinking-feeling, 41

N
Negative emotions, 44
Negative zones, 79, 316–318
Negotiation, 287–294 principles, 287–290
Networking, 247–249
Neuroticism (personality trait), 40
Nissan Design International, Inc., 38
Noise as a barrier to communication, 50
Nominal group technique, 279–280
Noncompliance, 155–158
Not-engaged employees, 205
Novice (mastery step), 323–324

O OABC method, 114–115, 118
Objections (anticipation of), 263 Objective criteria for negotiation, 289–290 for performance measures, 145
Objectives (aligning and directing effort with), 183–194
Objectivity, 146
OCAI (See Organizational Culture Assessment Instrument)
Open systems model, 7–10, 12, 13, 16, 18
Openness to new experiences (personality trait), 40 Opportunity power, 246
Opposing models, 14–15
Organizational compliance, 162–164
  federal sentencing guidelines for organizations, 162 2004 revision and expansion, 163
Organizational culture, 11, 16, 160, 161, 163, 164, 217–222
Organizational Culture Assessment Instrument (OCAI), 223 Organizing (and designing), 211–222 efficiency as principle of, 213 function of, 212
  structural tensions, 214–217
Overarching models, 39–42

P
Paradoxes, 34
Paradoxical thinking, 319–321, 326, 328
Participating strategy (change), 301, 303–304
Participative decision making, 75, 86–88
Performance appraiser, 64
Performance criteria (identifying), 144–145
Performance evaluations, 58–70, 257
  assumptions about, 58–59 conducting effective, 59–63
Performance management system, 62, 185–189 goal setting for, 185–189 evaluation of performance, 189 jointly establishing individual goals, 188 ongoing coaching and feedback, 188 strategic unity and alignment, 186 translating strategy into individual goals, 187 translating vision to organizational unit goals, 188 Microsoft Corporation, 187 stages, 60–61
Performance metrics, developing, 144–145, 151–153
Performance planning stage, 60 Performance reviews
  annual, 61–63
  interim, 84
Permanent teams, 73
Personal appeal (influence tactics), 250
Personal goals, 36, 183
Personal power, 243–245
Personal vision statement (crafting), 181–182 Personality
  dimensions, 40
  factors, 40
  individual, 39, 41
  MBTI approach, 40, 41
Personnel
  remuneration of, 5
  stability of, 5
  task assignments, 137–139
Persuasion (See Influence tactics)
PERT (See Program Evaluation and Review Technique) Planned change, 295–297
Planning tools (See Project management)
Polish (presentation element), 267–268
Position power, 246
Positive feedback, 50
Positive influence, 321
Power ambivalence toward, 244–245 increasing
      with direct reports, 252–253 with peers, 252
      with supervisors, 251
   influence strategies and tactics, 249–250 influence versus manipulation, 250 levels of use, 244–245 misconceptions about, 245 networks
      building, 247–248
      lifting, 248–249
   perception of, 244
   source of power, 246–247 expert, 246–247
      opportunity, 246
      position, 246
      legitimate authority, 246
      reward, 246
      relationship, 247
      wealth, 246
Presentations (effective), 260–268
Pressure (influence tactic), 250
Process gains, 74
Process losses, 74
Process reengineering, 229
Process theories of motivation, 197 Productivity, 195
   and behavioral complexity, 316
   and coaching, 64
   and communication, 49
   and compete action imperative, 18, 20
   and cross-functional teams, 124 and Hawthorne lighting study, 7 and market culture, 222 measuring, 145–148
   and motivation, 194–195
   personal, 119
   and rational goal model, 4, 10, 12, 13, 16 and teams, 82–83
Professional bureaucracy, 5 Proficiency (mastery step), 324–325
Profiles of managers, 318
Profit (rational goal model), 4
Program Evaluation and Review Technique (PERT), 134–135
Project coordination, 129
Project-crashing analysis, 136
Project management, 130–144
   LiquidPlanner web-based program, 131 monitoring tools, 139–141 cost/schedule integration graphs, 139–141 performance analysis report, 141 planning tools, 131–142 costed WBS, 133
      CPM, 134–136
      Gantt chart, 137–139
      human resource matrix, 138–139
      PERT, 134–136
      resource leveling, 136
      SOW, 131–132
      WBS, 132–133
   PMBOK® guide from PMI, 130 processes, 130–131
   resource leveling, 136
   software programs, 131
   Psychological state, 321, 322
   Public speaking, 260
   Pygmalion, in management, 202
Q Quality
      measuring and monitoring, 145–151 process, 150
R
   Rapport (establishing with audience), 258, 261
   Rational goal model, 4, 10, 12, 13, 16
   Rational persuasion (influence tactic), 250
   Reasoning, 23–27
   Reengineering, 120, 149, 220, 229
   Reflective listening, 54–55
      and performance evaluation, 61
      and reflective listening, 98, 102
      skills, development, 57 thoughts and feelings, 56–57
   Reinforcing feedback, 50
   Relationship power, 247
   Resisting forces, 298–299
   Resource leveling, 136
   Resources (for projects), 128–129, 136–141
Respect (mutual), 285
Responsibility, 5
  of boards and top executives, 163 corporate social and environmental, 149
  and cross-functional teams, 124
  and delegation, 65, 66
Responsiveness, 146
Reward systems (alignment with goals), 145, 160, 162, 219 Rewards and compliance, 158, 160
  extrinsic, 161, 202
  and goal setting, 184, 185 and new types of workers, 219 as a source of power, 246–247 Role
  ambiguity, 77
  clarity, 77–78
  conflict, 78
Roles of team members
  challenger, 79
  collaborator, 79
  communicator, 78
  contributor, 78
  task versus group maintenance, 78
S
Scalar chain, 5, 213–216
Scalar principle, 213
Scientific management approach, 4, 184, 212, 233
Self-assessment, 39
Self-awareness, 34, 36
  elements, 37
  and emotional intelligence, 39
  importance of, 38
  increasing, 42–44
  Johari window for, 42–43
Self-confidence, 39
  and delegation, 67
  and emotional intelligence, 39
Self-criticism, 277
Self-directed teams, 73
Self-evaluation
  and performance evaluation, 61, 62
  and your plan for mastery, 328
Self-improvement (plan for), 325–327
Self-managed teams, 73
Self-management (emotional intelligence), 39 Self-understanding, 37–38
  emotional intelligence, 39
  openness to feedback, 38–39
  personality, 39–42
Sensing-intuition MBTI dimension, 40 Sequence of agenda, 80
  managerial, 264
  of presentations, 260, 264–266 of project activities, 134–136 Set (presentation element), 260–262 climate, 261
  content, 262
  credibility, 262
Set, Support, Sequence, Access, and Polish (SSSAP), 260–268
7 Habits of Highly Effective People, The (Covey), 113
Six Sigma, 151
Slack, 135
SMART goals and objectives, 189–191, 198–199
Smith, Adam, 121, 212
Social capital, 247, 250
Social competence, 37
Social credit rating, 284
Social Darwinism, 4
Social intelligence, 37, 38, 44
Solicit feedback, 46–47
Southwest Airlines Organizational Practices, 176
SOW (See Statement of work (SOW))
Span of control, 213–216
Specialization, 212, 214, 215
SSAP (See Set, Support, Sequence, Access, and Polish)
Star model (organization design), 218–219, 224–226
Statement of work (SOW), 131–132
Status
  as a communication barrier, 51
  and cross-functional teams, 121, 125
Stereotyping, 277
Strategy
  for compliance, 158–160 for conflict handling, 88–90
  organizational and cultural, 217–222
    and execution, 230
    and goals, 187–189
    and structure, 217–218
    and vision, 173–177, 184
    for mastery, 323–329
Structural contingency theory, 217 Structure (organization) archetypes, 214
  mechanistic, 214–215
  organic, 214–215
elements of, 214, 215
tensions of, 214
Subordination of individual interest, 5
Support (presentation element), 263–264
Sustainability, 11
Systems thinking, 318–319, 326

T
Tall organizations, 213 Task force ethics, 86–87
team, 73
Task orientation, 78
Task performance, 74
Task role, 78
Taylor, Frederick, 4, 184, 212 principles of management of, 4–5
Team, 70–88
behavior as a member, 70–72
building
action plan, 87–88
activities, 83
interim performance reviews, 84 role clarification sessions, 84–85 cross-functional, 73, 119–128, 217
decision making, 72–73, 75
advantages, 75–76
disadvantages, 76
defining, 72–73
affective criteria, 72
structural criteria, 72, 73 effectiveness, 74
managing groups and leading, 72–73 meetings, 79–81
member styles, 78–79
challenger, 79
collaborator, 79
communicator, 78
contributor, 78
mutual accountability of, 73 stages of development adjourning, 83
forming, 82
norming, 82
performing, 82–83
storming, 82–83
and trust, 83–84
versus work groups, 72–73
Technology (as a force for change), 297
Telling strategy (change), 301–302

Thinking
creative (See Creative thinking) critical, 22, 273
paradoxical, 319–321, 326, 328 systems, 318–319, 326
Thinking-feeling MBTI dimension, 41
Three, magic number (presentations), 263–264
Time management, 233–237
matrix, 113, 234
Time orientation, 215
Total quality management (TQM), 149
Traditional manager-led teams, 73 TRAF system/Traffing, 111–113 data inflows using, 117–118
Transcend paradox, 1, 319
Transforming strategy (change), 301, 304–305
Triple bottom line, 149 Trust
and delegation, 66
and increasing self-awareness, 43 and interpersonal communication, 51, 52, 55 and team building, 83–84

U
Unions, 6–7, 9, 162, 176
United States Sentencing Commission (USSC) guidelines, 162
Unity of command, 5, 213–217
Unity of direction, 5
Upward appeal (influence tactic), 250

V
Vanishing human moment, 116
Virtual teams, 73
Vision, 171–181
articulating and communicating, 175–177 connecting with personal values (hearts), 176–177 strategic communication (heads), 175 tactical policies and practices (hands), 176 framing and defining, 173–174 key components of, 174–175 case for change, 174
focus on people, 175
ideal goals, 174
Visionary leaders, 172–173 embracing paradox, 177–178 impact of, 177
source of vision, 178–179
Visuals (presentations), 266–267
W

Warrants (for supporting an argument), 24–27
Wealth of Nations, The (Smith), 212
Wealth power, 246
Weber, Max, 5 characteristics of bureaucracy of, 6

Work breakdown structure (WBS), 132–133 costed, 133
  estimation of activity, 134 graphical form, 133
  resource leveling and, 136 tabular form, 132