From The Publisher xxiii

1 Early Years 1
"Who in the world am I? Ah, that's the great puzzle."

2 Army Life 19
"Contrariwise, if it was so, it might be: and if it were so, it would be: but as it isn't, it ain't. That's logic."

3 ICI and the Statistical Methods Panel 44
"Can you answer useful questions?"

4 George Barnard 53
"When I use a word . . . it means just what I choose it to mean—neither more nor less."

5 An Invitation to the United States 63
"The time has come, 'the walrus said,' to talk of many things.
Of shoes and ships and sealing wax, of cabbages and kings."

6 Princeton 78
"Ah! Then yours wasn't a really good school."

7 A New Life in Madison 94
"Digging for apples, your honor!"
8 Time Series
“What do you know about this business?”

9 George Tiao and the Bayes Book
“It gets easier further on.”

10 Growing Up (Helen and Harry)
“There are 364 days when you might get unbirthday presents, and only 1 for birthday presents, you know.”

11 Fisher—Father and Son
“I only hope the boat won’t tipple over!”

12 Bill Hunter and Some Ideas on Experimental Design
“There goes Bill!”

13 The Quality Movement
“The race is over! . . . ‘Everybody has won and all must have prizes.’”

14 Adventures with Claire
“What else had you to learn?” “Well, there was Mystery.”

15 The Many Sides of Mac

16 Life in England
“What matters is how far we go? There is another shore, you know, upon the other side.”

17 Journeys to Scandinavia
“What sort of people live here?”

18 A Second Home in Spain
“I know something interesting is sure to happen.”
