Contents

Series Editors’ Preface  vii
Preface and Acknowledgements  viii

1 Introduction: Politicizing Consumption in an Unequal World  1
   1.1 The Moralization of Consumption  1
   1.2 Justice, Responsibility and the Politics of Consumption  4
   1.3 Relocating Agency in Ethical Consumption  11
   1.4 Problematizing Consumption  19

Part One Theorizing Consumption Differently  25

2 The Ethical Problematization of ‘The Consumer’  27
   2.1 Teleologies of Consumerism and Individualization  27
   2.2 Theorizing Consumers as Political Subjects  33
   2.3 The Responsibilization of the Consumer  39
   2.4 What Type of Subject Is ‘The Consumer’?  44
   2.5 Does Governing Consumption Involve Governing the Consumer?  48
   2.6 The Ethical Problematization of the Consumer  52
   2.7 Conclusion  58

3 Practising Consumption  61
   3.1 The Antinomies of Consumer Choice  61
   3.2 Theorizing Consumption Practices  64
   3.3 Problematizing Choice  70
   3.4 Articulating Background  77
   3.5 Conclusion  81
4 Problematizing Consumption 83
  4.1 Consumer Choice and Citizenly Acts 83
  4.2 Articulating Consumption and the Consumer 85
  4.3 Mobilizing the Ethical Consumer 90
  4.4 Articulating the Ethical Consumer 97
  4.5 Conclusion 107

Part Two Doing Consumption Differently 111
5 Grammars of Responsibility 113
  5.1 Justifying Practices 113
  5.2 Researching the (Ir)responsible Consumer 117
  5.3 Versions of Responsibility 124
  5.4 Dilemmas of Responsibility 137
  5.5 Conclusion 149

6 Local Networks of Global Feeling 153
  6.1 Locating the Fair Trade Consumer 153
  6.2 Re-evaluating Fair Trade Consumption 155
  6.3 Managing Fair Trade, Mobilizing Networks 163
  6.4 Doing Fair Trade: Buying, Giving, Campaigning 170
  6.5 Conclusion 179

7 Fairtrade Urbanism 181
  7.1 Rethinking the Spatialities of Fair Trade 181
  7.2 Re-imagining Bristol: From Slave Trade to Fair Trade 185
  7.3 Putting Fair Trade in Place 189
  7.4 Fair Trade and ‘The Politics of Place Beyond Place’ 191
  7.5 Conclusion 195

8 Conclusion: Doing Politics in an Ethical Register 198
  8.1 Beyond the Consumer 198
  8.2 Doing Responsibility 200

Notes 203
References 210
Index 227