Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xiii
About the Editor xv
About the Contributors xix

SECTION I  SETTING UP, MANAGING, AND MARKETING YOUR PRACTICE

1. Differences in Business Structures and Protections in Human Service Private Practice: Which Suits Your Practice Best? 3
   Jonathan D. Nye

   David W. Ballard

3. Managed Care Contracting: Strategies for Negotiating and Maintaining Relationships 33
   Bridget Morehouse
4. Ethical and Legal Aspects of Private Practice 52
   Scott Hammer and Kenneth H. Kesoler

5. How Writing a Column for Your Local Newspaper Can Enhance Your Private Practice 69
   Linda Sapadin

   Linda Sapadin and John E. Mayer

7. Working With the Media 95
   Pauline Wallin

8. The Power of Community Networking 107
   Melbim W. Restum and Joe Bavonese

9. The Benefits of Joining Professional Organizations 150
   Lisa R. Grossman

    Heather M. Hale

SECTION II  BUILDING, MARKETING, AND PRACTICING IN THE DIGITAL AGE

11. Web Sites and Internet Marketing 179
    Joe Bavonese

12. Building Your Online Presence as an Expert 196
    Pauline Wallin

13. Ethics and Social Networking Sites 214
    Laura A. Taylor
14. The Google Factor: Ethical Considerations for Therapists Practicing in the Digital Age 230
   Ofer Zur

15. Technological Tools for Therapists: A List of Helpful Software and Web Sites 239
   William E. Benet and Chris E. Stout

SECTION III THE DREAM NICHE PRACTICE: SUCCESSFUL STORIES OF SPECIALIZATION

   William R. Lynch

17. Developing a Practice Outside of Managed Care 266
   Steven Walfish

18. Using Feedback-Informed Treatment (FIT) to Build a Premium-Service, Private-Pay Practice 279
   Jason A. Seidel

19. The One-Stop Shop: Collaboration Beyond Psychology 292
   Brian K. Sullivan

20. Psychologists in Dispute Resolution: Being Part of a Revolution! 304
    Amy L. Robinson

21. Why Wait?: Building a Stellar Practice in Weight Management 317
    Brad Saks

22. Becoming an Educational Consultant 335
    Heather M. Hale
23. Building a Successful Education Business 348
   Jack Krasowski

24. Blending Treatment Innovation and Economic Success for Working With Troubled Emerging Adults: The Yellowbrick Model 364
   Jesse Viner, Laura Viner, and Chris E. Stout

25. Transitioning to Executive Coaching 376
   Jeffrey E. Auerbach

26. A Psychologist’s Career in Sports Administration 394
   John E. Mayer

27. Working in Sport Psychology 412
   Kate F. Hays

SECTION IV FINAL THOUGHTS

28. “You’re Fired! Hooray!” Or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Fall Back in Love With Working in Psychology 429
   Michael Aisenberg

29. Why All the Enlightenment, Empowerment, and Edification Embedded in This Book May Mean Nothing to You 441
   Linda Sapadin

Index 445