Contents

Series Editors’ Preface ix
Acknowledgments to Sources xii

Introduction 1

Prelude: Mark Twain and the Gilded Age 11
Mark Twain and Charles Dudley Warner, from The Gilded Age, 1873

Part I New Frontiers 17

1 The New South 19
1 Henry W. Grady, “The New South,” 1886 19
2 Henry McNeal Turner on African American Civil Rights, 1889 22
3 William D. Kelley, from The Old South and New, 1888 26
4 Lewis Hine, Photographs of Southern Textile Workers, 1908–09 31

2 The New West 34
1 T.S. Kenderdine, from California Revisited, 1858–1897, 1898 34
2 Theodore Roosevelt, from Ranch Life and the Hunting-Trail, 1888 39
3 María Amparo Ruiz de Burton, from The Squatter and the Don, (1885) 42
4 Workingmen’s Party, An Address from the Workingmen of San Francisco to Their Brothers throughout the Pacific Coast, 1878 48

3 Native Americans 51
1 Zitkala-Sa, Native Americans and White Attempts to Assimilate, from “The School Days of an Indian Girl,” 1900 51
2 Chief Joseph, Selected Statements and Speeches by the Nez Percé Chief, 1877–79 54
3 Lakota Accounts of the Massacre at Wounded Knee, 1896 57
4 Photographs and Images from Buffalo Bill’s Wild West Show, 1896–99 62

Part II Industrial Society 65

4 Big Business 67
1 Andrew Carnegie, “The Gospel of Wealth,” 1889 67
2 Herbert Spencer, “The Coming Slavery,” 1884 70
3 Henry Demarest Lloyd, “The Lords of Industry,” 1884 72
4 US Supreme Court, Slaughterhouse Cases, 1873 77
5 Frederick Winslow Taylor, from The Principles of Scientific Management, 1911 83
6 Russell Conwell, from Acres of Diamonds, 1915 89

5 Gilded Age Society 98
1 Thorstein Veblen, from The Theory of the Leisure Class, 1899 98
2 Charlotte Perkins Gilman, from “The Yellow Wall-Paper,” 1892 104
3 Henry George, from Progress and Poverty, 1879 109
4 Photographs of Gilded Age Mansions 112
5 Hubert Howe Bancroft, The Woman’s Building, from The Book of the Fair, 1893 114

6 Working People 120
1 Stephen Crane, “In the Depths of a Coal Mine,” 1894 120
2 Walter A. Wyckoff, from The Workers: An Experiment in Social Reality, 1899 125
3 Image from The National Police Gazette, 1879 129
4 Edward Eggleston, Hardshell Preacher, from The Hoosier Schoolmaster, 1871 130
5 Leon Ray Livingston, Tramping in America, 1910 135
6 Upton Sinclair, from The Jungle, 1906 141

7 Immigrants in the Industrial Age 147
1 Abraham Cahan, “The Russian Jew in America,” 1898 147
2 Treaty Regulating Immigration from China, 1880 153
3 Samuel Bryan, “Mexican Americans and Southwestern Growth,” 1912 157
4 Jacob Riis, Photographs from How the Other Half Lives, 1890 163
5 Theodore Roosevelt, Hyphenated Americanism, 1915 165
6 The Emergence of Reform Judaism, 1883 and 1885 169

Part III Social Conflict 175
8 Populism 177
1 Annie L. Diggs, “The Women in the Alliance Movement,” 1892 177
2 The Omaha Platform: Launching the Populist Party, 1892 183
3 Thomas E. Watson, “The Negro Question in the South,” 1892 188
4 William Jennings Bryan, “Cross of Gold” Speech, 1896 194

9 The Coming of Jim Crow 201
1 Ida B. Wells, “Lynch Law in America,” 1900 201
2 U.S. Supreme Court, Plessy v. Ferguson, 1896 204
3 Booker T. Washington, The Atlanta Compromise, 1895 209
5 Images from the North Carolina White Supremacy Campaign, 1898 216
6 Mary Church Terrell, “What It Means to be Colored in the Capital of the United States,” 1906 218

10 Labor Protest 223
1 Roger O’Mara, Testimony on Railroad Labor Strikes, 1878 223
2 United States Strike Commission, Report on the Chicago Pullman Strike, 1894 227
3  Constance D. Leupp, “The Shirtwaist Makers’ Strike,” 1909  231
4  Photographs of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire, 1911  236

Part IV  Reform  241
11  Rebuilding American Institutions  243
1  John Dewey, from The School and Society, 1899  243
2  Walter Rauschenbusch, from Christianity and the Social Crisis, 1907  247
3  Charles Davenport, from Heredity in Relation to Eugenics, 1915  250
4  Margaret Sanger, “Morality and Birth Control,” 1918  253
5  Frances E. Willard, from Women and Temperance, 1883  256
6  Chicago Vice Commission, The Social Evil in Chicago, 1911  260

12  The Political System  266
1  Robert M. La Follette, “Peril in the Machine,” 1897  266
2  Isaac F. Marcosson, The Dayton Plan, 1914  274
3  Helen Valeska Bary, The Suffrage Movement in Southern California, 1910–11  278
4  Seventeenth Amendment to the US Constitution (direct election of senators), 1913  283
5  Marie Jenney Howe on Women’s Public Role, 1910  284

Part V  Imperialism and War  291
13  Imperialism and Anti-imperialism  293
1  Mayo W. Hazeltine, “What Shall Be Done about the Philippines?” 1897  293
2  Platt Amendment, 1901  299
3  Jane Addams, “Democracy or Militarism,” 1899  301
4  Photograph from the Tour of the Great White Fleet, 1907–09  304

14  The Debate about World War I  306
1  W.E.B. Du Bois on the Postwar Peace, 1918  306
2  Eugene V. Debs, The Canton, Ohio, Anti-War Speech, 1918  307
3  Espionage Act, 1917  311
4  Woodrow Wilson, The Fourteen Points Address, 1918  315

Further Reading  321
Index  325