Index

adolescent communication impairment, 117, 152 advocacy, 47, 64, 79, 92, 93–4, 106, 120, 152, 166
ageing populations
  demand on health services, 138, 177–8 dementia rates, 125–6
domiciliary services, 126–33 alternative communication, see augmentative or alternative communication American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), 10, 31, 41, 76, 93
code of ethics, 26–7, 159, 160, 181
health promotion, 119
restricted scope of delegation, 159, 166, 167 aphasia, 24
alternative service delivery models, 81 broadening modes of therapy, 77 dealing with limited resources, 39–41, 156–7, 160–161, 167 demands on services, 77–9 discharge from treatment, 80–81 place within acute clinical settings, 52–3 rates of, 76
stroke, 77–84
ASHA, see American Speech-Language-Hearing Association aspiration, 44–5
determining risk of, 36, 42, 46, 47
aspirational language, 26
Association of Speech and Language Therapists in Independent Practice, 84 auditory-verbal approaches, 56, 57–8, 62 ethical concerns, 59, 61
augmentative or alternative communication (AAC), 55–6, 63–8
Australia, see also Speech Pathology Australia
cross-cultural expectations, 113–14
ethics education, 180
healthcare workforce, 178
private and public health systems, 94, 147–8, 168 Australian Aphasia Association, 79 autism spectrum disorder, 109–10 diagnosing, 99
autonomy, 49–50, 116–17, 174, 176–7 principle of, 16–17
beneficence, principle of, 17–18
conflicts within, 18
Beyond Access Intervention, 67
bioethics, 7, 18–19, 23–4 codes of ethics, 29, 181
jargon, 16
budgetary constraints, see resource allocation Canada
  national health care models, 168
Canadian Association of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists
code of ethics, 27, 28
CARE approach, 182
care ethics, see ethics of care carer burden, 74, 126, 129 caseload management, 83, 111–2, 120, 173
assistants, 167
prioritizing, 137, 147, 148–50 cleft lip and palate, 6, 9, 14 clinic-based services, 149–50 cochlear implants, 56–62, 68–70 cultural implications, 69–70 ethical debate about, 57–61, 68–70 post-implantation therapy, 56, 58 codes of ethics, 11, 13, 25–9, 150, 166, 180–182
cross cultural considerations, 145–6 enforcing, 27–8
limitations, 28
Western foundations for, 19 communication as basic human right, 9, 164 communication disability networks, 95 communication impairment genetic advances, 178 impact on communities, 151–2 medical profession’s perception towards, 8–9 prioritising cases in acute settings, 40–41, 45, 52–4, 153 community care volunteers, 126, 129, 167
ethical responsibilities, 131–2 role in long term services, 79 support roles, 169
confidentiality, 1–2, 7, 18, 111–2, 145–6 cross cultural differences, 140 electronic communication systems, 172, 180
limitations, 28
personal and professional boundaries, 134–6 sharing information, 2, 11, 140 Connect, 95
conscientious objection, 50–51 Consensus model, 31–2 consent to treatment, 16, 48 consultancy models, 99 counselling services, 58, 61, 80–81 genetic, 74
informational, 74, 75
progressive disorders, 137
cross-cultural interactions, 25, 119, 121
understanding, 103
Danish Deaf Association, 69
Deaf communities, 56–1, 68–70, 73–4, 172
screening programmes, 56
view on cochlear implantation, 56, 68–70 DECIDE model, 30, 31
decision-making protocols, 29–33 dementia, 8, 130
domiciliary settings, 126–8
rates of, 125–6
reality orientation, 142–3, 146
direct therapy, 169
Disability Adjusted Life Year (DALY), 165
disability rights
charters, 150–151
movement, 94
discharge from treatment, 80, 92–3
early, 82–3, 97, 154
reports, 83, 84–6
distributive justice, 18–9
dysarthria, 52, 126
dysfluency, 9, 14
dysphagia, 35, 160
acute clinical settings, 36–8, 53–4 alternate diagnostic modalities, 42 assessment, 36, 37, 39, 42–3, 54 managing, 39–46, 177
nursing roles, 37, 39, 41, 43 psychological health, 47–8
rates of, 35
dysphonia, see voice
empowerment, 24, 70, 83, 103 ethical grid, 32
ethical responsibilities, 113
emerging, 175–6
volunteers, 131
ethics, see codes of ethics
ethics education, 180–182
Ethics Education Package, 31, see also Speech Pathology Australia (SPA) ethics of care, 19–21, 29, 121, 122, 124 evidence-based practice, 137, 138, 160–161, 179 family-centred approaches, 114 feminist politics, 19–20
fidelity, 18, 93
Foundations Theory of Health, 15, 22–3 four principles approach, 15, 16–9, 26, 30, 122 four quadrants approach, 30–31, 181–2 functional therapy, 83–4 genetic counselling, 74 genetic screening, 7, 56, 162 advances in, 178

goal setting
horizon goals, 96
patients, 62, 65, 83–4, 88, 92
speech and language therapists, 65, 72–3, 80, 83

‘hard to reach’ populations, 103, 110–111, 118–19 health as human rights issues, 150–151, 164 health consumerism, 137, 146, 179–80
health promotion, 119–20, 148, 152–3 healthcare ethics, 5–6, 23
conflicts within, 176–7
gap between theory and practice, 7 optimal care and financial constraints, 41–3 over-regulation, 24
public and private approaches, 93–4 holistic care models, 73, 75 ideological symbols in workplaces, 173 impairment-based therapy, 53 implant ethics, 69

indirect therapy, 169
informed consent, 16, 162, see also consent to treatment informed decision, 74–5, 93, 140 insurance obligations in health settings, 155, 158, 168 intellectual impairment
augmentative or alternative communication (AAC), 55–6 dealing with sexual topics, 63–8 Makaton sign system, 63, 73–4 patient advocacy, see advocacy internet as research resource, 79, 120, 137, 155, 159–60, 179–80 language disorder screening, 17, 118–19

ethical concerns, 161–3, 167
mass screening, 149, 153
laryngeal endoscopy, 139

law, 12–13
Lee Silvermann Voice Treatment, 126, 138, 139, 144 legal surrogates in medical emergencies, 90, 130 long term disabilities, working with, 56, 68, 71, 75 lower socioeconomic populations, language disabilities, 99 macroallocation decisions, 163, 164

Makaton sign system, 64, 73–4
Malaysia
patient confidentiality, 140 speech and language therapy services, 138–9 views toward hearing impairment, 60 medical ethics, see bioethics microallocation decisions, 163, 164 minority cultures, 69, 118 MND, see Motor Neurone Disease moral approaches, 16, 20, 32–3 agents, 29, 131
concepts in, 11, 14, 19
cross-cultural interactions, 24–5 healthcare allocations, 160–161 moral intensity model, 8
Motor Neurone Disease, 3–4, 49, 183
dysphagia, 4, 35
electronic aids, 4
multidisciplinary teams, 56, 64, 99 defining roles within, 72–3, 172 goal setting and risk management, 65–6 student placements, 178–9
traumatic brain injury, 77

narrative ethics, 182
national health budget distribution, 163
New Zealand
cross-cultural expectations, 113–4
New Zealand Speech-Language Therapists’ Association, code of ethics, 27
nonmaleficence, principle of, 17
non-oral feeding, 36, 173 ethical dilemmas, 43–8, 54

objectivism, 24–5
occupational therapy assistants, 166 onward referrals, 37, 51, 84, 149–50 oral feeding, 36, 44–6
partial, 50

paediatric speech and language disorders acting in patients’ best interest, 122–4 adapting services to fit, 119
advocacy, 106, 120, 152
challenging patients’ cultural norms, 106–7
rates of, 98, 99
screening programmes, 149, 152–3, 161–3 service delivery models, 116
withdrawing therapy, 116–17
Parkinson’s disease
rates of dysarthria, 126 rates of dysphagia, 35
service delivery in rural settings, 136–40, 144–5
social impact, 136–7
partnership approaches, 154 paternalism, 18, 49, 162 patient education, 62, 136–137, 140–141 patient psychological health, 47–8
Personal Futures Planning, 67
Picture Exchange Communication System, 110
power, 24, 105–6, 143–4, 174 primary carers, support for, 81 principlism see four principles approach private health systems, 81, 94, 147–8, 164–5, 168, 177
private practice, 81, 84, 94, 147–8
common complaints, 179
resource allocation, 155 problem-based learning, 115 professional interference, 113–14 psychiatry, 18, 21
public health systems, 147, 153, 158, 168 Quality Adjusted Life Years (QALYs), 18
ethical concerns, 165
quality of life, 165, 175–8 RCSLT, see UK Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists reflective logs, 99–102, 107–8 negative language within, 175 social judgements in, 104, 105 relativism, 24–5
residential care workers, 63, 64, 67 defining roles for, 72
resource allocation, 18
cost-effectiveness approaches, 164–5
ethical decision making, 124 grassroots approaches, 165 guiding principles for, 153–4 managing budget cuts, 148–50 prioritising caseloads, 148–54 prioritising funding, 163–6 prioritising one group over another, 164–5, 177
prioritising options, 39, 52, 117 public versus private health, 163 services in acute settings, 36–3 right to refuse treatment, 48–50, 54 rural settings, see service delivery in rural settings
scintigraphy, 44–5
screening programmes, 17, 161–3
dysphagia, 37
ethical debates, 162–3, 167 hearing, 56, 98
language disorders, 17, 118–9, 149, 153, 161–3, 167
paediatric, 149, 152–3, 161–3 preschool, 149
sensory impairments, see Deaf communities; cochlear implants service delivery in rural settings, 81, 136–40, 179
alternate delivery methods, 138, 144–5
challenges within, 137
service provision
current models, 169
ethical responsibilities within, 156 inadequacies within, 152–3 interpersonal dynamics, 167–8 sign language, 62, 67
bilingual education, 70
ethical issues within, 73–4
SLT, see speech and language therapists SLTA, see speech and therapy language
assistants
South African Speech-Language-Hearing
Association, code of ethics, 27, 120
SPA, see Speech Pathology Australia speech and language therapy assistants, 155–6 ethical scope of practice, 159–61, 169 legal requirements, 158–9 role in aphasia therapies, 160–61, 166–7 role in service delivery, 169 supervision issues, 155–7, 159–60, 166–7
speech and language therapists automatic discharge policies, 107 caseload responsibilities, 120 challenging personal values, 13, 70–71, 89, 105
common complaints, 158, 168, 179 conflicts of interest, 81, 83 continuing professional development, 137–8, 179
cross-cultural expectations, 113–14
cross-cultural interactions, 119 dealing with right to refuse treatment, 50 defining team roles, 166–7 deleeting tasks, 39, 43, 147, 163, 166–7 developing joint narratives, 24 eyearly discharge of treatment, 78–9, 80, 82–3 evaluating language used in interactions, 123–4 gender issues, 115
health promotion roles, 119
mentorship, 40, 138, 141 opting out, 50–52, 173, see also conscientious objection personal and professional boundaries, 108–12, 113, 114, 121, 173–4 professional integrity, 156–8, 167 professional protectionism, 168–9 risk management, 130, 175–7 supervising assistants, 155–7, 159–60, 166–7 supporting families, 61–2 trust with patients, 139–40
withdrawing therapy, 116–17 working with people with long term disabilities, 56, 68, 71, 75 working with volunteers, 131–3 speech and language therapy student placements, 126–33 power imbalances, 143–4 Speech Pathology Australia, 26, 28
code of ethics, 25–6
Ethics Education Package, 31
National Conference workshop (2007), 175–8 staged disclosure, 141
stakeholder involvement, 123, 154, 174
stroke, 46
aphasia therapy, 77–84
group, 9, 11, 84
patient advocacy, 79
rates of aphasia, 76
stuttering, see dysfluency swallowing, see dysphagia teamwork, 40, 47–8
communication breakdown, 64–6
conflicts within, 72
including patients’ families, 145–6 telehealth approaches, 138, 179–80 termination of therapy, see discharge from treatment traumatic brain injury, 76–7 collaborative conversational strategies, 88 determining capacity, 90, 96 early stage post-injury, 87–91, 95 ethical issues in rehabilitation, 95–7 rehabilitation strategies, 87–9 social isolation, 77
truth dumping, 141
truth, telling the, 141, 142–3
UK Alzheimer’s Society, 125
UK Health Professions Council, 93, 120
UK National Autistic Society, 99
UK Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists, 14, 125–6
code of ethics, 26
United Kingdom
dementia rates, 125–6
health promotion, 119
legal requirements for assistants, 158–9
national health care models, 168 National Health Service, 153, 158
occupational therapy assistants, 166
United States
aphasia rates, 76
legal requirements for assistants, 159
Parkinson’s disease rates, 126 private practice rates, 147–8, 177 validation approaches, 142, 146 videofluoroscopy, 37, 38, 39, 41, 139 virtue ethics, 21–2
voice, 14
dysphonia, 12

volunteers, see community care
volunteers
Whatever It Takes model, 77, 174
whistleblowing, 143–4 withdrawing services, 102–3, 116–7 word choices, impact on patients, 4–5, 175 workforce shortages, 178 World Health Organization, 151, 162 written records, use of, 31