Contents

Acknowledgments xi
Lincoln Center Institute xv
The Authors xix

Part One • The Premise 1

Introduction 2
What, Why, and How 18

Part Two • The Practices 41

Practice 1 • Make Mist 42
Ready, get still, go

Practice 2 • Leave the Campfire 46
Know your enemy: it is you, scared

Practice 3 • Flip What’s Foolish 52
Make it wise to be foolish, and every fool will generate wisdom

Contents (continued)

Practice 4 • Make Way for Awe  58
Nurture humility and the wonder that comes with it

Practice 5 • Reinvent the Wheel  64
Be willing to give back the givens

Practice 6 • Think Inside the Box  68
Make greedy, grateful use of limits

Practice 7 • Hoard Bits  74
Collect obsessively; sift; trust that the right bits will emerge

Practice 8 • Mix Your Metaphors  80
Change the metaphors that frame your reality

Practice 9 • Renew Your Narrative  84
Ask whether your story still serves you

Practice 10 • Untie Your Tongue  90
Talk about your work with someone who doesn’t understand it

Practice 11 • Swap Bodies  94
Lose yourself in a role

Practice 12 • Make a Gap  100
Obscure part of the picture
Contents (continued)

Practice 12.5 • Finish the Story 106
Make the ending open-ended

Practice 13 • Chunk It 108
Show how small it all starts

Practice 14 • Don’t Blink 114
Snap in slow motion; see how you get primed for decision

Practice 15 • Cloud Appreciation 118
Search out ambiguity and sit with it

Practice 16 • Spotlight Off, Lantern On 124
Trade sharp focus for full-field awareness

Practice 17 • Play Telephone 128
Engage in meaning-laundering

Practice 18 • Help Out a Boobonian 132
Make every task a quest

Practice 19 • Teach Nonzero Math 138
Expand the pie before dividing it

Practice 20 • Microexperiment 142
Test your hunches playfully

Practice 21 • Rewrite History 146
Turn “what would’ve been” into “what could be”
Contents (continued)

Practice 22 • Design for the Hallway  152
Let informal spaces thrive

Practice 23 • Routinize Randomness  158
Regularly rinse out expectations

Practice 24 • Ride the z-axis  164
Find elemental forms, then play with scale

Practice 25 • Challenge Your Challenges  170
Find better problems

Practice 26 • Break the Hand  176
Unschool yourself periodically

Practice 27 • Yes and...  180
Never say no to an idea

Practice 28 • Fail Well  186
Treat failure like a skill

Practice X • Make Up Your Own  192

Part Three • The Purposes  197

Conclusion  199
For Further Exploration  213
Index  237