INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table; followed by e indicate an exhibit.

A
Accountability of social entrepreneurs, 257
Ackerman–Berman, S., 144
Action: Berkeley Oakland Support Services (BOSS) example of moving toward, 67–68, 70; developing the operating model for putting theory into, 71fig, 73fig–76; establishing value proposition for, 70–71fig; feasibility and planning for, 76–80; gathering supporting analysis for resource strategy, 71fig, 80–87fig; moving to impact from, 89–114; theory of change applied to taking, 71–72
Active information search, 59
Activities: description of, 73fig, 75; “If..then” statements about, 74, 93
Acument Fund’s Best Available Charitable Ratio, 110
Acutt, N., 145
Affiliated structures technique, 114
Ahuja, G., 155
Albury, D., 155
Alertness for opportunities, 9
Alter, K., 222, 223
Alvarez, S., 50–51
Alvy, G., 6t
American Express, 21, 241
American Lung Association of Los Angeles County, 148
American Red Cross (ARC), 22, 148, 241–242
Amgen, 21
Amtrak, 119
Analyzer strategy, 169
Anderson, A. A., 71, 135
Anderson, B. B., 3, 7, 52t, 53, 56, 112
Andersson, F. O., 32
Angel Food Ministries, 257
Annie E. Casey Foundation, 217
Anthony, S. B., 8
Ardichvili, A., 55, 56
“Armchair activism,” 247
Artist social entrepreneur, 10
AT&T’s Bell Labs, 36
Athens Nurses Clinic Facebook page, 240
Attention philanthropy: attention deficit problem of, 245–250; the “dark side” of, 258; description of, 245; gatekeepers in, 249; role of strategic communications in, 247–248; using social media to cope with attention deficit, 249–250
Attention structures: description of, 166; project champions, 167; slack resources, 167; strategy types, 167; structural positions, 167; two-phase model of social intrapreneurial process on, 167

Austin, J. E., 4t, 7, 8, 52t, 93, 134, 209

Autonomous strategic initiatives, 164

Avaaz, 258

B

“B Corps” (benefit corporation), 230

B Lab, 230

Back on My Feet, 61

Bailey, B., 233

Baker, D., 144

Balanced judgment, 9

Balanced Scorecard, 98–100

Barney, J., 51

Baron, R. A., 58, 60

Baseball player personality profiles, 10–11

Battilana, J., 57

Bayh-Dole Act (1980), 15

Beamish, P. W., 147t, 156

Ben & Jerry’s, 136

Benefit corporations (“B Corps”), 229–230

Benefit-Cost Ratio (Robin Hood Foundation), 110

Berkeley Oakland Support Services (BOSS): assessing venture’s feasibility, 76; “missing the boat” risk for, 82; program logic model to develop operating model for, 74; “sinking the boat” risk for, 81–82; social value proposition of, 70; transforming opportunity into action, 67–68

Bethlehem Steel, 203–204

Bhave, V., 8

Bielefeld, W., 7

The Big Issue (British street newspaper), 57

Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, 21

Birt, B., 14

Bjarnason, S., 176

Blended index of return, 109

Blended value, 109

Blogs, 236, 237

Blood Diamond (film), 59

Bloom, P. N., 110, 206

Boost4Kids, 217, 218

Borins, S., 155–156, 175, 176

Bornstein, D., 12

Botton-up innovation, 176

Boundaries. See Organizational boundaries

Branching scaling technique, 114

Breast Cancer Awareness Month, 246

BREATHE California of Los Angeles County (“BREATHE LA”), 148

Briggs, X., 216, 217

Brinckerhoff, P. C., 4t

Brooks, A. C., 87, 147t

Brown, M., 58

Bryson, J. M., 216

Burgelman, R., 164, 165–166, 168

Bush, G. W., 13

The Business of Government Hour (weekly program), 190

Business plans: googling examples of, 78; turning opportunity into action using, 77–80; Wolk and Kreitz’ outline of a, 78–79

Business sector. See For-profit entrepreneurship

“Buzz,” 358

C

Cambridge, R., 173

Cameron, K., 96

Capabilities-resources model, 87

Capacity building, 79
Capital Area Labor Management Council, 203
Cardozo, R., 55
Carnegie, K., 5, 28
Carter, N. M., 51
Carter, S., 86
Casa Elizabet (Sonora, Mexico), 143–144
Cause-related marketing, 136
CBRE, 144
CellMark, 29–30, 176–177
Center for Administrative Innovation (U.S. State Department), 18
Center for Court Innovation, 18
Center for High Impact Philanthropy’s Cost per Impact, 110
Center on Philanthropy (Indiana University), 137
Championing strategic alternatives, 178
Changing Louisiana Initiative, 198
Charity Navigator, 244, 249, 250
Chiron Corporation, 21
Chirpify, 241
Chittagong University, 22
City of Seattle recycling program, 176, 183–185, 192
City Year, 58
Clarkin, J. E., 52
“Clicktivism,” 258
Clinton administration, 188
Clinton, B., 196
Coca-Cola Company, 36
Cognitive embeddedness, 156–157
Collaboration continuum, 209t–210
Collaborative relationships: benefit corporation form of, 229–230; continuum of, 209t–210; innovation and, 210–211; L3C (low-profit limited liability company) incorporation of, 228–229; reasons for, 207–208; types of, 209–219; working across sectors, 219–228
Collective impact (CI), 217–219
“Competency trap,” 172
Commercial entrepreneurship. See For-profit entrepreneurship
Common Meals, 117
Communication: during definition process of discovering intrapreneurial opportunities, 168; social intrapreneurship antecedent of external, 150fig, 152; social media functions related to, 239. See also Information sharing
Communities of practice, 216–217
Community capacity-building networks, 215
Community Services Block Grants, 172–173
Compassion International, 242
Competing values framework (or New Change model), 95–97
Competitive advantage/strategic enhancement, 208
Complexity of environment, 150fig, 153
Consumer Credit Counseling Service, 31
Conserver social entrepreneur, 10
Cools, E., 29
Cooper, S., 22
Cooperative model, 227
Corporation for National Community Service (CNCS), 131
Cost-benefit analysis, 108–110
Cost-effectiveness calculation, 108
Covin, J. G., 80, 154
Cross-sector network success factors, 216
“Crowdfunding” sites, 244
Crowdrise, 244
Cultural embeddedness, 157
Cure, 54
Customers: Balanced Scorecard on, 98, 99fig; early adopter, 84; early majority, 84; innovator, 83; late majority, 84
Cyworld, 236

D
Dacin, M. T., 57
Dashboards, 100–101, 102fig
Deardurff, D. D., 52t
Dearnley, C., 19
Decision making/control, 150fig, 151
Dees, J. G., 3, 4t, 7, 52t, 53, 56, 86, 112, 135, 206
Defender strategy, 169
Definition process: discovery of social intrapreneurial opportunities during, 167fig–170; project champions during the, 167fig, 170, 176–177; slack resources used during, 167fig, 170; strategy types used during the, 167fig, 169; structural positions during, 167fig, 170; vicious circles during the, 168–169
Degree of entrepreneurship:
Entrepreneurial Grid on, 35fig–36; 3-D Matrix on, 40–41fig
Demographics: changes in the U.S., 13–14; definition of, 13; as social entrepreneurship factor, 14
Denhardt, J., 191
Denhardt, R., 191
Development Marketplace (World Bank), 193
Diamond Empowerment Fund (DEF), 58–59
Dickson, P. R., 81
Domain influence, 208
Donor-investors, 130
Dot-com bubble burst (2000s), 13
Dow, 144
Drayton, W. (“Bill”), 3, 8
Drucker, P., 51

E
Early adopters customers, 84
Early childhood education policy field in Minnesota (2008), 85fig, 212, 213fig, 214
Early majority customers, 84
Earned income: four possibilities for, 133, 134fig; as nonprofit funding source, 133–135; strategies for nonprofit, 135–137
Economic downturn. See Great Recession (2008)
Economist magazine, 162
Edwards, M., 258
Eggers, W., 192
Ellis, M., 144–145
Embedded social enterprise models:
cooperative model, 227; employment model, 227; entrepreneur support model, 226; external support model, 226; fee-for-service model, 227; low-income client as market model, 227; market intermediary model, 226; market linkage model, 227–228
Emerson, J., 135
Emory University, 61
Employment model, 227
Enron, 257
Ensley, M. D., 60
Enterprise Challenge program (Singapore), 18
Enterprise index of return, 109
Entrepreneur support model, 226
Entrepreneurial Grid, 35fig–36
Entrepreneurial opportunity recognition theory, 55–56
Entrepreneurial orientation (EO):
debate over unidimensional or multidimensional construct of, 28; description of, 27; innovativeness feature of, 27, 29–32, 39, 40fig;
Entrepreneurial intensity (EI): degree of entrepreneurship component of, 35fig–36; description of, 27; Entrepreneurial Grid of, 35fig–36; five scenarios on, 35fig, 36–37; frequency of entrepreneurship component of, 35fig–36; limitations of, 37–38

Environmental validity, 208

Entrepreneurial intensity (EI): degree of entrepreneurship component of, 35fig–36; description of, 27; Entrepreneurial Grid of, 35fig–36; five scenarios on, 35fig, 36–37; frequency of entrepreneurship component of, 35fig–36; limitations of, 37–38

Equity promotion, 17

Established organizations: Burgelman's framework of strategy-making process in, 164–166; nature of innovation in, 164; social entrepreneurship as possible for, 255–256

Ethiopian famine victims (mid-1980s), 250

European SROI Network, 109

Evaluation research designs: energy use before and after program implementation, 106–107fig; experimental, 105; issues to consider for, 104–105; nonexperimental, 106; quasi-experimental, 106. See also Venture evaluation frameworks

Executive summary, 78

Experimental design for evaluation, 105

Exploitative opportunities, 164

Exploratory innovation, 164

Exploratory opportunities, 164

External antecedents: munificence, complexity, and political environments as, 150fig, 153–154; social intrapreneurship, 153–154

External communication: description of, 152; as social intrapreneurship internal antecedent, 150fig, 152

External environment risk, 81

External support model, 226

F

Facebook: attention philanthropy using, 246–247, 248; Compassion International Facebook page, 242; information sharing through, 239–240; interactivity feature of, 236; origins and growth of, 235; public attention indicated by “likes” on, 234, 250; social presence and media richness of, 237fig; Susan G. Komen for the Cure Foundation on, 246, 247. See also Social media

Facebook Causes, 244

Facilitating adaptability role, 178

FareStart, 117–119, 134

Fathy, H., 22

Fee-for-service model, 227

Fifteen, 19–20

Finance Project, 217

Financial issues: Balanced Scorecard on, 98, 99fig; risk assessment of, 80. See also Funding

Fire Brigades Union (U.K.), 18

Firefox browser, 148

Firm-level entrepreneurship, 27

Five Pillars principles (KIPP schools), 113

501(c)3 nonprofit organizations: PaperSeed Foundation as, 25; Real Change as, 20

Florida Department of Children and Families, 194

Floyd, S. W., 168
For-profit entrepreneurship: collaboration across boundaries of public, nonprofit, and, 220; comparing EO and EI in nonprofit, public, and, 37–38; comparing opportunities for social entrepreneurial versus, 54–55; comparing social and, 7; description and examples of, 19–21; funding, 121–122; proactiveness, innovativeness, and risk taking of, 29; producing hybrid organizations, 61–62; relationship between EO and organizational performance in, 33–34; understanding social entrepreneurship as part of, 256

For-profit social ventures: earned income of, 133–137; funding, 121–122; proactiveness, innovativeness, and risk taking of, 29

Ford Foundation, 137
Ford Foundation-Kennedy School of Government’s (Ford-KSG) State and Local Government innovation awards, 120
Foundation Center’s Tools and Resources for Assessing Social Impact website, 110
4P’s (product, price, place, and promotion), 82–84
Freelancers Union, 57, 61
Frequency of entrepreneurship:
Entrepreneurial Grid on, 35fig–36; 3-D Matrix on, 40–41fig
Frese, M., 33
Friends of TOMS, 54
Friesen, P. H., 32
Froelich, K., 125
Frontline managers: M-Pesa service innovation and role of, 161, 162, 174; social intrapreneurial process and role of, 176–177
Frumkin, P., 5t, 38, 145

Funding: FareStart’s story on getting, 117–119; for-profit social ventures, 121–122; fundraising through social media, 240–241; government business and other revenue (2012), 120fig; nonprofit social entrepreneurship, 122–139; “pay for performance” bonds for financing public sector entrepreneurship, 199–200; public entrepreneurship, 119–121; social impact bonds (SIBs), 139, 200.

See also Financial issues

G
Gaebler, T., 188
Gainer, B., 247
Gale, D., 183, 184
Gallagher, A., 52t
Gap, 21
Gartner, W. B., 10, 51
Gatekeepers, 249
Gates Foundation, 21
Giglierano, J. J., 81
Gittlen, I., 203
Giving USA, 128–129
Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) study, 16
Global Voices, 249
Globalization factor, 15–16
GoFundMe, 244
GOOD, 249
Goodwill Industries: earned income revenue of, 134; examining concept of EO in, 31–32; social mission or social value and impact of EO within, 38
Google Docs, 242
Google Foundation, 148
Google, Inc., 148
Google search, 78
Gore, A., 188, 196
Government: developing and leveraging social entrepreneurship resources,

H

Harvard Law School, 58 Harvard University, 235 “Have a Real Impact; Keep Your Day Job” (McGraw), 144–145 Helm, S. T., 32 Heskowitz, A., 20 Hills, G. E., 51, 62 Hisrich, R., 150 Hitachi Foundation, 217 Homeless Economic Development Fund (HEDF) [Roberts Foundation], 68 Horowitz, S., 61 Housing and Urban Development (HUD), 132 Hughes, N., 161, 162, 174 Hurricane Gustav relief, 148 Hurricane Ike relief, 148 Hurricane Katrina American Red Cross call center, 22 Hurst, A., 162 Hybrid organizations: Alter’s Hybrid Spectrum on, 222, 223fig; characteristics of different types of, 222, 223t; description of, 61–62, 220; emergence as new fourth sector, 220, 221fig, 222; examples of, 222

I

IBM, 36 IBM Center for the Business of Government, 190 Idea generation: illustrated diagram of, 56fig; pattern recognition contribution to, 58–60; prior experience contribution to, 60–62; public sector social entrepreneurship, 193fig–194; social assets contribution to, 57–58; social needs contribution to, 57; social networks contribution to, 60, 62
Impact evaluation: description of, 104; monetizing outcome, 107–110; research designs used for, 104–107; social return on investment (SROI), 109

Impact investors, 138–139

Impetus process: predictable policy windows during the, 167–172; two-phase model of the social intrapreneurial process on, 166–167; unpredictable policy windows during the, 167–172

Implementing deliberative strategy, 178

In Search of Excellence (Peters and Waterman), 154–155

Income portfolios, 127–128

Income-seekers social entrepreneur, 10

Independent social entrepreneur, 10

Indiana University (Center on Philanthropy), 137

Induced strategic initiatives, 164

Information diffusion networks, 214

Information overload, 245, 248

Information sharing: information diffusion networks for, 214; information overload issue of, 245, 248; opportunity through active, 59; social media and, 239–240. See also Communication

Innovativeness: definition of, 28; entrepreneurial orientation (EO) feature of, 28–29; examples of nonprofits with, 29–32; hybrid (social mission and financial viability), 39, 40; level of nonprofit vs. commercial organizations, 29; mission-related, 39, 40; revenue-related, 39, 40

Innovators customers, 83

Inputs: description of, 73–74; “If...then” statements about, 74

Institute for Educational Leadership, 217

Integrated social enterprise models: market linkage model, 227–228; service subsidization model, 228

Integrative collaborations, 209, 210

Internal antecedents: description of, 150; organizational performance and, 154; of social entrepreneurship, 150–152

Internal rate of return (IRR), 109

Internal Revenue Code: 501(c)3 nonprofit status under, 20, 25; 170(c)(2)(B) on charitable or educational purpose, 229

Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 229

International Ladies Garment Workers Union (New York), 61

Internet: global participation on the, 234–235; how social entrepreneurship tools and techniques for generating and sourcing public sector, 193–194. See also Social intrapreneurship

Innovation initiators: comparing U.S. and Commonwealth countries public sector, 175; project champions, 167–170, 176–177; in public and nonprofit organizations, 174–176; typology of four middle management roles as, 178

Innovative opportunity: seven sources for, 51–52; social entrepreneurship, 47–66

Innovation: barriers to public sector, 155–156; cognitive, network, and cultural embeddedness barriers to, 156–157; collaborative relationships and, 210–211; established organizations and nature of, 164; exploratory, 164; initiators in public and nonprofit organizations, 174–176; public sector, 192–194; social entrepreneurship impact on, 17; strategies for overcoming challenges to, 157–158; three ideal types of public sector, 176; is impacted by, 15; social entrepreneurs making a social impact using the, 257–258; “Web 2.0” tools changing the premise of, 235, 236, 237, 241. See also Social media

Interorganizational networks, 211–212
Interorganizational relationships: collaboration of, 207–219; collective impact (CI) for collaborative organizing of, 217–219; communities of practice, 216–217, 218fig; networks, 211–216

InterSector Partners, 228

Intrapreneurial opportunities: definition process of discovering, 167fig–170; impetus process of identifying, 167fig, 170–174; two-phase model of social intrapreneurial on, 166–170

Invisible Children, 233–234, 250

_Invisible Children: Rough Cut_ (documentary), 233

J

James, R., 174
Jay, A., 258
Joint ventures, 136
Jones, F., 187
Joyce, M., 32

_Just Another Emperor? The Myths and Realities of Philanthropcapitalism_ (Edwards), 258–259

K

KaBOOM!, 113, 136
Kalafatas, J., 111
Kalafatas’ scaling techniques, 111fig–112
Kania, J., 217
Kaplan, A. M., 236, 237
Kaplan, R. S., 98
Kearney, C., 150
Kenis, P., 215

Kenya: M-Pesa financial service introduced in, 161–162; “unbanked” population of, 161
Khazei, A., 58
Kickstarter, 244
Kistruck, G. M., 147t, 156
Kitzi, J., 62
Kiva, 22
Knowledge Is Power Program (KIPP), 113
Komen, S. G., 54
Kony 2012: _Part II–Beyond Famous_ video, 234
_Kony 2012_ video, 233–234, 247, 250
Kony, J., 233
Kouzes, J. M., 179
Kramer, M., 217
Kreitz, K., 78
Kuratko, D. F., 80

L

Late majority customers, 84
Lead organization-governed networks, 215
Leadership style, 33
Lee, D., 117
Lees, A., 6t
Legitimacy, 208
Lehman Brothers, 21
Leonard, H., 93, 134
Licensing agreement, 136–137
Light, P., 5t, 53
Live Aid, 250
Logos: licensing agreement on use of, 136–137; sponsorships and, 137
London Business School, 109
Lonie, S., 161, 162, 174
Louisiana Service Commission, 198
Low-income client as market model, 227
Low-profit limited liability company (L3C), 228–229
Lumpkin, G. T., 33, 62
M

M-Pesa service, 162, 174
Mahlum, A., 61
Mair, J., 10, 57, 147
Management control systems, 179
Managers/management: definition process role of middle, 167–170; differences in circumstances of innovations initiated by different levels of, 176; evaluator role in decision to support initiative by middle, 178–179; impetus process role of middle, 170–174; as initiators of innovations in public and nonprofit sector, 174–176; M-Pesa service innovation and role of frontline and middle, 161, 162, 174; social intrapreneurial process and role of frontline, 176–177; social intrapreneurial process and role of middle-level, 177–179; social intrapreneurial process and role of top, 179–180; study of entrepreneurship and public sector, 187–188; typology of four strategy roles taken by middle, 178

March of Dimes, 21
Market: external environment risk assessment of, 81; marketing mix (or the 4P’s) analysis of, 82–84; new public management (NPM) focus on the, 189; potential as opportunity assessment criteria, 63fig–64fig
Market failure: comparing commercial versus social entrepreneurship, 7; innovation barrier due to fear of, 155
Market intermediary model, 226
Marketing (cause-related), 136
Marketing mix (or the 4P’s), 82–84
Marriott, 21
Marti, I., 147
Martin, R., 5t

McDonald's, 36
McGaw, N., 144–145
McLaren, M., 147
McLean, M., 6t
Microsoft, 19
Middle managers: definition process role of, 167–170; evaluator role in decision to support initiative by, 178–179; impetus process role of, 170–174; as initiators of innovations in public and nonprofit sector, 174–176; M-Pesa service innovation and role of, 161, 162, 174; social intrapreneurial process and role of, 177–179; study of entrepreneurship and public sector, 187–188; typology of four strategy roles taken by, 178
Miles, R., 169
Miller, D., 27, 32
Milward, B., 214
MindLab (Denmark), 18
Mintzberg, J., 174
“Missing the boat” risk, 82
Mission. See Social mission
Model Municipalities initiative (Norway), 18–19
Monetizing outcome and impact, 107–110
Monitor Group, 138
Monllor, J., 52t, 53
Morris, H. M., 34, 35, 36, 37, 39
Morris Lampert, C., 155
Morris, M. H., 32, 80, 187
Mort, G. S., 5t, 28, 29, 39
Motivation: comparing for-profit, public, and nonprofit, 37; rewards used for, 150fig, 151
“Mountain building” metaphor, 51
“Mountain climbing” metaphor, 51
MoveOn.org, 241
Moynihan, D., 197, 198
Mozilla Corporation, 148
Mozilla Foundation, 148
Mulgan, G., 155
Multi-attribute evaluation approaches:
Balanced Scorecard, 98–100; organizational dashboards, 100–101, 102
Munificence environment, 150
MySpace, 236

N
National Center for Charitable Statistics, 122, 129
National Civic League, 217
Net present value (NPV), 109
Network-administrative governance, 215
Network embeddedness, 157
New Baldwin Corridor Coalition, 203–204, 212
New business venturing, 147–148
New Change model (or competing values framework), 95–97
New Economics Foundation, 109
New Profit, 138

New public management (NPM): focus and outcomes of, 189–190; generating and sourcing innovative ideas using NPS and, 193; operational issues raised with, 190–191; origins and description of, 188; ten principles of, 189
New public service (NPS): generating and sourcing innovative ideas using NPM and, 193; as public sector entrepreneurship framework, 191–192
New York Times, 12
NextBillion, 249
Nightingale, F., 8
Niven, P. R., 99
Noboa, E., 10
Nonexperimental design for evaluation, 106
Nonprofit capitalization, 162–163
“Nonprofit Headlines” (daily e-mail), 173, 174
“Nonprofit Newswire” (daily on-line news feature), 173, 174
Nonprofit organizations: Balanced Scorecard for, 99; collaboration across boundaries of public, for-profit, and, 220; funding, 122–139; levels of proactiveness and innovativeness of, 29; risk aversion of, 29
Nonprofit Quarterly (NPQ), 173–174
Nonprofit revenue sources: by activity fields (2007), 123; characteristics of major nonprofit funding types, 126; government funding, 126; growth by activity fields (1997–2007), 125; income portfolios or commercial activity, 126; overview of, 122–124; philanthropy, 126; 128–130; venture philanthropy, 130–131
Nonprofit social entrepreneurship: comparing EO and EI in public, business, and, 37–38; description and examples of, 20–21; funding, 122–139; interface between public and, 21; levels of proactiveness and innovativeness in, 29; producing hybrid organizations, 61–62; relationship between EO and organizational performance in, 33–34

Nonprofit social entrepreneurship funding: earned income, 133–137; government funding, 126t, 132–133; income portfolios and commercial activity, 126t, 127–128; loans and equity finance, 137–139; philanthropy and, 126t, 128–130; revenue sources, 122–127; venture philanthropy, 130–131

Norton, D. P., 98

O

Obama administration, 172, 198, 200
Obama, B., 173, 196
Office of Management and Budget, 196
Office of Social Entrepreneurship, 198–199
Ogden, T., 238
Oliver, J., 19
“One Day without Shoes” campaign, 246
170(c)(2)(B) (Internal Revenue Code), 229
OneWorld Health, 20–21
Open systems model, 96–97
Operating model: creating social value in the value chain using, 75–76; description of the, 69fig, 73; program logic model used to develop, 73fig–75
Operational efficiency, 207–208
Opportunistic behavior, 9
Opportunities: comparing commercial and, 54–55; context of, 55; definitions of, 50–54; exploratory and exploitative, 164; how Muhammad Yunus created his own, 47–49; “mountain climbing” vs. “mountain building” metaphors of, 51; moving to action from, 67–88; opportunity recognition theory on, 55–56; process of discovering and assessing, 55–66; process-oriented model to explain, 49; seven types of, 53–54; social entrepreneurship driven by, 255; stakeholders of, 55; two-phase model on selecting intrapreneurial, 166–170. See also Social entrepreneurship

Opportunity assessment: description of, 62; Kitzi’s model on three criteria for, 62, 63t–65t; Shaker Zihara’s criteria for, 65–66

Opportunity assessment criteria: accessibility as, 65–66; market potential, 63t–64t; pervasiveness as, 65; radicalness as, 66; relevance as, 65; social value potential, 63t; sustainability potential, 64t–65t; urgency as, 65

Opportunity development process: developing the operating model, 69fig, 73fig–76; phase one: idea generation, 56fig, 57–62; phase two: opportunity assessment, 56fig, 62–66; resource strategy with supporting analysis, 69fig, 80–87fig; social impact theory, resource strategy, and operating model of, 69fig; social impact theory used to elaborate opportunity, 69fig–72; venture feasibility and planning, 69fig, 76–80

Organization or operational risk, 81
Organizational alignment, 8
Organizational boundaries: collaboration between organizations stretching, 207–211; collaboration and blurring of sectoral, 220; engagement in networks stretching, 211–219; logic model and evaluation of, 93 fig–94; social entrepreneurship and need for flexible, 8; working across, 205–207, 219–228
Organizational capacity building, 79
Organizational control systems, 33
Organizational culture: description of, 151–152; how top management influences, 180; risk aversion, 155; social intrapreneurship barrier due to embeddedness of, 157; as social intrapreneurship internal antecedent, 150 fig, 152
Organizational dashboards, 100–101, 102 fig
Organizational performance: Balanced Scorecard to evaluate, 98–100; comparing commercial versus social entrepreneurship measurement of, 7; organizational dashboards to evaluate, 100–101, 102 fig; relationship between entrepreneurial orientation (EO) and, 33–34; social intrapreneurship impact on, 150 fig, 154
Organizational structure: collective impact (CI) impact on centralized and decentralized, 219; formalization of, 150 fig, 151; implications for entrepreneurial orientation (EO), 33; scaling through affiliated structures, 114; scaling through branching, 114
Organizational turnarounds innovation, 176
Organizations: alignment with social value, 8; established, 164–166, 255–256; hybrid, 61–62, 220, 221 fig, 222, 223 t; social entrepreneurship conceptualized as behavior of, 27–44
Osberg, S., 5 t
Osborne, D., 188
Outcome evaluation: description and five areas of, 103–104; monetizing outcome, 107–110; research designs used for, 104–107 fig; social return on investment (SROI), 109
Outcomes: comparing for-profit, public, and nonprofit, 38; description of, 73 fig, 74; evaluation of impact and, 101–107 fig; “If...then” statements about, 74; logic model and evaluation of, 93 fig–94
Outputs: description of, 73 fig, 74; “If...then” statements about, 74
P
Panera Bread, 148
Panera Cares Café, 148
PaperSeed, 176
PaperSeed Foundation: founding and description of, 25–26; innovativeness of, 29–30; proactiveness of, 30
Participant governed networks, 215
Partners in Christ International (PICI), 143–144
Patagonia, 230
Paton, R., 100
Pattern recognition: factors that contribute to, 59–60; how prior experience contributes to, 59, 60–62; social entrepreneurship opportunities created by, 58–59
Pepper’s Dragons (Bjarnason), 176–177
Peredor, A. M., 6 t
Peters, T., 154–155
Pew Research Center’s Internet & American Life Project, 240
Pfizer, 21
Philanthropy: attention, 245–250, 258; funding through, 126 t, 128–130; venture, 130–131
Pick n’ Pay (South Africa), 144
Pinchot, E., 146
Pinchot, G., 146
Pizza Hut, 36
Polaroid, 36
Policy field analysis: description of, 84; early childhood education policy field in Minnesota (2008), 85, 212, 213; social entrepreneur tasks for, 86; Stone and Sandfort’s framework for, 84–86
Political environment, 150, 153–154
Politically directed innovation, 176
Pomerantz, M., 6t
Poole, L., 233
Posner, B. Z., 179
Power of collaboration, 208
Power seeker social entrepreneur, 10
Predictable policy windows, 167, 171–172
Prior experience: contribution to pattern recognition by, 60–62; social entrepreneurship opportunity through, 59
Proactiveness: definition of, 28; entrepreneurial orientation (EO) feature of, 28–29; examples of nonprofits with, 30–31; level of nonprofit vs. commercial organizations, 29; mission-related, 39, 40; revenue-related, 39, 40; stakeholder-based, 39, 40
Problem-solving networks, 315
Processes: comparing for-profit, public, and nonprofit, 37; logic model on internal results and, 93–94; managing social intrapreneurship, 161–180
Procter & Gamble (P&G), 36
Products: life-cycle of, 82–84; social intrapreneurship and innovation of, 148
Professional social entrepreneur, 10
Program logic model: developing the operating model using, 73–75; evaluation of internal processes and results, 93–94; illustrated diagram of the, 73
Program-related investments (PRIs), 137, 229
Project champions, 167, 170, 176–177
Prospector strategy, 169
Prosperity Center (Oregon), 31
Provan, K., 214, 215
Proximity Designs, 15–16
Public sector entrepreneurship: barriers to innovation in the, 155–156; city of Seattle’s Solid Waste Utility recycling as, 176, 183–185, 192; collaboration across boundaries of for-profit, nonprofit, and, 220; comparing EO and EI in nonprofit, business, and, 37–38; context of, 185–188; creating culture of performance improvement, 196–198; encouraging social entrepreneurship approach by, 194–196; funding, 119–121; incubators of social entrepreneurship, 198–199; initiators of innovation in, 174–176; innovation practices and approaches of, 192–194; interface between nonprofit and, 21; new public administration and reinventing government through, 188–191; new public service (NPS) on, 191–192; “pay for performance” bonds for state-level financing of, 199–200; relationship between EO and organizational performance in, 33–34; social entrepreneurship in the, 17–19; tools and techniques for generating and sourcing innovative ideas for, 193–194; understanding social entrepreneurship as being part of, 256.
See also Government
Pura Vida Coffee, 19
Pyramid model of social media-based strategy, 243 fig–244

Q
Quasi-experimental design for evaluation, 106
QuickBooks, 242
Quinn, J., 174

R
Rauch, A., 33
Ray, S., 55
Reactor strategy, 169
Reagan administration, 13
Real Change, 20
RealClimate, 249
Recruiting strategies, 179–180
Recycling program (Seattle), 176, 183–185, 192
Reinventing Government: How the Entrepreneurial Spirit Is Transforming the Public Sector (Osborne and Gaebler), 188
Reinventing government initiative, 188
Ren, C. R., 166–167
Resource analysis: capabilities-resources model on, 87 fig; description and function of, 86–87
Resource interdependence, 208
Resource strategy: capabilities-resources model to use for, 87 fig; market analysis supporting the, 82–84; as part of opportunity development process, 69 fig; policy field analysis supporting the, 84, 85 fig, 86; resource analysis supporting the, 86–87; risk assessment supporting the, 80–82
Resources: analysis of, 86–87 fig; commercial vs. social entrepreneurship mobilization of, 7; slack, 150 fig, 152, 167 fig, 170
Rewards: innovation barrier due to lack of, 155; social intrapreneurship and, 150 fig, 151
Risk assessment: associated with timing of ventures, 81–82; external environment, 81; financial, 80; organizational or operational, 81; venture or enterprise, 81
Risk aversion: of nonprofit organizations, 29; organizational culture of, 155
Risk endurance, 9
Risk taking: definition of, 27; entrepreneurial orientation (EO) feature of, 27, 29; examples of nonprofits with, 31–32; level of nonprofit vs. commercial organizations, 29; mission-related, 39, 40 fig; revenue-related, 39, 40 fig; stakeholder-based, 39, 40 fig
Roberts Enterprise Development Fund (REDF), 109
Roberts Foundation’s Homeless Economic Development Fund (HEDF), 68, 224
Roberts, P., 61
Robin Hood Foundation, 110, 138
Roche, F., 150
Root Cause, 198–199
RSF Social Finance (RSF), 137, 138–139
Russell, J., 233

S
Safaricom, 161, 162, 174
Sage, J., 19
Sahlman’s PCDO model, 8
Salamon, L. M., 125
Sandfort, J., 84, 85 fig, 213 fig
Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting (2012), 176
“Save Lids to Save Lives” campaign (Cure-Yoplat partnership), 54
Saxton, G. D., 248
SCALERS model, 110–111
Scaling social impact: Dees and Anderson guide for evaluating options for, 112; KaBOOM! approach to, 113; Kalafatas’ framework for, 111–112; SCALERS model for, 110–111; techniques used for, 113–114
Scheuerie, T., 247
Schmitz, B., 147
Schumpeter, J., 53
SciDev, 249
Searcher social entrepreneur, 10
Second Life, 237
Seelos, C., 57
Self-Help: examining the connections within, 206–207; mapping the ecosystem of, 205
Self-renewal: common elements of, 149; description and examples of, 148–149
Service implementation networks, 214
Service subsidization model, 228
Services: life cycle of, 82–84; social intrapreneurship and innovation of, 148
Sexton, D. L., 34, 35, 37
Shane, S., 60
Shaw, E., 86
Short-termism, 155
Simon, H. A., 253
Simple collaborations, 209, 210
Singapore Police Force, 18
Singh, R. P., 62
Singh, S., 192
“Sinking the boat” risk, 81–82
SITRA (Finland), 18
Skill Foundation, 21
Skype, 242
Slack resources, 150, 152, 167
“Slacktivism,” 247
Slevin, D. P., 154
Snow, C., 169
Snyder, W. M., 216, 217
Social and Economic Innovation Award (Economist magazine), 162
Social assets, 57–58
Social enterprise: characteristics of, 225; definition of, 224–225; embedded, 225, 226–228; integrated, 225–226, 227–228; models of, 226–228
Social Enterprise Alliance, 224
“Social enterprise” school of thought, 3, 6
Social entrepreneur potential: for employment development, 16; for equity promotion, 17; for innovation, 17; for solving social and environmental problems, 144–145; for support during an economic downturn, 16
Social entrepreneurial orientation (SEO): description of, 27, 44; how social needs define space for, 57; Social Entrepreneurial Orientation Instrument on, 41, 42–43; social mission focus of, 39–40, 254; 3-D Matrix of, 40–41
Social entrepreneurs: accountability, 257; common denominators among, 9–11; examples of, 8; increasing number of female, 14; making a social impact in a virtual world, 257–258; mission of, 92; types of, 10
Social entrepreneurship: in the business sector, 19–21; common behaviors associated with, 8–11; conceptualized as organizational behavior, 27–44; definitions of, 3–8; factors driving the birth and development of, 11–17; inside or outside an existing organization, 21–22; interface between public and private/nonprofit sectors, 21; lessons learned from failed, 257; moving from action to impact of, 89–114; moving to action from opportunity, 67–88; new entry nature of, 26; as opportunity driven, 255; as possible for established organizations and not just start-ups, 255–256; as possible in for-profit, public, and nonprofit sectors, 256; possible pitfalls of hybridization of, 257; in the public sector, 17–19; Shalman’s PCDO model implications of, 8; similarities and differences between commercial and, 7, 37–38, 54–55; social intrapreneurship subset of, 145–158; social mission as the compass of, 254; social value, alignment, and boundaries concerns of, 8. See also Opportunities

Social entrepreneurship drivers: demographics, 13–14; globalization, 15–16; opportunity as, 255; overview of, 11fig–13; potential to contribute, 16–17; technological factors, 14–15

Social impact: approaches to evaluate effectiveness and, 94–101; description of, 73fig, 74; evaluation for outcome and, 101, 103–107fig; framework for venture evaluation of, 91–94; “If...then” statements about, 74, 93; monetizing outcome and, 107–110; process of establishing and expanding, 91fig; scaling to increase, 110–114; social venture effectiveness as, 90–94

Social impact bonds (SIBs), 139, 200

Social impact model, 79

Social impact theory: description of, 69; elaborating opportunity using, 69fig–72

Social Innovation Fund (SIF), 131

“Social innovation” school of thought, 7

Social Innovators Institute, 199

Social intrapreneurship: clarifying the concept of, 145–146; cognitive, network, and cultural embeddedness barrier to, 156–157; definitions of, 145, 146–147t; dimensions of, 147–149; external antecedents of, 150fig, 153–154; internal antecedents of, 150fig–152; management challenges of, 154–158; managing the process of, 161–180; other labels of, 146; performance consequences of, 150fig, 154; strategies for overcoming challenges to, 157–158. See also Innovation

Social intrapreneurship dimensions: new business venturing, 147–148; product and service innovation, 148; self-renewal, 148–149

Social intrapreneurship process: Burgelman’s model of strategy-making process to understand, 164–166; examining the management of, 163–164; initiators of innovations in public and nonprofit organizations, 174–176; of M-Pesa financial services in Kenya, 161–162; Ren and Guo’s two-phase model of the, 166–174; role of frontline managers in the, 176–177; role of middle managers in the, 177–179; role of top managers in the, 179–180

Social media: board definition of, 236; fundraising through, 240–241; global participation in, 234–235; how social entrepreneurship is impacted by, 15; information sharing through, 239–240; Kony 2012: Part II—Beyond Famous video limited success through, 234; Kony 2012 video viral success through, 233–234, 247, 250; media and social dimensions of, 236–237fig; myths and realities about,
238–239; new possibilities through, 235–237; pyramid model of social media-based strategy, 243–244; social entrepreneurs making a social impact using, 257–258; stakeholder engagement through, 241–242. See also Facebook; Internet; Technological environment; Web 2.0 tools

Social mission: comparing commercial versus social entrepreneurship’s, 7; as the compass of social entrepreneurship, 254; entrepreneurial orientation (EO) and, 39; social entrepreneurial orientation (SEO) and, 39–43, 254; of social entrepreneurs, 92–93; as social intrapreneurship internal antecedent, 150; venture or enterprise risk related to, 81

Social needs, 57

Social network theory, 62

Social networks, 60, 62

Social purpose index of return, 109

Social responsibility, 207

Social return on investment (SROI), 109

Social value: enhanced by cooperation instead of competition, 8; as opportunity assessment criteria, 63; organizational alignment required to deliver, 8; social entrepreneurship and centrality of, 8; value chain used to create, 75–76

Social value proposition: as central to social entrepreneurship, 71; description of, 8, 70; integrating economic and, 70–71

Social venture effectiveness, 90–94

Social venture evaluation: Balanced Scorecard used for, 98–100; feasibility assessment, 76–77; frameworks for, 92–101; issues to consider for, 91–92; monetizing outcome and impact, 107–110; organizational dashboards used for, 100–101, 102; outcome and impact evaluation, 101–107. See also Year Up

Social venture evaluation frameworks: competing values framework or New Change model, 95–97; on factors for goal accomplishment and resource acquisition, 92; logic model for evaluating internal processes and results, 93–94; multi-attribute approaches, 98–101; values-based models, 95–97. See also Evaluation research designs

Social Venture Partners (SVP), 130

Social ventures: blended value of, 109; creating a business plan for, 77–80; developing the operating model for, 69; 73; 76; discovering and assessing, 55–66; elaborating opportunity with social impact theory, 69–72; feasibility and planning process for, 76–80; for-profit, 29, 121–122; monetizing outcome and impact of, 107–110; moving from action to impact, 90–114; moving from opportunity to action, 67–88; resource strategy for, 69; 80–87; risk assessment of, 80–84; risk associated with the timing of, 81–82; scaling used to increase social impact of, 110–114; social effectiveness of, 90–94

Solid Waste Utility recycling program (Seattle), 176, 183–185, 192

Sommerrock, K., 75

Spitzeck, H., 147

Sponsorships, 137

SROI Network UK, 109

Stakeholder satisfaction model, 97
Stakeholders: engagement through new social media, 241–242; external environment risk related to, 81; social vs. commercial entrepreneurship opportunities, 55

Stanford Social Innovation Review (Kania, Kramer, Hanleybrown), 217

Starita, L., 238

Statue of Liberty Restoration Fund, 21

Statute of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation, 21

Steffen, A., 249

Stevenson, H., 4t, 7, 8, 52t, 93, 134

Stone, M., 84

Strategic enhancement/competitive advantage, 208

“Strategic surprises,” 172

Strategy types, 167fig, 170

Street News (New York City), 53

Structural positions, 167fig, 170

Structure formalization, 150fig, 151

“Success trap,” 172

Susan G. Komen for the Cure Foundation, 246, 247

“Suspended coffee,” 148

Sustainability potential, 64t–65t

Synthesizing information role, 178

T

Taproot Foundation, 162

Taprootfoundation.org, 162

Technological environment: Bayh-Dole Act (1980) impact on, 15; description of, 14; external environment risk related to, 81; M-Pesa mobile phone-based financial service, 162; social entrepreneurship driven by, 15. See also Social media

Text 2Help Program, 148

Text4baby, 240

Theory of change: converting opportunity into action using, 71–72; description of, 71–72

Thompson, J., 6t

3M (Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing), 36

TOMS Shoes, 19, 54, 59, 246

Top managers: social intrapreneurial process and role of, 179–180; study of entrepreneurship and public sector, 187–188

Total risk, 82

Transactional collaborations, 209t, 210

TransFair, 230

Transformational leadership, 179

“Triggering events,” 172

Trinity Effect, 30–31

Tschirhart, M., 7

Twitter, 235, 236, 239, 241, 247

Two-phase model of social intrapreneurial process: Burgelman's strategic process model used to understand, 164–166; the definition process of, 167fig–170; the impetus process of, 167fig, 170–174; overview of the, 166–167fig; predictable policy windows, 167fig, 171–172; prescreening phase, 166; screening phase, 166; on selecting intrapreneurial opportunities, 166, 167fig; unpredictable policy windows, 167fig, 172–174

U

U.K. Department for International Development (DFID), 161

United Way, 31

University of Chittagone (Bangladesh), 47

Unpredictable policy windows, 167fig, 172–174

U.S. Post Service, 119

U.S. State Department, 18
V
Value chains: creating social value in the, 75–76; definition of, 75
Value proposition: blending economic and social, 70; centrality in social entrepreneurship, 71; description of, 70; social, 70–71
Values-based models: competing values framework or New Change model, 95–97; stakeholder satisfaction model, 97
Van de Ven, A. H., 253
Venkataraman, S., 60
Venture philanthropy, 130–131
Ventures. See Social ventures
Vermeulen, S., 29
Virtuous behavior, 9
VisionSpring, 15
Vital Spark Foundation, 21
VMware, 145
Vodafone, 161–162
Volunteer Louisiana Commission, 198
W
Walker, R., 150
Waterman, R., 154–155
Web 2.0 tools, 235, 236, 237, 241. See also Social media
Weerawardena, J., 5, 7, 28, 29, 39
Wei-Skillern, J., 4t, 7, 8, 52t, 93, 134
Weiss, L., 162
Wharton San Francisco, 14
“Wheels from Above” program (PICI), 144
Wikipedia, 236, 237f
Wiklund, J., 33
William and Flora Hewlett Foundation’s Expected Return, 110
Wireless Foundation, 240
Wolk, A., 78
Women: increasing numbers of social entrepreneurs among, 14; micro loans provided to those living in developing countries, 22
Wooldridge, B., 168
Working Today, 57, 61
World Bank’s Development Marketplace, 193
World of Warcraft, 237f
Worldchanging, 248, 249, 250
Y
Year Up: Balanced Scorecard on, 100; branching used as scaling technique by, 114; cost-benefit analysis of, 109; description of the, 89; evaluation of internal processes and results of, 94; examining move from action to impact by, 90–114; experimental design used to evaluate, 105; organizational dashboard for, 101, 102f; social return on investment (SROI) of, 109; stakeholder satisfaction model for evaluating impact of, 97; three-phase growth plan (2000–2011) of, 89–90. See also Social venture evaluation
Yen, J., 8
Yoplait, 54
Young, D., 127
Young, D. R., 6t, 9
YouTube, 237f
Yunus, M., 8, 22, 47–49, 59
Yusuf, J., 247f
Z
Zahra, S., 65
Zidisha, 15