Preface  xii

Chapter 1  Introduction: Theories of Social Development  1

BET YOU DIDN’T KNOW THAT… Newborns Can Recognize Their Mothers By Smell  2

Social Development: A Brief History  2

Critical Questions about Social Development  3

1. How Do Biological and Environmental Influences Affect Social Development?  3

2. What Role Do Children Play In Their Own Development?  3

INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: Genie, a “Wild Child”  4

3. What Is The Appropriate Unit for Studying Social Development?  4

4. Is Development Continuous or Discontinuous?  5

5. Is Social Behavior the Result of the Situation or the Child?  6

6. Is Social Development Universal Across Cultures?  6

CULTURAL CONTEXT: Parenting Advice Around the Globe  6

7. How Does Social Development Vary across Historical Eras?  8

8. Is Social Development Related to Other Developmental Domains?  8

RESEARCH UP CLOSE: Children of the Great Depression  9

9. How Important Are Mothers for Children’s Social Development?  9

10. Is There a Single Pathway of Social Development?  10

11. What Influences How We Judge Children’s Social Behavior?  11

12. Do Developmental Psychologists “Own” Social Development?  11

Theoretical Perspectives on Social Development  11

Psychodynamic Perspective  12

Freud’s Theory  12 / Erikson’s Theory  14 / Psychodynamic Perspective: An Evaluation  14

INTO ADULTHOOD: Fatherhood and Generativity  15

Traditional Learning Theory Perspective  15

Classical and Operant Conditioning  16 / Learning Theory Approaches: An Evaluation  16

Cognitive Learning Perspective  17

Information-Processing Perspective  19

Social Information Processing  19 / Social Information Processing: An Evaluation  20

Cognitive Developmental Perspective  20

Piaget’s Cognitive Developmental Theory  20 / Piaget’s Theory: An Evaluation  21 / Social Cognitive Domain Theory  21 / Vygotsky’s Sociocultural Theory  22 / Vygotsky’s Theory: An Evaluation  22

Systems-Theory Perspective  22

Bowlby’s Theory  23 / Ecological Systems Theory: An Evaluation  23

Biological Perspective  23

Ethological Theory  23 / Ethological Theory: An Evaluation  25

Life Span Perspective  27

Life Span Perspective: An Evaluation  28

A Variety of Theoretical Perspectives  28

LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Barbara Rogoff  28

David Bjorklund  29

Chapter Summary  30

Key Terms  33

Chapter 2  Research Methods: Tools for Discovery  34

Getting Started: Formulating Hypotheses, Asking Questions  35

Research Methods: Establishing Patterns and Causes  35

The Correlational Method  35

Laboratory Experiments  36

Field Experiments, Interventions, and Natural Experiments  37
Chapter 3 Biological Foundations: Roots in Neurons and Genes

Biological Preparedness for Social Interaction 66
How Are Babies Prepared? 66
Why Are Babies Prepared? 69
The Neurological Basis of Social Development 69
The Brain 69
Brain Growth and Development 70
Hemispheric Specialization 71
Neurons and Synapses 72
Brain Development and Experience 73
Mirror Neurons and the Social Brain 73
Genetics and Social Development 76
RESEARCH UP CLOSE: A Genetic Risk for Drug Use 83
Genetic Anomalies 83
INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMEs Autism 84
REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: Genetic Counseling, Genetic Selection 86
Temperament: Causes and Consequences 87
Defining and Measuring Temperament 87
CULTURAL CONTEXT: Are Temperaments the Same Around the World? 88
The Biological Basis of Temperament 89
Genetic Factors 89 / Neuropsychological Correlates 90
Early Evidence of Temperament 90

Children’s Self-Reports 47
RESEARCH UP CLOSE: The Puppet Interview Method 48
Reports by Family Members, Teachers, and Peers 49
Family Members 50 / Teachers and Peers 51
Focus Groups 51
BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... Parents Can Accurately Report Their Children’s Early Years 52
Direct Observation 53
Naturalistic Observation 53 / Structured Observation 53
Ways of Recording and Coding Observations 54
Behavior Observations 54 / Ethnographic Approaches 55
Nonverbal Measures 55 / Internal Responses 56
Analyzing Data 58
Ethics of Research with Children 59
LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Reed Larson 61
Linda M. Burton 61
Megan Gunnar 62

Chapter Summary 63
Key Terms 64
Chapter 4  Attachment: Forming Close Relationships

Theories of Attachment  98
Psychoanalytic Theory  98
Learning Theories  98
Cognitive Developmental Theory  99
Ethological Theory  99
InSights FROM EXTREMEs: Maternal Bonding  100

How Attachment Develops  102
Formation and Early Development of Attachment  102
What It Means to Be Attached  102
Attachment to Whom?  103

The Nature and Quality of Attachment  103

BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... Babies Become Attached to Their Teddy Bears and Blankets  104

Different Types of Attachment Relationships  104

Ainsworth's Classification of Attachment Types  105 / Beyond Ainsworth's A-B-C Classification  105 / Other Strategies for Assessing Attachment  106

CULTURAL CONTEXT: Assessing Attachment in Different Cultures  108

Attachment Types and the Brain  108

Parents' Role in Infants' Attachment Development  109

Chapter 5  Emotions: Thoughts About Feelings

What Are Emotions?  126
Why Are Emotions Important?  127

Perspectives on Emotional Development  127
Biological Perspective  127
Learning Perspective  128
Functional Perspective  128

Development of Emotions  128
Primary Emotions  129

Joy 129

BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... A Smile Is a Smile Is a Smile  131

Fear  133 / Anger  135 / Sadness  136

Secondary Emotions  136

Pride and Shame  136

Jealousy  137 / Guilt  137 / Empathy  138

Individual Differences in Emotional Expressiveness  138

Development of Emotional Understanding  139
Recognizing Emotions in Others  139

CULTURAL CONTEXT: Expressing and Understanding Emotions in Different Cultures  140

Beyond Recognition: Thinking About Emotions  141
Contents

Matching Emotions to Situations: Emotional Scripts 141 / Multiple Emotions, Multiple Cases 141

Emotion Regulation 142

Socialization of Emotion 143

Into Adulthood: Controlling Negative Emotions in Adulthood 144

Socialization by Parents 144

Socialization by Other Children 147

Research Up Close: Emotional Development in a High School Theater Program 147

Socialization by Teachers 148

Real-World Application: Teachers as Promoters of Emotional Competence 148

When Emotional Development Goes Wrong 149

Insights from Extremes: When Children Commit Suicide 150

Causes of Childhood Depression 151

Biological Causes 151 / Social Causes 151 / Cognitive Causes 151

Treating Childhood Depression 152

Learning from Living Leaders: Michael Lewis 152 / Susanne A. Denham 153

Chapter Summary 153

Key Terms 155

Chapter 6 Self and Other: Getting to Know Me, Getting to Know You 156

The Sense of Self 157

Developmental Origins of Self-Concept 157

Cultural Context: How Culture Shapes Self-Representations 159

Difficulty Developing a Sense of Self: Autistic Children 160

Self-Perceptions 160

Global Self-Esteem 160

Domain-Specific Perceptions 161

Learning Self-Appraisal 161

Gender Variations in Global Self-Esteem 162

Social Determinants of Self-Esteem 163

Family Influences 163 / Influence of Peers and Mentors 163 / Praising Children and Boosting Self-Esteem 163

Identity Formation 164

Into Adulthood: Identity Formation Continues 166

Ethnic Identity 166

Development of Ethnic Identity 166 / Bilingual and Bicultural Children And Youth 169 / Factors that Promote Ethnic Identity 170

Religious Identity 170

Real-World Application: Sexual Orientation and Identity 171

Development of Knowledge about Others 172

Early Understanding of Intentions and Norms 172

Later Understanding of Mental States: Theory of Mind 172

Research Up Close: The Brain Beneath Theory of Mind 173

Bet You Thought That... Babies Are Not Mind Readers 174

Understanding Psychological Trait Labels 175

Perspective Taking 176

Advancing Social Understanding 176

Children’s Abilities 176 / Parents’ Influences 176 / Siblings and Friends 177 / Experiences Outside the Family 177 / Cultural Influences 177

Stereotyping and Prejudice 178

Stereotyping 178 / Prejudice 178 / Determinants of Stereotyping and Prejudice 179 / Promoting Stereotypes and Prejudice 179 / Can Stereotypes and Prejudice Be Reduced? 180

Insights from Extremes: The Most Extreme Prejudice: Genocide 180

Communication Between Me and You: The Role of Language 181

Components of Language 181

Steps Toward Language Fluency 181

Preverbal Communication 181 / Babbling and Other Early Sounds 182

Semantic Development: The Power of Words 182

How and Why Children Acquire Words 182

The Acquisition of Grammar: From Words to Sentences 182

Learning the Social Uses of Language 183

The Rules of Pragmatics 183 / Learning to Adjust Speech to Audience 183 / Learning to Listen Critically 184

Learning from Living Leaders: Susan Harter 184 / Carol S. Dweck 185

Chapter Summary 185

Key Terms 187
Chapter 7 Family: Early and Enduring Influences

The Family System 189
The Couple System 189
How Does the Couple’s Relationship Affect Children? 189 / Problems When Parents Fight 189 / Overcoming These Problems 191 / And Baby Makes Three: The Impact of a New Baby on the Couple System 191

Family Variation: Social Class and Culture 208
Differences in Family Values and Practices Related to Socioeconomic Status 208
Cultural Patterns in Child Rearing 208

CULTURAL CONTEXT: How Effects of Parenting Vary across Cultures 209

The Changing American Family 211
Parents’ Employment and Child Development 212
Working Mothers 212 / Work Stress and Children’s Adjustment 213

Parents after Thirty 213
New Reproductive Technologies 214
Adoption: Another Route to Parenthood 214
Gay and Lesbian Parents 215

Parenting Alone 216
Divorce and Remarriage 217
Effects of Divorce on Children 217

LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: E. Mark Cummings 222
Diana Baumrind 223
Vonnie C. McLoyd 223
Raymond Buriel 224

Chapter Summary 224
Key Terms 226

Chapter 8 Peers: A World of Their Own

Definitions and Distinctions 228
Developmental Patterns of Peer Interaction 228
First Encounters in Infancy 228
Social Exchanges between Toddlers 228
Peer Play in Early Childhood 230
Peer Society in the School Years 231
The Importance of the Peer’s Age 232 / The Importance of the Peer’s Gender 232
Peer Interactions in Adolescence 232

Peers as Socializers 233
Modeling Behavior 233
Reinforcing and Punishing Behavior 233
Social Comparison 234

CULTURAL CONTEXT: Peer Roles and Relationships in Different Cultures 234
Peer Status 235

Studying Peer Status: Acceptance and Rejection 235
Factors that Affect Peer Acceptance 236
Behaviors that Make a Difference 236 / Biological Predispositions 237 / Social-Cognitive Skills 237 / Are Children Always Reflective? 239 / Children’s Goals in Social Interactions 239
Physical Appearance 239 / Blending In 240

Consequences of Peer Rejection 241
What Determines How Children React to Rejection? 241

BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... Names Would Never Hurt You 242
Short- and Long-Term Consequences of Rejection 242

RESEARCH UP CLOSE: When “Love Thine Enemy” Fails 243

INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: From Rejection to Revenge? 244

Can Peer Status Change? 245
Promoters of Peer Acceptance 245

REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: “Let’s Have Dinner” 207

Chapter Summary 224
Key Terms 226
viii Contents

Parents as Promoters of Peer Acceptance 245

Parents as Positive Partners 245 / Parents as Coaches and Teachers 246 / Parents as Social Arrangers and Monitors 247 / When Parents Fail: Peer Rejection of Abused Children 248

Researchers as Promoters of Peer Acceptance 248

Peers Can Help Too 250

When Peers Become Friends 250

Age Changes in Friendship 250

Earliest Friendships 250 / Changing Friendship Goals 251 / Changing Friendship Expectations 251

Interactions with Friends 252

INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: When Children Love and Protect Each Other 253

Friendship Patterns 253

Chapter 9 Schools, Mentors, Media: Connections with Society 263

The Role of the School in Social Development 264

Schools as Social Communities 264

School Size and Organization 264

Big School; Small School 265 / Age Groupings in Schools 265 / Coeducational versus Single-Sex Schools 266

Class Size and Organization 267

Advantages of Small Classes 267 / Benefits of Open Classrooms 267 / Cooperative Learning 267 / Peer Tutors 268

BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... Homeschooled Children Were Socially Disadvantaged 268

The Teachers’ Impact 269

Keeping Control: Classroom Discipline and Management 269 / Teacher Expectations and Children’s Success 269 / Teacher–Student Relationships 270

School–Family Links 270

School Culture; Home Culture 270

CULTURAL CONTEXT: Matching Classroom Organization to Cultural Values and Practices 271

Parents’ Involvement in Schools 272 / School as a Buffer for Children 272

School Integration 273

After-School Programs 273

Mentors Supporting Social Development 274

Natural Mentors 275

Mentor Programs 275

Electronic Media and Children’s Social Lives 276

Watching Television and Playing Video Games 276

Hours of Involvement 276 / Content of Television Shows and Video Games 278

The Pros and Cons of Friendship 254

Romantic Relationships 255

Teenage Love Affairs Really Do Matter 255 / Changes in Romantic Dynamics Over Time 256

Interaction in Groups 256

Dominance Hierarchies 256

Cliques, Crowds, and Gangs 257

INTO ADULTHOOD: What Happens When Jocks, Brains, and Princesses Grow Up 258

REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: Youth Gangs 259

LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Steven R. Asher 259

Gary W. Ladd 260

Chapter Summary 261

Key Terms 262

Do Children Understand What They See? 279

Television’s Positive Effects 280

Negative Effects of Television and Video Games 280

Television Biases Perceptions 280 / Television and Video Games Displace Other Activities 280 / Television Stereotypes Minority Groups 281 / Television Denigrates Women 281 / Television and Video Game Violence Leads to Aggression 282 / Television and Video Game Violence Leads to Desensitization 282 / Television and Sexuality 282 / Television and Sexualization 282

REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: Advertising Influences Children’s Choices 283

How Can Parents and Siblings Modify TV’s Negative Effects? 284

INTO ADULTHOOD: Still Playing Games? 285

Internet Connectivity 286

Effects of Internet Involvement 287

Internet Identity 287 / Effects on Social Relationships 287

RESEARCH UP CLOSE: Role-Playing Games and Social Life 288

Effects of Internet Sex 289 / Effects on Mental Health 289

Cell Phone Connections 290

INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: The Risks of Sexting 291

LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Nancy E. Hill 291

Deborah Lowe Vandell 292

Patricia M. Greenfield 292

Chapter Summary 293

Key Terms 295
Chapter 10 Sex and Gender: Vive La Différence?

Getting Started: Defining Sex and Gender 296
- Gender Stereotypes 297
  - CULTURAL CONTEXT: Cultural Differences in Gender Stereotypes 298
- Gender Differences in Behavior, Interests, and Activities 299
  - Behavior Differences in Childhood 299
  - Interests and Activities in Childhood 300
  - Changes in Adolescence and Adulthood 301
  - Stability of Gender Typing 301
  - INTO ADULTHOOD: Occupations for Men and Women 302
- Biological Factors in Gender Differences 303
  - BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... Gender Identity was Determined by Biological Sex 304
  - Evolutionary Theory and Gender Development 305
  - INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: The First American Transsexual 305
  - Hormones and Social Behavior 306
  - Gender and the Brain 306
  - Genetics of Gender 308
  - Biology and Cultural Expectations 308
- Cognitive Factors in Gender Typing 309
  - Cognitive Developmental Theory 309
  - Gender-Schema Theory: An Information-Processing Approach 310

Moral Judgment 330
- Piaget’s Cognitive Theory of Moral Judgment 330
  - Stages of Moral Reasoning 330 / Evaluation of Piaget’s Theory 331
- Kohlberg’s Cognitive Theory of Moral Judgment 331
  - Levels and Stages of Moral Judgment 331
  - INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: Moral Heroes 333
  - Limitations of Kohlberg’s Theory 334 / New Aspects Of Moral Development 335
  - CULTURAL CONTEXT: Justice versus Interpersonal Obligations in India and the United States 336
- Turiel’s Social Domain Theory 337
  - Social-Conventional Domain 337 / Psychological Domain 338
  - Judgments about Complex Issues 338

Social Influences on Gender Typing 311
- Comparison of Cognitive Developmental and Gender-Schema Theories 311
- Social Influences on Gender Typing 311
  - Theories of Social Influence 311
  - Parents’ Influence on Children’s Gender-Typed Choices 312
  - Parents’ Behavior toward Girls and Boys 312
    - Behavior with Infants and Toddlers 312 / Behavior with Older Children 313
  - Modeling Parents’ Characteristics 314
  - RESEARCH UP CLOSE: Gender Roles in Counterculture Families 315
  - When Father Is Absent 316
  - Siblings as Agents of Gender Socialization 317
  - Role Models in Books, Games, and Television 317
  - Peers, Gender Roles, and Gender Segregation 318
  - REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: Do Computers Widen the Gender Gap? 319
  - Schools and Teachers 321
    - The School Culture 321 / Teachers’ Attitudes and Behavior 321
  - Androgyny 323
  - LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Carol Lynn Martin 325
    - Charlotte J. Patterson 325

Chapter Summary 326
Key Terms 328
Contents

Development of Moral Emotions 347
  Moral Emotions and Child Characteristics 347 / Moral Emotions and Parents’ Behavior 347
Do Moral Emotions Affect Moral Behavior? 348
  REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: Adolescents’ Competence to Stand Trial as Adults 349
The Whole Moral Child 350
Prosocial and Altruistic Behavior 351
  How Prosocial Behavior and Reasoning Develop 351

Chapter 12 Aggression: Insult and Injury

Types of Aggression 363
Patterns of Aggression 364
  Developmental Changes in Aggression 364
  Gender Differences in Aggression 366
Stability of Individual Differences in Aggression 368
  INTO ADULTHOOD: From Childhood Aggression to Road Rage 369
Causes of Aggression 369
  Biological Origins of Aggressive Behavior 370
    Genetics and Aggression 370
      Temperament and Aggression 370 / My Brain Made Me Do It: The Neurological Basis of Aggression 371 / Blame It on My Hormones 371 / Prenatal Conditions 372
Social Influences on the Development of Aggression 372
  Parents as Interactive Partners 372 / Abusive Parenting and Aggression 373 / A Coercion Model of Aggression 373 / Parents as Providers of Opportunities for Aggression 373 / The Influence of Peers 374 / Neighborhoods as Breeding Grounds 374
  INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: Child Soldiers 375
Combined Biological and Social Influences on Aggression 378
  Age Changes in Prosocial Behavior 351 / Stability in Prosocial Behavior 352 / Prosocial Reasoning 352 / Are Girls More Prosocial than Boys? 353
Determinants of Prosocial Development 354
  Biological Influences 354 / Environmental Influences 355 / Cultural Influences 356 / Empathy and Perspective Taking 356
  LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Judith G. Smetana 357
                  Grazyna Kochanska 358
                  Nancy Eisenberg 359
Chapter Summary 359
Key Terms 361

Chapter 13 Policy: Improving Children’s Lives

What Determines Public Policy for Children? 396
Types of Public Policy 397
Children in Poverty: A Social Policy Challenge 397
  Economic Hardship and Social Disadvantage 397
  Effects of Poverty on Children 397
  Programs to Reverse Effects of Poverty 399
    Head Start 399 / Welfare Reform Policies 400 / Input and Outcome: Getting What You Pay For 401
  REAL-WORLD APPLICATION: Early Intervention with Children in Poverty 401
Chapter Summary 393
Key Terms 394
Child Care: A Problem Lacking a Unified Policy 402
Choosing Child Care: What’s a Parent to Do? 402
Types of Child Care 402
Effects of Child Care on Children 403
Quality of Child Care Matters 403 / What Is Quality Care? 403 / Time in Child Care 404
How Can Policy Help? 404
RESEARCH UP CLOSE: The Florida Child Care Quality Improvement Study 406
Teenage Pregnancy: Children Having Children 407
Factors Leading to Teen Pregnancy 407
BET YOU THOUGHT THAT... More Teens Are Having Sex Than Ever Before 408
Outcomes of Teen Pregnanacies 408
Problems for Teenage Mothers 408 / Problems for Children of Teenage Mothers 408 / Problems for Other Family Members 408 / Problems for Teenage Fathers 409 / Happy Endings 409
INTO ADULTHOOD: When Teen Mothers Grow Up 410
Reducing Teen Pregnancy 410
Support from the Media 410 / Sex Education in Schools 411
Support for Teenage Mothers 412
Child Abuse within the Family 413
Child Abuse: A Family Affair 413
The Ecology of Child Abuse 415
Consequences of Abuse 415
Policies to Prevent Abuse 416
CULTURAL CONTEXT: Child Abuse and Children’s Rights 416
Programs that Prevent Abuse 417
Federal and State Policies 418
INSIGHTS FROM EXTREMES: Suggestive Interrogations and Legal Policy 419
LEARNING FROM LIVING LEADERS: Deborah A. Phillips 420
Lindsay Chase-Lansdale 421
Kathleen McCartney 422
Kristin Anderson Moore 422
Chapter Summary 423
Key Terms 425

Chapter 14 Overarching Themes: Integrating Social Development 426
What We Know: Some Take-Home Principles 426
Views of the Social Child 426
The Child Is Socially Competent from an Early Age 426 / The Child’s Social Behavior Is Organized 427 / The Child’s Social Behavior Becomes Increasingly Sophisticated 427 / The Child Is Embedded in Levels of Social Complexity 427 / Children’s Interactions with Other People Are Reciprocal and Transactional 427
Organization and Explanation of Children’s Social Behavior 428
Aspects of Development Are Interdependent 428 / Social Behavior Has Multiple Interacting Causes 428 / All Causes Are Important 428
Social Agents and Contexts for Social Development 428
Progress and Pathways of Social Development 429
Development May Be Gradual and Continuous or Rapid and Dramatic 429 / Early Experience Is Important, but Its Effects Are Not Irreversible 429 / There Is No Single Pathway to Normal or Abnormal Development 430 / Tracing Both Non-normative Pathways and Individual Pathways Is Important 430 / Development Is a Lifelong Process 430
Glimpsing the Future: Methodological, Theoretical, and Policy Imperatives 430
Methodological Imperatives 430
Theoretical Imperatives 431
No Single Theory Will Suffice 431 / No Single Discipline Will Suffice 432
Policy Imperatives 432
Research on Social Development Can Inform Social Policy 432 / Social Policy Can Inform Research on Social Development 432 / One-Size-Fits-All Social Policies Are Inadequate 432 / Social Development Is Everyone’s Responsibility 432
Emerging Leaders in Social Development 433
At the Wedding 439

Glossary 440 / References 447 / Author Index 541 / Subject Index 563