Note: Abbreviations used: ASD for autism spectrum disorder; ToM for theory of mind; vs. for versus

11-plus examination 588
5-HTTLPR gene 37, 133, 355

ABE (achieving best evidence) guidelines, eyewitness testimony 307 ability EI (emotional intelligence) 211 absent fathers 137–8, 141 abstract reasoning, formal operational stage 465–6 abuse effects on mental health 329, 330–1 leading to offending behaviour 330 and maltreatment 149–54 academic achievement/performance family interventions 628–9 link to media use 272–3, 277–8, 292–3 and timing of maturation 662 accommodation, Piaget 448 acculturation 192
active engagement collective argumentation 564–8
in cultural practices 562–3 important educational tool 569–70 active vs. social self 215–16 adaptability and intelligence 592 adaptation, Piaget 447–8
adolescence
anonymous & altruistic helping 300 anti-establishment stance 332 biological and physical changes 646–53 boys’ aggression linked to TV violence 276 characteristics of perceived popularity 179 ‘cliques’/’crowds’/’gangs’ 171–2 conflicts with parents 673–5 conventional morality 320 cultural variations 681–3 friendships, instability of 185–7 historical changes in behaviour 684–90 identity development 670–3 maturation, effects of early and late 660–2 mood disruption 676–8 passive acceptance of bullying 306–7 peer relations 663–5
as period of turmoil 669–78 psychological effects of puberty 653–60 risk-taking behaviours 678–81 romantic development 665–7 sexuality 667–9
sleep patterns 675–8
social-cognitive map of peer group structure 173 views on rights of asylum-seekers 324–8 and youth crime 329–31
adoption studies 34–5
Adult Attachment Interview (AAI) 119–20
AAI scores linked to infant’s SS coding 122–3 adult-child (A-C) speech 437–9 advergames 288
advertising 282–8
and toy guns/war play 247–8, 258 types of 343–5
Ainsworth, Mary 109, 110, 116 alliteration 418–20
training study 420–2
altruistic behaviour 298 charitable giving experiment 300–1 ambiguous drawing, interpretation of 528–9 ambivalent (C type) attachment 110, 115, 118, 122, 123, 129 American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), screen viewing times 271–2 animal communication 47–8 anthropological studies 58–61 antipathetic relationships 190–1
antisocial behaviour

callous-unemotional (CU) traits predicting delinquency developmental progression

gene-environment interaction

intergenerational effects low trait EI as risk factor reinforced by peer group

risk factors

Apgar scoring technique appearance-reality distinction apprenticeship learning, guided participation argumentation, role in learning

Arnett, J., risk behaviour articulation problems

assertiveness training, victims of bullying assessment of IQ

see intelligence tests

assimilation, Piaget

attachment relationships

Adult Attachment Interview

beyond infancy

criticism of attachment theory and day care quality disorganized attachment

in Dogon people, Mali environmental vs. genetic influences security of attachment stability over generations stability over time attainment tests

attention

shared 241, 541

tasks for strategy development attractiveness

early recognition of attractive faces facial proportions

and social status

and TV stereotypes

auditory perception

authoritarian parents

authoritative parents

autism spectrum disorder (ASD)

Autonomous adults, attachment autonomous morality, Piaget

avoidant (A type) infants

avoidant (A type) infants

avoidant (A type) infants

Balle-Jensen, L., risk behaviour

Baltes, Paul, life-span development

Baron-Cohen, S., theory of mind

Bavarian Longitudinal Study, very preterm babies befriending, peer support beliefs

Belsky, J.

day care studies

parenting model

bias

bilingualism

Binet, A.

Binet-Simon scale

revisions of bipedalism

birth canal, restrictive width birth order

birth process (parturition) blind children, language development body-kinesthetic intelligence body mass index (BMI) and pubertal timing body size satisfaction in girls, media influence

Bofi foragers and farmers, weaning bonding of mother with newborn

Bowlby, John

maternal deprivation hypothesis phases in development of attachment

Boyland, E.J., celebrity endorsement and food choice

Bradley, L., learning to read brain development

at puberty

brain size

Brazilian street vendors, mathematical competence of

breastfeeding

Bronfenbrenner, Urie

ecological model of human development

Brooks-Gunn, J., Early Head Start evaluation

Bruner, Jerome

Bryant, P.E., learning to read bullying (in school)

acceptance of by older children attitudes towards causes of

consequences of victimization cyberbullying

disclosure gathering data on gender differences in incidence figures interventions against

types of

Burt, Cyril

calendar calculating, savant ability callous-unemotional (CU) traits

‘canalization’ of behaviour
Cappotelli, H., sociometric status 173, 174–5 Carraher, D.W., maths of street vendors 570–3 cartoon test, bullying 360–1 categorical perception, sounds 400 categorization of others, infants 202–3 Ceci, S.J., preschoolers’ reports, effect of stereotypes 499–502 Cefai, C., Circle Time for social & emotional learning 216–18 celebrity endorsement and children’s choice of food 283–5 certification, attainment tests 601 Chan, A., adolescent friendship instability 185–7 Chazan-Cohen, R., Early Head Start evaluation 633–5 child abuse and maltreatment 149–54 child-directed speech 438 child-rearing: cross-cultural studies 221 Samoan society in the 1920s 682 childcare patterns, UK 156–7 childminding 130–1
children with learning difficulties 599 Children’s Rights Alliance for England (CRAE) 24 children’s knowledge about the physical world, Vosniadou 556–61 Chinese parenting styles 143 Chomsky, innate basis of language 429–32 chromosomal abnormalities 38 chromosomes 32, 33
Circle Time (CT) 216–18 circular reactions, sensorimotor stage 448–50 citizenship curriculum 332 class inclusion tasks 458, 460–1 co-viewing, media intervention 293 coaching in formal thinking 467 code switching, Harris 195 cognition hypothesis of language development 434 cognition, Piaget’s theory 444–6 assumptions 446–8
educational implications 468–9 overview of theory 468 stages 447, 448
concrete operational 464–5 formal operational 465–8 preoperational 453–64
sensorimotor 448–53
cognitive behaviour therapy (CBT), dyslexia programme 428 cognitive deficits, children born very prematurely 92–4 cognitive development and breastfeeding 89–90 genes linked to 37–8
see also information processing approach cognitive developmental approach 28, 225–6, 315 cognitive-functional linguistics, Tomasello 434–7 cognitive immaturity hypothesis 254, 259 cognitive interview (CI) 506–7 cognitive neuroscience 39–40, 657–9 cognitive skills from computer game playing 279 cohort and cohort-sequential designs 9–10 Coie, J.D., sociometric status 173, 174–5 Cole, ethnographic research 549–50

collective argumentation 564–8
collectivist vs. individualistic values 314–15, 323 colostrum, first milk after birth 89 communal child-rearing, Israeli kibbutzim 109, 129 communication systems in mammals 47–8 community of inquiry 568–9 community-based participatory action research (PAR) 620–4 compensation ability, Piaget 459 compensatory education programmes continuing debate 638–40 in the UK 635–8
in the USA 631–5
competent infant 393
componential subtheory of intelligence 592–3 computational limitations 475 computational strategies, street children 570–3 computer games 248–9, 279–81 concrete operational stage, cognitive development 464–5 Piaget’s views 464–5 reinterpretations of Piaget 465 conditioning 45–6
of infants’ behaviour 384–5 confidentiality, research ethics 20–1 conflict and rivalry between siblings 165–6 conflict behaviours, dominance hierarchies 340 conflict resolution girls better at 309 student-mediated 308, 310–13 conflict resolution between friends 182, 184–5 conservation, Piaget 458–60, 464 reinterpretations 461, 462–3 constancies, perceptual 392–3 constructive memory 494–6 constructive play 238, 256–7, 258 content validity 587 context of task and cognitive ability 465 contextual subtheory of intelligence 592 contextual view of intelligence 596–8 contingent responding, infants 96–8 controlled experiments 14 controlling parents 143 ‘controversial’ children 173, 175, 178 conventional morality 319, 320 cookie sales study, sociocultural model of development 68, 69–71 cooperative group work (CGW) 574–5 cooperative learning 574–5 corporal punishment (CP) 147–9 corrrelational analyses 12–13 counselling, peer support in schools 308 créativity and play 255, 258 créole languages 432–3 criminal responsibility, age of 329–31 criterion-referenced tests 602 critical/sensitive period 44, 100, 611–12 cross-country differences, terms used for bullying 361–2 cross-sectional design 6, 9 crying, neonates 96 cultural context model of development, Cole 66–7 cultural differences
adolescence 681–3
attitudes to play 250
in behaviour 63
cognitive abilities 549–51 in concept of intelligence 596–8 eyearly attachments 109–10 language development 440
parenting styles 143
pretend play at home 244–5 prosocial behaviour 313–15
sex-role stereotypes 221 Strange Situation 112, 114 cultural-ecological models 66–8 cultural experience and learning 548–9 cultural tools 551, 554, 562, 564 culturally disadvantaged groups, empowering 551 culture in animals 47, 49 culture and development 65–6 Cunningham, C.E., conflict-resolution study 310–13 curricular approaches to bullying 369 curriculum control 602 custody issues, divorced parents 145–6
cyberbullying 364–5
Danish adolescents, study of risk behaviour 679–80 Darwin, Charles 5, 55, 56, 204 data analysis 12–13
data recording 15–16
data types 19
dating violence 666
day care home-based, childminding 130–1 NICHD study, USA 132–4 nursery or centre-based 131–2 overview of 134
deception
evolution of 50–1 failure in children with ASD 536 false belief task 515–21
in non-human primates 514
young children’s understanding of 516–19, 527 ‘deconstruction’ of developmental psychology 73–4 decontextualization, pretend play 241–2 defered imitation, Piaget 451, 453, 468 ‘deficit’ model of deprivation 624–5 delayed phase preference 675–6 delinquency 660–2, 681 Bowlby’s link to separation 126 concerns 21–2
link to child abuse 153 risk factors for 356
sons, inverse link to father involvement 137 democratic education, learning communities 568–9 depression
in children from divorced families 145, 146 children high in relational aggression 345 and instability of early adolescent friendships 185–7 maternal, and insecurely attached infants 116 mood disruption in adolescents 676–8 victims of bullying 368 deprivation 606–7
and academic underperformance 617–18 explanatory models 624–5 extreme cases of 607–12 institutional rearing 612–16 depth perception 395, 398 development, defined 6 developmental changes in aggression 345–6 developmental cognitive neuroscience 40–1 developmental niche 68 diagnostic assessment 602
dialogical learning 564–8 diathesis-stress model 64–5 ‘difference’ model of deprivation 624–5 differential susceptibility 65 direct sanctions, bullying 370 disability-related bullying 363 disadvantaged children see socially disadvantaged children discipline effect of harsh physical 148
parenting styles 141–2
smacking 148–9
discrimination 617–19 positive 635
dishabitation 381, 384, 385 Dismissive adult, attachment 120, 122, 123 disorganized (D type) attachment 110, 111, 115, 116–17, 122, 123 disruptive behaviour 355 distress of others, responsiveness to 301–3 divorce 144–6
grandparent involvement with children 139–40 dizygotic (DZ) twins 34
DNA sequencing 36–7
Dodge, K.A., sociometric status 173, 174–5 Dogon people, Mali, infant-mother attachment 113–15 domestic violence 143–4 dominance behaviour 340–2
Down syndrome (DS) 38–9
DRD4 7-repeat allele, interaction with quality of childcare 133–4 drug-addicted parents 304–5 dual-risk model 64–5
dyslexia 425–8, 599
E-S model of sex differences 81–2 early adversity, resilience 626–8 early intervention 625
Project Head Start, US 631–5
Sure Start, UK 635–8
early social behaviour/interactions 95–100 the earth, children’s understanding of 556–61 echolalia 408
ecological model of development, Bronfenbrenner 10–12 ecological validity 15, 16 education imposition of Western style on developing cultures 576 policy in the UK 588 Vygotsky’s and Bruner’s views 569–70
see also schooling; teaching methods Education Act (1944) 588 educational games 279–80 educational underachievement compensatory education programmes 631–8 ‘deficit’ and ‘difference’ models 624–5 discrimination & racial prejudice 617–18 and poverty 638–9 egocentric speech, Piaget’s observations 554, 555 egocentrism, Piaget 445, 454–5 Borke’s challenge 456–7 elaboration, encoding strategy 490 emotion in others, recognition of 204–6 emotion regulation 208–10 emotional abuse 150, 151 emotional development 203–6 production of emotions 203–4 recognition of emotion in others 204–6 understanding of others’ emotions, desires and beliefs 206–8 emotional intelligence 210–11 and children’s peer relations at school 212–14 regulation of emotion 208–10 emotional literacy curriculum 332–3 PATHS programme 333–5 emotional literacy programmes 216 empathy 300, 333
and conflict resolution 309 and emotion regulation 302, 333 lack of, effect of abuse 329 link to fetal testosterone levels 81–2 and positive parenting 302–3 progressive levels of 301 and prosocial behaviour 300, 303 sibling relationships 305 empowerment from preschool interventions 633 young people traumatized by war 639 encoding strategies 474, 488–90 enemies 190–1 energetics of gestation and growth (EGG) hypothesis 86 energetics theory, pubertal timing 652
English and Romanian Adoptees (ERA) study 613–16
Enmeshed adults, attachment 120, 121, 122, 123 environment effects on perceptual development 400–1 shared and non-shared 35–6, 194
epigenesis 41–2
‘epigenetic landscape’ 43–4 ‘epiphenomenal’ model of play 262–3 ‘equifinality’ model of play 262–3
Erikson, Erik eight developmental stages 669, 670 ‘identity crisis’ in adolescence 670–1 ‘essential’ model of play 262 ethical issues in research 20–1 ethnicity and academic excellence 629 and academic underachievement 617–18 asylum seekers’ family values 628–9 and bullying 363
cross-ethnic friendships 192–3 differential susceptibility 355 ethnic awareness/identity 228–9 ‘social disadvantage’ 624 street children 619
unbalanced media portrayal 274 ethnographic research 549–51
EU Kids Online survey, bullying 365 European Forum on the Rights of the Child 22 evolutionary approaches aggression 347–9 criticisms of 63
risk-taking behaviour 681 evolutionary developmental psychology 62–3 evolutionary psychology 62–3 evolutary theory 55–8 and human behaviour 58–62 examinations, selection purposes 601 exclusion from school 618 exercise play 237–8, 239, 251 exergames 281
experiential subtheory of intelligence 591–2 experimental techniques 16 experimenter effects, early studies of play 259 experts
children as helping children learn, ZPD concept views of intelligence exploration vs. play externalizing problems antipathetic relationships boys in single-parent families and childcare quality and family status harsh maternal physical discipline interventions link to peer rejection maternal unresponsiveness and parental conflict extreme deprivation eye contact, mother-baby, language development eye-gaze, recognition by newborns eyewitness research children's suggestibility interview procedures stress and recall summary
face processing/recognition facial expression, infants' recognition of monkey faces, before 6 months mother's face neonates' interest in faces preference technique false belief tasks false belief understanding false inferences falsification family and aggression in children
and bullying
composition and child outcomes and delinquency in development of prosocial behaviour and peer relationships role in children's academic performance size, impact on development support, role of grandparents types fantasy play fantasy play see pretend play Fanz, R.L., pattern perception Fast Track project, USA fathers fathering and child outcomes involvement in child care non-resident/absent feelings, understanding of, PATHS curriculum
female genital mutilation (FGM) feeling femininity
feral children fetal learning
fetal reaction to mother's voice field experiments
first-borns jealousy and ambivalence towards new baby social competence of Sulloway's theory of birth order 'first-order' belief flexibility of behaviour focus groups food choice, effect of celebrity endorsement formal operational stage of cognitive development Piaget's work
reinterpretations of Piaget fostering Fouts, H.N., parent-offspring conflicts free recall Freud, Sigmund, views on play friendship adolescent, instability of children's ideas about impact of internet on in multicultural settings origins of quality of and sociometric status Friendship Qualities Scale Froebel, Friedrich, ideas about play functional play
'g' factor intelligence
games rule-based video and computer games, infant-mother interaction gangs in adolescence and delinquency street children, Brazil Gardner, H., 'multiple intelligences' gay adolescents
gay parents
gender-based bullying gender differences see sex differences gender-identity awareness of cognitive-development approach, Kohlberg gender role portrayal on television gender schemas
gene-environment interaction
general intelligence genetics
adoption studies
aggression in children and childcare quality chromosomal abnormalities

Down syndrome (DS) 38–9
Human Genome Project 36–8 shared and non-shared environment 35–6
twin studies 33–4
Genie case study, extreme depprivation 610–12
gestation periods 85–6
Gibson, E.J., visual cliff 395 gifted children 599–601 Girl Scout cookie sales study 68, 69–71
girls abducted by armed forces, social integration of 620–4
Gould, Steven 19–20
grammar 407
Chomsky’s views 429, 430, 431
eyear sentences 411–12
pidgin language 432–3
pivot grammar 436
grandparents 138–40
Groos, Karl, play theory 251 Gross, M., gifted children 600–1 group effects, day care 133 group learning

collective argumentation 564–8
community of inquiry 568–9
peer tutoring 574–5
group socialization theory 194–5
group tests, intelligence 585–6 guided participation in sociocultural activity 562–4
Gure, A., perceived pubertal timing 654–6
Gustafson, K., object play 256–7
habituation to a stimulus 381, 384
Haight, W.L., pretend play 244–5
Hall, G. Stanley, play theory 252 harm prevention, research
ethics 20
Harris, Judith, group socialization theory 194–5
Hawley, P., strategies of control in preschoolers 347–9
Head Start, USA 631–5
Health Behaviour in School-age Children (HBSC) survey
25–6, 365
Hedegaard, teaching experiment 552–3 Heinz dilemma, moral reasoning 318, 322 helping others see prosocial behaviour
Hepper, P. G., fetal & newborn response to human voice 83–4
heritability 34, 35, 36
heteronomous morality, Piaget 316, 317, 320 HFSS (high in fat, salt and/or sugar content) products 282 high intelligence, evolution of 50–1
High Scope Perry Preschool Project 632–3 historical changes, adolescent behaviour 684–90
Holocaust, generational effects 123–4
holophrases 411, 435
homophobic bullying 363 homosexuality 668
hormonal changes in puberty 648–9
hostile aggression 343, 344, 347 Howe, M.J.A., calendar
calculating by savants
594–6
Human Genome Project 36–8
human plasticity, models of 63–5
human voice, newborn and fetal response to 83–4 humour, language play 246–7 Humphrey, Nicholas, homo psychologicus 4
hypotheses, role of 27 ICT use by adolescents 688, 689 identity 215–16
development in adolescence 670–3 ethnic/national 228–30
gender 219–20, 224–7 ‘imaginary audience’, adolescent egocentrism 659–60
imaginary companions 246 imaginative play novel toy experiment 255, 258 see also pretend play imitation 46
and infant learning 98 of television violence 275 imitative learning 54
immigrant children acculturation 192
friendships 192
strong influence of peer group 195
immigrant paradox phenomenon 192 implicit awareness of false belief 525
imprinting 44–5
‘in-group/out-group’ identification 226, 227, 229, 639 incarceration, effect on mental health 331
indirect aggression 219, 309, 344, 345, 346 indirect/relation-bullying 363
individualistic vs.
collective values 314–15, 323 infant-directed speech (IDS) 410, 437–8
infant facial features eliciting caring/parental behaviour 55, 56
information processing approach 472–4
constructive memory and knowledge 494–6
knowledge and memory
development 493–4 memory development 488–92
metacognition 492–3
processing limitations 474–5 stage-like performance 476–88
summary 496–7
informed consent, research
ethics 20, 21
insecure attachment 111–12, 115, 116, 117, 119 change over time 120–1
Index

and day care controversy 131 link to abusing parents 153 low maternal sensitivity/responsiveness 121, 122, 132 and maternal upbringing 123 instinct 42
institutional care/rearing behavioural & emotional problems 127–8 Bowlby’s maternal deprivation hypothesis 124–6 early studies 612–13
and failure to form strong attachments 127, 129 Israeli kibbutzim 109, 129 Romanian adoptees 613–16 instrumental aggression 343 intellectual development see cognitive development intelligence 589–90
social-cultural context 596–8 people’s conceptions of 590–1 savants 593–6
Sternberg’s theory of 590–3 intelligence tests 580–8 attainment tests 601–2
early uses of 587–8 reliability and validity 586–7 use of 599–601
intensive neonatal care, ethical issues 95 interactions and growth of social understanding 305–6 mother-baby 408–10
interactive specialization, brain areas 41 intercultural competence 618–19 intergenerational continuity in abuse 154 antisocial behaviour 353
attachment 122, 123–4
intermodal perception 401–2 internal representation, Piaget 449, 450 see also mental representation internal working models 118, 154 internalizing behaviours
antipathetic relationships 191
and attachment security 111 and conflict between parents 144
and family status 157
rejected children 177, 180
risk factor in victimization 367 internet advertisements 285–6 multiplayer games 281
and stereotypes 274–5
time spent on 267
internet addiction 688 internet use 686–8, 689 intersubjective world, Tomasello 299–300, 410 intersubjectivity of infants, Trevarthen 99 intersubjectivity of social meanings, Vygotsky 549 interventions aggression reduction 354, 357–8 antibullying 368–74
breastfeeding promotion 89–90 compensatory preschool education 631–8 different types of 625 drugs counselling for addicted mothers 304–5 extreme deprivation/neglect 607–12 for gifted children 601 to improve parental sensitivity & attachment security 155–6 media 291–3 nurture groups 630–1 PATHS, emotion regulation 333–5 peer support in schools 308, 310–13 play therapy 260–2
role of families 628–30 social or psychological problems 625 social & emotional training, Circle Time 216–18 syntax development 413–14 interview method 16
interviewing children achieving best evidence (ABE) 507 cognitive interview 506–7 intimate partner violence, effects on children 143–4 intonation, exaggerated, when speaking to babies 410, 438 intuitive period, Piaget 454–5 Isaacs, Susan, play theory 252 Israeli kibbutzim, effects of communal child-rearing 109, 129 jealousy towards new baby 164 Jigsaw method 574–5
Joshi, P., textisms 289–91 juvenile offenders, history of abuse and deprivation 330 Jyväskyla Longitudinal Study of Dyslexia (JLD) 426–7
Kaluli of Papua New Guinea, language development 440
Kauai study, resilience 626–8 Kellman, P.J., object separation 393–4 kin selection theory 57–8 knowledge and memory 486–7, 493–6 knowledge of mind see theory of mind (ToM) knowledge transfer 54 Kohlberg’s theory of moral development 318–21 early criticisms 321–2 later revisions 322–3
stages of moral judgement 320 Koluchova twins, case study 608–10
Kpelle tribe, Liberia, cognitive abilities 549–50
Kuhn, Thomas, paradigms 28
Kusche Affective Interview Revised (KAI-R) 334 language bullying terms in different countries 361–2 learning from DVDs/TV 270 mental state-reality distinction 522
and ToM development 525
Vygotsky vs. Piaget 554–5
Index

language acquisition device (LAD), Chomsky 429, 430, 431 language deficits, children born very prematurely 92–4 language development decline in unused sounds during first year 400–1 dyslexia 425–8
main areas of 406–7
reading 424–5
sequences in 407–18 theories of 428–40 transition to literacy 418–24 language play 246–7
large-scale school-based bullying prevention programmes 371–4 laypersons’ views of intelligence 590–1, 598 learned symbolic communication 49 learning 42
from computer games 279–80 cultural 54
and culture 67
fetal 82
by imitation 46, 54, 98
imprinting 44–5
individual 45–6
of mother’s voice before birth 399 neonates 96
social 46, 47
social context 546–76 social & emotional 216–18 from television 270, 271 ‘trial-and-error’ 46, 450–1, 452 legislation against smacking 148, 149 Leichtman, M.D., preschoolers reports, effect of stereotypes 499–502 leisure pursuits of adolescents, changes in 685–6 lesbian adolescents 668–9 lesbian parents 141, 225 Leslie, A.M., mental representation in ASD 537–40 lexical development 417 life-span development, Baltes notion of 8–9 Lineker, Gary, influence on children’s food choice 283–5 literacy, effects of texting 289–91 logical deductions, formal operational stage 465–6 logical thinking 549, 550, 575 lone/single-parent families 137, 140, 141, 157 loneliness 179–80
long-term memory 474, 475, 486–7 longitudinal design 6–8, 9–10 low birthweight babies 90–5 low peer acceptance, effects of 189–90 Lurin, A. R., schooling introduction 549 lying see deception Machiavellian intelligence 50 maladaptiveness of aggression 346–7 male-female differences and early levels of sex hormones 81–2 maltreatment 149–50 assessment and extent of 150–2
causes of 153–4
and drug-addicted parents 304–5 effects of 153
marijuana use 679, 680 masculinity 220–1, 227 maternal deprivation hypothesis, Bowlby 124–9 maternal face recognition by infants 390–1 Maternal Sensitivity Hypothesis 114, 115, 116, 117 maternal unresolved state of mind, link to disorganized attachment in child 117, 122, 123 maternal unresponsiveness predicting later externalizing problems 355 mathematical problem-solving children as researchers 568–9 role of argumentation 565–6 street vendors, informal vs. formal methods 570–3 maturation 42
and changes in parent-child relationships 657 effects of early and late 660–2 Turkish adolescents 654–6 variations in physical development 649–50 Maxi task, false beliefs 515–20
Mead, Margaret 65–7 work in Samoa 682–3 mean length of utterance (MLU) 438, 439 media interventions 291–3 co-viewing 293
media literacy 293 restrictive measures 291–3 media use by adolescents 687–8 by children 266–8 mediation, conflict resolution 308, 310–13
memory development 488–92
constructive memory 494–6
and knowledge 486–7, 493–4 see also eyewitness research menarche age of 647, 649, 650–2 psychological impact 653, 656–7 mental functioning, Vygotsky’s views 547–9 mental health problems and abuse/maltreatment 153, 329 in adolescence 688–90 and decline of play ethos 262 and low peer acceptance 188 and punishment 304
young offenders 24–5, 330–1 mental models of the earth 558–9, 560 mental representation achieved by end of sensorimotor period 450–3 age of development of 523 ASD children’s deficit in 537–41 sensorimotor substage, Piaget 449, 450 use of language for 522
mental state-reality distinction 522 mentoring schemes, peer support in schools 308
metacognition 492–3
metapelet, caregiver in Israeli kibbutzim 109, 129
metarepresentation 330–1 microgenetic approach, problem-solving strategies 485–6 milk, composition of 89 Millennium Cohort Study (MCS) 156–7 infant care at 9 months 103 ‘min’ strategy, addition problems 485–6 ‘mindreading’ see theory of mind (ToM) mnemonics for memory tasks 490, 492 mobile phone use 686, 687 mobile phones, texting and literacy 289–91 modelling of altruistic behaviour 300–1 monkey faces ability to distinguish 382–4, 401 discrimination between, before 6 months 382–4, 401 monologues, child and adult 534–5 monozygotic (MZ) twins 33–4 Montessori, Maria, views on play 251 mood disruption in adolescence 676–8 moral disengagement, bullies 367 moral reasoning age of moral responsibility 329–31
Kohlberg’s theory 318–23
Piaget’s theory 315–18
and prosocial behaviour 300 social-cognitive domain theory 324–9 teaching of moral values 331–5 mother-baby communication 409–10 motherhood constellation 408 mother’s voice neonates’ preference for 399 newborn and fetal response to 83–4 motivation assessment tests 601–2 intrinsic 235, 236, 685–6
and prosocial behaviour 300 moving faces, infants’ attention to 390 moving objects newborns’ visual scanning of 386 separate objects perception 395, 396–7 multi-route model of lexical development, Barrett 417 multicultural settings, friendships in 192–3 ‘multiple intelligences’, Gardner 590, 591, 596 murders of street children, Brazil 619 musical intelligence 590 naive framework theory of physics 557, 560, 561 narration of stories 423–4 national identity, development of 228–30 National Institute of Child Health and Development (NICHD) Longitudinal Study 132–4 nature and nurture, interaction of 41–2 Needham, A., object separation 395, 396–7 negative emotion regulation, link to parental responsiveness to distress 303 neglect 150–2
extreme deprivation 607–12 neglected peer status 173, 175 behavioural profiles 175 loneliness and social withdrawal 179–80 neighbourhood factors, aggression 354–5 Nelson, K., syntax development 413–14 networked publics 688 neuroimaging techniques 39–40 neuroscience 39–41, 657–9 non-resident fathers 137–8 non-shared environment 36, 194 nonsensical questions 504–5 novel objects, exploration & play 237 novel toy experiment 255, 258
number conservation 459, 460, 461, 462–3 Nunes Carraher, T., maths of street vendors 570–3 nurture groups (NGs) 630–1 obesity concerns
food advertising 282 sedentary computer games 281 object permanence 450, 452 object play 240–1
benefits of 254–5
experiments on 259
exploration preceding 237 study on outcomes of 256–7 Vygotsky on 253
object realism, early pretend play 241–2 object separation 393–4 effects of prior experience on 395, 396–7 objective vs. subjective measures of child well-being 25–6 objectivity of investigations 19–20 observational methods 5, 15–16, 27 observer effects 17 obstetric dilemma (OD) hypothesis 86 offending behaviour 329–31 Olweus, D., bullying prevention 371–4 online activities, adolescents 686–8 online communities of learning 551–2 only children 168–9 oppositional defiant disorder (ODD) 355 organization
encoding strategy 489–90, 491, 493 Piaget’s use of term 446–7 others, children’s understanding of categorization of others 202–3 emotions, desires and beliefs 206–8 national identity 228–30 ‘overlapping waves’ metaphor, Siegler 484 paradigms 28
Paradise, R., guided participation 562 parent-offspring conflict, Trivers 57–8 weaning study 59–61
parental conflict 143–4 parental responsiveness to distress, link to empathy in child 303 parental role in bullying prevention 369 parental sexual orientation, effects on children 224–5 parental values, internalization of 303 parenting inadequate/ineffective models 154–6 positive models 302–3 skill facilitation 304–5 skills and aggression in children 352–3 styles 141–3 participant characteristics 17 participatory principles 620–4 Pascalis, O., face processing 382–4, 391, 401 PATHS intervention 333–5 pattern perception by infants 387–8, 389 pedagogy 54
peer group factors and aggression 353–4 and delinquency 356–7 and passive acceptance of bullying 306–7 peer evaluation and fear of rejection 664 peer group identification 227 peer influence during adolescence 664 peer relations, during adolescence 663–5 social-cognitive map 173 support for victims of bullying 369 peer rejection 175, 177–8, 180, 191, 193 peer relationships controversial children 178 and family 193
importance of 188–90 infants and toddlers 162–3 loneliness 179–80
low peer acceptance 189–90 measurement of 172–3 neglected children 179–80 perceived popularity 178–9 popular children 178
in preschool and school 170–2 and psychopathology 188–9
rejected children 177–8, 180
SIP model 176
social withdrawal 179–80
sociometric status 173–6 peer support systems in schools 308 gender differences 308–9
peer tutoring 574–5
Pellegrini, A.D., object play 256–7 pendulum task, Piaget 466 perception 380–1
auditory perception 398–401
of infants, methods for studying 381–5 intermodal perception 401–2
visual perception 386–98 perinatal risk factors 90–5 permissive parents 142, 143
Perner, J., deception understanding 516–19 ‘person permanence’ 200 familiarity, age and gender 202 personal distress, responsiveness to 301–3 personal intelligence 590 perspective taking 299–300, 454–5 emotional responsiveness 302
and prosocial behaviour 300 ‘persuasive intent’, advertising 285
Petrides, K.V., trait emotional intelligence 212–14 phonological awareness 419, 424, 426 phonological deficit hypothesis 426 phonology 406 physical abuse 150, 153 physical activity play 239, 254 effects of deprivation 258–9 physical aggression of children 131–2 physical assault 151, 152 physical attractiveness and sociometric status 178 physical neglect 150–1, 152 physical punishment 147–9 physical world, children’s understanding of 556–61 Piaget, Jean
background 444–5 cognitive processes in problem-solving 472–3 language and cognition 433–4 language theories 554–5 moral reasoning theory 315–18 play theories 238, 240, 241, 249, 252 synthesis with Vygotsky’s views 575–6 see also cognition, Piaget’s theory picture analogy task 592–3 pidgin languages 432, 433 Pinker, S., pidgin & creole languages 432–3 placenta 81
planned actions/behaviour 450–1, 452 plasticity of human behaviour, models of 63–5 play 234–63
benefits of 253–63
characteristics of 234–7 development of 237–50
factors affecting 249 theorists 250–3
play criteria, Krasnor & Pepler’s model 235–6 ‘play ethos’ 250, 252, 262, 263 play fighting 239–40, 247, 254 play signals 235
play theories 250–3
benefits of play 262–3
Freud, Sigmund 252
Froebel, Friedrich 251
Groos, Karl 251
Hall, G. Stanley 252
Isaacs, Susan 252
Montessori, Maria 251
Piaget, Jean 252
recent theorists 253
Spencer, Herbert 251
Vygotsky, Lev 252–3
play therapy 252, 260–2
play tutoring 249, 259–60 play types 237–8
fantasy/pretend play 241–5 language play 246–7
object play 240–1
physical activity play 239
rough-and-tumble play 239–40 Plester, B., textisms 289–91 pointing by infants 53 political violence, risk to children’s well-being 639 Popper, Karl, falsification 27 popular peer status 175, 178
perceived popularity 178–9 positive parenting, and empathy in children 302–3
postconventional morality 319, 320, 321 Poulin, F., adolescent friendship instability 185–7
poverty compensatory education 631–8 and deprivation 606–7 families overcoming disadvantage of 628–30
and low academic achievement 617
and negative outcomes 617, 625 street children, Brazil 619 practice/functional play 238 practice theory of play, Groos 251
pragmatics 407
preconventional period, Piaget 453–5
preconventional morality 318–19, 320
prediction of behaviour 524 predictive validity 587 preference technique, infant perception 381, 382–4
pregnancy sickness 85 premature/preterm babies 90–5 prenatal development and birth breastfeeding 89–90
from conception to birth 80–5
interaction after birth 88–9 nature of birth 85–8 premature & low birthweight babies 90–5
prenatal growth stages 80–1 prenatal risk factors 82, 85 preoperational stage, cognitive development 453–64

intuitive period 455–60 preconventional period 453–5 reinterpretation of Piaget 460–4
prereading skills 418–23
deficits in children born very prematurely 92–4 preschool education programmes 631–8 pretence, chimpanzees 49–50 pretend play 206, 241–2 between siblings 165, 166 correlational studies 258
cross-cultural comparison 244–5
encouragement of 249
‘equifinality’ model of play 262 examples of 234, 239
experiments on effects of 259 and friendship development 181, 182–3
metarepresentation 531
and play therapy 261
pretence-reality distinction 206–7 role in ToM development 255, 259, 260
sex difference in 249
stages in 243
war toys and war play 247–8
prewriting skills 418–23 primary intersubjectivity 99 primates, advanced abilities 49–50
private speech of preschoolers, Piaget vs. Vygotsky 554–5
proactive aggression 343–4 ‘probability judgement’ task, retrieval problem 475–6 problem-solving 478–87
group work more effective 553, 576
guided participation improving 563–4
mathematical 565–6, 568–9, 570–3
microgenetic approach 485–6
Piaget’s findings 445–6, 450–1, 458, 465–6
product placement 286–8
Project Head Start, US 631–5
Promoting Alternative Thinking Strategies (PATHS)
333–5
prosocial behaviour 298–315
cross-cultural differences 313–15
definitions 298–9
development of 299–302
family factors 302–6 intrinsic value of 299
modelling of 300–1 observational studies 301–2 peer support systems in schools 308
sex differences 308–9, 313 teaching in school 306–8 prosodic sound patterns, infants’ response to 438 protective factors 626 proximal processes 12
psychopathology and peer rejection 188–9
psychosocial acceleration time 652–3
psychosocial risk factors, preadolescents 90–5 psychotherapy, drug-addicted mothers 304–5
puberty
brain development 657–9
growth spurt 647–8 hormonal changes 648–9
psychological effects of 653–60
secular trend in age of menarche 650–2
theories of pubertal timing 652–3
timing of 646–7 variations in maturation rates 649–50

qualitative methods 19 quality of day care 131–4 quality of friendships 183–5 quantitative methods 19 quantity, understanding of 445–6, 458, 459, 460 quasi-experiments 13–14 questioning children achieving best evidence 507
cognitive interview 506–7 suggestibility problems 503–5 questionnaires 16

racial portrayals in media 274 racial prejudice 617–19 reduction of 230
racist bullying 363
Raikes, H., Early Head Start evaluation 633–5 Raven’s Progressive Matrices 586 reactive aggression 343–4 reactive strategies, bullying 370 reactive vs. proactive aggression 343–4, 367
reading 424–5
  and dyslexia 425–8
  prereading skills 418–23
real-world context, intelligence 596–8 reality-pretence distinction 206–7 reality vs. representation 522, 523, 530, 539 reasoning tasks balance scale task, Siegler 478–83 counting tasks 484, 485 proportionality 476–8 recall effect of stress on 507–9 see also memory development ‘reciprocal altruism’ 58 reciprocated friendship, protection against bullying 306 reckless behaviour, adolescents 678–81, 683 recognition of self, infant 201–2 Rees, J., institutional rearing 127–8 referential triangle 241 reflex activity, sensorimotor stage 448, 449 reflexive behaviours, neonates 96
regulation of emotion 208–10
PATHS intervention 333–5 rehearsal, encoding strategy 488–9 rejected peer status 173 behavioural profile 175 home background factors 193 loneliness of 180
  long-term study 190
  and psychopathology 190 social skills training 191 subtypes of 177–8
  rejection, fear of 664 Relational Psychotherapy Mothers’ Group (RPMG) 304–5 see also relationships
see also attachment relationships relative fatness theory, puberty 652 reliability 16–17
  IQ tests 586–7
reputation enhancement theory 354, 356–7 research correalational evidence 12–13 data recording methods 15–16 design issues 6–10
  ecological 10–12
  ethical issues in 20–1 experimental methods 13–15 objectivity & bias 19–20 participants 17–18
  quantitative and qualitative methods 19
  reliability and validity 16–17
research activity involving children community of inquiry 568–9 Hedegaaard’s teaching experiment 552–3 resilience in the face of adversity 626–8 restorative justice, bullying 370 retention limitations 475, 476 retention strategies 490–1 reversibility, Piaget 460 rhyming awareness 419–20 training study 420–2
rights of asylum seeker youth 325–8 of child offenders 329, 331 of children 22–5
  individual, Kohlberg 319, 320 rigidity of behaviour 42–3
risk factors 625–6
  perinatal and psychosocial 90–1, 95
risk-taking behaviours 667–8, 678–81 Rogoff, Barbara 67–8
  community of inquiry 568
  guided participation 69–71, 562–3
romantic development 665–7
rough-and-tumble play 239–40, 249, 254 routine(s) ASD children’s insistence on 533, 534, 541 expectations in infant-mother games 98 Ruck, M.D., moral & social-conventional reasoning 325–8 rules acquisition of, Piaget 315–16, 317 boys’ peer group 309 and Kohlberg’s levels of morality 318–20 social, family relationships teaching 306 social vs. moral domains 324 Rutter, Michael 126, 129, 195, 625, 639
  Isle of Wight study 676–8
  Romanian adoptees (ERA) study 613–16 Sally-Anne task, false beliefs 520–1, 528, 532, 534–5, 540 same-sex parents 224–5 Samoan society, adolescence 682–3 sanctions-based approaches, bullying 370
savants 593–6
‘scaffolding’ concept 99, 546, 556 in guided participation 562
  peer tutoring 574, 575–6
  in practice 556–61
schemas
  constructive memory 495–6
  gender 225–6
  Piaget 446–8, 450
Schliemann, A.D., maths of street vendors 570–3 school exclusions, effects of 618 schooling
  and abstract thinking 549 impact on nature of thinking 570
schools
  evaluation of, attainment tests 602 later starting times 676 moral education 331–2 prosocial behaviour in 306–8
Index

scientific concepts, understanding of 557–61 scientific status of psychology 27–8 Scott, D., newborn & fetal response to maternal voice 83–4 screening attainment tests 602 for dyslexia 427 social context of learning 546–76 Bruner’s impact 555–6, 559–70
collective argumentation 564–8
educational implications 569–75
Hedegaard’s experiment 552–3 Piaget & Vygotsky on language 554–5 scaffolding teaching methods 556–62 sociocultural origins of individual cognition 547–52 Vygotsky 546–7
social conventions, reasoning about 324–8 social-cultural context of intelligence 596–8 social development and day care quality 133 social dominance in older children 341–2 and perceived popularity 179 strategies used to achieve 347–8 in younger children 340–1 social emotions, processing of 664 social impairments, ASD children 540–1 Social Information Processing (SIP) model 176 maladaptive nature of aggression 346–7
reactive vs. proactive aggression 343–4, 366–7 social interactions infants 95–100
and ToM development 525–6 social isolation concerns, computer game playing 281 social learning 45–6
precondition of culture 47 social learning theory, gender identity 223–4 social meanings, shared 549 social networking 686–8 use by adolescents 688 and ZPD concept 531–2
social re-integration, abducted girls 620–4 social referencing 205–6 social skills of parents, link to child’s aggression 352–3 peer interaction, SIP model 176 training in 191
victims of bullying 367
social understanding, link to interpersonal interactions 305–6 social vs. active self 215–16 social withdrawal 179–80
socialization broad and narrow 683 of gender differences 313
prosocial behaviour 302–3 socially disadvantaged children racial prejudice/discrimination 617–19 reintegration of girls abducted by armed forces 620–3 street children 619
in the UK 616–17
sociobiological theory 57–8 sociocultural model, Rogoff 67–8 cookie sales study 69–71 sociodramatic play 242, 247, 249, 255, 260 sociograms 172–3
sociometric status 173–5, 177–80 long-term study linking friendship to 190 sociometry 172–3
sounds auditory perception 398–401 categorizing, training in 420–2 conditioning infants to respond to 385 discrimination of different syllables 399–400 and language learning 400–1 of speech, neonates’ orientation towards 95–6 source monitoring, recalling origins of memories 504 spanking methods 148–9
spatial ability, link to constructive play 258 Spearman, Charles, general factor of intelligence 589 speech adult-child 437–9 telegraphic 431–12, 430–1 perception, early infancy 399–400, 401 Spelke, E.S., object separation 393–4 spelling 420–2
dyslexic children 426, 427
Spencer, Herbert, play 251
SSLPs (Sure Start Local Programmes) 636–7 stage-like performance on problem-solving tasks 476–84 vs. ‘overlapping waves’ idea 484–5 stage model of children’s strategy development 485 standardized tests 602
Stanford-Binet scale 582, 585, 587 stepfamilies/step-parenting 146–7 and child abuse 153
and child’s emotional well-being 157 stereotypes effect on suggestibility of eyewitness reports 499–502 television generating false 273–5 Sternberg, R.J., intelligence theories 590–3, 597, 598 stillbirth experience, predicting disorganized attachment 117 storage limitations, memory tasks 475–6 stories, creation of and response to 423–4 Strange Situation (SS) 110–11 coding linked to parent AAI scores 122–3 continuity over time 120–1 cross-cultural studies 112 Dogon people, Mali 114, 115 strangers, wary reactions to 205 street children, Brazil 619 mathematical abilities 570–3 stress influence on recall 507–9 and pubertal timing 652–3 structural approach to play 235 subcultural differences, cognitive processes 550 subjective vs. objective measures of child well-being 25–6 suggestibility of children 498–505 Sulloway, Frank J., birth order theory 170 supervision neglect 151, 152 support group approach, bullying 370–1 Sure Start, UK 635–8
surrogate parents, grandparents as 139–40 symbolic communication 49, 52 symbolic play 238
symbolic thought, Piaget 453–4 sympathy, motivating prosocial behaviour 300 syntax 407
Chomsky's views 429–30
development of 412–15, 417–18
syntactic bootstrapping hypothesis, Gleitman 416–17 Tomasello's views 436–7 systematizing, link to fetal testosterone levels 81–2 tactical deception 50, 51 teaching animal examples 48, 53
of moral values 331–5
pedagogy 54
sibling influence 165
teaching methods
dialogical learning 564–8
guided participation 562–4 learning communities 568–9 research activity, Hedegaard 552–3 see also 'scaffolding' concept telegraphic speech 411–12, 430–1 television 268–78
aggression & violence 275–6 attentiveness to 268–9 comprehension of programmes 269 fact-fiction distinction 269–70 limited learning from 270 longitudinal studies 276–8 reasons for watching 268
in relation to other activities 271–3 Sesame Street 271
and stereotypes 273–5
temperament 100–3
and aggression 350–1 interaction effect, low-quality childcare 133 and parental response 36, 156, 195, 350 and resilience 627–8
Tenenbaum, H.R., moral and social-conventional reasoning 325–8 Terman, Lewis
adaptation of Binet-Simon scale 582 giftedness study 600
testosterone levels in utero and subsequent systematizing 81–2 tests see intelligence tests text messaging, effects on school literacy 289–91 Thaiss, L., mental representation in ASD 537–40 theories, role of 27
to theory of mind (ToM) 514–15 after 4 years of age 526–9 age at which achieved 524–6 children with ASD 533–41
development of 524–6
early communications 299–300 early knowledge of mind 522–4 evolution of 51–3
explanations/theories 529–33
false-belief task 514–21 precursors of 206–7
and pretend play 255, 258, 259–60 sibling influences 167 therapy, play 260–2 thinking/thought language as tool for 554–5
in non-human primates 49–50 three mountains task, Piaget 454–5 Borke's version of 456–7
Thurstone, L.L., primary mental abilities 589 Tizard, B., institutional rearing 127–8 tool making and use chimpanzees 46, 49, 50, 52 in early childhood 256–7 toy guns and weapons 247–8, 258 traditions, in animals 47, 49 training
assertiveness 369–70
in emotional literacy 216–18 in formal thinking 467 and learning new skills 41 in mediation skills 310
peer tutoring 574–5
play tutoring 249, 259–60
in social skills 191, 367 sound categorization skills 421–2 in visual discrimination 419 trait EI (emotional intelligence) 211, 212–14 transitive inference tasks 461, 463–4 transsexual parents 224 trial-and-error vs. planned behaviour 450–1, 452 triarchic theory of intelligence, Sternberg 591–2, 593 ture (controlled) experiments 14 True, M.M., infant-mother attachment, Mali 113–15 trust of peers, in adolescence 664–5 Turmel, E. 317, 324, 328–9 Turkish adolescents, puberty study 654–6 turmoil of adolescence 669–78 tutoring see training
twin studies 33–4, 35
attachment type 36, 112 callous-unemotional traits 352 case study of severe neglect 608–10 closeness of twins 167–8 delinquency in adolescence 36, 350 intelligence, Cyril Burt's data 21
language development 167–8
premature infants 91 temperament and aggression origins 350 ultrasound scanning 16, 83, 399
UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) 22, 24, 25, 331 understanding of emotions, PATHS 333–5 understanding of mind see theory of mind (ToM) unhealthy food products, advertising of 282–5, 288 UNICEF, well-being report cards 25 Unresolved adults, attachment 120, 122, 123–4 unresolved maternal state of mind 117, 122 validity 15, 16–17
IQ tests 587
vantage sensitivity 65
Veale, A., young mothers’ social reintegration 620–3 verb island hypothesis 435, 436 verbal aggression 309, 344 ‘verbal stimulation’ hypothesis 259 very preterm infant (VPI) 90–5 victimization consequences of 367–8 risk factors for 367
video games 248–9
violence between parents 143–4 child maltreatment 149–54 in teenage relationships 666 on television, influence of 275–8 in video games 281
virtual communities 688 visual cliff experiments 205, 395, 398
visual perception 386–98
VLBW (very low birthweight) infants 90, 91, 95 vocabulary learning from DVDs 270 Vosniadou, S., scaffolding in practice 556–61
VPI (very preterm infant) 90–5
Vygotsky, Lev 546–7
language and thought 554–5 play theory 252–3
social context of cognition 547–9 synthesis with Piaget’s views 575–6 zone of proximal development (ZPD) 551–2
Walk, R. D., visual cliff 395
Walton, G.E., maternal face recognition 390 war toys and war play 247–8 weaning, conflict associated with 59–61 web-based advertisements 286–7 Wechsler intelligence scales for children (WISC) 583–6 well-being of children 25–6
and family status 157
Westermarck effect 58, 62 whole-school approach, bullying prevention 368–9 Wimmer, H., deception understanding 516–19
Wolke, D., cognitive development of very preterm children 92–4 Wood, C., textisms 289–91 word learning 411–17 word recognition at very early age 400 working memory 473–4 basing recall on 476 improved by knowledge in long-term memory 486–7 limited in younger children 474, 475, 478 young mothers’ social integration, Africa 620–4 young offenders’ rights 24–5 young people as researchers 17–18 rights of 23–4 youth crime alarmist writings 21 and moral development 329–31 zone of proximal development (ZPD) 551–2 zygote 80