Foreword, by Barbara Sourkes, PhD  xi
Preface  xv
Acknowledgments  xix

Part I
Overview and Introduction: Theoretical Framework for Collaborative Practice  1

Chapter 1  _______________________________________
When a Young Person’s Health Becomes Problematic  3
Nancy Boyd Webb and Rose A. Bartone

Chapter 2  _______________________________________
The Emotional Impact of a Young Person’s Illness on the Family  21
Cindy Dell Clark

Chapter 3  _______________________________________
The Economic, Social, and Cultural Context of Health Care  35
Virginia Ronero Hernandez

Part II
Helping Approaches of Practitioners in Different Settings  57

Chapter 4  _______________________________________
A Behavioral Pediatrician’s Perspective on Helping Children Recover from Traumatic Medical Experiences  59
Joan Lovett

Chapter 5  _______________________________________
Child Life Practice in Hospitals  73
Deborah Vilas
viii Contents

Chapter 6  Working with Families of Medically Challenged Youth  89
Jennifer Baggerly

Chapter 7  School-Based Interventions for Children and Youth with Medical Conditions  105
Suzanne C. Griffith and Rosemary Doyle

Chapter 8  School Social Work Interventions for Medically Compromised Youth and Families  121
Linda Openshaw

Chapter 9  Strengths-Based Group Work with Children  137
Ariel Allena Botta

Chapter 10  Play and Expressive Therapies with Medically Challenged Children and Adolescents  155
Nancy Boyd Webb

Chapter 11  Meeting the Spiritual Needs of Children with Chronic and Life-Threatening Illness  171
Paul Thayer
Part III
Challenges and Issues Associated with Chronic, Ongoing, or Recurring
Physical Conditions and Disabilities 187

Chapter 12
Medical Conditions Present at Birth 189
Patrick Shannon

Chapter 13
Medical Conditions That Appear During Early Childhood 205
Roxia B. Bullock

Chapter 14
Other Conditions That May Occur in
Childhood or Develop in Adolescence 225
M. Carlean Gilbert

Part IV
Acute Health Crises 241

Chapter 15
Outpatient Counseling for Children and Youth
with Life-Threatening Conditions 243
Douglas Davies and Nancy Boyd Webb

Chapter 16
Hospital Treatment of Children and Youth
with Life-Threatening Conditions 269
Elaine C. Meyer

Chapter 17
Helping in the Emergency Room after
Accidents and Traumatic Injury 285
Leslie H. Wind
Part V
Challenges and Guidelines for Helping 303

Chapter 18
The Challenge of Maintaining Hope and Fostering Resiliency: Implications for Youth, Families, and Practitioners 305
Nancy Boyd Webb

Appendix
Child-, Youth-, and Family-Health-Related Professional Organizations 317
Training Programs and Certificates Related to Helping Medically Challenged Youth and Families 321
Child-, Youth-, and Family-Health-Related Professional Journals 324
Additional Health-Related Resources for Youth and Families 330

About the Editor 335
About the Contributors 337
Author Index 341
Subject Index 351