Contents

Introduction

- xi

Part One

1 Subjectivity and Ipseity

- 3
  - 1.1 From kant to cybernetics 5
  - 1.2 The sense of self and the variety of experience 7
  - 1.3 Nonlinear systems and the construction of the self 8
    - Nonlinear systems 8
    - Construction of the self 10
  - 1.4 The organization of living systems and constructivism of the self 12
    - The organization of living systems 13
    - Constructivism of the self 14
  - 1.5 Robert’s self from a systemic perspective 17
  - 1.6 The continuity of the sense of self 18
  - 1.7 The return of the world and the question ‘who?’ (die werfrage) 19
    - Returning to the world 20
    - The question ‘who?’ (die werfrage) 21
  - 1.8 Finding itself in things and with others 23
  - 1.9 Reflection 24
  - 1.10 Meaning 25
  - 1.11 Inclination 27

2 Ipseity and Language

- 33
  - 2.1 Traces of the other 33
  - 2.2 Shared meaning 35
  - 2.3 Finding oneself in the world: suggestions from phenomenology 37
  - 2.4 Body-to-body 39
CONTENTS

1  2.5 The significativity of expressions and objects 42
2  2.6 Referential communication 43
3  2.7 Oneself in the mirror and in the refraction of language 46
4  2.8 Recognition of self in the mirror and in language 48
5  2.9 Affective engagements 51
6  2.10 Acting and speaking 53

3 Personal Identity 61
  3.1 Speaking of the past 63
  3.2 Stories of the future 64
  3.3 The sense of self in the age of reason 66
  3.4 The modes of identity 67
  3.5 Inclinations 71
  3.6 Situatedness 74
  3.7 The body, pain and others 75

4 Emotioning 83
  4.1 Embodied emotions and judgements of the body 83
  4.2 E-moting 86
  4.3 E-moting with others 89
  4.4 Emotional inclinations 91
  4.5 Constructionist situatedness 93
  4.6 The impact of technology 95
  4.7 Technological tuning 97
  4.8 Mediated affective engagement 98

Part Two 103

5 The Eating Disorder-prone Style of Personality 107
  5.1 Co-perceiving the self and other 110
  5.2 Disorders 115
    Anorexia nervosa 115
    Bulimia nervosa 117
    Binge-eating disorder 120
    Disorders connected to male body shape 122
    Behavioural addictions (compulsive buying, pathological gambling, kleptomania, internet addiction, impulsive-compulsive sexual behaviour, pyromania) 124

6 The Obsessive-Compulsive-prone Style of Personality 129
  6.1 Michael Kohlhaas 130
  6.2 Mr Prokharchin 133
  6.3 Disorders 137
    Thematic personality disorders 140
    Obsessive-compulsive disorders 146