INDEX

A
Accounts receivables, 160
Acquisitions, 145
Advertising, 163
Affordable Care Act (Obamacare), 42, 59, 83, 84, 124
Africa, 206–207, 212
African Americans, 66
Age groups:
country comparisons of, 62–64
demographic trends by, 47–53
Generation Y, 66–67 income of/spending by older people, 53–58
long-term investing guidelines for, 192–198
and passing the mantle of power, 204–205
social compact with older Americans, 58–61
what younger generation needs to do, 209, 211–214 Aging population. See also Demographic trends
in China, 33
entitlement programs tied to, 45
and financial stress, 46
and forecast Great Depression, 62
health of, 48–49
and medical industry forecast, 40
and partisan ideologies, 204–205
Annuities, 199–200
Apartment buildings, 100
Asian Americans, 66
Asset allocation:
diversification vs., 182
in long-term investing, 185–192
in your forties and fifties, 196–197
in your thirties, 194–196
Asset price bubbles, 80–82
Asset price inflation, 74
Austerity, 216
Australia, 72, 105–109, 112, 128, 199
Balance sheet, 155–156
Banks, economic risk and, 14
Behrens, William, III, 24
Bellin, Clark, 170, 195
Bernanke, Ben, 11–13, 30, 122
Black swan events, 46
Bonds, 187–189
corporate, 134–135, 188
during Great Depression, 199–200
for people in forties and fifties, 196–197
Bond funds, 100–101, 189
Bond prices, 100
Bowles, Erskine, 49
Brazil, 62, 63, 90
Budget reduction goals, 157–158
Business cycle(s):
inflation compounding through, 73
initial impetus for rise in, 42
Phase A (advancing toward recovery), 141–146
Phase B (rising trend), 97, 147–151
Business cycle(s) (Continued)

Phase C (deteriorating economy), 153–161
Phase D (descending below zero line), 162–166
rules for managing, 167–168
spotting top of, 201
Business development, 149–150
Business inflation, 74–75
Business-to-business activity forecast, 42–43

C
Canada, 105–110
age groups in, 63, 64
aging population in, 62
deficit-financed stimulus spending in, 34–35 government bonds from, 199
per capita debt in, 112
as U.S. trading partner, 128
Canadian dollar, 110–111
Capacity constraints, 154–155
Capital equipment/expenditures, 146, 160–161, 164
Cash, using credit vs., 194
Cash conservation, 155–156
CBS Records, 27
Central America, 62, 63, 206–207
Central banks, 11, 42, 94.
See also Federal Reserve System
Charitable contributions, 57, 58, 185
Cheap oil trend, 24–26
Chile, 109
China:
age groups in, 63, 64
cost of labor in, 94–95
ease of doing business in, 108
entitlement program funds in, 110 growth trend in, 31–34
imported goods from, 94
and inflation, 74
manufacturing jobs in, 2
per capita debt in, 111, 112
as U.S. trading partner, 127–129
Chrysler, 27
Columbia Pictures, 27
Commercial property, 165–166
Commodity prices, 144, 203–204
Community Reinvestment Act, 29
Competitive disadvantages, 159
Competitors:
buying companies of, 214
grabbing market share of, 165–166
Conference Board Consumer Confidence Index, 3–4, 6
Conference Board U.S. Leading Indicators, 7
Confidence indicators, 3–8
Consumer prices, rise in, 76
Consumer spending:
by 65-and-older group, 53, 55–58
and anticipated price increases, 78
forecasted for 2015–2017, 39–42
and Medicare/Social Security benefits, 60–61 substitution phenomenon in, 79
Contracts, 144, 209–210
Corn prices, 91
Corporate bond prices, 134–135, 188
Cost of capital, 96
Cost of living allowances (COLAs), 58, 71–72
Creating Competitive Advantage (Jaynie Smith and William Flanagan), 97–98
Credit, 78, 165
Credit cards, 194
Cross-training, 158
Customer needs, 145

D
D. R. Horton, 163
Datsun, 27
Debt, 41, 213. See also Sovereign debt
Index

Decision making, 1–19
   based on nominal values, 76
   and confidence indicators, 3–8 and Federal Reserve System, 9–15 and ITR Economics’ forecast accuracy, 16–19
   and newspapers/media, 15–16
   and politics, 8–9
   and trends, 3
Defense appropriations, 9
Defensive Management Objectives, 141
   for Phase C, 155–161
   for Phase D, 163–166
Deflation, 70–73, 94–95, 120–121, 188
Deming, W. Edwards, 169
Democratic Party, 8, 9
Demographic trends, 45–67
   by age groups, 47–53
   drivers of, 45
   income of older people, 53–56
   Medicare and Social Security spending, 58–61
   in other countries, 61–65
   outmaneuvering, 61, 65–67
   spending by older people, 56–58
Dependency ratio, 48, 52, 58, 65
Depreciation, 99
Derivatives, 29–30
Disability Insurance (DI), 59, 60
Diversification, 182, 183, 212–213
Dodd Frank Act, 14
Domestically-sourced inflation, 82–94
   from going green, 89–92
   from health care costs, 82–89
   from labor prices, 92–94
   measuring, 82–83
Duguay, Andrew, 135

E
East Europe, 206–207
Economic growth:
   2014–2015 forecast, 37
   2015–2017 forecast, 39, 40
   and size of national debt, 120
   speed of, 10
Economic history (U.S.), 8–9
Economic imbalances, 205–206
Economic risk, 14
Efficiencies, business, 72–73, 87, 210
Ehrlich, Anne, 23
Ehrlich, Paul, 23
Electricity costs, 89–90
Employees: effect of inflation on, 76–77
   health insurance contributions from, 86–88 lack of needed skill sets in, 92–94, 176 replaced with technology, 79, 96–97
   workforce reductions, 156–157
Employment, 11, 79–80, 93.
   See also Unemployment Energy distribution, 170–171
Energy technologies, 25, 26
Entertainment field, 180, 213
Environmental regulations, 89–92
Equities (stocks), 39, 81, 187–188, 213
   Escalators, 210
   in measuring inflation, 82–85
   to protect from inflation, 95–98
   Ethanol, in fuels, 90–92
   Europe, 62–64, 74, 206–207
   European Union, 128
   Europe Economic Sentiment Index, 8
   Europe Export Volume, 8
   Europe Industrial Production Index, 8
   Europe Leading Indicator, 8
   Exchange traded funds (ETFs), 170.
   See also Stock market opportunities
   Expansion plans, 150–151, 155
Fairchild Semiconductor, 27
False signals, 3
Fannie Mae, 13
INDEX

Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC), 14
Federal Reserve Act of 1913, 10
Federal Reserve System, 9–15
under Bernanke, 11–13
and employment rates, 94
and Great Recession, 11–13
and housing bubble, 29
responsibilities of, 10
stated goal of, 11
and years in recession, 9, 11
Financial crisis (2008), 14
Financial crisis (circa 2026–2036), 62
Financial institutions, 14
Fisher, Richard, 14
Flanagan, William, 98
Food industry, 23, 56, 57, 84–85, 179–180
Ford, Gerald, 25, 27
Forecasts, Great Depression (2030–2040)
for 2014–2015, 37
for 2015–2017, 37–43
ITR Economics’ accuracy of, 16–19
and length of trends, 35
straight-line, 22, 23
Freddie Mac, 13
Fujitsu, 27

G
General Electric (GE), 94
General Motors, 27, 29
General price inflation, 74, 80, 81
Germany, 62, 63, 106–110, 112, 128
Global economy, 205–206
Globalization, 92, 94
Goals of economic health, 10
Going green, 89–92
Gold, investing in, 191–192
Great Depression (1930s), 202, 218 Great Depression (2030–2040): business growth strategies and tactics leading up to, 131–140
and difficulty of changes, 45
and erosion of spendable income, 56 investment preparations for, 198–200 philanthropic opportunities during, 218–219
and price increases, 73
protection of children from, 218 signs indicating start of, 201–207
and Social Security spending, 60, 61
staving off, 215–217
Great Recession (2008–2009), 11–13 conditions following, 21, 22
deficit spending in, 107
and housing bubble, 30
and long-term effects of inflation, 79
and stock market trends, 30–31
Greece, 108
Gross domestic product (GDP): and decline in spending by the elderly, 56
federal revenues as percent of, 120, 124 federal spending as percent of, 124
forecasted, for United States, 39, 40 manufacturing as percent of (U.S.), 43
in measuring inflation, 82
sovereign debt as percentage of, 107–108, 117, 118
of United States and China, 31 world, 31, 32

H
Health: and lifestyle improvement, 213, 216
and retirement age, 48–49
Health care:
federal spending on, 124, 125
and services to aging population, 40
stock market opportunities in, 174–175
Health care costs:
increases in, 56
inflation of, 82–89
as percent of GDP, 124
Index

reduced by lifestyle improvement, 213
reigning in, 57
saving enough for, 78
and unhealthy lifestyles, 85
Health insurance, 85, 86.
   See also Medicaid; Medicare
Hedging, 95–98, 190–191
Highway Trust Fund, 91
Hiring, 146
Hispanic community, 65–66
Home Depot, 190
Honda, 27
Household debt, 41
Housing. See also Real estate and onset of Great Depression, 198
   stock market opportunities in, 177
Housing bubble, 12–13, 29–30
Housing prices:
   forecasted for 2015–2017, 41
   and Great Recession, 11
   history of, 189–191
Housing starts, 138–139
Human ingenuity, 23

I
IDTechEx, 172
Imported inflation, 94–95
Income: areas of opportunity for, 213
   in China, 33
   multiple streams of, 212–213
   of older people, 53–56
   sources of, by age groups, 54–55
India, 62, 63, 72, 74
Industrial production, 11
Industrial Production Index, 13
Inflation, 69–103. See also Price increases business tips for managing, 95–98
   and COLAs, 71–72
   consequences of, 76–77
   current rate of, 71
   and decline in value of U.S. dollar, 121
   and decreased standard of living, 58 and deflation, 70–71
   domestically-sourced, 82–94
   do's and don'ts for managing, 101–102 forms and causes of, 74–75
   from going green, 89–92
   from health care costs, 82–89
   imbalances from, 69
   impacts of, 77–80
   imported, 94–95
   individuals' tips for managing, 98–101
   from labor prices, 92–94
   from money supply growth, 80–82
   and natural resources, 178 officially-registered vs. experienced, 76–77
   overestimating, 98, 101
   and Phillips Curve, 102–103
   preventing, 70
   and price commitments, 73–74
   public perception of, 203–204
   and real vs. stated growth, 75–76
   sources of, 80–95
   and spending by the elderly, 56 transition from deflation to, 72–73
   as trend, 28–29
   and unemployment, 79–80, 102–103
   Institute for Supply Management (ISM), 8, 135–136
   Interest rates, 114, 122
   Inventory management, 210
   Inverted people pyramids, 64, 65
   Investing:
      in assets that fare well during inflation, 98–101
      during Great Depression, 199–200
      long-term, See Long-term investing to prepare for Great Depression, 65, 198–199
   short-term, 182
   spending and saving vs., 184
Investing (Continued)

by those reaching retirement age, 197–198

by younger generations, 212

in your forties and fifties, 196–197

in your thirties, 194–196

in your twenties, 193–194

iShares MSCI Mexico Capped ETF, 173

iShares North American Natural Resources ETF, 178

iShares U.S. Healthcare ETF, 175

iShares U.S. Real Estate, 190

Israelsen, Craig, 183, 195, 197–198

ITR Economics:

forecast accuracy of, 16–19

forecast for 2015–2017 by, 37–43

and Great Recession, 30

ITR Leading Indicator, 39, 135

J

Japan, 106–110

age groups in, 63, 64

aging population in, 62

declining population of, 113

deflation in, 70

economic power of, 26–28

investments in, 113

per capita debt in, 112, 113

reigning inflation in, 74

as U.S. debt purchaser, 114

L

Labor contracts, 144

Labor prices:

in China, 94–95

downward pressure on, 92

inflation from, 92–94

locking in, 97

and unemployment, 79, 80

Language, second, 212

Latin America, 109

Leadership, 210–211

Leading indicators, 7–8

for 2015–2016, 38

of business activity, 134–139

determining timing relationship to,

37–38

as objective vs. subjective, 41

prior to Great Depression, 203

Leases, 98, 144, 163–164

Lifestyle improvement, 213, 216

The Limits to Growth (Meadows, Meadows, Randers, and Behrens), 24

Local governments, 40, 125, 126

Locked-in prices, 73, 74, 97

Log scale, 185

London Financial Times, 15

Long-term investing, 182–200

by age group, 192–198

asset allocation, 185–192

in Japan, 113

overview of, 182–185

and preparing for the Great Depression, 198–200

M

Malthus, Thomas, 23

Management Objectives:

for Phase A, 144–146

for Phase B, 147–151

for Phase C, 155–161

for Phase D, 163–166

Management skills, 210–211

Manufacturing, 2, 43, 94

Manufacturing Producer Price Index, 73, 74

Meadows, Dennis, 24

Meadows, Donella, 24

Media, forecasting by, 15–16

Medicaid, 49, 83, 85, 86

Medical care index, 83

Medical industry, 40, 217.

See also Health care

Medicare, 58–61

coverage under, 88–89

expenditure increases under, 85, 86

and medical care index, 83

Simpson-Bowles Report on, 49
Index

Metrics of business activity, 132–139
leading indicators system, 134–139
monthly moving totals, 132
rate-of-change, 132–133
using, 133–134
Mexico, 105–109
age groups in, 63
age of population, 62
manufacturing in, 43
per capita debt in, 111, 112
stock market opportunities in, 172–173
as U.S. trading partner, 128
Middle class, 33, 65
Monetary supply growth, 80–82
Monthly moving totals (MMTs), 132
Mutual funds, 198

N
National debt:
  global perspective on, 106–115
  of United States, See United States national debt
National security, 177–178
Natural resources, 178–179, 213
New markets and accounts, 150
Newspapers, forecasting by, 15–16
Next-generation adaptations, 209–214
  by business owners and managers, 209–211
  by younger people, 211–214
Niche products and services, 66
Nissan, 27
Nixon, Richard, 25
Nominal rate of return, 77–78
Nominal values, 75–76

O
Offensive Management Objectives, 141
  for Phase A, 144–146
  for Phase B, 147–151
Oil prices, 24–26
Old-Age and Survivors Insurance (OASI), 59–60
Orders vs. Inventory Levels (leading indicator), 137
Organizational restructuring, 164–165
Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development, 31
Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC), 25
Outsourcing, 149

P
Peak Oil Theory, 25
Pension income, 53–55
Peru, 109
Phase A (advancing toward recovery), 141–146
Phase B (rising trend), 97, 147–151
Phase C (deteriorating economy), 153–161
Phase D (descending below zero line), 162–166
Philanthropic opportunities, 218–219
Phillips Curve, 79, 102–103
Politics, 8–9, 46, 62, 67
Pollution, in China, 33
The Population Bomb (Paul and Anne Ehrlich), 23–24
Population growth, 22–24, 45–48, 51
PowerShares Dynamic Food and Beverage Portfolio ETF, 179
PowerShares Dynamic Leisure and Entertainment Portfolio ETF, 180
PowerShares Dynamic Oil and Gas Services Portfolio, 171
PowerShares Water Resources Portfolio ETF, 174
Precious metals, 191–192, 195, 197
Presidential election years, 8
Preventing inflation, 70
Price commitments, inflation and, 73–74
Price increases. See also Inflation anticipated, as reason for buying, 78 as driver of business profits, 205 efficiencies vs., 210

Index 229
Price increases (Continued)
in Phase B, 148
during Phase B of business cycle, 97
public perception of, 203–204
wage increases and, 76
Price stability, 70
Printed electronics, 171–172
Printing money, 120–121
Private health insurance, 85–88
Process flow, 148
Producer Price Index (PPI), 73, 82, 96
Products, weeding, 158–159
Productivity, 72, 87, 93, 205
Pulte Homes, 190
Purchase commitments, 159, 163
Purchasing Managers Index, 7, 135–136
Purchasing other companies, 166–167, 214
Purchasing power, 77, 111, 121
Q
Quality, 148
R
Randers, Jorgen, 24
Rate-of-change, 97, 132–133, 153, 162
Real estate. See also Housing... entries
commercial property, 165–166
investing in, 100
for people in forties and fifties, 197
in post-depression economy, 213
thirty-something group’s investment in, 195
Real growth, 75–76
Realism, 150
Real rate of return, 77–78
Recessions, 10–11, 56, 190, 202
Regenerative medicine, 217
Republican Party, 8, 9 Resources:
    misallocation of, 2
    natural, 178–179, 213
Retail sales, 41, 43, 139
Retirement age:
    and borrowing, 99
    and health of older population, 48–49 increasing, 215–216
    investing in final years before, 197–198
Retirement income, 53–55, 67
Risk, 2, 14
Russia, 62–64, 106–112, 128
S
Sales staff, 146
Saving:
    for health care, 88–89
    inflation’s impact on, 77–78
    investing vs., 184
    to prepare for Great Depression, 65
    by younger generations, 212
    in your twenties, 193
Security field, 177–178
’Twelve (Craig Israelsen), 183, 195
Short-term investing, 182
Simpson, Alan, 49
Simpson-Bowles Report, 49–50
Skilled labor needs, 92–94, 176
Small Business General Business Conditions Index, 3–4, 6–7
Small Business Optimism Index, 3–4, 6–7
Small Business Sales Expectations Index, 3–4, 6–7
Smart Advantage, Inc., 98
Smith, Jaynie, 97–98
Social Security, 58–61
    as income component, 54, 55
    as percent of federal budget, 121
    as percent of GDP, 124
    Simpson-Bowles Report on, 49–50
Sony, 27
Sovereign debt, 105–115
    financial threat of, 105–106
    global perspective on, 106–115
    interest payments on, 109–111
    making payments on, 109–110
    as percentage of GDP, 107–108, 117, 118
of the United States, 117–125, 127–129
and wealth of citizens, 111–113
S&P 500, 30, 137–138, 185–186
Spending, investing vs., 184.
See also Consumer spending
Spinning off weak segments, 151
Standard of living:
and environmental regulations, 89–92
and inflation, 58, 76–79
and wage rates, 93
Stated growth, real growth vs., 75–76
State governments, 40, 125–127
Status quo, 21–22
Stewart, Scott, 190–191
Stimulus spending, 34–35
Stock market. See also S&P 500
during 2014, 39
asset price bubbles in, 81
corrections in, 14
equities investments in 2015, 39
future crash of, 213
investments in, 187
as leading indicator, 137–138
making decisions about investments in, 2
trends in, 30–31
Stock market opportunities, 169–180
in energy distribution, 170–171
in entertainment, 180
in food, 179–180
in health care, 174–175
in housing, 177
in Mexico, 172–173
in natural resources, 178–179
in printed electronics, 171–172
in security, 177–178
in 3-D printing, 176–177
in vocational education, 176
in water conservation and distribution, 173–174
Straight-line thinking, 22, 23, 29, 150, 159–160
Substitution phenomenon, 79
Switzerland, 199

T Taxes, 185
and consumer spending, 41–42
and national debt, 117, 118
and reduction of public debt, 120 on the rich, 67
Simpson-Bowles Report on,
49–50
Technology:
for food production, 23
investing in, 146
potential advances in, 217
replacing people with, 79, 96–97
3-D printing (additive manufacturing),
176–177
Timing the market, 82
Toyota, 27
Training programs, 145, 158
TransCanada, 170
Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities
(TIPS), 100, 195
Treasury Notes, 122
Trends, 21–35
cheap oil, 24–26
China's growth, 31–34
and decision making, 3
demographic, See Demographic trends
housing bubble, 29–30
inflation, 28–29
Japan's economic power, 26–28
population growth, 22–24
stimulus spending, 34–35
stock market, 30–31

U
Unemployment:
inflation’s impact on, 79–80, 102–103
and labor prices, 92–94
and lack of needed skill sets, 92–93
Unemployment insurance, 80
Union contracts, 144
United Kingdom, 106–109, 111–113
United States:
age groups in, 63
aging population of, 45.
See also Demographic trends certainty indicators in, 6–7
ease of doing business in, 108
ethanol production in, 90, 91
federal revenues of, 120
forecasted GDP for, 39, 40
GDPS of China and, 31 government actions to stave off Great Depression, 215–216 home prices in, 189–190
inflation in, 70, 74
interest paid by, 110
just prior to predicted Great Depression, 204
per capita debt in, 111–112
population growth by age, 47–48 projected population of, 45–46 projected preeminence of economy, 46 size of economy, 61
skill-training gap in, 176
spending problem in, 120–122 stimulus spending in, 34, 35 trading partners of, 127–129
transition into inflation in, 72
U.S. Congressional Budget Office (CBO), 117, 120–125
U.S. Consumer Price Index (CPI): during 1960s-1980s, 28–29
in measuring inflation, 82–85
and protecting from inflation, 96
and supplier price increases, 73–74
and unemployment rate, 103
U.S. dollar, 25, 110–111, 120–121
U.S. Leading Indicator, 136–137
U.S. Treasuries, 100, 114, 122, 195
United States national debt, 105
CBO-projected, 117
current state of, 117–122
future outlook for, 122–125
impact on other countries, 127–129 increase in, 106
and increase in revenue, 118–120
interest payments on, 109, 110, 121, 124, 125
Japan as holder of, 113–114
as percentage of GDP, 106–107, 117, 118, 122–124
and state/local government debts, 125–127
University of Michigan Consumer Expectations Index, 3–4, 6–7
University of Michigan Consumer Expectations Index—Monthly, 3–4, 6–7 Utility costs, 89
V
Vendors, 73–74, 161
Vocational education, 176
Volcker, Paul, 29
Voter participation, 50, 59
W Wages: and needed skill sets, 93
and price increases, 76
and unemployment, 79, 92–94
Wall Street Journal, 15
Water conservation and distribution, 173–174
Wealth creation, 213–214
Wilson, Woodrow, 10
Workforce expectations, 210
Workforce reductions, 156–157
World debt, 105
Y
Yom Kippur War (1973), 25