Subject Index

A
Academic content, sequencing of, 372–373
Accelerated courses, design for, 361
Acceleration, in simulations, 292
Accountability: enhanced, 239–242, 381; group, 160–161; individual, 160–161
Achievement, motivation as important as, 4–7
Acknowledgment: of effort, 350; as positive closure, 358; of ways of knowing, languages, and levels, 177–180, 187, 380
Action: effective, 301; research, 273–276; words, in objectives, 167–168
Active learning, 234, 355, 383
Activities. See Learning activities
Adaptive challenge, 286–287
Adaptive decision making, 286–287, 318
Adult Multiple Intelligences Study, 219
Adults: defined, 30–33, 83; knowledge constructed to be beneficial for, 50–51; low-income, 23–24; working-age, 30; younger, 30. See also Older adults
Adults as Learners (Cross), 40
Advance organizers, 69
Advanced Learning Technologies Project (ALTEC), 330
Adventure education, 299
Advocates, motivating instructors as, 61–62
Affective goals, 167
Age: concepts of, 29–30; cultural diversity and, 33–34; effects of, 33–41; memory and, 40–41
Alertness, attention paid to, 299
ALTEC. See Advanced Learning Technologies Project
Alternative facts, 409
Amygdala, 104
Analogies, strategy of, 116, 255–256
Anticipation: of difficulties, 194; invitation to, 256–257; in learning activities, 246
Anxiety, 189
Application: of Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching, 100–106; sequencing of, 373–374; skill of, 265–266
Appreciative inquiry, 268–269
Artistry, 296–299
Aspirations to Achievement: Men of Color and Community Colleges (Center for Community College Student Engagement), 24
Assignments: adequate time to complete, 192; in course syllabus, 126; high-stake, 339; written, 124
Assisted learning, 115, 192–195
Assumptions: erroneous, 189–190; for helping adults want to learn, 44–46; probing for, 267
Attendance policy, 124–125, 141–142, 241
Subject Index

Attitudinal directions, 185–188
Attributions, 200–202, 351, 353
Attunement, 54, 58–59
Axon, 9–10

B
Beliefs, confronting, 189–190
Bias, 242, 315–316
Biology: brain and, 2, 8, 12–13, 16, 19–20, 96; of enthusiasm, 61; of humor, 254
Blame, removing, 75–76
Blended courses, 144–145, 176
Bloom’s taxonomy, 167
Bodily-kinesthetic intelligence, 37
Body movement, 243
Boredom: defined, 189; meaning and, 227–229; neuroscientific perspective of, 228; periods of, 20; satiation and, 65; sleepiness and, 299
Brain: age influencing, 33–41; amygdala, 104; biology and, 2, 8, 12–13, 16, 19–20, 96; development, 84; frontal lobe, 84, 104, 231, 327; limbic system, 13, 104, 230–231; measurement technology, 13, 402; neurons of, 9–14, 84; neuroplasticity of, 9, 34–35; overview of, 8–17. See also Neural networks
Brainstorming, 271
Breaks, 248

“Bridging the Higher Education Divide: Strengthening Community Colleges and Restoring the American Dream” (Century Foundation), 24
Business leadership, instructional plan for, 378–379, 383–386

C
Calendar, course, 123–124, 134–138
“Carrot and stick” metaphor, 43
Celebrations, 357–358
Central nervous system, 14, 34–35
Charting, of feedback, 313
Checklists: Instructional Clarity Checklist, 71–73; as scaffolding, 195; of strategies, 370–371
Children, motivation of, 84–85
Chunks, of information, 246
Circuits, 11
Clarification: questions for, 267; requests, 70, 247
Clarity: checklist, 71–73; in communication, 144; for English language learners, 70–71, 166; information ordered for, 94; of instruction, 67–73, 247; of rubrics, 326–330
CLIA model, 406
Climate of respect: creation of, as motivational purpose, 149, 172–180, 363, 376, 380, 388; intrinsic motivation emerging in, 149; motivational strategies for, 172–180
Closure: at end of significant units, 357–358, 383, 386; evaluation and, 247; techniques, 331–334
Coaching, 292, 373
Cohort, 164
Collaborative Learning Techniques (Barkley, Cross, and Major), 165
Collectivism, 150–151, 304
College graduation, “on-time,” 25
Commercialism, of lifelong learning, 402
Commitment: to goals, 213; power of, 60–67; to reason and evidence, 410; volition and, 199
Common sense, 38
Communication: clear, 144; competence engendered by, 349–358, 369–370, 386; growth mind-set promoted by, 201; instructor leading, 398; metacommunication, 243; nonverbal, 149–151; norms for, 176; during questioning, 267–268; sensitive social skills facilitating, 162; of tone and courtesy in writing, 143–144, 176; variety in, 242–245
Community: inclusion and, 149; learning, 164; transfer of learning influenced by, 348
Community colleges, 23–27, 411
Comparison-contrast, 265–266
Compassion, power of, 52–60

Competition: dealing with, 291; role for, 164–165
Comprehension checks, 70
Computer games, 111
Concept maps, 192, 257–259, 383, 385
Concepts: of age, 29–30; in concept-based teaching, 192; learners becoming, 298–299; of motivation, 82–85
Conceptualizing, 251
Confidence, competence building, 94–96
Confidentiality, 173, 175, 331
Confirmation checks, 70
Conflict, addressing, 253
Consensus decision making, 175
Consequences: natural, awareness of, 355–357; probing for, 267
Consideration, 54
Constructed emotion, theory of, 13–14
Constructive criticism, 349–351
Constructive feedback, 309–310
Constructivist viewpoint, 82
Context: of adult learners, 21–23; in design considerations, 359–360, 372; organizational, for transfer of learning, 347–348; value, of Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching, 404
Continuing education, 83
Contracts, learning, 192, 214–217, 341
Controlling feedback, 310
Controversial discussions, 250–253
Conversational checks, 70
Cooperative intentions, of instructor, 155, 187
Cooperative learning: activities, 163–164; as collaborative learning, 157–158; in differentiated instruction, 191; groups, 156–163, 272; instructor’s role in, 163; lesson planning guide, 163–164; motivational strategy of, 101–102, 114, 156–165, 379–380, 385, 387, 389; norms, 161–163, 165
Courses: accelerated and intensive, 361; blended, 144–145, 176; content of, 346–347; description of, 122; norms of, 121–122, 163; policies of, 127–128; purpose of, 122, 131; requirements of, 56–57, 124–125; schedule or calendar of, 123–124, 134–138; suggestions for learning in, 128; survey in, 178–179; work-related, 25; on writing, case study of, 282–285. See also Diversity in Adult Learning course
Credibility, of praise and rewards, 352
Criteria: agreed-on, 309; assessment, fair and clear, 115, 207–208, 316, 391; for foremost motivational strategies, 112–113; relevance, 85; in rubrics, 326; SSIPP, 222–224
Critical consciousness, 78
Critical incident questionnaire, 331, 334–335
Critical literacy, 78–79
Critical thinking skills, 263–265
Criticism, constructive, 349–351
Cues, 194
Cultural competence, 77
Cultural diversity: of adult learners, 20–28, 31–32, 409; age and, 33–34; knowledge of, 77–78; macrocultural perspective and, 41–43; in millennial generation, 31–32; racial/ethnic groups and, 24, 26, 31, 33–34, 41–42, 315; respect for, 409. See also Diversity in Adult Learning course
Cultural isolation, 149
Cultural responsiveness: defined, 42–43; of learning environment, 17–18, 42; of motivating instructors, 74–79, 187; motivational self-awareness and, 77–78; need for, 3–4, 18; racism and, 74; rich, authentic relationships and, 180–181. See also Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching

Cultural studies, instructional plan for, 378, 390–396

Culture: attitudes shaped by, 90–91; effort and, 7; emotion influenced by, 2–3; human perspective impacted by, 41; individualistic, 83, 150, 304; learning influenced by, 2–4, 7, 17–18, 28; personal observation and, 401; relevance to, 17–18; self-directedness influenced by, 306

Curiosity, 231, 276–278

Current events, learning activities related to, 246

D

“Decades and Diversity” activity, 153–154

Decision making: adaptive, 286–287, 318; consensus, 175

Deep meaning, 93

Deliberate practice, 311–312

Democracy, 410–411

Dendrites, 9–10

Desocialization, 79

Dialogue: in feedback, 199; Socratic, 267

Differential feedback, 312

Differentiated instruction, 191–192, 197

Difficulties, anticipating and regulating, 194–195

Digests of key ideas, 192

Directions, 69, 247, 316

Disabilities, learners with, 21, 316

Discussion: of assessments and grading, 341; of case study, 283–285; controversial, 250–253; critical questioning for, 263–269; guidelines, 126, 142–144, 175–176, 241; of natural consequences, 356; about role-playing, 289; as scaffolding, 194–195

Discussion as a Way of Teaching (Brookfield and Preskill), 334

Diversity. See Cultural diversity

Diversity in Adult Learning course: accountability in, 240; entry points used in, 220–221; rubric, 327–328; SSIPP criteria in, 223–224; survey for, 178–179; syllabus example from, 121, 128–144, 176, 241, 309, 342; tone and courtesy in writing in, 143–144, 176

Diversity & Motivation: Culturally Responsive Teaching in College (Ginsberg and Wlodkowski), 402

Dopamine, 11, 15, 17, 19, 254

Dramatization, enthusiasm and, 64

E

Edgewood College, 121, 126, 383

Education: adventure, 299; continuing, 83; general, instructional plan for, 378–382; global enterprise of, 410–411; self-education, 79; value of, 22–23, 62–63. See also Learning; Postsecondary education
Educational success. See Success
EEG. See Electroencephalogram
Effective action, 301
Effective Grading: A Tool for Learning and Assessment in College (Walvoord and Anderson), 330
Effectiveness: assessment and, 307; criteria for competence, 303–307; defined, 307;
personal value and, 303–304
Effort: acknowledgment of, 350; culture influencing, 7; ineffective, 405;
reasonable, failure avoided by, 202–203,
351; recognition for, 205
Electroencephalogram (EEG), 402
Electronic portfolios (e-portfolios), 325
Embodied learning: instruction for, 286;
meaning and, 286–299, 367–368;
motivational strategies for, 287–299,
367–368; natural consequences and, 356
Embracing Contraries: Explorations in Learning and Teaching (Elbow), 333–334
Emotion: in assessment, 306–308; commitment displayed with, 62–65;
complexity of, 98–99; concerns evoking,
249; constructed, theory of, 13–14;
culture influencing, 2–3; expression of,
252; fear, 88, 189, 410; intrinsic motivation and, 16–20; learning and,
16–18; meaning and, 93, 296–299;
memory and, 18–20; motivation as state of, 398; promotion of, 104; relevance and, 15–16; stories appealing to, 256
Emotional intelligence, 39–40
Emotional support, from constructive criticism, 351
Empathy: defined, 54; of motivating instructors, 52–60, 187; role-playing for, 288
Enactment, 296–299
Encouragement, 204–206, 407
Endorsement, by learners, 92, 222–224
Engagement: attention as, 231, 234–235, 248; defined, 231; flow and, 260–262;
importance of, 27; learning deepened with, 260–285, 367, 381, 383, 384, 385,
389, 391; meaning and, 231, 234–235,
260–285, 367–368; online formats and,
109; problem-based learning for, 116,
269–276, 391; of youth learners, 5–6.
See also Vital engagement
English language learners: assessment accommodations for, 316; clarity for, 70–71, 166; concept maps for, 259; formative assessment for, 314; in note-taking pairs, 333; scaffolding for, 193
Enjoyment, 86–87, 93
Enthusiasm: defined, 61; indicators of, 64; loss of, 65–67; of motivating instructors, 60–67
Entry points: assessment options based on,
321–322; motivational strategy using,
218–222, 225, 383–384, 391; in multiple intelligences theory, 218–222, 225,
321–322, 383–384, 391
Environment. See Learning environment
Epinephrine, 11
E-portfolios. See Electronic portfolios
Equity, 180, 315–316, 410
Esthetic entry point, 220–221, 322
Ethics: of assessment, 358; considerations, for instructors, 409–411; of inclusion, 181
Ethnicity. See Racial/ethnic groups
Evaluation: closure and, 247; criteria, 309;
of feedback, 291. See also Assessment
Evalulative comments, 268
Evidence: commitment to, 410;
probing for, 267
Examples: course syllabus, 121, 128–144,
176, 241, 309, 342; of learning activities in classroom, 101–104; learning contract, 216; motivational instruction design, 378–396; relevant and concrete, 50–51; of simulation, 292–293; strategy of, 116, 255–256
Exclusion: effects of, 89; indirect, 147–148
Existential intelligence, 38
Experience: assessment of, 114, 172–174, 387–388; instruction adapted for, 57–58, 77–78; lack of, incentives and, 354; mastery, 197; motivation and, 83–85; value of, 336; vicarious, 197
Experiential entry point, 220–221, 322
Expertise: of motivating instructors, 48–52, 187; practical intelligence as, 38
Explanatory links, 69
Expressive outcomes, 169–170
Expressiveness, power of, 60–67
Extended inquiry process, 276–278
Extrinsic motivation, 43, 145

F
Face-to-face environment, 110–113; in blended courses, 144–145; cooperative learning and, 159; course syllabus for, 120–121, 125–126, 144; participation in, 125
Facial expressions, 243
Failure, avoiding, 202–203, 351
Fake news, 409
Fear, 88, 189, 410
Feedback: assessment and, 127, 307–313; closure and, 247; competence and, 95–96; constructive, 309–310; constructice criticism compared with, 349–351; controlling, 310; course schedule and, 124; defined, 308; dialogue in, 199; differential, 312; evaluating and reacting to, 291; in flow, 261; frequency of, 311; graphing and charting, 313; group, 313; informational, 119, 309–310; motivational strategy of, 112–113, 117, 307–313, 382, 386, 388; natural consequences and, 356; need for, 16–17; neuroscientific perspective on, 308; personal control of learning and, 199; positive, 312; in practice, 311–312, 318; promptness of, 199, 311; quantitative, 311; readiness for, 313
Feelings. See Emotion
First-generation college students, 337, 411
Fixed mind-set, 200–201
Flow, 16, 112; activity level for, 401; challenge in, 261–262; characteristics of, 19, 86–87; engagement and, 260–262
Flow charts, 192
fMRI. See Functional magnetic resonance imaging
Foremost motivational strategies: for attitude, 115; for competence, 117–119; criteria, 112–113; for inclusion, 114–115; for meaning, 115–117; in online formats, 112–119; summary of, 114–119
Formative assessment: for English language learners, 314; goals and, 313–315; motivational strategy of, 117–118, 191, 313–315, 387, 389; technology and, 315
Foundational entry point, 219, 221, 322
Fragmentation, in assessments, 316
Framework for culturally responsive teaching. See Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching
Frontal lobe, 84, 104, 231, 327
Frustration, 189
Functional magnetic resonance imaging (fMRI), 13, 402
Funds of knowledge approach, 56
Games: computer, 111; defined, 293; invention in, 298; motivational strategy of, 117, 290–294; role-playing, 289; video games, 294
Gaming Our Way to a Better Future (Tucker), 294
Gender bias, 242, 315
General education, instructional plan for, 378–382
Generativity, 304
Gestures, 243
Grading procedures: course syllabus component of, 126–127, 139–141; as ethical process, 358; motivation enhanced by, 337–342
Graphing, of feedback, 313
Groups, learning. See Learning groups
Growth mind-set, 296–299
Imagination, 296–299
Implementation intentions, 206–207
Implications, probing for, 267
Incentives, for initially unappealing learning, 354–355
Independent self, 304
Individual interest, 232–234, 249
Individualism, 83, 150–151, 304
Individuals: accountability of, 160–161; adult learners as, 41–42; attention paid to, 156; motivation of, 6
Ineffective effort, 405
Information: analyzing and interpreting, 274–275; chunks, 246; in controversial discussions, 251; filtering, 291; gathering, 274; good consumers of, 410; instructor, in course syllabus, 121; ordered for identity and clarity, 94; personal, disclosure of, 252–253
Informational feedback, 119, 309–310
Innovation, authentic tasks requiring, 318
Instruction: adapted, for experience and skill development, 57–58, 77–78; for all learners, 68–71; best practices for, 27–28; clarity of, 67–73, 247; complexity of, 360, 375–376; concept-based, 192; differentiated, 191–192, 197; educational success improved by, 24–28; efficiency of, 360; for embodied learning, 286; learners’ response to, 397; memorization and, 40–41; philosophy, course syllabus component of, 121–122; preparation for, 51–52; quality of, 7; sine qua non of, 87; social justice and, 173, 175, 276, 302; variety in, 242–245, 385, 388. See also Design, of motivational instruction; Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching Instructional Clarity Checklist, 71–73
Instructors: attitude toward, 184–187; as available resource and observer, 239; behavior of, in sample instructional plans, 380–386, 388–389, 391–392; cooperative intentions indicated by, 155, 187; echo, 267; ethical considerations for, 409–411; influence of, 411; information about, in course syllabus, 121; lack of success of, 66; as lead communicator, 398; as leaders, 410; learners’ relationship with, 89, 155, 180–181, 187; norms set by, 121–122, 149, 163, 176; online, behaviors of, 112; personal observation by, 400–401; presentation style of, 242–245, 385, 388; qualities of, 27; role of, in cooperative learning, 163; transformative learning promoted by, 300–302. See also Motivating instructors
Intellectual functioning, age and, 36–40
Intelligence, mind-set about, 200, 202. See also Multiple intelligences
Intensive courses, design for, 361
Intent, effect relative to, 309–310
Interdependence, positive, 160
Interdependent self, 304
385–386; project-based learning building on, 276–278; situational, 232, 254; volition and, 91
Internships, 295–296
Interpersonal intelligence, 37
Interruptions, 70, 291
Intrapersonal intelligence, 37
Intrinsic goal orientation, 84–85, 404
Intrinsic motivation, 96–99, 105–106; in assessment, 307; in climate of respect, 149; defined, 16; emotions and, 16–20; fluctuation of, 20; incentives and, 354–355; informational feedback for, 119; instructional design for, 361, 372, 375, 377, 396, 399, 404, 406; integrated levels of, 86–87; memory and, 18–20; neuroscientific understanding of, 16–18; relevance and, 17–18, 94, 116; in source method, 377; support for, 6; theories of, 16–17, 19, 168, 410; value and, 404
Introductions, allowing for, 114, 152–153, 187, 384
Invention, 296–299
Invisibility, in assessments, 315
Involvement: inclusion fostering, 88–89; meaning sustaining, 92–94; with subject matter, 155–156
J
Jigsaw procedure, 159–160
Job-related knowledge and skills, continuing education for, 83
Journals, 301, 331–332
Judgment, authentic tasks requiring, 318
K
Key ideas, digests of, 192
Knowing: as dialogical process, 273; different ways of, 177–180, 187, 380
Knowledge: as commodity, 403; constructed to be beneficial for adults, 50–51; of culturally different groups, 77–78; inherent structure of, 371; levels of, 177–180; multiple sources of, 320–326; power of, in expertise, 48–52; prior, 11–12, 83–85, 345; reasonable, failure avoided by, 202–203, 351; relevant concrete examples of, 50–51; stories personalizing, 89; of subject, 49–50
K-W-L strategy, for introducing new topics and concepts, 224–225
L
Language: acknowledgment of, 177–180, 187, 380; power of, 67–73. See also English language learners
Leader, instructor as, 410
Learners. See Adult learners process, affirmation of, 205–206; relevant models demonstrating, 115, 203–204, 208, 316; responsibility for, 43–44, 82–85, 200, 398; self-directed, 304–306; self-regulated, 404–407; service, 295–296; significant units of, 357–358, 383, 386; successful, goal of, 85–86; time needed for, 208–209; value related to, 84–87, 115–116, 249–253, 386. See also Collaborative learning; Cooperative learning; Embodied learning; Problem-based learning; Project-based learning; Transfer of learning; Transformative learning

Learning activities, 5, 20; anticipation in, 246; benefits of, stated or demonstrated, 253–254; classroom example of, 101–104; cooperative, 163–164; cultural response to, 18; directions for, 69; based on entry points from multiple intelligences theory, 220–221; introduced, connected, and ended attractively and clearly, 245–247; as irresistible invitation to learn, 222–224; in sample instructional plans, 380–386, 388–389, 391–392; syllabus design and, 120

“Learning and Earning” (Economist), 403

Learning environment: cooperative learning creating, 158–159; culturally responsive, 17–18, 42; inclusive, 75–78, 88–89, 91; location of responsibility for learning in, 43–44; online, 110–112; respect in, 75–77, 88–89; safety in, 75–77, 89, 104; self-regulatory, 406. See also Face-to-face environment

Learning groups: accountability in, 160–161; cooperative, 156–163, 272; feedback on, 313; heterogeneous, 163; processing in, 162; study groups, 272

Learning transfer systems inventory, 349

Lesson planning guide, cooperative learning, 163–164

Lifelong learning, 262–263, 402–404

Limbic system, 13, 104, 230–231

Linguistic bias, 316

Linguistic intelligence, 37

Listening, 58–60, 70

Logical-mathematical intelligence, 37

Logical-quantitative entry point, 219, 221, 322

Long-term memory, 18–19, 40, 238

Low-income adults, at community colleges, 23–24

M

Macrocultural perspective, 41–43

“Marginality and Mattering” exercise, 148

Maslow’s hierarchy of needs, 54

Mastery experiences, 197

Maturity, 84

287–299; relevance and, 92; in sample instructional plans, 381, 385, 388–389, 391; transformative learning and, 300–302; understanding and, 92; vital engagement and, 87
Memorization, 40–41
Memory: age and, 40–41; emotion and, 18–20; long-term, 18–19, 40, 238; working, 246
Mental contrasting, 209–210
Metacognition, 405–406
Metacommunication, 243
Metaphors, strategy of, 116, 255–256
Microcultural perspective, 42
Millennial generation, 31–32
Mind mapping, 258–259
Mind-body states, 15–16, 18
Mind-set, 200–203, 353, 388, 402
Minute paper, 71
Mission, sense of, 411
Mistakes, learning from, 205, 238, 350
Modality, variety in, 244
Modeling: in assisted learning, 194; of role-playing, 289
Models, relevance of, 115, 203–204, 208, 316
Motivated Strategies for Learning Questionnaire (MSLQ), 399
Motivation: achievement and, 4–7; assessment of, 398–402; attitude enhancing, 87, 90–92, 98–106; of children, 84–85; competence enhancing, 82–83, 87, 94–96; complexity of, 81–82, 99; concepts of, 82–85; continuing, 402–404; critical assumptions for helping, 44–46; defined, 1–5; efficiency and, 360; as emotional state, 398; engagement related to, 5–6; experience and, 83–85; extrinsic, 43, 145; grading practices enhancing, 337–342; importance of, 1–6; inclusion enhancing, 87–89, 98–102, 104–106; indicators of, 400–401; of individual, 6; integrated levels of, 85–87; introduction to, 81–82; learning inseparable from, 6–8, 16; neuroscientific perspective of, 2–4, 8, 14–18, 28, 83; research for understanding, 3–8, 13–14, 16, 18, 26–28, 45; self-awareness of, 77–78, 361–371; self-efficacy influencing, 196; vital engagement and, 87, 93–94, 96, 235. See also Intrinsic motivation; Online formats, motivation in Motivational Conditions in Learning Instrument, 399 and, 402–404; macrocultural perspective in, 42–43; meaning in, 98–100, 102–104, 106; motivating instructors and, 79; online formats and, 109–120, 132, 146; as organizational aid, 105; purpose of, 105–106; sample instructional plan based on, 102; SRL and, 404–405; superimposed, on instructional modules or plans, 371, 374–378, 396–397; support for, 4, 410; value context of, 403–404. See also Motivational conditions; Motivational purpose; Motivational strategies

Motivational Framework Self-Report, 399

Motivational instruction. See Design, of motivational instruction

MSLQ. See Motivated Strategies for Learning Questionnaire

Muddiest point, 71

Multidimensional sharing, 114, 153–155

Multiple intelligences: entry points in, 218–222, 225, 321–322, 383–384, 391; introduction to, 36–40

Musical intelligence, 37

Narrational entry point, 219–220, 322, 383

Natural consequences, 355–357
Naturalist intelligence, 38
Neural networks, 11–13, 15; attitudes and, 90–91; long-term memory, 18–19
Neurons, 9–14, 84
Neuroplasticity, 9, 34–35
Neuropsychological tools, 13
Neuroscientific perspective: active testing of learning and, 95–96; of assessment, 317; of attention, 230; of boredom, 228; brain measurement technology in, 13, 402; brain overview in, 8–17; of clarity, 67–68; concept maps and, 259; of feedback, 308; growth of, 402; of learning, 8–13; of motivation, 2–4, 8, 14–18, 28, 83; of rewards, 351; of safety, 104
Neurotransmitters, 11, 15, 19
Nontraditional learners, 31–33
Nonverbal communication, 149–151
Norepinephrine, 15
Norms: for communication, 176; cooperative, 161–163, 165; course, 121–122, 163; instructor setting, 121–122, 149, 163, 176; of responsibility, 82–83, 197, 304
Note-taking pairs, 333
Nursing, instructional plan for, 378, 387–389

O
Objectives. See Learning objectives
Observation, 239, 400, 402
Older adults: aging and, 30–41; characteristics of, 30–33; long-term memory of, 40, 238; peak performers, 411
Online formats, motivation in: anticipation and prediction for, 257; blended courses and, 144–145, 176; case study method and, 281; caveats for, 144–146; checking in and, 173–174; cooperative learning and, 159; course syllabus and, 114–115, 119–144; engagement and, 109; foremost motivational strategies for, 112–119; indicators of, 400–401; instructional plan for, 378, 390–396; instructor behaviors and, 112; introduction to, 107–109; learning environment and, 110–112; motivational conditions and, 110–111; Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching and, 109–120, 132, 146; participation and, 125–126; pragmatism in, 108; project-based learning, 280; retention and, 109; role-playing and, 289; rubric for, 393–395; self-assessment and, 111, 118, 331; time available and, 377; welcome letter and, 152
“On-time” college graduation, 25
Options, exploration of, 291
Organization, power of, 67–73
Organizational aids, 246
Organizational context and support, for transfer of learning, 347–348
Outlining, 68

P
Pain, 189
Participation: course syllabus component of, 125–126, 141–142, 241; guidelines, 125–126, 162, 174–176
Pauses, 243
PBL. See Problem-based learning
Pedagogical alignment, 105
Peers: accountability to, 241; coaching rubrics for, 402; note-taking pairs, 333; partners, in differentiated instruction, 191
Perception, expansion of, 335
Persistence, 400
Personal connections, 27
Personal control of learning, 197–200
Personal information, disclosure of, 252–253
Personal observation, assessment with, 400–401
Personal relevance. See Relevance
Persuasion, 183–184, 204
PET. See Positron-emission tomography
Physical energy, of learners, 16, 401
Physical exercises, 248
Planning, of time needed for learning, 208–209
Plans. See Instructional plans
Plateauing, 67
Popular culture, learning activities related to, 246
Portfolios, 323–325
Positionality, 151
Positive closure, at end of significant units, 357–358, 383, 386
Positive feedback, 312
Positive interdependence, 159–160
Positron-emission tomography (PET), 13
Power awareness, 78
PowerPoint, 51–52, 244–245
Practical intelligence, 38–39
Practice: in authentic tasks, 318; coaching for, 292, 373; collaborative learning, 291; deliberate, 311–312; feedback in, 311–312, 318; in games and simulations, 117, 290–294; guided, in project-based learning, 279–280; of instructional planning, 396; reciprocal, 195; in role-playing, 287–289; sequencing of, 373; in visits, internships, and service learning, 295–296
Pragmatism, 83, 108
Praise, for learning, 119, 351–353
Prediction, invitation to, 256–257
Prefrontal cortex, 84
Presentations: in problem-based learning, 272; style of, 242–245, 385, 388
Pretests, 55
Probes, 267–268, 284–285
Problem-based learning (PBL): engagement and learning deepened by, 116, 269–276, 391; sequencing of, 372
Problem-solving goals, 169–170
Process folio, 323
Professional development, 402
Project-based learning: guided practice in, 279–280; guidelines, 279–280; in simulations, 292–293; strategy of, 117, 276–280
Projects, for assessment, 325–326
Promotive interaction, 161
Prompts, 194
Provocative questions, 246
Proximal goals, 209
Purpose: course, syllabus component of, 122, 131; emphasis on, 170–172, 379–380, 391; loss of, 66; need for, 93, 304. See also Motivational purpose
Quantitative feedback, 311
Questions: in case study method, 281; communication during, 267–268; construction of, 273–275; course syllabus and, 120; about motivational conditions, for instructional planning, 375; for motivational self-awareness, 361–362; for natural consequences, 356; in project-based learning, 277–279; provocative, 246; rubrics answering, 327–328; stems for, 264–266; summarizing, 333–334. See also Critical questioning
Racial/ethnic groups: cultural diversity and, 24, 26, 31, 33–34, 41–42, 315; older adults in, 33–34
Racism, 74–76, 301–302
Random selection, for response opportunities, 237–239
Readings, course syllabus, 122–123, 138–139
Reason: commitment to, 410; probing for, 267
Reciprocal teaching and practice, 195
Recognition, for effort, 205
Redistributing, 252
Reflecting: in controversial discussions, 251; critical questioning for, 263–269; discourse, 301; on project-based learning, 279; self-reflection, 300, 324
Regis University, 292–293
Relationships, between learners and instructors, 89, 155, 180–181, 187
Research: action, 273–276; authentic, 276–278; findings, validation of, 113; on motivation, 3–8, 13–14, 16, 18, 26–28, 45; strategy, 260
Resources: course syllabus, 123, 138–139; for goals, 213; instructors as, 239; interdependence of, 160
Respect: in controversial discussions, 250; for cultural diversity, 409; inclusion and, 148–149, 172–180, 363; in learning environment, 75–77, 88–89; power of, 74–79; for responses, 237–238. See also Climate of respect
Response opportunities, frequent, 236–239
Responsibility: increased sense of, 353; for learning, 43–44, 82–85, 200, 397; location of, 43–44; norm of, 82–83, 197, 304; respect and, 74–79
Retention, of adult learners, 109
Reticular activating system, 44
Reward: adapted to individual preference, 353; competence engendered by, 349–358, 369–370, 386; incentive as, 354–355; for learning, 119, 351–353; neuroscientific perspective of, 351; types, 352
Rich and authentic relationships, need for, 180–181
Role-playing: games, 289; with machines, 294; motivational strategy of, 287–289, 383, 385, 387, 389
Roles: for competition, 164–165; of instructors, in cooperative learning, 163; interdependence of, 160
Rubrics: construction of, 330; defined, 327; detailed, 118, 208; in grading practices, 340–341; motivational strategy of, 326–330; peer coaching, 402; sample, 327–328, 393–395; standards in, 326
Safety: attitudes and, 90–91; in irresistible learning activities, 222–224; in learning environment, 75–77, 89, 104; neuroscientific perspective of, 104
Satiation, 65
Scaffolding, 115, 192–195, 197
Schedule, course, 123–124, 134–138
Science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. See STEM

Seating charts, 237

Selectivity, in assessments, 316

Self-assessment: assessment criteria and, 207; motivational strategy of, 102–104, 198, 326, 330–336, 382–383, 386, 392; natural consequences revealed by, 356–357; online formats and, 111, 118, 331; in portfolio, 324; of projects, 326; self-adjustment from, 309–310

Self-awareness: cultural responsiveness and, 77–78; increasing of, 361–371

Self-confidence. See Confidence

Self-defeating belief, 190

Self-directed competence, 304–306

Self-education, 79

Self-reflection, 300, 324

Self-regulated learning (SRL), 404–407

Self-regulation, 184, 404–407

Self-report measures, 398–400

Sensitive social skills, 162

Service learning, 295–296

Service Learning in Theory and Practice: The Future of Community Engagement in Higher Education (Butin), 296

Settling time, 248

Shadowing, 134, 137, 296; case study, 343–349; entry points and, 220–221

Sharing: multidimensional, 114, 153–155; as positive closure, 358; something of value, 155–156, 187, 380; think-pair-share process, 241–242

Significance, analysis of, 265–266

Significant units of learning, positive closure of, 357–358, 383, 386

Silence, working with, 251–252

Simulations: defined, 290; elements of, 291–292; example of, 292–293; motivational strategy of, 117, 290–294, 356; natural consequences revealed by, 356

Situational interest, 232, 254

Sleepiness, 299

Social concerns, of learners and society, 77–79

Social justice, 173, 175, 276, 302, 410

Social loafing, 161

Social media, 410

Social responsibility, respect and, 74–79

Social science, 2, 87, 98

Social skills, sensitive, 162

Socratic dialogue, 267

Source method, 377–378, 397–398

Spatial intelligence, 37

Spontaneous closure, 247

SRL. See Self-regulated learning

SSIPP criteria, 222–224

Standards: in observation, 402; in rubrics, 326

STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics), 280

Stereotyping, 315–316

Stories: knowledge personalized in, 89; strategy of, 116, 255–256

Strengths, of learners, 198, 320–326

Stress, 65–66, 188, 306

Study groups, 272

Subject: attitude toward, 184–185, 187–195, 217, 364; involvement with, 155–156; knowledge of, 49–50; negative conditions surrounding, 188–189

Success: attributions and, 200–201; concern for, 411; expectancy for, 206; goal of, 85–86; improved, 24–28; instructor lacking, 66; in irresistible learning activities, 222–224; volition and, 86

Successful transfer of learning model, 343

Summarizing questions, 333–334

Summative assessments, 340
Superimposed method, 371, 374–378, 396–397
Syllabus. See Course syllabus
Symbolic reward, 352
Synapse, 9–11
Synthesis, 265–266

T
Taking other perspectives, skill of, 265–267
Tangible reward, 352
Teaching. See Instruction
Technology, 32, 108, 203; brain measurement, 13, 402; formative assessment and, 315
Tension, adapting to, 291
Tests: in grading practices, 339; pretests, 55; time to complete, 192; typical, authentic tasks differing from, 319–320
Theory of constructed emotion, 13–14
Thinking out loud, 194
Think-pair-share process, 241–242
Threat, 88
3S-3P mnemonic device, 353
Time: for assignments and tests, 192; in design, 371, 376; needed for learning, 208–209; in online formats, 377; settling, 248
Transfer of learning: with authentic performance tasks, 317; changes required for, 347; defined, 343; design for, 345–346; intention and capacity for, 118, 342–349, 369, 372; in shadowing case study, 343–349
Transformative learning, 93–94, 170; defined, 300; essay, 331, 335–336; meaning and, 300–302
Transitions, 69
Trial-and-error processes, 238
Tutorial assistance, 192

U
Underserved adult learners, 20–28
Understanding: checking for, 247; concept maps deepening, 257–259; essential, 120; listening for, 60; meaning and, 92; power of, 52–60; process of, 168; project-based learning deepening, 117, 276–280; of time needed for learning, 208–209
United States: individualistic culture of, 83, 150, 304; norm of responsibility in, 82–83, 197, 304
University of Washington-Seattle, 344
Unreality, of assessment items, 316

V
Validation, listening for, 59
Value: competence and, 95; context, of Motivational Framework for Culturally Responsive Teaching, 404; defined, 250; of education, 22–23, 62–63; experiential, 336; influencing, 168; intrinsic motivation and, 404; learning related to, 77–79, 84–87, 115–116, 249–253, 386; sharing something of, 155–156, 187, 380; topics associated with, 250
Variety, in instruction, 242–245, 385, 388
Verbal reward, 352
Vicarious experiences, 197
Video games, 294
Videos, 191, 357
Vision, age and, 34–35
Visits, 295–296
Visual media, variety in, 244–245
Visual tools, 69
Vital engagement: challenge in, 235; flow as, 262; learning as lifelong pursuit of, 262–263; motivation and, 87, 93–94, 96, 235
Vocationalism, 403
Voice, 243–244
Volition: commitment and, 199; interest and, 91; positive attitude and, 91–92, 184; success and, 86; support for, 305
Volunteers, for response opportunities, 237–239

W
Wage stagnation, 22
Welcome letter, 152
Wilson Center, 294
Working memory, 246
Working: People Talk about What They Do All Day and How They Feel about What They Do (Terkel), 266

Working-age adults, 30
Work-related courses and training, 25
Writing: in case study, 282–285; tone and courtesy in, 143–144, 176
Written assignments, 124

Y
“Yes . . . but” reactions, 268
Younger adults, 30
Youth, engagement of, 5–6

Z
Zone of proximal development (ZPD), 193