References to figures are given in italic type; references to boxes and tables are in bold type. Abbreviations: BIM = building information modelling; VE = value engineering; VM = value management academic QS curricula, coverage of sustainability in 376–377, 380, 380, 384 activity-based design approach [for creating sustainable communities] 11–12, 201, 204–206 data and information requirements 205 interior space layout 209, 210 key concepts and principles 202 zoning proposals 209, 210

see also decentralised energy networks Africa, share of global construction output 8 air conditioning alternatives 265, 266
capital cost 264
air-to-air energy recovery 165 alternative procurement routes 13 whole-life cost theory used 22 AMEC, knowledge management systems used by 233–234 appraisal of design 61–78
case study 69–77
by discounting methods 63–66 by residual valuation technique 65, 67–69 architect-led [traditional] procurement system 122, 128–129 area schedule, functional areas of building 253 ARUP, knowledge management systems used by 232, 233 Asia, share of global construction output 6, 7, 8
Atkins, knowledge management systems used by 233 Australia, tall buildings 290, 291 barcoding 233
BCIS (building cost information service) 31, 42, 43–44, 73
Standard Form of Cost Analysis 34, 40–41, 270 Standardised Method of Life Cycle Costing 262, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273 BedZED development 201 behaviour changes, energy demand reduced by 154 benchmarking 21, 41–43 of cost plans 255
definition 42
BIM (building information modelling) 13, 299–318
3D modelling in 305, 308, 309, 310
4D simulation 315
Build-to-Design (B2D) phase 306
case studies 307–310
change orders and quality 306–307 communication in 305 constructability analysis 305–306, 309–310
cost planning 260, 310–313 cost visualisation 312–313 data integrity 305–306
data visualisation 305
definitions 300–301
Design-to-Build (D2B) phase 306 evolving cost forecasting process 311–312 future directions 317–318 ‘in-wall coordination’ process 307–308 information flow in 302–303 integration process 302 MPS (Model Progression Specification) language 303–304 proactive approach 304 productivity gains by using 232–233 quality aspects 305–310 scheduling 314–317 controlling stage 315–317 planning stage 314–315
takeoff process 310–311, 311
UK Government’s promotion of use 21, 42, 260, 300 value engineering process 304, 312 Virtual Construction technology 302, 307–308 biomass boilers 169, 259
in case study 268, 277, 278
biomethane gas injection 155 Blackfriars Road development project [London] building costs 72–73 case study 69–77
cost of planning obligations 73–74 development costs 72–73, 72 development location and site 69–72, 70–72 boiler equipment, energy savings 165–166 Bowley, Marian 300
brand value, factors affecting 26 BREEAM 14, 26, 146, 180–184, 242, 338, 344
characteristics 180
evolution of 180–181
life-cycle costing in 109
updates 180–181
BREEAM NC (new construction) scheme 181 assessment stages 181
mitigation principles 181 BREEAM rating/score capital costs implications 14, 62, 63, 73, 89, 177 compared with other environmental ranking methods 89 Dutch tall buildings ranked by 89, 90 procedures 181–184
and reduction in whole life costs 14, 63 BRICS countries, economic growth 6 brownfield developments in Netherlands 81
in UK 171
Brundtland report [1987] 337, 346 building codes and regulations carbon emissions requirements 245 tall buildings 290
Building Cost Information Service see BCIS building costs, data sources 73, 254 building height–construction cost relationship 12, 19, 20, 47–60 see also cost–height relationship Building Information Modelling see BIM Building Research Establishment
Environmental Assessment Method see BREEAM

CAD 232
Cambridge, University of, sustainability in curriculum 374 capital allowances 155, 161–162 enhanced 152, 155, 163–164, 365, 366 planning 364–365
capital cost theory 18–21 capital gains tax (CGT) 157–158 carbon dioxide (CO2) emissions designing to reduce 178–179 inclusion in WLC modelling 118 reduction of [in UK] 152, 153, 178 in healthcare sector 264, 265, 267–268, 269, 279 in retail sector 281 sources in built environment 178, 372 ways of dealing with in whole-life analysis 14, 82, 113–114 carbon emission trading 118 carbon footprint, factors affecting 187 carbon management 13
Carbon Reduction Commitment (CRC) 160, 244 see also CRC Energy Efficiency Scheme Carbon Trust 338
Carter’s model 26
case studies
appraisal of design [Blackfriars Road Development Project] 69–78 procurement and contract strategy [Wembley Stadium] 123–124, 135 project management healthcare sector 236–237 leisure and entertainment sector 236 retrofitting building services 356–361 case studies (cont’d)
  sustainability assessment, healthcare centre 263–268, 275–279 sustainability education in QS degree programmes 380–382 sustainability strategies 339–353 tax planning 365, 367
  ‘virtual construction’ technology [in BIM] 302, 307–308
  VM/VE office development with retail provision 330–335 supermarket development 319–329

CBRE, UK yields data 245, 388
CGT (capital gains tax) 157–158 rates 157 change orders
  impact on quality 306–307
  site productivity affected by 97 zero change orders [BIM case study] 307–308 Chartered Institute of Building see CIOB
CHP (combined heat and power) 166, 259 networks 155 quality assurance scheme 166, 366
CIOB (Chartered Institute of Building), on environmental impacts 339 Climate Change Act [2008, UK] 13, 244, 337, 372 climate change issues 10–11 economic costs 338
  flooding 213, 214–215
climate change levy 157, 161
CO₂ emissions see carbon dioxide emissions Code for Sustainable Homes (CSH) 245, 258–259, 377 mandatory minimum standards 258, 259 requirements for planning approval 258 sustainability criteria for 258, 259 combined heat and power see CHP Committee on Climate Change 337 community infrastructure levy 63 ‘compensation’ events [in NEC3 contract] 129 competitiveness
  factors affecting 339
    in case studies 348, 353, 351–352 complexity, effects on costs 17 compound interest calculations 64 compressed air equipment, energy savings 166 construction costs, reduction of, life-cycle cost optimised by 113 construction investment and development theories 9 and fiscal policies 9–10 and monetary policies 10 construction management procurement system 132–133 compared with management contracting approach 132–133 construction market(s) factors affecting size and nature 6 globalisation of 6–9
construction methods, site productivity affected by 96 Construction Project Information Committee (CPI), definition of BIM 301 consumption costs, reduction of, life-cycle cost optimised by 113–114 contaminated land, meaning of term 172 contour crafting 233 cost cutting, contrasted with value engineering 320 cost data sources 72–73, 254 cost documentation, standardisation of 32, 44 cost drivers in project 253, 257–258 cost estimating 31
  new approaches 32–45
  standardisation of 32–33, 45
cost–height relationship 12, 19, 20, 47–60 doors and windows costs 55, 57 electrical costs 58, 59 Hong Kong study 50–52
plumbing costs 58, 59
research in 1970s and 1980s 48–50 roof costs 55, 56
services costs 56–59
Shanghai studies 53–59
substructure costs 55, 59
superstructure costs 288 U-shaped curve 49–50, 51, 286
upper floors costs 55, 56, 59 ‘cost limits’ approach 41–43 cost plan concept and format 37–40, 248–253 evolution through RIBA design stage 37–40, 255–257 impact of sustainability 258–259 meaning of term 21, 248 percentage split of costs 253, 257–258 steps 253–255
    benchmarking against other schemes 255 contingency 255
    design development 253
    main contractor’s overheads and profit 255 main contractor’s preliminaries 254 measurement 253
on-costs 254–255
price rates/adjustment/market testing 254 template used 253
cost planning 19–21, 31, 248–260
in BIM 260, 310–313
new approaches 32–45
standardisation of 33
cost-plus contract 126
cost reimbursement contract 126 cost visualisation [in BIM] 312–313 cost yardsticks [for public-sector projects] 19, 38 Costain, knowledge management systems used by 234 counter-terrorism design measures [in tall buildings] 288–291, 293
new approaches 294
cost implications 293, 295, 296
CRC (Carbon Reduction Commitment) 160, 244
CRC energy efficiency scheme 152, 154, 160
Crotty, R., on BIM 301, 318
CSH see Code for Sustainable Homes
Cubitt, Thomas 299
decarbonisation of heating/cooling supply 154–155 decentralised energy networks 202 key features 203–204, 211 key steps in design process 206–209 defining collectivism 206 establishing activities 206 identifying high-energy-consumption areas 208–209 re-assessing energy consumption of key activities 207–208 rules to reduce space demand 206–207 zoning proposal 209
DECs (display energy certificates) 154
Delft Maintenance Calculating Model 86
Delft University of Technology, estimating model 83 demand-side policies 10 derelict land, meaning of term 172 des design and build’ contracts 130–131 design and build’ procurement system 122, 129–130 example of use 123, 130, 135 design characteristics, site productivity affected by 95 design costs and benefits assessment for design alternatives 61–63 design factors affecting 17–18 matrix 18
design economics reason for importance 4 theories and principles 16–29 traditional theories 17, 19 design economists current role 11–12
emerging role 12–14
future role 15
design innovation 348, 349–350 design liability, limitation of 129, 131 design quality indicators 25 design variables, examples 19, 20 design variation orders, site productivity affected by 97 ‘develop and construct’ approach 129–130 development costs 24–25, 67
in Blackfriars case study 71, 71 development theories, and construction investment 9 development value 24–25, 65 effect of investment yield 68–69, 77 effect of rental income 67–68, 77
DGNB certification system for sustainable buildings 138, 146
DGNB standard, life-cycle costing in 109, 110, 111, 119
DIN standards 33
discount factor/rate 64, 65, 274 discounting 64–65
discounting methods appraisal of design using 63–66
examples 65, 66
display energy certificates (DECs) 154 district heating systems 155 domestic appliances, energy consumption data [listed] 203 domestic RHI (domestic renewable heat incentive) 154 Dutch housing market, factors affecting 81 Dutch office market 80–81 earth tubes [for cooling] 266
Eastern Europe, growth in construction market 6, 8 ECAs (enhanced capital allowances) 152, 155, 163–164, 365, 366 qualifying technologies 164, 165–170, 366 eco-costs estimation using life-cycle costing 84 of materials 84
meaning of term 82
eco-costs/value ratio see EVR economic benefits [of buildings], effect of sustainable credentials 149 economic benefits [of good design] 17 economic context 4–6
economic costs 18
economic costs/benefits, effects on sustainability 338 economic infrastructure 4 economic performance aspects in investment decision making 139 relationship with other building performance characteristics 141–142 relevance to different property market players 140 economic performance requirements 138, 139, 141 economic value [of design] 25 education, of design economists 15 efficiency, factors affecting 13 Egan report [1998] 21, 28, 300 electric power, methods to save 114 electrical efficiency [of lighting and appliances], improving 154 electricity consumption, per person [listed] 203 elemental cost planning 31, 38 measurement rules for 38–39 elemental cost plans 39–40, 248–251 as function of building’s areal size 40, 249–250, 252–253 employment considerations 5, 58
EN 15643-1:2010 [sustainability assessment of buildings] 138, 139, 141 Energy Act [2011, UK] 153 energy clusters 202, 204 energy consumption
by buildings 178
peak times 205
per person [listed] 203 energy demand in buildings, reducing 153–155 energy efficiency measures, in healthcare centre [case study] 264, 267 energy efficiency standards for buildings, mandatory 244 energy label approach, Dutch tall buildings ranked 89 Energy Performance Certificates (EPCs) 149, 154, 244, 338, 377 energy-saving technologies 114, 165–169 VAT rate for 369
Energy Star approach 14
examples of use 149
Energy Technology List 164, 165–170, 366 enhanced capital allowances 152, 155, 163–164, 363, 366
case studies 365, 367
see also ECAs
Enterprise Zone allowances 162, 171
Environment Agency [England & Wales], flood-risk advice 214 environmental assessment tools 177–190 key features 179–180
applicability 179 availability 179
communicability 180
cost 180
robustness 179 scoring system 179
usability 179–180
other tools listed 178
see also BREEAM; LEED
environmental considerations 13, 26 environmental costs 18, 75–76 environmental impact in built environment 262 see also sustainability environmental performance requirements 138, 139, 141 environmentally innovative work settings, organisational performance affected by 193, 195–196, 198 EU (European Union)
emissions reduction 16, 178 Emissions Trading Scheme 11, 372 Energy Performance of Buildings Directive 244 renewable resources target 212 Strategic Environment Assessment Directive 213 evacuation of tall buildings 290, 291, 294 EVR (eco-costs/value ratio) tool 14, 82–86 applications
Dutch housing stock intervention projects 86–88 tall buildings [in Netherlands] 88–90 basis of model 82 embedding in other sustainability rankings methods 89–90 end-of-life phase eco-costs 83 operating phase eco-costs 83 production phase eco-costs 82–83 and Reference Projects Model 85–86 requirements for estimating model 84–85 and value of dwellings 83–84 explicit knowledge 231
Extranet applications 233, 234 see also 4Projects project collaboration software factor analysis technique 101 ‘fair value’ [RICS definition] 246 feed-in tariffs (FITs) 154, 173, 174, 244, 370 FIDIC contract(s) 125
financial viability in planning, RICS Guidance Note 67, 69, 71, 76, 78 fire escape management in tall buildings 290, 291 fiscal drivers 155–161
capital gains tax 157–158
climate change levy 157, 161
corporation tax 157, 159 CRC energy efficiency scheme 160
income tax 157
taxes and levies 156–160, 161 value added tax 157, 158–160, 161 fiscal incentives [on carbon mitigation] 14, 173–175, 244–245 fiscal policies 9–10, 12 FITs (feed-in tariffs) 154, 173, 174, 244, 370 fixed-price contract 126 flood insurance 214, 222–224 elevation certificate required [in US] 219, 223 UK compared with US 223 flood mitigation 215–217
cost implications 218–222
resilience measures 220, 222 resistance measures 220 decision support flowchart [for new buildings] 218, 219 definition 215
implications to property values and insurance cost 222–224 methods
avoidance measures 215–216, 224
resilience measures 217, 221, 224
resistance measures 216–217, 221, 224 for new buildings at design stage 218 Flood Re agreement [in UK] 223 floods challenges due to climate change 214–215 threats worldwide 213
in urban areas 215
floodplain areas, developments in 214, 215–216 floor areas, differing definitions 35–36 projects project collaboration software 234–235
case studies 235–237
‘Contract Manager’ module 235
‘Discussion’ module 234–235
‘Query/Action’ module 235
‘Team and Organisation Directory’ module 235 ‘Workflow and Approval Process’ module 235 function analysis 24 function–cost ratio 23
functional performance requirements 137 relationships with other building characteristics 141, 142 future value (FV) 64

GBCI (Green Building Certification Institute) 187
GEFMA/IFMA 220 [life-cycle cost standard] 109, 110, 111, 112, 119 general anti-avoidance rule (GAAR) 370 geothermal energy 211, 268, 358
German standards 33, 109, 119 GIA (gross internal area) 35–36 cost estimates and plans based on 35, 36, 39, 40, 249–250, 252 GIFA (gross internal floor area) 35–36
cost estimates and plans based on 35, 36, 38, 39, 40 global construction market, future growth 6–9 GMP (guaranteed maximum price) contract 123, 126, 130 ‘green’ buildings construction costs 14, 62, 63, 68 reduction in operating costs 14, 63, 68 rental income 68
Green Deal 153, 173, 175
Green Investment Bank 244
green leases 245
GreenCalc, Dutch tall buildings ranked 89
GREENSTAR sustainability rating system 242
Grotius Tower [The Hague, Netherlands] 88, 89
BREEAM score 89, 90
hand air dryers, energy savings 167 healthcare centre see integrated primary care centre healthcare sector
BIM applications 307–310
carbon reduction strategies in hospital 269 integrated primary care centre [case study] 263–268, 275–282 project management 236–237
heat efficiency of buildings, improving 114, 153–154 heat pumps 166, 268
heat recovery systems 114, 165, 267 heating energy consumption per person [listed] 203 methods to reduce 114, 267 Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE), on sustainability in curriculum 375 historical buildings renovation of 358–359
see also Star Island
Hong Kong, tall buildings 50–52
Hoog aan de Maas building [Rotterdam, Netherlands] 88, 89 environmental ranking 89 household insurance 214, 222–223 housing market, Netherlands 81 housing stock intervention projects, EVR model applied to 86–88 HVAC systems, energy savings 167

income tax 157
rates 157, 158
‘incomplete contracts’ 121 information technology site productivity affected by 100
see also BIM innovation in construction sector 339
case studies 348, 349–350
innovative work settings, organisational performance affected by 192–199 integrated primary care centre [case study] 275–279 base case building 276, 277 design reviews 276, 276, 277, 278, 279 basic characteristics 263 building form/orientation/design 264, 265 cooling and natural ventilation 264, 266, 278 energy efficiency measures 264, 267, 278 renewable energy resources 264, 267, 278 interaction innovative work settings, organisational performance affected by 195, 197–198 internal rate of return (IRR) 63, 65 international agenda, effects 10–11 investment decision processes, effect on future users and buyers 144–145 IPD (investment property databank), Sustainability Property Index Monitor 243 IPD/RICS sustainability inspection checklist 390–391
ISO 15686-5 [on service-life planning] 109, 269–271
LCC modelling 110, 111, 270, 272 and national standards 109 whole-life cost 91, 107, 108, 119, 270, 272

JCT contracts 125, 126, 128–129, 131 just-in-time (JIT) techniques 98, 317

Kingston University, sustainability in curriculum 374 KJ-square building [The Hague, Netherlands] 88, 89
environmental ranking 89 knowledge-intense organisations 230 knowledge-management systems 13, 232–234 primary care centre see also Star Island see also BIM see also BIM knowledge reuse 230–231 in construction projects 231–232 key benefits 230
Knox Hall [New York city] 358
Kyoto Protocol 10–11, 163, 178, 336, 372, 378 labour characteristics, site productivity affected by 95–96, 103, 104 labour productivity

factors affecting 94, 96
UK compared with other European countries 94 labyrinth cooling 266 land remediation, meaning of term 172 Land Remediation Relief see LRR land use planning, in Netherlands 81–82 Latham report [1994] 21, 300
Latin America, share of global construction output 8
LCA (life cycle analysis), eco-cost assessment tool based on 82 LCC (life cycle cost) compared with WLC 91, 108, 270, 272
definition 107
design principles to optimise 112–115
construction costs 113
consumption costs 113–114 cost variables 112–113
design variables 113–115 renovation costs 115
services costs 115
technical maintenance costs 115 eco-cost estimation using 84, 90 measures for reporting 274
minimisation of 138
steps in modelling 110–112 period under consideration 110, 116 sources of uncertainty and risks 111–112, 116 system boundary 110–111, 116 time value of money 111, 116 worked example 116–117 see also life cycle costing Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design see LEED leadership styles, site productivity affected by 98, 103, 104 learning curve effects, tall buildings 49, 54 LED lamps 167, 280, 281 lighting efficiency predictions 281 LEED 14, 146, 184–190, 242 and capital costs implications 177 certification fees 187, 188 characteristics 184
evolution of 186–187
examples of use 149
registration fee 187
scoring and rating procedures 184–190 energy and atmosphere category 185, 189, 190 indoor environmental quality category 185, 189, 190 innovation-in-design category 186, 189, 190 materials and resources category 185, 189, 190 regional priority category 186, 189, 190 sustainable sites category 185, 189, 190 water efficiency category 185, 189, 190
updates 186–187
see also GBCI legislation, climate change and sustainability 13, 244, 337 leisure and entertainment sector, project management 236 leveraging knowledge systems 232–234 life cycle costing 155
budgeting 272–273
in case studies 276, 278, 281
option appraisal 271, 273 as part of design and specification selection 273 project briefing and scoping for 271–272 Standardised Method [SMLCC] 262, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273 life cycle costing standards 107, 109, 269–275 application in procurement process 271–273 see also ISO 15686-5; SMLCC life cycle costs in LEED approach 177
see also LCC
lighting controls 267, 278 lighting equipment energy savings 114, 167, 267, 278 life cycle costing analysis 279–282
Liverpool John Moores University, sustainability in curriculum 374 Low Carbon Buildings Sectoral Plan 155 low-carbon electricity generation, incentives for 154, 173 low-carbon heat technologies, incentives for 154
Low Carbon Transition Plan 153
LRR (land remediation relief) 156, 171, 367–368 example of claims 369
restriction on claiming 370
lump sum contract 126
main contractor, sustainability case study 339–340, 341–352 maintenance costs 22 designing to reduce 115 impact of design decisions on 83 management contracting procurement system 131–132 comparing with construction management approach 132–133 management style, site productivity affected by 96, 104 management systems, site productivity affected by 97, 103, 104 managing consultant, sustainability case study 339, 341–352 Mandatory Energy Efficiency Standards for Buildings 244 ‘market value’ [RICS definition] 246 ‘master builders’ 299 materials management, site productivity affected by 98 mega-tall buildings 285
see also tall buildings ‘Merton rule’ 338
microgeneration, feed-in tariffs for 173, 211–212 MINERGIE label, examples of use 149 mitigation measures see flood mitigation monetary policies 10 motivating factors, site productivity affected by 98–99, 103, 104 motors and drives, energy savings 168 nanotechnology advances in materials 13–14
National Fire Protection Association (NFPA, US) 287
National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP, US) 223, 224
National Institute of Building Sciences (NIBS, US), definition of BIM 300–301 National Security Strategy [UK] 289 natural disasters 213 see also flooding natural lighting 265
natural ventilation 265
NEC 3 contract 125, 129, 131
Nesbit, James 11
Netherlands
  housing market 81
  land use planning 81–82
tall buildings 54, 81, 88–89 network-level technologies 155
New Rules of Measurement see NRM
NHS (National Health Service, UK) hospitals, carbon reduction strategies 269 NHS Trusts using 4Projects Extranet system 237
  project management 236–237
NIA (net internal area) 35
cost estimates and plans based on 249–250 NPV (net present value) calculations 65, 66
  in life cycle costing 111, 116, 274
NRM (New Rules of Measurement) approach 12, 32–40
NRM 1 32–40
  aim and purpose 34
  Cost Estimate [preliminary estimate] 35–37
  [‘formal’] Cost Plan 37–38, 39 [‘formal’] Elemental Cost Plan 38–39, 40 and OGC Gateways 34, 38 and RIBA Plan of Work stages 34, 35, 38 standard templates used 36, 39, 40 NTV (net terminal value) approach 65 office developments, value engineering [in case studies] 330–335, 365 office façade, LCC worked example 116–117 office market, Netherlands 80–81 OGC (Office of Government Commerce) gateways, and NRM 1 Parts 34, 38 open-place workspace settings misconceptions about 192 trend towards 192
‘optioneering’ 257
order-of-cost estimate 35–37, 251 example 256
  guidelines on 37, 42
organisational performance effect of innovative work settings 192–199
  factors affecting 192
OTS (office of tax simplification) 152 overhead ventilation 266 owners and occupiers, key drivers 153 Pareto’s law 24
passive stack ventilation 265, 278 payable credits 171–172 performance approach [performance based building] 145–146 performance measurement, basis of 146 performance targets 21
PFI/PPP procurement approaches 122, 133–135 phase-change materials 266 photovoltaic (PV) installations 259
  in case study 268, 278
  valuation of 246–247
pipework insulation, energy savings 168 planning obligations cost of [in case study] 73–74 for site-specific transport 74 see also environmental costs; Section 106 planning agreements; social costs Planning Policy Statement 25 (PPS 25) 214, 224 ‘plant’, meaning of term 163, 364 plant and machinery allowances 163, 164 main pool 163, 164
  restriction on claiming 370
  special rate pool 163, 164 Plymouth University, sustainability in curriculum 374
policy environment 9–11 ‘polluter pays’ principle 370
Porritt, Jonathon 338 Power Purchase Agreement (PPA) 359–360 benefits/advantages 360 pre-construction activities, site productivity affected by 101, 102, 103, 104 pre-construction mockups, comparison between physical and virtual mock-ups 309 present value (PV) 64, 274 private finance initiative see PFI/PPP process innovation 339, 348, 349 procurement and contract strategy 121–136 procurement strategy and contract selection 122–123 interaction of key actors 122 procurement systems construction management approach 132–133
  and contract issues 128–133 design-and-build approach 122, 129–131, 135 management contracting approach 131–132 PFI/PPP projects 122, 133–135 traditional [architect-led] system 122, 128–129 product innovation 339, 348, 350 productivity
  definition 93
  factors affecting 12, 93
  literature on 94–100
  measurement of 94
  see also labour productivity; site productivity professional training of design economists 15 profitability
  factors affecting 339
  in case studies 352, 353
Index 401

project briefing, for life cycle costing 271–272 project goals, formulation of 138–142
project management 1970s view 301
  case studies 236–237
property investment, key factors influencing 241 property valuation effect of building characteristics 142–143 effect of sustainable credentials 148–150 and renewable energy infrastructure 246–247 and sustainable design economics 240–243 UK valuation process 245–247 public–private partnership see PFI/PPP PV see photovoltaic...; present value quality assurance [in BIM] 306 quantity surveying firms new and emerging services 15, 230 traditional services 230 quantity surveyors challenges facing 374–376 responsibilities in terms of sustainability 375 role of 11–12, 374
radiant heaters, energy savings 169 reference projects model 85–86 in EVR calculations 86
refrigeration equipment, energy savings 168 renewable energy infrastructure, valuation of 246–247 renewable energy sources 165, 166, 169, 259, 268, 278 smart use of 201, 202 renewable heat incentive (RHI) payments 154, 173–174, 211–212, 370 renewable heat premium payments (RHPPs) 154 Renewables Obligation (RO) 170, 174 renovation
  EVRs compared with new construction 86, 87, 88 reduction of costs, life-cycle cost optimised by 115
rental income determination of 67
  in case study 69
  data and assumptions sheet for 75 development value quantified using 67
  factors affecting 68
  of ‘green’ buildings 68 residual land value 65, 77 sensitivity [scenario] analysis 77
residual profit 65
residual valuation technique appraisal of design using 67–69 example in case study 69–78 rental value determination 67–68 yield calculations 68–69 residual value, of building after intervention 84 resilience [flood mitigation] measures 217, 221, 224 resistance [flood mitigation] measures 216–217, 221, 224 resource-based theory 11, 27–29 resource management, site productivity affected by 98–99, 103, 104 resource scarcity 16
retail developments, VM/VE applied [case study] 319–320
RFID technology 317
RHI (renewable heat incentive) payments 154, 173–174, 211–212, 370
RHPP (renewable heat premium payments) 154
RIBA outline plan of work [2007]
  Work Stages 34–40, 251 and BREEAM assessment stages 181, 182 cost planning phase 37–40, 255–257 evolution of cost plan through 37–40, 255–257 preliminary estimate phase 35–37, 255 and RICS cost estimating and planning stages 35–40, 251 and RICS NRM 34–35, 251, 260
RIBA plan of work [2013]
  BIM included 35
  Stages 231
RICS
  Building Cost Information Service 31, 32, 40
  Code of Measuring Practice 35 Cost Analysis and Benchmarking publication 38
  guidance on financial viability in planning 67, 69, 72, 76, 77 on sustainability and property valuation 246 New Rules of Measurement 32, 34–40, 248 and RIBA Work Stages 34–40, 251, 260 see also NRM 1
  review on QS skills and responsibilities 375–376 Standard Method of Measurements 32 Valuation Standards 246
  see also IPD/RICS sustainability inspection checklist risk allowances 37 risk assessments, effect of sustainable building features 143, 144 risk response strategy 127 risk transfer, valuation in PFI/PPP projects 134–135 risks allocation of 124–125
and construction costs 125–127
examples 127
operational [in PFI/PPP projects] 134 risks mitigating instruments 127 risks and uncertainties and forms of contract 125
in life-cycle costing 111–112, 116
RMIT University [Australia], sustainability in curriculum 374 RO (Renewables Obligation) 170 technologies supported 174
ROCs (Renewables Obligation Certificates) 174
Rotterdam, brown field development 81 scheduling, BIM-based 314–317 scoping, of life cycle costing 272 Section 106 agreements 73–74
Section 106 Supplementary Planning Document (SPD) 74, 75
sensitivity [scenario] analysis 77 services costs, reduction of, life-cycle cost optimised by 115 settlement types and location of energy clusters 206 peak energy consumption times 205 SFCA (Standard Form of Cost Analysis) 34, 40–41, 270 Shanghai, tall buildings cost vs. height 53–59
doors and windows costs 55, 57
electrical costs 58, 59
plumbing costs 58, 59
roof costs 55, 56
services costs 56–59
substructure costs 55, 59
upper floors costs 55, 56, 59
simple interest 64
Singapore, tall buildings 290–291 site management, site productivity affected by 101, 102, 103, 104 site productivity and design variation orders 97
factors affecting
literature on 94–100
survey on 100–102
and information technology 100 and labour characteristics 95–96, 103, 104 and leadership styles 98, 103, 104 and management of activities 103, 104 and management style 96, 103, 104 and management systems 97, 103, 104 and materials management 98 and motivating factors 98–99, 103, 104 and pre-construction activities 101, 102, 103, 104 and project characteristics 95 proposed framework for 102–104 and resource management 98–99, 101, 102, 103, 104 and site management 101, 102, 103, 104 and technological advancement 99–100 and training 99
and ‘waste management’ 101, 102 and ‘work groups’ 101, 102 site value, calculations [in case study] 76–77 Skandia AFS, knowledge management systems used by 233 smart meters 154
SMLCC (Standardised Method of Life Cycle Costing) 262, 269, 270, 271 social costs [of construction projects] 18, 26, 63, 75 social infrastructure 4 social performance requirements 138, 139, 141 social value [of design] 25 solar cells see photovoltaic (PV) installations solar energy 202 conversion to power density 202 solar gain, limiting excess 114, 265 solar power purchase agreement, for Star Island 359 solar technology, small-scale 211 solar thermal systems 169, 268 space-efficient planning, life-cycle cost optimised by 113 space planning 192
organisational performance affected by 192–199 spearman correlation rank test 101 specialist contractor, sustainability case study 340, 341–352 stakeholders [in property investment] 241 standardisation of cost estimation and cost planning process 32–40, 44–45 Egan report recommendation 28
Standardised Method of Life Cycle Costing (SMLCC) 262, 269, 270 Star Island 356
alternative energy systems 358, 359, 360–361
case study 356–361
energy generation costs 358, 360 reliability of power supply 360–361
Index 403

Star Island Corporation (SIC) 356
Capital Improvement Plan 357 funding for 358
facility issues 357
initial analysis to identify problems 357 key challenges 357
new CEO appointed 357
Stern Review 338, 344
sub-contractor, sustainability case study 340, 341–352 subsidies and incentives [for carbon emissions reduction] 173–175 super-tall buildings 284–285
see also tall buildings supermarket development, VM/VE case study 319–329 supply and demand factors affecting 10 mismatching 5
supply-side policies 10 Surrey, University of, sustainability in curriculum 373 sustainability in Dutch land use planning 81–82 economic benefits 14, 67 impact on cost plans 258–259 lack of graduates’ knowledge 375 sustainability assessment of buildings effect of building characteristics 143 EN standard 138
overall concept 141 sustainability assessment certificates 145–146 aggregated assessment results 145–146 disaggregated assessment results 146 sustainability assessment systems 146–148, 242 adjustment [over time] of criteria and weighting 243 data collection for 242, 243–244 EVR tool embedded in 89–90 information flows between investors/banks/designers 147–148 see also BREEAM; Energy Star; EVR; GreenCalc; GREENSTAR; LEED sustainability budgeting, cost issues affecting 273–274 sustainability checklist [IPD/RICS] 390–391 sustainability considerations at design stage 263–269 sustainability education framework [for QS degree programme] appropriate strategy 376 background knowledge and concept 377, 378 coverage of sustainability 380, 381 economic issues 378, 379 environmental issues 378, 377, 379 policies and regulations 378, 377 social issues 378, 379 technology and innovation 378, 379 input required from various stakeholders 384, 385 mapping in four case studies 380, 381 sustainability issues, literature review on 373–376 sustainability strategies [of various firms], case studies 342–343 sustainable building features, risk assessments affected by 143, 144 sustainable communities activity-based design approach to creating 201, 202, 204–206 definition 201
energy requirements 211 land requirements 210, 211 space requirements 209
see also decentralised energy networks sustainable construction, business benefits of 338 sustainable credentials, relationship with property values 148–150 sustainable design economics, and property valuation 240–243 sustainable development effect on procedures and processes, case studies 344, 347 key drivers in UK construction sector 337–339
case studies 344, 345–346 economic costs/benefits 338 legislation 337
planning policies and building regulations 338
meaning of term 337
sustainable projects, key economic aspects 275 tacit knowledge 231
takeoff process, in BIM 310, 311 tall buildings in Australia 290, 291 comparison of Hong Kong with Shanghai 53–54
cost–height relationship 12, 19–20, 20, 47–60, 286–287
counter-terrorism design measures 288–291, 293 cost consequences of new approaches 293, 295, 296
new approaches 292, 294
demand for higher design standards 289–290 tall buildings (cont’d) eco-cost associated with 88–89 evacuation and fire escape management 290, 291, 296 factors influencing design and cost 285–288 core design and size of floor plate 286 elevator/lift systems 287 embodied energy and building services 287 fire protection 287–288 height of buildings 285–286 location and land prices 288 shape of buildings 285 structure and frame construction 288 in Hong Kong 50–52
need for increased resilience 285 in the Netherlands 54, 81, 88–89 risks associated with 289 in Shanghai 53–59
in Singapore 290–291
structural changes [post-9/11] 290–291, 294 see also cost–height relationship; eco-costs/value ratio concept target cost contract 126 task performance innovative work settings, organisational performance affected by 194, 196–197, 198 tax losses, restrictions on 370
tax planning 370
opportunities for 363
tax relief 23, 152, 155 tax reliefs and allowances 161–172
capital allowances 161–162
enhanced capital allowances 152, 155, 163–164
enterprise zone allowances 162, 171 land remediation relief 156, 171
plant and machinery allowances 163, 164 strategic considerations 362–364 taxation anti-avoidance provisions 370 taxation system [UK] 156–160
taxes and levies 156–160, 161 direct taxes 157–158, 157 indirect taxes 157, 158–160, 161 versus incentives 156 technical lifespan of building, factors affecting 143 technical maintenance costs, reduction of, life-cycle cost optimised by 115 technical performance requirements 139 relationships with other building characteristics 141, 142 technological advancement, site productivity affected by 99–100 technology use in productivity/efficiency improvement 13
see also BIM
templates, cost plan 39, 40, 253 terrorist attacks
counter-terrorism design measures 288–291, 293 person-borne suicide attacks 291 type and impact of current threat 291–292 Texas Instruments, knowledge management systems used by 233 three-dimensional (3D) modelling 305, 308, 309, 310
time value of money 63–64
in life-cycle costing 111, 116
see also NPV calculations trade cost plan 251–252 trade infrastructure 4 traditional [architect-led] procurement system 122, 128–129 training, site productivity affected by 99 transport, site-specific, planning obligation contribution costs for 74 triple bottom line [economics/environmental/social] 153, 337 UK
building costs compared with other countries 21, 42, 44 Climate Change Act [2008] 13, 244
flood insurance 223
National Planning Policy Framework 213–214
National Security Strategy 289 reduction of emissions 152, 153, 178 taxation system 156–160 anti-avoidance provisions 370 zero-carbon target 179, 245 UN Framework Convention on Climate Change 10 uncertainties and risks, in life-cycle costing 111–112, 116 uninterruptible power supplies, energy savings 169 ‘unnecessary costs’, meaning of term 23 urban regeneration strategy 171 US
flood insurance 223
Green Building Council (USGBC) see GBCI; LEED
National Fire Protection Association 287
National Flood Insurance Program 223, 224
National Institute of Building Sciences 300 useful economic life of building, factors affecting 143 value added tax see VAT value engineering (VE) 257
in BIM 304, 312
case studies 319–335
contrasted with cost cutting 320 elements of savings 25, 325, 334 examples of savings 325, 334 report to client 328, 333 results from VE workshop 324–327, 333–335 steps in VE process
identifying value opportunity areas 321 investigating value opportunity areas 321–322 preparing for VE workshop 322–323, 332–333 VE workshop 323, 332–333 value management (VM) 12, 23–24
definitions 24, 319
implementation 320–324
reason for use 319–320, 330–331 when and where VM is applied 320, 331–332 value-of-design theory 24–26 value-related characteristics, identifying 142–143
VAT (value added tax) 157, 158–160, 161, 368–370 exempt 158–159, 159, 172
rates 157, 159
reduced rate 157, 158, 159, 159, 172, 173, 369–370 zero rate 157, 158, 159, 172, 173 ventilated ceiling slab 266 viability of development schemes, assessment of [in case study] 69 Vico software 302, 303, 313
Virtual Construction Technology [in BIM] 302, 307 warm air heaters, energy savings 169 waste
factors affecting 101, 102
reduction techniques 114 ‘waste management’, site productivity affected by 101, 102 waste water, treatment and re-use of 114 water consumption, per person [listed] 203 water-reuse systems 170 water-saving technologies 114, 170 waterproofing, as flood mitigation measure 217 Wembley Stadium [London] case study 123–124, 135 key parties 123
procurement system used 123, 135 project implementation 124 wind power 202, 268, 359 wind speed, conversion to power density 203, 205 wind turbines 202, 268, 359 WLC (whole-life cost) compared with LCC 91, 108, 270, 272 elements of 91, 107, 108, 119, 270, 272
factors affecting 5, 108–109
measures for reporting 274
WLC (whole-life cost) theory 12, 21–23, 107, 108–109 data collection and analysis 22 inclusion of CO2 emissions 118 limitations 119 performance specification 22 period of analysis 22 reasons for increased use 22
see also LCC
‘work groups’, site productivity affected by 101, 102 work settings, effect on organisational performance 191–199 World Trade Center attacks [New York, 2001], effect on design of tall buildings 289, 290, 291–292 Worldwatch Institute 178 yield 68–69
UK data 245, 388
variables affecting 69
zero-carbon development(s) 201–204 additional costs 201–204
UK target 179, 245