Contents

Contributors

Introduction

1 The Development of Advanced Nursing Practice in the United Kingdom

Paula McGee

- Introduction
- Health policies and reforms
- The UKCC and higher-level practice
- The interface with medicine
- The introduction of new roles
  - Modern matrons
  - Nurse consultants
  - Physicians’ assistants
- Nurse practitioners and the Royal College of Nursing
- The Nursing and Midwifery Council
- Conclusion
- Key questions for Chapter 1
- References

2 UK Health Policy and Health Service Reform

Alistair Hewison

- Introduction
- The policy process
- Labour health policy since 1997
- UK health policy and its implications for advanced nursing practice
- Advanced nursing practice
- Advanced nurses as policy implementers
- Conclusion
- Key questions for Chapter 2
- References

3 Advanced Practice in Allied Health Professions

Paula McGee and David Cole

- Introduction
- The introduction of the consultant allied health professional
- Physiotherapy
- Radiography and sonography
  - Sonography: an example of advanced radiography role
- Are these new roles in physiotherapy and radiography/sonography advanced?
- Conclusion
Contents

Key questions for Chapter 3 41
References 41

4 The Conceptualisation of Advanced Practice 43
Paula McGee
Introduction 43
The context of the development of advanced practice 43
The nature of advanced practice 45
Professional maturity 46
Challenging professional boundaries 46
Pioneering innovations 49
Is advanced practice a generic term? 53
Conclusion 53
Key questions for Chapter 4 54
References 54

5 Advanced Assessment and Differential Diagnosis 56
Paula McGee
Introduction 56
The nature of advanced assessment 57
Types of advanced assessment 58
Conducting an advanced assessment 63
Limitations of advanced assessment 64
Formulating a differential diagnosis 64
Conclusion 68
Key questions for Chapter 5 68
References 68

6 Prescribing and Advanced Practice 70
Sue Shortland and Katharine Hardware
Introduction 70
Recent developments in non-medical prescribing 71
Preparation for prescribing 72
Who may prescribe what? 73
Nurses 73
Allied health professionals 73
Controlled medicines 74
Patient group directions 74
Emergency situations 74
The principles of safe prescribing 75
Safety and clinical governance 76
The future of non-medical prescribing 77
Conclusion 78
Key questions for Chapter 6 78
References 78

7 Advanced Practice in Dietetics 81
Linda Hindle
Introduction 81
Reasons for the development of consultant roles in dietetics 82
The consultant role 82
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Working as a consultant in obesity management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Role development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clinical practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Professional leadership</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Education, training and professional development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Service development, research and evaluation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Setting up a consultant post</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Examples of dietetic consultant roles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion – the future for consultant dietitians</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Key questions for Chapter 7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| 8 Advanced Practice in Occupational Therapy | 97 |
| Lynne Frith and Janette Walsh |
| Introduction | 97 |
| Advanced practice in occupational therapy | 98 |
| Specialist roles in occupational therapy | 98 |
| Clinical caseload and expertise | 99 |
| Clinical leadership | 99 |
| Clinical teaching and mentoring | 99 |
| Specialist advisory role | 99 |
| Consultant roles in occupational therapy | 100 |
| Expert clinical practice | 100 |
| Practice and service development | 100 |
| Professional leadership and consultancy | 100 |
| Research audit and evaluation | 101 |
| Education, training and development | 101 |
| The clinical specialist and consultant occupational therapist as advanced roles | 101 |
| Current issues for consultant occupational therapists | 103 |
| The future for occupational therapists | 104 |
| Conclusion | 105 |
| Key questions for Chapter 8 | 105 |
| References | 105 |

| 9 Working as an Advanced Nurse Practitioner | 107 |
| Mark Radford |
| Introduction | 107 |
| Defining a need | 108 |
| Organisational preparation | 110 |
| Job planning | 111 |
| Maintaining focus and delivery | 112 |
| Developing strategic influence | 113 |
| Consultancy and entrepreneurship | 114 |
| Review and evaluation | 116 |
| Career progression | 119 |
| Conclusion | 121 |
| Key questions for Chapter 9 | 121 |
| Acknowledgements | 121 |
| References | 122 |
13 Management Issues in Advanced Practice

Paula McGee and Mark Radford

- Introduction: 177
- Managing the self: 178
- Management issues and their implications for advanced practitioners: 180
  - Current health service priorities: 181
  - Modernising health professionals’ careers: 183
  - Patient and public involvement in health care: 184
- The strategic and business plans: 185
- Managing advanced practice roles: 186
- The advanced practitioner as manager: 188
- Conclusion: 189
- Key questions for Chapter 13: 189
- References: 189

14 The Preparation of Advanced Practitioners

Paula McGee

- Introduction: 192
- The concept of competence: 193
- Competencies for advanced practice: 195
- The educational preparation of advanced practitioners: 201
- Clinical doctorates: 204
- Conclusion: 206
- Key questions for Chapter 14: 207
- References: 208

15 The Careers of Advanced Practitioners

Chris Inman and Paula McGee

- Introduction: 210
- Context of the survey: 211
- Findings:
  - Employment issues: 212
  - Perceptions of the role and its effects on practice: 214
  - Evaluation of the advanced practice role: 217
  - Perceived helpfulness of the preparation for the advanced practice role: 217
  - Career development: 219
  - Consultant practitioners: 220
- Discussion: 221
- Conclusion: 225
- Key questions for Chapter 15: 225
- References: 225

16 An International Perspective of Advanced Nursing Practice

Madrean Schober

- Introduction: 227
- Factors contributing to the emergence of advanced nursing practice globally: 228
- Extent of international presence: 229
- An international presence marked by confusion: 230
- Advanced nursing practice defined: an international view: 231
- Characteristics: 231