Index

abstracts, 11, 12, 13, 15, 69–70
analyzing, 70
guidelines for, 70
importance of, 69
in review articles, 80–81
reviewing, 112
word count, 69
acknowledgement, 50, 109 active voice verbs, 39–42, 56
AdTAT, 123, 130–31. see also concordancing
AIBC. see under article structure
AIM(RaD)C. see under article structure
AIMRaD, see under article structure AIRDaM. see under article structure ambiguity, avoiding, 67 appendices, 25
applied linguistics, 43. see also language structure genre analysis, 3
article structure, 11–16, 33
AIBC, 15, 18, 33, 37, 82, 83
AIM(RaD)C, 14
AIMRaD, 11–12
AIRDaM, 13
conclusions (see Conclusions)
discussion section, 12–15, 33, 59–64
examples, 11–15
improving, 105
introductions (see Introductions)
methods section, 11–15, 37–42 recommendations for future research, 60 references (see references) results section, 11–15, 33–6
review articles, 83
reviewer expectations, 16 variations, 11–15
articles, indefinite and definite, 133–6 difficulty of, 124, 133
flowchart for, 135
and plurals, 136
articles, journal. see research articles bar charts, 27
bibliographic software, 111 boxes, 27, 29, 86
Britton-Simmons & Abbott (2008), 32, 38, 41, 53, 159–70
discussion section, 61, 63
introduction, 51
methods section, 38
use of verbs, 63
Buker, Suzanne. see Weissberg & Buker (1990) charts and diagrams, 27. see also figures checklists. see lists

© 2013 Margaret Cargill and Patrick O’Connor. Published 2013 by Blackwell Publishing Ltd. citation, 47–51
author or information prominent, 48–50 to develop an argument, 48–50
examples, 49
column charts, 27
communication skills, 123–4. see also language skills
computers. see also electronic submissions;
Internet
figure design with, 26
software, 26, 111, 129–31
spelling checker, 111
Conclusions, 14, 15, 59
in review articles, 75–6, 78–9, 81–3
concordancing, 129–32
collocations, 129
creating a corpus of literature, 131 practice, 132
software, 129–32
copy-editors, 123, 124
copyright, 131. see also plagiarism criticism, dealing with, 5. see also rejection of submissions
data presentation, 25–32. see also charts; figures; tables
choice of display type, 26
in review articles, 84
style, 25
Discussion section
conclusions, 59, 60
strength of claims in, 62–4 structure of, 59–60 editing, checklist for authors, 112 procedure, 110
editors, journal, 4
appealing to, 100
as gatekeepers, 4, 93
interest in unsolicited reviews, 73
responding to, 101, 103–4 role of, xi, 17, 86, 93, 97, 106 electronic databases, 5 electronic submissions, 17, 95 e-mail alert schemes, 5
emotional investment, in writing, 118 English as an additional language(EAL) contexts, 4, 117, 121, 124 and English usage, 111, 125, 128, 130, 132–3
for scientists, xi, 5, 123, 124, 131 English language, 123–37. see also concordancing; language structure as an additional language (see English as an additional language(EAL)) errors (see errors)
for scientists, xi, 4, 5, 123–37
skills (see language skills) spoken, 5
errors importance for publication, 123 types of, in English, 123–4 evaluation of manuscripts, 17, 95, 113. see also peer review; referees/reviewers criteria used, 4, 17, 18, 25, 96, 113
review articles, 75
experimental research, 11. see also research articles; research results procedures, 37
feedback. see also referees/reviewers expert, 4, 113, 118
on grant proposals, 141, 142
responding to, 114, 142
strategies, 118–20
symbols used, 120
figures, 23–4, 25
designing, 26–9
examples, 27, 28
legends, 28, 31, 32, 84, 85, 110
and review, 95, 112
style, 26
symbols, 27
uses of, 25, 26
flow charts, 29, 85
re using a/an/the, 135
footnotes, 25
formatting
article, 25, 101, 107, 113 data (see data presentation)
html, 131
pdf, 131–2
text-only, 131
funding bodies, 140–43
funding proposals, 139–43
Ganci et al. (2012), 32, 38, 61, 173–83
article structure, 186
Introduction, 49, 53, 196–7
grant proposals. see funding proposals graphics software, 26. see also charts;
figures
hard copy, 111
headings and subheadings, 38, 53, 61, 111
in review articles, 83
html format, 131
impact factor. see Journal impact factor Instructions to Contributors, 25, 33, 47, 87, 91, 107, 110, 111, 113 International Committee of Medical Journal Editors, 109 international conferences, involvement in, 5 international literature, publishing in, 4–6.
see also journals
Internet
downloading software, 131 support, xii, 10
web links, 13
Introductions, 12–15, 43–57, 59
and discussion sections, 59 drafting, 53–4
editing, 54–7
examples, 44–5
focus of, 12
importance, 43
references in, 47–50
stages of, 43–5, 46, 51–3, 127
in review articles, 81–2 statement of purpose, 52–3 journal articles, 3, 9, 91, 117, 131, 132, 141 Journal Cited Half-Life, 214 journal clubs, 92, 96, 117–18
Journal Immediacy Index, 213
Journal Impact Factor, 213
Journal of Ecology, 65, 69, 70 journals, 5, 6–7, 8. see also publication, injournals; research articles academic standards, 3–4, 6 advice from, 6
audience, 3, 6
charging authors, 7, 8
comparing, 8
editors (see editors, journal) gaining access to, 5
impact, 213
indices of quality, 213–4 instructions for authors (see Instructions to Contributors) instructions for reviewers, 17, 95 Internet access to, 7
non-English, 37
origins, 11
peer-reviewed, 6
punctuation used, 111
readers’ needs, 16
refereeing (see referees/reviewers)
scope, 6, 8
style, 25, 67
websites, 5–7, 13, 65
Kaiser et al. (2003), 54, 129, 147–158
discussion section, 61
introduction, 47, 134
use of verbs, 35, 41
keywords, 52, 65–6, 69
additional, 69
language skills, xi, 5–6, 53, 123–37.
see also language structure;
writing style
in articles, xi, 110
and communication, 123, 124
development, 5, 117
discipline-specific, xi, 4, 5, 123–37 and manuscript rejection, 105 spelling, 111
teaching, xi, 117
language structure. see also articles, indefinite and definite; nouns and noun phrases; punctuation; sentence structure; verbs, use of grammar, 14, 39, 111, 124 vocabulary, 14
library databases, 5
line charts, 27
lists
checklists, 9, 60, 81, 82, 86, 112, 143 reference (see references) writing lists, 41
literature search, 86. see also references manuscripts, 3. see also article structure; pubication, in journals; research articles editing, 110–111
layout, 111
preparing, 5, 109–11
rejection of, 6, 99–100
review articles, 86
structure (see article structure) submitting, 91–7, 98–107
titles (see titles)
McNeill et al. (1997)
introduction, 44, 49
use of verbs, 35
Methods section
organisation, 38
verb usage in, 38–40, 42
molecular biology journals, 214
New Phytologist, 65, 73, 75, 83
New Phytologist Trust, 73 nouns and noun phrases, 128–9 ambiguity of, 67–8
nouns and noun phrases (cont’d)
characteristics, 127
as content chunks, 125
countable/uncountable, 135 definition, 128
discipline-specific, 128–9 extended, 67
generic, 133–4
and headwords, 66, 128
indefinite and definite articles, 133 looking up, 129
noun-noun phrases, 128–9 as object of verb, 63 problems for EAL writers, 128 in sentence templates, 126, 127 specific, 133–4
in titles, 66, 67
use of, 128

Open Access, to articles, 7, 8
pdf files, 131
peer communication, 6
peer review, 6, 17, 18. see also referees/reviewers skills, 120
understanding the process, 94–5 pie charts, 27
plagiarism, 50
avoiding, 50–1
identifying, 50, 125
Plant Journal, The, 69
publication, in journals, xi, 4–7, 91–7. see also journals; referees/reviewers charges, 7, 8
competition, 91
covering letters, 93, 94, 106–7
importance, 4–6
nominating reviewers, 94 online, 7, 25, 92, 101
reasons for, 4–5
speed of, 6–7, 8
strategies for, xi, 6, 117–121 targeting journals, xi, 3, 5–7, 8 punctuation, 42, 111, 120 with relative pronouns, 136–7 quotations, direct, 50. see also citation; references radar charts, 27

referee/review criteria for funding grants, 140, 141 referees/reviewers for journal articles, 6, 17–19. see also feedback; peer review; review articles anonymity, 95

challenges for, xi
comments, 17, 101–7, 103
criteria used, 4, 17–18, 74, 91
double-blind, 17
instructions for, 17
and plagiarism, 50
responding to, 99, 102, 103–4, 121
role of, 94, 96
and strength of claims, 63
references, 47–9, 60, 105, 112. see also plagiarism citation (see citation) correcting, 111
in the Introduction, 47–50 manual preparation, 111
software, 111
rejection of submissions, 6, 7 dealing with, 99, 100
and plagiarism, 50
reasons for, 99, 100
relative pronouns (which and that), 136–7 defining/non-defining, 136
examples, 136–7
repetition, avoiding, 42 research articles, 3–5, 11–15. see also journals; manuscripts; publication, in journals; submissions audience for, 3–4, 16, 53, 65, 109 creating a corpus of, 131–2
examples, 147–70, 171–83
format (see under formatting) and Open Access, 7
preparation (see under manuscripts)
refereeing (see referees/reviewers)
revising (see revision of work) single-author, 41
structure (see article structure)
titles (see titles)
writing-advice
works, xii, 39
research as international activity, xi, 5 research paradigms, 11. see also experimental research research results, 23–4, 25–35. see also data presentation; experimental research; figures; tables acknowledgment, 50, 109
as æstoryÆ, xi, 23–4, 25 feedback on, 4, 113
and Methods sections, 37–8 notes, 14
replication of, 37
selection, 109
writing up, 4, 33–6, 59
researchers, early-career, xi, 117
Results section
data presentation in, 26
verb tense in, 34–5
review articles, 11, 73–90
reviewers, see referees/reviewers revision of work, 100, 101–8 level of, 101
scientific community, participation, 5–6 sentence structure and linking, 41–2, 51, 124, 125, 126–8. see also topic sentences; verbs, use of general to specific, 53, 110 old to new information, 41, 47, 55–6, 111 sentence templates, 51, 125–7 top-heavy sentences, 57 signal words, 51
skim reading, 34, 83
spelling, 111. see also language skills submissions, 91–6, 101–8. see also rejection
of submissions
electronic, 17, 95
re-submission, 103–7
summaries, see abstracts Swales, J.M., xii
tables, 23–4, 29–31
designing, 29–30
examples, 30–31
limitations, 30
and review, 112
titles, 29, 30–31
uses of, 26, 29
take-home message, ix, 23, 61, 109, 110
funding proposals, 141
review articles, 75
target journals, see under journals technical terms, 3–4, 6 text-only format, 131
titles of articles, 17–19, 59, 65–9, 76, 80 head nouns, 66
importance, 17–19, 65
statements as, 66–7
use of questions, 65, 66 titles of sections. see headings and subheadings topic sentences, 48, 54, 111 analysis, 54
training, 117–21. see also feedback on concordancing, 131
workshops, 121
verbs, use of, 34–6, 124 active/passive voice, 39–43 modal, 35, 62–4, 124
and strength of claims, 62–4 tenses, 34–6, 50, 62–4, 124 web support, xii, 10 websites, journal, 5–8, 13, 65 Weissberg & Buker (1990), xii, 44, 60, 70, 74, 135 which and that. see relative pronouns
workshops, 121
writing groups, 118
writing style. see also article structure; journal articles; language skills;
publication, in journals; sentence
structure; verbs, use of avoiding repetition, 42 conventions, 39, 40, 47, 52, 53, 67, 92, 111, 113, 125 development, 117–21
genres, 3
for international publication, 3–4 language choices, 62–4 linking, 47, 54, 56
logical flow, 54–7
science-specific, 5, 36–7, 112–16 technical terms (see technical terms) Writing Up Research (Weissberg & Buker, 1990), xii, 44, 60, 70, 74, 135