Index

Page references followed by t indicate a table.

A
Abplanalp, S., 13

Academic achievement: culture identified as critical to improved, 10; group sense of efficacy generating drive for, 10–11; importance of parents and community to student success and, 207–210; McLaughlin's study on learning community and, 11–12; research findings on school “ethos” contribution to, 10, 12; sense of community driving private school, 11; test scores as metric of, 259–260, 279–280, 282. See also Student learning; Success

Acronyms for values, 239

Action: paradox of, 284; school leadership activities and, 263–278; as symbolic, 45

Actor role: description of, 228; negative “futile role-player” versus the positive, 245; in shaping school culture, 241–243

Adlai E. Stevenson High School, 47, 150–155

Advocacy symbolism, 46–47

Aircraft rituals, 100–101

Alamance-Burlington School System (North Carolina), 172

Aleichem, S., 133

Allen Elementary School (Dayton), 272–273

Alumni homecoming ceremonies, 119

American flag symbolism, 37

Ames, Mr., 91

Among Schoolchildren (Kidder), 285–286

Anna M. Joyce Elementary School (Detroit), 38–39, 43, 160, 166–172

Anthropological sleuth role: description of, 227; negative “Snoop” versus the positive, 245; in shaping school culture, 228–229

Antiheroes and devils (informal network): description of noxious networks and, 143; toxic school cultures and, 187–188, 198. See also Heroes and heroines (informal network)

Apathy: apathy farmers of the informal network spreading, 143, 198; of stories in toxic schools, 189; of teachers and staff in toxic schools, 187–188

Apathy farmers (informal network), 143, 198

Apple brand, 220

Architectural forms: four ways that the symbolism reinforces culture, 42–43; symbolism conveyed by Ganado Primary School’s, 25–27, 42–43; symbolism of the physical plant and, 41–44, 59; values and symbols conveyed by, 37–38

Armstrong International, 93

Artifacts: principal’s office decorated with school, 231; school collections and historical, 41; school history uncovered through school, 59

Asaro, T., 127–128
Ash, M. K., 111–112
Association of School Administrators (AASA), 249
Assumptions: description of, 76; social meaning of, 7–8
AT&T networked world symbol, 37
Athletic awards displays, 40
Audubon Elementary School (Baton Rouge), 118–119, 273

B
Baker, C., 46, 146–150, 159
Baldrige, J. V., 69
Ballast (informal network), 142, 198
Bamburg, J., 166
Banners symbolism, 39
Bass, R., 111
Battle-preparation rituals, 106–107
Beaverton Elementary School, 117–119
Beaverton School District, 52–53, 93–95, 105
Behaviors: Bower's research in good leadership, 251–253; bullying, 186, 189–190; greeting, 47, 105; how rules and rituals both regulate, 272–273; symbolic messages of small, 232; symbolism of emotional content of actions and, 232
Beliefs: core stories or narratives supporting group, 67–70; daily routines to reinforce values and, 231; description of, 75; examples of symbols that communicate shared, 235–236; how symbols represent cultural values and, 37–38; how the founding myth guides, 75–76; potter role in sharing school cultural, 234–236; social meaning of, 7–8. See also Core values
Belushi, J., 148
Berger, P., 66
Beyer, J. M., 120
Bifocal principle: good leaders give mixed signals using the, 251–253; leading with paradox using the, 254–258; to ponder perplexing situations of paradox, 248
Bissinger, H. G., 72
Blogs (principal), 46
Blues Brothers, 148
BMW, 68
Bolman, L. G., 2, 16, 84
Boloz, S.: “The C Diet” written by, 28–29; on Ganado's innovative approach to learning, 32; “Once Upon a Time Breakfast” meeting held by, 29–30; playful rituals used by, 109; on the school quadrants representing core values, 26; on supporting innovative ways to serve students, 31; symbolism of the writing activities of, 46, 109; twenty-year career as principal of Ganado Primary School, 23–24; vision for his school, 67–68. See also Ganado Primary School (Arizona)
Bower, M., 8
Bower, P. B., 251, 252–253, 253, 254, 257, 258
Bowerman, B., 66–67
Boyden, E., 272
Brand building: business, 217, 218; school, 218–222
Brietzke, R., 14
Bronx High School for Visual Arts, 221
Brown, L., Jr., 166–167, 171–172
Bryk, A., 11
Bullying: accepted in a toxic school culture, 186; of teachers on social media in a toxic culture, 189–190
Bus driver's story, 88–89
Business culture: examples of the importance of, 2–4; exemplary performances tied to business, 2; research on productivity and, 9–10; resurgence of stories told about, 83–85; Starbucks' successful reconnection with their, 4–5; success through cohesive and shared set of values, 18. See also Culture; School culture
Business organizations: brands built by, 218, 220; importance of culture to exemplary performance in, 2; research findings on comparison companies, 9–10; stories told by, 93; suggestion that schools should be run like, 1–5, 17–18; what creates a successful, 1–2. See also Groups
Butz, C., 67, 219, 220

C
“The C Diet” (Boloz), 28–29
Callaghan, H., 6
Campbell, J., 98, 99, 253
Carlton School, 208–209
Carter-Scott, C., 141, 187
Catholic Church liturgy ritual, 99–100
Celebrating: building relationship between parents, community, and school by, 213; Ganado Primary School ritual of, 29–30; potter role in heroes and heroines being recognized and, 236–237; to reinforce cultural values during periods of transition, 119–120; school history and lore, 51–53, 55
Central Park East Secondary (New York), 160, 161–162
Ceremonies: description and purpose of, 112; elements of successful, 120–121; Elk Grove School District use of traditions and, 123–128; FOOGIES award (Fremont Order of Goofs in Educational Settings), 274; as form of communication media, 273–274; how cultural values are nurtured through, 112–113; leaders who perpetuate meaningful and value-laden, 238–239; of Mary Kay Cosmetics, 111–112; Nativity School use of traditions and, 128–130; South Mebane Elementary (SME) reinforcement of mission with traditional, 175–176; toxic school culture and negative, 189; types of, 113–120. See also Traditions
Ceremony types: homecomings for alumni, 119; integrative, 116; management, 115–116; memorial, 120; opening-day, 113–115; recognition, 116–119; seasonal, 115; special ceremonies marking an event, 119–120
Champion. See Icon (or champion) role
Change: celebrations to reinforce cultural values during, 119–120; challenge of the paradox of, 284; embracing the new flavor of the month for, 73; findings on school “ethos” and, 10, 12; how culture promotes improved, 14–15; research findings on role of culture in, 10–13; rogue pirates driving, 142; social improvement rituals to signal importance of, 107–108; transitional rituals during process of, 105–106
Chubb, J., 281, 282
Churchill, W., 50, 57
Clark, B., 65, 69, 160
Clark, E., 85, 93
Classrooms: powerful cultural message sent by arrangement of, 231; rituals to reinforce the school culture in, 109–110
Clemens, Miss, 88
Coca-Cola, 220
Collegiality: culture improves, 14; greeting rituals to promote, 105; initiation rituals to welcome newcomers and provide, 107; playful ritual to encourage, 109; social improvement rituals to signal importance of, 107–108; symbolism of collegial sharing and, 47
Collins, J. C., 9, 58
Commitment building, 15
Communication: acronyms used as shorthand, 239; getting people to listen through stories, 85–86; how ceremonies function as, 273–274; how culture improves, 14; idioms and slogans as, 239; memoranda as poetry of “The Fat Lady Sings” memo, 275–277; metaphors used as, 239–240; NYC staff learning some Korean to build community relationships, 213–214; significance of the form, emphasis, and volume of written, 233–234; symbolism of, 46–47. See also Language; Social media; Stories
Communication actors: the school gossips, 136–137, 275; the school spies, 137; the school storytellers, 135–136, 140–141, 198
Community: academic achievement driven by a private school’s sense of, 11; benefits of building ties between schools, parents, and, 222; how architecture motivates school pride by the, 43; how has the school responded to criticism by outside, 60; importance to student success and achievement, 207–210; need to reexamine the role schools play in society and, 285; school culture and external and internal roles of, 210–211; symbolism representing value of diversity and shared, 40. See also Learning Communities
Community–school relationship building: building a brand to cement ties and, 218–222; celebrating for, 213; a climate of trust for, 216–217; co-creating for, 213; collaborating for, 213; conspiring for, 213; convening for, 212;
Community–school relationship building: building a brand to cement ties and (continued) conveying for, 213; ensuring recognition for, 217–218; examples of successful, 213–214; reinforcing respect with the community for, 214–216

Comparison companies research, 9–10

Compasses (informal network), 139

Conflicts: examination of the school's history of, 60–61; hypothetical Jefferson High School's toxic culture leading to, 183–184; improvisational theater used to resolve, 242–243; political frame for understanding, 16; toxic cultures with distrust and retaliation responses to, 187

Coral Springs Middle School (CSMS), 95, 122

Corbett, H. D., 10

Core (or unifying) stories: description and function of, 67–70; negativity pathway of neglecting, 194–195

Core values: acronyms as shorthand for, 239; business success through shared set of, 18; core stories or narratives supporting group, 67–70; daily routines reinforce beliefs and, 231; description of, 75; examples of symbols that communicate shared, 235–236; focused on success of top students, 73; Ganado Primary School's, 25–29, 31–32; as goals and ends to strive for, 270–271; how ceremonies nurture a culture's, 112–113, 119–120; how culture focuses attention on, 15; how recognitions of appreciation symbolize the, 233; how symbols represent cultural beliefs and, 37–38; negativity created by neglecting, 191–192; potter role in shaping school cultural, 234–236; SME's daily announcements reinforcing school, 212; South Mebane Elementary (SME) displays that reflect, 179–180; of Zappos, 2. See also Beliefs

Costco: brand of, 220; core purpose of, 3; the "salmon story" of, 2–3, 18, 81; stories told by, 93

Crawford, P., 46–47

Criticism negativity, 194

Crocker Art Museum (Sacramento), 127

Crocker Park (Sacramento), 127

Crow and Weasel (Lopez), 97

Crowson, R., 259

Cuban, L., 51

Culture: beliefs, assumptions, and social meanings of, 7–8; complex symbols and patterns of, 8–9; different conceptions and definitions of, 8; how symbols represent values and beliefs of, 37–38; people creating and shaping, 223. See also Business culture; School culture

Culture of respect, 214–216

Culture of trust, 216–217

Cunningham Group (Minneapolis), 43–44

Custodians: functioning as a school's informal priest, 274; Johnny the custodian story, 89–90

Cutler, W. W., 41

D

DARE drug program, 229

Deadwood (informal network), 142, 198

Deal, T. E., 2, 8, 14, 15, 16, 58, 69, 70, 77, 84, 120, 133, 225, 235, 237, 241, 247

Deerfield Academy, 272

Delta Corporation, 56–57

Delta State University at Cleveland, 41

Denning, S., 3, 96

Destructive spies (informal network), 140, 198

Detroit’s “Empowered Schools,” 168

Devils (informal network), 143–144

Dewey, J., 206

Diamond, J., 12

Distributed leadership research, 12

Distrust of toxic cultures, 186, 187

Diverse schools: community-building traditions in, 123; integrative ceremonies to meld together, 116; purpose of bringing together students and parents of, 74; symbolism representing values of shared community of, 40

Domino’s Pizza, 67

Driftwood (informal network), 142, 198

Driver, C. E., 163

Drucker, P., 1

Dualistic thinking: description and tendency toward, 246–247; as dividing our view of managing and leading, 247–248;
as dominating our approach to education, 247; how principals can address polarities of, 250–251
DuFour, R., 13, 14, 150–155, 159
Duncan, A., 281
Dutra, S., 92
Dysfunctional school, 78–79

E
East High School (Madison), 120
Eder, D. J., 29
Edison Elementary School (San Francisco), 45
Edison learning, 281
Education: the cultural drift being experienced in, 5–6; demystification of schools and recapturing magic of, 80; the sacred mission of, 285–286; trend toward measurable results in, 5. See also Schools
Educational campfire storytelling, 93–96
Educational reform: continued challenges of, 283; Every Student Succeeds Act, 282; history of “scientifically based,” externally mandated, or fashionable, 62–63; how school rituals have been sterilized by, 102–103; internal and external pressures of, 79–80; No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), 262, 279–282; the paradox of dualistic thinking dominating, 246–247; Race to the Top, 81; school responses to past decades’ efforts for, 60, 62, 63–65. See also Innovation; School improvement and change; Schools
Educators. See School leadership
Einstein, A., 1, 277
Elder, R., 109
Elk Grove School District, 123–128
"Empowered Schools" (Detroit), 168
The Energy Bus (Gordon), 176
English language learners (ELLs), 279, 280
Environmental connections, 122–123
Equipment and resource vultures (informal network), 142, 198
Estrada, D., 210
Every Student Succeeds Act, 282
Explorers and pioneers (informal network), 139
Extracurricular success, 72

F
Facebook: historic school lore represented on, 60; as information transmitter and values raconteur, 275; toxic school cultures and negative expressions on, 189–190
Fair Test (The National Center for Fair and Open Testing), 279
Fairfax County School District, 53
Faith-inspiring rituals and stories, 16
“Fat Lady Sings” memo, 275–277
FedEx, 93
Feldman, S., 92
Firestone, W. A., 10
Fisher, R., 3
Flores, J., 45
Fog, K., 67, 71, 219, 220
FOOGIES award (Fremont Order of Goofs in Educational Settings), 274
Founding myth or story: challenge of recapturing magic of school’s, 80; description and significance of, 66–67; providing guidance to values, beliefs, assumptions, and norms, 75–79
Foy, N., 246–247
Frames: human resource, 16; political, 16; structural and, 16; symbolic, 16
Free riders, 142–143, 198
Friday Night Lights (Bissinger), 72
Fullan, M., 9, 10, 13, 14, 15, 17, 58, 259

G
“Galloping Ghost” (Red Grange), 147
Ganado Primary School (Arizona): description of the, 24; recognition of parents for helping children to read, 217; school ethos of, 23, 24, 34–35; tradition of excellence and success of, 23–24, 34–35. See also Boloz, S.; Navajo traditions
Ganado Primary School culture: as a culture of learning, 30–32; family subcultures and mini-professional communities of the, 34; the history, stories, and lore of, 33; innovative approaches to learning rooted in, 31–32; strong informal network of heroes and heroines of the, 34–35; supporting students as leaders, 32–33
Ganado Primary School innovations: “the Instructional Improvement Committee,” 31; “Reading Achievement Meetings,” 31; Sig Boloz’s recollection on, 32; for student learning, 31–32; “Teachers as Readers,” 32
Ganado Primary School mission: “The C Diet” (Boloz) celebrating values and, 28–29; rituals reinforcing, 29–30
Ganado Primary School parents: Ganado’s cultural network role by, 34–35; school-sponsored workshops and GED classes offered to, 30; stories and narratives regarding achievements of, 33
Ganado Primary School rituals: “Celebrating Quality Learning Award Ceremony” as, 29–30; celebrations honoring both students and parents, 29–30; “Early Childhood Academy” as, 32; innovative approaches to learning that become, 31; “Once Upon a Time Breakfast” meeting as, 29–30; “Teachers as Readers” as, 32
Ganado Primary School staff: core values and commitment represented among the, 35; “Early Childhood Academy” for classroom aides, 32; mini-professional communities of the, 34
Ganado Primary School students: “Caring Adults” (later “Foster Grandparents”) program supporting, 33; Ganado’s cultural network role by, 34–35; innovative ways to serve, 31; school culture supporting them as leaders, 32–33; school rituals celebrating successes of, 29–30; “Tour Guide Program” for, 32
Ganado Primary School symbols: architectural forms made up of, 25–27, 42–43; expressing tribal belief about weaving and learning, 235; the Ganado Navajo rug representing Navajo way of life, 25; Spider Rock replica in the entrance, 24–25, 43, 69; of student achievement combined with Navajo traditions, 24–25
Ganado Primary School teachers: Ganado’s cultural network role by, 34–35; mini-professional communities of the, 34; role in celebrating student learning, 29–30; “Teachers as Readers” ritual for, 32
Ganado Primary School core values: architecture representing the school mission and, 25–27, 42–43; “The C Diet” portrait of mission and, 27–29; innovative approaches to learning rooted in, 31–32; the school quadrants represent the, 25–26
GE (General Electric), 196
Geertz, C. M., 8
Gerstner, L. V., 3, 18, 64, 197
Goal displacement problem, 193–194
Goddard, R. D., 10
Goldberg, M. S., 92
Gordon, J., 176
Gossips, 136–137, 275
Gottschall, J., 283
Greetings: rituals of, 105; symbolism of, 47
Grier, T., 67, 118
Groenbeck, Mrs., 91–92
Group sense of efficacy, 10–11
Groups: core stories or narratives driving worldview of the, 67–70, 194–195; founding myth or story of a, 66–67, 75–79, 80; rituals allowing acts in a collective setting by, 100; sense of efficacy by, 10–11. See also Business organizations;
H
Halls of Honor (Audubon Elementary School), 40
Halverson, R., 12
Hansot, E., 65
Harris, A., 3
Harris, E., 109–110
Harrison, J. A., 273
Harrison, W., 194
Hawthorne Elementary School, 155–159
Healers: description of, 228; negative “Quack” versus positive, 245; role in shaping culture, 243–245
Heath, C., 84, 85
Heath, D., 84, 85
Hentschke, G. C., 70
Heroes and heroines (informal network): description and functions of the, 137–138; Ganado Primary School cultural, 34–35; potter role in celebrating and recognizing, 236–237; supervisors who are, 271. See also Antiheroes and devils (informal network)
Herring, B., 68, 105, 238
Heskett, J. L., 9
Hindo, B., 196
Historian role (informal network): description of, 227; negative “ahistorical cynic” versus positive, 245; role in shaping school culture, 228. See also School history and lore
Historic tradition: cultural importance of, 51; examples of dealing with negative histories, 55–57; history as policy, 269–270; past as prologue or roots of future, 57–58. See also School history and lore
Hmong wall hangings display, 235
Holland, P. B., 11
Hollibrook Elementary (Texas), 160, 162–165
Holmes, Sherlock (fictional), 228
Homecoming ceremonies, 119
Hope: Studs Terkel’s “Hope dies last” truth about, 181; symbolic frame to understand rituals and stories of, 16
Hopfenberg, W. S., 163, 164, 165
Houston, P., 249
How Great Leaders Think (Bolman and Deal), 2
Hoy, A. W., 10
Hoy, W. K., 10
Hsieh, T., 1–2
Human resource frame: description and focus of, 16; school leaders’ tendency to use the, 16
Humor: principal’s story about an angry parent, 90–91; school traditions infused with, 116; symbolism of laughter and, 47–48
Hunger of Memory (Rodriguez), 99–100
Hurwitz, E., 259
Improvisational theater, 242–243
Informal networks: functional roles of members of, 274–275; Ganado Primary School’s heroes and heroines of their, 34–35; keeping the culture intact through, 133; priest and priestesses supporting the cultural, 133–139; toxic cultures and their noxious, 139–144, 198; in a toxic school culture, 187
Initiation rituals, 107
Innovation: embracing the new flavor of the month, 73; failure of Six Sigma approach at 3M, 196; Ganado Primary School’s, 31–32; how culture promotes, 14–15; rogue pirates of, 142. See also Educational reform
Integrative ceremonies, 116
Intellectual engagement symbolism, 46
Internet: how it has transformed written communication, 233–234; as information transmitter and values raconteur, 275
Jarvis, C., 3
Jefferson High School (hypothetical): the toxic culture of, 182–184; transforming the toxicity at, 199–201
Jefferson Middle School (Madison), 242
Joe Camel controversy, 37
Johnny the custodian story, 89–90
Johnson & Johnson’s Tylenol crisis, 68
Johnson, M., 163, 164
Johnson, S. M., 11
Joyce Elementary School (Detroit), 38–39, 43, 160, 166–172
Karvelis, B., 45
Kaufman, B., 239
Kearney, K., 210
Keepers of the nightmare (informal network), 141, 198
Kelleher, H., 285
Kellogs, 68
Kennedy, A. A., 8, 15, 58, 133
Key, M. K., 120
Kidder, T., 72, 285–286
Kilmann, R. H., 77
King, M., 77
IBM, 3, 5, 18, 64, 196–197
Icon (or champion) role: description of, 227; negative “hollow symbol” versus the positive, 245; in shaping school culture, 230–234
Idioms and slogans, 239
Illinois Mathematics and Science High School, 221
Improvement. See School improvement and change
King, M. L., Jr., 67, 137–138, 247
Koestler, A., 253
Kotter, J. P., 9
Krantz, Mrs., 98, 109
Kruse, S. D., 13, 14
Kübler-Ross, E., 55

L
Ladd, S., 123–124, 128
Ladson-Billings, G., 110
Lambert, L., 13
Language: capturing school's cultural commitments, 79; symbolism of, 45. See also Communication
Leaders' Guide to Storytelling (Denning), 96
Leadership: bifocal actions to ponder perplexing situations by, 248; leading with paradoxes, 254–258; mixed signals of good, 251–253; polarity of management and, 247, 250. See also School leadership
The Leadership Paradox (Deal and Peterson), 247
Leading with Soul (Bolman and Deal), 84
Learning communities: cultural characteristics of, 11–12; McLaughlin’s study on performance and, 11–12; professional, 13, 48, 74, 176–177. See also Community; Student learning
Lee, V. E., 11
Leithwood, K., 10, 14
Levin, H. M., 163, 164, 165
Levine, D. U., 10, 14
Lezotte, L. W., 10, 14
Lighting of the lamp ritual, 104
“The Lightning Way” (Navajo traditional song), 215
Lindsey, D., 210
Lindsey, R., 210
Listening to stories, 85–86
Little, J. W., 14
Liturgy ritual (Catholic Church), 99–100
Living logos, 44–49
L.L. Bean, 220
Lopez, B., 97
Lortie, D. C., 14, 258
Louis, K. S., 10, 13, 14, 258
Love, L., 90

McNamara, R., 247
McNerney, J., 196
McNulty, B., 12, 14
McPhee, J., 272
Made to Stick (Heath and Heath), 84
Management ceremonies, 115–116
Management-leadership polarity, 247, 250
Martello, Mr., 92
Martinez, L., 43
Martyrs (informal network), 141–142, 198
Mary Kay Cosmetics, 93, 111–112
Marzano, R. J., 12, 14
Mascots: meaning of the Mr. Meany, 36–37; symbolism conveyed by school, 40–41
Maughan, B., 10
Mead, M., 145, 228
Meanings: how culture provides, 7–8; negativity of toxic cultures and, 190
Meier, D., 46, 161, 162
Memoranda as poetry: “Fat Lady Sings” memo as, 275–277; purposeful play of the, 275
Memorial ceremonies, 120
Memorial High School (Madison), 43
Metaphors, 239–240
Mexican Hat Elementary School (Navajo lands), 214–216
Meyerhoff, B. G., 101, 130
Middle College High Schools (North Carolina), 67
Miles, M. B., 14, 258
Mission: driving less than positive school success, 72–74; driving more positive school success, 74–75; Ganado Primary School’s, 28–30, 33–35; as hub of a school’s culture, 70–71; negativity created by leaving the core, 194–195; South Mebane Elementary (SME) approach to reinforcing its, 173–174, 175–176. See also Purpose
Mission statements: examples of school symbols that convey, 38–39; South Mebane Elementary (SME), 174
Miwok Indian tribe, 125–126
Mola, R., 101
Monona Grove High School (Wisconsin), 54, 228
Moore, S. F., 101, 130
Morris, P., 254–257
Morris, V. C., 259
Morrtimore, P., 10
Motivation and culture, 15
Mr. Meany (school mascot), 36–37
Mu (“no thing”): applying to educational problems, 248; description of, 247–248
Muhammad, A., 13
Music: “Bad to the Bone” song, 148; “The Lightning Way” (Navajo traditional song), 215; symbolism of, 47; traditional recognition of others through, 122
Myth. See Founding myth or story

N
National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), 279–280, 281
National Honor Society, 149–150
National Merit Scholars, 73
National School of Excellence, 154, 155, 169
Nativity School: community-building traditions in, 123; history and school lore reinforced at, 54–55; integrated and yearlong traditions of, 128–130; meetings closed by sharing stories of positive events at, 238; principal’s vision for, 68; recognition of parents for their engagement in arts and education arenas, 217; symbolism of school song of, 47
Navajo traditions: Ganado Navajo rug’s representing, 25; Ganado Primary School’s architecture use of symbols combined with, 24–27; Hogan (ancient home design) symbolism of the, 26; how Mexican Hat Elementary School reinforces respect for, 214–216; on “living well” in harmony and balance, 29; stories as a key part of the culture and, 33. See also Ganado Primary School (Arizona); Traditions
Navigators (informal network), 138
Negaholics (informal network), 141, 198
Negative symbols, 144
Negativism antidotes: funerals and exorcisms used as, 201–203; other options to use as, 203–205
Negotiation, 16
Neil, M., 279, 280
New Orleans for a Leadership Conference, 4
Newmann, F. M., 12, 13, 14
Nike, 66–67, 93
No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB): continued support despite the evidence of, 280–282; failed schools status under, 262; NAEP findings on the negative impact of, 279–280, 281
Noddings, N., 155
Nodes (informal network), 139
Noxious networks: description and dangers of, 139–140, 144; different characters of a, 140–144, 198

O
Oakwood Middle School, 254–258
Obama, B., 237
Oneida Nation Elementary School (Wisconsin), 43
Open-day ceremonies, 113–115
Organizations. See Business organizations; Groups
Orr, B., 81
Ott, J. S., 75, 76
Ouston, J., 10
Owen, H., 57

P
Palmer, P. J., 284
Paradox leadership traits: the paradox of performance, 254–255; the paradox of concern, 256–257; the paradox of control, 256; the paradox of pride, 256; the paradox of problem perception, 255–256; the paradox of role expectations, 254
Paradoxes: bifocal actions to ponder perplexing situations and, 248; of dualistic thinking, 246–247; five central paradoxes facing future school leaders, 283–284; how principals can address polarities of, 250–251; leading with, 254–258; of management-leadership polarity, 247, 250; Mu (“no answer”) approach to, 247–248; of the principalship, 249–250; unearthing paradoxes of Paradoxes: bifocal actions to ponder perplexing situations and, (continued) school leaders’ work, 258–261. See also Problem solving
Paradoxes of school leaders: challenges facing future school leaders, 284–286; paradox of action, 284; paradox of change, 284; paradox of leading, 284; paradox of people, 284; paradox of purpose, 284
Parental participation factors: building a brand to cement ties as, 218–222; a climate of trust as, 216–217; a culture of respect as, 214–216; disconnections of the past as, 211–214; ensuring recognition as, 217–218
Parents: benefits of building ties between schools, community, and, 222; bringing together diverse students and, 74; factors that determine the level of participation by, 211–222; Ganado Primary School’s, 30, 33–35; importance of school culture to, 7; importance to student achievement and success, 207–210; principal’s humorous story about an angry, 90–91; as subjects of school stories, 91–92; unique relationship between schools and, 206–207
Patterson, W., 197
Penny’s story, 88
Pessimistic tellers (informal network), 140–141, 198
Peterson, K. D., 8, 14, 77, 120, 133, 166, 225, 235, 237, 241, 247
Piccolo Elementary School (Chicago), 116, 230
Pinkerton, E., 125
Pioneers and explorers (informal network), 139
Pirsig, R. M., 247–248
Play as work, 277–278
Playful rituals, 109. See also Purposeful play
Poet role (informal network): description of, 227; memoranda as poetry, 275–277; negative “deadening pedant” versus the positive, 245; in shaping school culture, 239–241
Policies: behavior regulated by rituals and rules of, 272–273; history as becoming, 269–270
Political frame: understanding power, conflict, and negotiation using a, 16; when school leaders’ use the, 16–17
Pondy, L., 17
Porras, J. I., 9
Porter-Gehrie, C., 259
Positive school norms, 77–78
Potter role (informal network): description of the, 227; negative “lethal mud throwers” versus the positive, 228; in shaping school culture, 234–239
Pour Your Heart into It (Schultz), 4
Power: political frame of, 16; of symbols, 38
Prater, E., 113–115
Priests and priestesses (informal network): compasses among the, 139; description and function of the, 133–134; explorers and pioneers among the, 139; gossips among the, 136–137, 275; heroes and heroines among the, 34–35, 137–138; how they become, 135; navigators among the, 138; nodes among the, 139; social media gurus among the, 139; the spies among the, 137; spirit guides among the, 139; storytellers among the, 135–136, 140–141, 198
Prima donnas (informal network), 151, 198
Principal turnover problem, 194
Principals: antidotes for negativism that can be used by, 201–205; how they can address polarities of paradox, 250–251; how they can promote a toxic culture, 191–197; Mu (“no answer”) approach to paradox by, 247–248; structural mind-set or frame often used by, 16; telling a story about a special custodian, 89–90; telling a story about an angry parent with humor, 90–91; of toxic school culture, 183–184. See also School leadership
Principal’s office, 231
Private schools: building a brand, 221; higher teacher satisfaction in, 11; sense of community driving excellence in, 11

Problem solving: bifocal actions to ponder perplexing situations of, 248; dualistic thinking used for, 246–248, 250–251; how culture facilitates, 14; Mt (“no answer”) approach to, 247–248. See also Paradoxes

Productivity and culture, 14

Professional learning communities: description of, 13; purpose of building a, 74; South Mebane Element (SME) shared leadership with, 176–177; symbolism of, 48

Professionalism tradition, 122

Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) exams, 279–280

Public school brands, 221

Purpose: driving less than positive school success, 72–74; driving more positive school success, 74–75; as hub of a school’s culture, 70–71; the meaning of success and, 71–75. See also Mission

Purposeful play: ceremonies as communication media, 273–274; description and function of, 269; heroes as supervisors, 271; history as policy, 269–270; informal players as functional roles, 274–275; the Internet as information transmitter and values raconteur, 275; memoranda as poetry, 275–277; play as work, 277–278; rituals as rules, 272–273; stories as coordination, 272; values as goals, 270–271. See also Playful rituals

R

R. J. Reynolds tobacco company, 37

Race to the Top reform movement, 281

Raley field (Sacramento River Cats), 127

Ravitch, D., 281

Recognition: building parent–school relationship by ensuring, 217–218; ceremonies to convey, 116–117; Ganado Primary School rituals celebrating students, 29–30; of key transitions in the occupational lives of staff members, 244; memorial ceremonies for, 120; potter role in heroes and heroines, 236–237; symbolism of, 48; as symbolizing the core values, 233

Red Cross symbol, 37

Reed, K., 101

Reeves, J. E., 115

Reitzug, U. C., 115

Relationships: building parent, community, and school, 212–222; examination of the school’s history of personalities and, 61

Respect: build through US military aircraft rituals, 100–101; building ties between parents, schools, and community with culture of, 214–216; how Mexican Hat Elementary School reinforces Navajo tradition with, 214–216; reinforcing respect with the community, 214–216; school ethos of caring that includes, 12

Rites of passage rituals, 108

Ritual process of liminality, 205

Rituals: acting out in a collective setting through, 100; focusing attention on what is important and values, 15; impact on Catholics of abolishment of traditional liturgy, 99–100; negativity created by destruction of key, 191–193; our common use of daily and weekly, 98–99; the power of, 99–102; symbolic frame to interpret, 16. See also School rituals

Ritz-Carlton, 68

RJR Nabisco, 197

Rodriguez, R., 99–100

Rogue pirates (informal network), 142, 198

Rossman, G. B., 10

Royal, R., 173–175, 177, 178

Rumormongers (informal network): description of noxious networks and, 143; toxic school cultures and, 187, 198

Rutter, M., 10

S

Saboteurs (informal network), 140, 198

“Salmon story” (Costco), 2–3, 18, 81

Salter, M., 6

San Luis Obispo Public Schools, 113–115

Saphier, J., 77

Saturn: building their brand with customers, 218; celebrating their customers, 217
Schein, E. H., 8, 15, 17, 58, 71

Schindler’s List (film), 150

School brand: built as a passion, 220; cementing parents and community ties by building the, 218–222; developing a, 220–222

School closings: as leadership function and ritual, 267–268; opportunities opened up by, 241

School culture: community role in external and internal, 210–211; connections between history and lore and the, 53–55, 58–65; cultivating sense of excellence and sense of community, 11; exhuming the past to reform and improve, 58–65; functions and impact of, 14–15; Ganado Primary School’s, 30–35; heritage of, 7–9; how historic school lore nurtures, 55; made up of stories, traditions, and rituals developed over time, 8–9; problem of culture drift in, 5–6; purposeful play used to shape, 269–278; research on improvement of teaching and learning role of, 10–13; of respect to build ties with parents and community, 214–216; reviving the beliefs and practices of, 6; roles in shaping culture by school leaders, 224–245; strong and dense school leadership produced by strong, 286; successful restructuring by reviving the spirit of, 19; symbolic functions of structure used to shape, 263–269. See also Business culture; Culture; Schools; Toxic school cultures

School culture case studies: Adlai E. Stevenson High School, 150–155; Anna M. Joyce Elementary School, 166–172; Central Park East Secondary School, 161–162; comparing the four schools and cultures of the, 159–160; Hawthorne Elementary School, 155–159; Holibrook Elementary, 162–165; South Mebane Elementary (SME), 172–180; Wheaton Warrenville South High School, 146–150

School culture functions: amplifies energy, vitality, and trust, 15; builds commitment and kindles motivation, 15; focuses attention on what is important and valued, 15; fosters school effectiveness and productivity, 14; improves collegiality, communication, and problem solving, 14; promotes innovation and improvement, 14–15

School culture shaping: artistry and leadership of, 245; the eight essential roles of school leaders, 226–245; reading and sizing up the current culture step in, 224–226

School culture shaping roles: actor, 228, 241–243, 245t; anthropological sleuth, 227, 228–229, 245t; healer, 228, 243–245t; historian, 227, 228, 245t; icon or champion, 227, 230–234, 245t; poet, 227, 239–241, 245t, 275–277; potter, 227, 234–239, 245t; visionary, 227, 229–230, 245t

School displays: athletic awards, 40; Beaverton Elementary’s “hall of fame” wall, 117–118; Ganado Primary’s woven Navajo rugs, 235; of the growth of student performance on a chart, 236; Hmong wall hangings in a, 235; memorial ceremonies and, 120; student artwork in a Salt Lake City high school, 235; symbolism of, 39

School effectiveness studies: confirming that culture fosters effectiveness and productivity, 14; on culture as critical to improvement of teaching and learning, 10–13; on distributed school leadership, 12; findings on effective schools, 10; on role of culture in improvement and change, 13; on school “ethos” and academic achievement, 10, 12

School ethos: of caring, sharing, and mutual help, 12; Ganado Primary School (Arizona), 23, 24, 34–35; research findings on academic achievement and, 10, 12

School history and lore: birth, fading, death, and renewal cycle of all schools, 61–62; connections between culture, history, and, 53–55, 58–65; examples of how different schools celebrate, 51–53; fortifying cultural roots by celebrating, 53–55; Ganado Primary School culture reinforced by, 33; historical artifacts and collections representing, 41; how storytellers share the, 135–136, 140–141,
198; importance of, 51–53; nurturing the future by celebrating, 55; past as prologue or roots of future, 57–58; questions to ask about, 59–62. See also Historian role (informal network); Historic tradition

School improvement and change: celebrations to reinforce cultural values during, 119–120; challenge of the paradox of, 284; embracing the new flavor of the month, 73; findings on school “ethos” and, 10, 12; Ganado Primary School’s innovative, 31–32; how culture promotes, 14–15; research findings on role of culture in, 10–13; rogue pirates driving, 142; social improvement rituals to signal importance of, 107–108. See also Educational reform

School improvement rituals: signaling the importance of collegiality and change, 107–108; transitional rituals during process of, 105–106

School leadership: cultural drift in schools and impact of educators and, 5–6; eight debilitating roles taken by toxic, 244–245; examination of the school’s history of, 60; five central paradoxes facing future, 283–284; leading with paradox, 254–258; mixed signals of good, 251–253; purposeful play actions to shape culture by, 269–278; research on importance of distributed, 12; roles in shaping culture by, 224–245; South Mebane Elementary (SME) shared, 176–177; a strong school culture producing strong and dense, 286; symbolic functions of structure to shape culture by, 263–269; two ways in which they can promote a toxic culture, 191–197; unearthing the paradoxes of, 258–261. See also Leadership; Principals; Staff; Teachers

School leadership activities: communication as cultural signals, 265–266; coordination to build cultural networks, 264–265; hiring as replacement and cultural renewal, 263; purpose play, 269–278; retirement as anointing, 263–264; school closing as function and ritual, 241, 267–268; seasonal actions as symbols and signs, 268–269; teacher promotion as cultural celebration, 266–267

School lore. See School history and lore

School policies: behavior regulated by rituals and rules of, 272–273; history as becoming, 269–270

School restructuring studies: findings on what is required for successful restructuring, 12; importance of reviving the spirit of schools supported by, 19

School rituals: classroom, 109–110; Ganado Primary School’s, 29–32; how behavior is regulated by both rules and, 272–273; how educational reform has sterilized, 102–103; as keys to significance of what holds a school together, 103–104; lighting of the lamp ritual example of, 104; as means of building and maintaining esprit de corps, 237–238; school culture made up of stories, traditions, and, 8–9; toxic school culture and negative, 189; types of, 105–109. See also Rituals

School tours: Ganado Primary student’s giving, 48; as a symbolic signaling, 230–231; symbolism of, 45–46

School websites: historic school lore represented on, 60; mission statements posted on, 39; symbolism embedded in school, 39

Schools: benefits of building ties between community, parents, and, 222; birth, fading, death, and renewal cycle of all, 61–62; characteristics of those with a toxic culture, 185–190; factors determining parental participation in, 211–222; lessons from business for, 1–5; NAEP findings on the negative impact
Schools: benefits of building ties between community, parents, and, (continued) of NCLB on, 279–280, 281; need to reexamine the role they play in society, 285; opportunities during the closing of a, 241, 267–268; placed on probation or giving “failing” status under NCLB, 262; private, 11, 221; re-storying of, 283; suggestion that they should be business-like, 1–5, 17–18; unique relationship between parents and, 206–207; vision for discovering the highest calling of a, 66–70. See also Education; Educational reform; School culture

Schultz, H., 2
Schwartz, P., 161
Seasonal ceremonies, 115
Sense of community, 11
Signals and signs: the building tour as a symbolic signaling, 230–231; messages and meaning of symbols and, 38–49; school names as, 44; use of time as, 232. See also Symbols
Sinegal, J., 2–3, 18
Six Sigma management, 196
Slogans and idioms, 239
Small tales and stories, 81–83
Smith, A., 10
Smith, M. S., 14
Smrekar, C., 207, 208, 209, 211
Smylie, M., 9, 10, 13, 14, 75, 77, 259
Snapchat, 275
Social dramas: negative “futile role-player” versus positive actors in, 245; school leaders as actors in, 228, 241–243
Social meanings: how culture provides, 7–8; negativity of toxic cultures and, 190
Social media: the gurus of the informal network, 139; historic school lore represented on, 60; how it has transformed school leaders’ communication, 233–234; how “poets” can send messages through, 241; as information transmitter and values raconteur, 275; intellectual engagement shared through, 46; principals who get messages out through, 46; symbolism embedded in school’s use of, 39; toxic school cultures and negative expressions on, 189–190. See also Communication; specific social media type
Songs: “Bad to the Bone,” 148; “The Lightning Way” (Navajo traditional song), 215; symbolism of, 47; traditional recognition of others through, 122
South Mebane Elementary (SME) [North Carolina]: background information on, 172–173; a culture of cooperation and collaboration at, 176–177; daily announcements reinforcing school values at, 212; having displays as symbols of values and vision at, 179–180; how they socialize staff members in the culture, 178–179; mission statement of, 174; parent and community participation in, 209–210; recognition of parents at, 218; South Mebane Elementary Pledge (2016) and motto of, 174; traditional ceremony reinforcing the primary mission at, 175–176; using a yearly theme to build focus and connection, 177–178; verbal and visual reinforcement of the vision at, 174–175; vision and mission intertwined by, 173–174
Southwest Airlines: stories told at, 93; “Symbol of Freedom” campaign of, 285
Space cadets (informal network), 141, 198
Special event ceremonies, 119
Spider Rock sculpture (Ganado Primary School), 24–25, 43, 69
Spies (informal network): description and role of, 137; destructive, 140, 198
Spillane, J., 12
Spirit guides (informal network), 139
Srinivasan, S., 23
Staff: antiheroes of a toxic school culture among the, 187–188; on ethos of caring, sharing, and mutual help, 12; Ganado Primary School’s, 32, 34, 35; historic legacy of generations of, 60; how architecture motivates school pride by the, 43; how culture amplifies energy, vitality, and trust in, 15; how normative conventions develop among the, 76–77; how South Mebane Elementary (SME) introduces school culture to new, 178–179; recognizing key transitions in occupational lives of, 244; research on benefits of distributed leadership among, 12; rumormongers in a toxic culture among the, 143, 187; school stories about students, teachers, and, 87–93; South Mebane Element (SME) shared leadership with, 176–177; South Mebane Elementary (SME) shared leadership with, 176–177; symbolism of recognition behaviors of, 48; three ways that parents are classified by, 211; traditions that connect the environment with students and, 122–123. See also School leadership

Starbucks: problems due to growth-induced changes, 4; reconnecting with their cultural roots, 4–5; success tied to its passion, 2

Starr, S., 6

State report cards, 73–74

Stevenson High School, 47, 150–155, 221

Still, S., 162, 230

Stories: as coordination of common cultural goals, 272; Costco’s “salmon story,” 2–3, 18, 81; Delta Corporation’s correction of negative history through new, 56; founding myth of, 66–67, 75–79, 80; as key part of Navajo culture, 33; negativity created by discarding or abandoning key, 193; parents as the subject of, 91–92; positive role played in schools by, 96–97; resurgence of the application of, 83–85; school culture made up of, 8–9; small tales and, 81–83; as solutions, 85–86; of students, teachers, and staff, 87–93; symbolic frame to interpret, 16; traditional recognition of others through, 122; unifying myth or core, 67–70, 194–195; warm-hearted tales told by and about teachers, 82–83. See also Communication

Storytellers: pessimistic tale tellers of a toxic culture, 140–141, 198; as priests and priestesses of the informal network, 135; sharing the school lore through stories, 135–136

Storytelling: gathering around the educational campfire for, 93–96; resurgence by organizations, 83–85; symbolism of, 48

Strauss, V., 279, 280

Structural mind-set or frame: description of, 16; often used by principals and superintendents, 16

Student learning: focus on elite students and, 73; focus on learning for all students, 74; Ganado Primary School rituals celebrating, 29–30; lighting of the lamp ritual for, 104; NCLB findings on NCLB impact on, 279–280; parents and community role in, 207–210; research on role of culture in improved, 10–13; test scores as metric of, 259–260, 279–280, 282. See also Academic achievement; Learning communities

Student work displays: athletic awards, 40; Beaverton Elementary’s “hall of fame” wall, 117–118; of the growth of student performance on a chart, 236; student artwork in a Salt Lake City high school, 235; symbolism of, 39

Students: bringing together diverse parents and, 74; encouraged to play as work, 277–278; English language learners (ELLs), 279, 280; on ethos of caring, sharing, and mutual help, 12; Ganado Primary School’s, 29–35; historic legacy of generations of, 60; how architecture motivates school pride by the, 43; how they are viewed in a toxic school culture, 188; importance of school culture to, 7; the sacred mission of teachers for, 285–286; school stories about staff, teachers, and, 87–93; traditions that connect the environment with staff and, 122–123

Students with disabilities, 279, 280

Success: purpose reflected in the definitions of, 71–72; purposes driving less than positive school, 72–74; purposes driving more positive school, 74–75. See also Academic achievement

Superintendent structural frame, 16

Surviving/not making waves success, 73

Symbolic frame: benefits to schools of emphasizing the, 17; description of, 16

Symbolism: of action, 45; of advocacy, 46–47; architectural form, 25–27, 41–44, 59; of collegial sharing and greetings, 47; of the emotional content of actions, 232; of importance of values through what is recognized, 233; of intellectual engagement, 46; of language, 45; living logos as, 44–49;
Symbolism: of action (continued) professional learning, 48; of recognition, 48; school leadership shaping culture through structural, 263–269; of the school tour, 45–46; of small behaviors, 232; of song, joy, laughter, and fun, 47–48; storytelling, 48; time, 232; of writing and communicating ideas, 46
Symbols: complexity of cultural patterns and, 8–9; examples of those that communicate shared values and beliefs, 235–236; functioning as cultural rallying points, 37–38; Ganado Primary School's architecture conveying, 24–27; intangible cultural values and beliefs represented by, 37–38; messages and meaning of signs and, 38–49; negativity created by destruction of key, 191–192, 193; the power of, 38; South Mebane Elementary (SME) reflecting values and vision in displays with, 179–180; toxic effect of negative, 144; understanding the meaning of the Mr. Meany mascot, 36–37. See also Signals and signs

T
Tange, K., 36
Teach for America, 67
Teacher satisfaction, 11
Teachers: antitheses of a toxic school culture among the, 143, 187–188; empowering them by allowing them to make decisions, 58; on ethos of caring, sharing, and mutual help, 12; Ganado Primary School’s, 29–35; importance of school culture to, 7; mission focused on performance of, 72; research on benefits of distributed leadership among, 12; rumormongers in a toxic culture among the, 143, 187; the sacred mission of education and, 285–286; school norms concerning, 77; school stories about students, staff, and, 87–93; South Mebane Elementary (SME) shared leadership with, 176–177; warm-hearted stories told about and by, 82–83. See also School leadership
Teachers (movie), 143
Teaching: greater satisfaction of private school teachers with, 11; play as work approach to, 277–278; research on role of culture in improved, 10–13; small tales that reveal the soul of, 82–83
Terkel, S., 181
Terrell, R., 210
Test scores: as education metric, 259–260; Every Student Succeeds Act retains schedule for, 282; NCLB findings on NCLB impact on PISA, 279–280
3M, 68, 93, 196
Time symbolism, 232
“Tom the Tiger” story, 148
Top Teacher Award (2014), 6
Toxic school cultures: antidotes for negativism and, 201–205; antidotes for negativism of a, 201–205; characteristics of, 185–190; eight debilitating roles taken by leadership in, 244–245; how they develop, 190–191; Jefferson High School (hypothetical) example of a, 182–184; as the negative side of school culture, 184–185; negative symbols of, 144; noxious networks of, 139–144; pathways to negativity, 191–198; ritual process of liminality process of transforming a, 205; transforming the hypothetical Jefferson High’s, 199–201. See also School culture
Toxic school development: examples illustrating different pathways to, 192–196; multiple examples of, 190–191; quick descent versus slow downward spiral, 196–197; role of negative network in, 139–144, 198; two ways by which leaders contribute to, 191–192
Tradition types: community-building for diverse schools, 123; gatherings using story, songs, or awards to recognize others, 122; traditions connecting students and staff with the environment, 122–123; traditions that build professionalism, 122
Traditions: description and purpose of, 121–122; Elk Grove School District use of ceremonies and, 123–128; leaders who perpetuate meaningful and value-laden, 238–239; Nativity School use of ceremonies and, 128–130; negativity created by discarding or abandoning key, 193; types of school, 122–123. See also Ceremonies; Navajo traditions
Transition periods: celebrations to reinforce cultural values during, 119–120; rituals to use during, 105–106
Trice, J. M., 120
Trust: build through US military aircraft rituals, 100–101; building parent–school relationship with climate of, 216–217; five features of a culture of, 217; how culture amplifies energy, vitality, and, 15; school ethos of caring that includes, 12
Tschannen-Moran, M., 9, 10, 15, 186, 216, 217
Ts'uw-wei (Buddhist master), 253
Tucson School District, 116
"Turkey Club," 144
Twitter: as information transmitter and values raconteur, 275; infusing shared values and beliefs through, 235; intellectual engagement shared through, 46
Tyack, D., 51, 65

U
Unifying (or core) stories, 67–70
University of California at Santa Cruz, 41
University of Wisconsin–Madison, 122
Up the Down Staircase (Kaufman), 239
US Department of Education: Excellence in Education Award of the, 154, 155, 169; focus on measurable results by the, 5
US military rituals, 100–102

V
Values. See Core values
Vanderbilt University, 85–86, 109
Vandiver, E., 122
Vision: core stories or narratives supporting the, 67–70; founding myth or story driving a, 66–67, 75–79, 80; South Mebane Elementary (SME) approach to reinforcing its, 173–175, 179–180
Visionary role (informal network): description of, 227; negative "blind bureaucrat" versus the positive, 245; in shaping the school culture, 229–230
Visitiation Valley Middle School (San Francisco), 45, 47–48
Vydra, J., 146, 150, 155, 157, 159

W
Wahlstrom, K., 14
Waller, W., 7
Washington Post, 279
Waters, J. T., 12, 14
Watson, T., 197
Watts, A., 249, 250, 257–258
A Way of Being Free (Orki), 81
Webb, N., 248
Websites: historic school lore represented on, 60; mission statements posted on, 39; symbolism embedded in school, 39
West Palm Beach School District, 50–51, 52
Wheaton Warrenville South High School (Chicago), 146–150
Who Moved My Cheese, 84
Witherspoon, G., 26
The Wizard of Oz (play), 158
Wright, E., 82, 88
Written communication: acronyms used as shorthand, 239; how the Internet and social media have transformed, 233–234; memoranda as poetry of “The Fat Lady Sings” memo, 275–277; message sent by all, 233
Wu-wei (Taoist concept), 249–250
Wyatt, J., 85–86

Y
Yakaboylu, B., 67, 219, 220
Yang, D. J., 2
Yin and yang, 250
YouTube: as information transmitter and values raconteur, 275; principals who get messages out through, 46

Z
Zappos, 1–2