Index

ABC(DE) technique 240–242, 250–251 aboriginal/indigenous offenders 378
abstinence violation effect (AVE) 318 Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) 43–4, 58, 164 agenda 45
acceptance and willingness 45
avoiding arguing, sarcasm or shaming 45
compassion 45
creative and flexible responding 45 personal disclosure 45
case example 56–7
core processes 46–8
attachment to a conceptualized self 50–51
cognitive fusion 48
committed action, lack of 50
experiential avoidance 49
inflexible attention 51
summary 47
values problems 49–50
prison inmate sessions 51–2
chosen values 53–4
cognitive diffusion 54–5
committed action 56
experiential acceptance 52–3
introduction and problem identification 52
perspective taking 55
present moment focus 55–6 addicted offenders, REBT-based approach 233–4, 248
individual versus group work 247
internist model 247
motivation 234–5
professional burnout 247
six-pronged approach 235–6
behavioral techniques 236–8
emotive techniques 240–44
interpersonal techniques 238–40
pharmacological strategies 246–7
spiritual/existential techniques 245–6
Zen caring 248
addiction, common irrational beliefs 241
agenda mapping 420
aggression 142
aggression replacement training (ART) 363–4
ten-week program 372–6
aggressive offenders with personality disorders (PDs) 66–7
clinical practice 72
assessment and case conceptualization 72–6
empathic confrontation and limit setting 78–9 limits and boundaries 80
requirements for therapists 80–81
therapeutic style 77–8
treatment motivation 79–80
treatment strategies 76–7
aggressive offenders with personality disorders (PDs) (cont'd)
schema therapy conceptual model
early maladaptive schemas and maladaptive coping responses 67–9
schema modes 69–72
schema modes, forensic 72
Alcohol and Other Drug (AOD) influence 252
all or nothing thinking 6
Anger Avoidance Model (AAM) 162, 165–6
Anger Episode Record 149, 151–2 anger management 141–2, 157–8 anger episode model 145
appraisals 146–7
experiences 147
expressions 147
outcomes 147–8
triggers 145–6
characteristics of anger 142–3
efficacy 143–4
general remarks 144
group work 157
interventions 148
actual 150–156
preparation 148–9
psychoeducation 149–50
unexplored
interventions 156–7
anger thermometer 149, 150 antisocial patterns, traditional CBT models 15, 33
application
Beck's Cognitive Therapy (CT) 22–30
Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy (REBT) 30–33
terminology and diagnosis 15–19
treatment 19
assessment and information gathering 20
building the therapeutic relationship 21–2
raising concerns and developing an agenda 20–21
tailoring to patient 19
Antisocial Personality Disorder (ASPD) 15–18, 20–21, 269 characteristics 270
schema modes 71
antisocial reaction 17
antisocial risk-needs 309–10 appeal to higher loyalties 7 assertiveness 155
attachment to a conceptualized self 43, 50–51
automatic thoughts 6, 27–30 Avoidant Coping schema 69
avoidant persistence 44
awfulizing 5, 31
barbing 154
Batterer Intervention Programs (BIPs) 187–9
Beck's Cognitive Therapy (CT) 5–6, 22–3
automatic thoughts 27–30
intermediate beliefs 24–7
schemas and core beliefs 23–4
behavior sequence 126–7, 128
worksheet 127, 136
Behavioral Couples Therapy (BCT) 213 belief in luck 7
belief searching 263
Borderline Personality Disorder (BPD) schema modes 71
Brief Strategic Family Therapy (BSFT) 362–3
buprenorphine 246
Central Eight criminal risk variables 3 change plan 119
change talk 421–4
change techniques 96–7
cognitive immaturity 102
control 103
egozentricm 102–3
Chaotic schema 23–4
character building 264–5
Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS-MH) 358 Child schema 69
choice clock 242
Choice Review Worksheet 42
chosen values 44, 53–4
Circles of Support and Accountability (COSA) 320 cognitive assessment guide 262–3, 277 cognitive defusion 44, 54–5
cognitive fusion 43, 48
cognitive immaturity 102
cognitive indolence 120
cognitive restructuring 129–30 skills 262
worksheet 208
Cognitive-Behavioral Map (CB Map) 253–7
Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy (CBT) 483–4
complexities of forensic settings 5–8 recommendations for forensic clinical practice 473 enhance prosocial relationships and networks 479–80 focus on belief targets and risk factors 476–8 impact of antisocial patterns 475–6 minimize confrontation, build motivation 474–5 strengths and core values 478–9 topics in need of more attention 480 forensic setting on CBT delivery 482 Intellectual Disability (ID) 481–2 multidisciplinary collaboration 483
trauma history 481
treatment scope 482–3
Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy (CBT), traditional models for antisocial patterns 15, 33
application
Beck’s Cognitive Therapy (CT) 22–30
Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy (REBT) 30–33
features 16
terminology and diagnosis 15–19
treatment 19
assessment and information gathering 20
building the therapeutic relationship 21–2
raising concerns and developing an agenda 20–21
tailoring to patient 19
collaboration 338–9
collateral involvement 20
committed action 56
lack of work 44
community corrections officers, training in CBT intervention strategies 122, 134 background 123
challenge of integrating CBT 133–4
development of strategic training initiative 124–5 teaching CBT interventions 125

practice to generalize skills 131
setting the stage 125–6
community-oriented empathy and sympathy 270
compassion 45
compassion fatigue 2
conceptualized self 43, 50–51 condemnation of condemners 7
Contextual Anger Regulation Therapy (CART) 161, 178–9
anger management and interpersonal violence 162–3
similarities between IPV and non-IPV anger 164
frequent questions 175–6
group therapy 177
outcomes 177–8
program goals and treatment modules 164–5
1 – psychoeducation, values identification, and motivation enhancement 165–7
2 – modifying clinically relevant behavior 167–8
3 – developing mindful emotion awareness 168–9
4 – cognitive defusion and reduction of problem rule-governed behavior 169–70
5 – understanding and avoiding anger 171
6 – acceptance and anger regulation 171–2
7 – commitment to values-based behavior 173
8 – interpersonal skills training 173–4
9 – integration, relapse prevention, and treatment termination 174–5

theoretical and empirical foundations 161–2 coping responses, maladaptive 67–9
Core Correction Practices (CCPs) 292
counterpliance 49
Couples Abuse Prevention Program (CAPP) 213
couples-based violence reduction components maintaining motivation for treatment 217–18 screening couples 214–16 strategies 218–22
treatment goals 216–17
rationale 212
rationale for violence reduction program 213–14
review 212–13
traditional approaches 211–12
Creative schema 23
criminal risk variables 3
Criminal Sentiments Scale – Modified (CSS-M) 24, 89 criminal thinking 98–9, 104, 116–17
assessment 88
conceptualizing thinking targets 92–3 formal assessment alternatives 91–2 instrument selection 91 instruments 89
using PICTS 106–8
homework, importance of 97 individual versus group intervention 115–16 intervention 108–9
action phase 112–13
follow-up phase 113–14
preparation phase 109–12 intervention principles 94–5 intervention strategies 95
case studies 96
Index

criminal thinking (cont’d)
  change techniques 96–7, 102–3
  Stop Light analogy 95–6
  length of intervention 97
  overview 87–8, 104–6
  hierarchical model 106
  PICTS thinking style scales 105 patterns
    cognitive indolence 120
    cutoff 119
    discontinuity 120–121
    entitlement 120
    mollification 119
    power orientation 120
    sentimentality 120
    superoptimism 120
  retention strategies 98
  Criminogenic Thinking Profile (CTP) 24, 90 Culturally Informed and Flexible Family-Based Treatment for Adolescents (CIFFTA) 363 culturally responsive CBT 377–8, 386–8 cultural determinants of offending 379–80 indigenous men’s roles and identity 380 intergenerational trauma, grief, and anger 380–383 indigenous over-representation in justice system 378–9 key considerations 383
  assessment tool
    selection 384–5
  communication strategies 384 community engagement 383
  establishing rapport 384 response 385–6
  social disadvantage 379
cutoff 119
demandingness 5, 31
denial of injury 7
denial of responsibility 7
denial of the victim 7
depression
  association with PTSD 456–7
  challenges of treating incarcerated clients 457–8 interaction schemas approach 458–9, 469
  assessment and intervention 465–8
  group session modifications 468–9
  meaning of distorted cognitions 461–2 modifying distorted cognitions 462–4
  self-appraisals 459–61
  treatment plan 464–5
  need for treatment 456
  Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM)
  antisocial personality definitions 17–18
  Dialectical-Behavioral Therapy (DBT) 311
  adaptation for 3RT 313–14
  juvenile offenders 364–5
  disconnection 335
  discontinuity 120–121
  dispositional disinhibitors 192
  dispositional impelling factors 190 distal disinhibitors 192
  distal factors 190
  distorted cognitions meaning of 461–2 modifying 462–4
  disulfiram 246
  Dogmatic schema 23
  Domestic Violence Focused Couples Treatment (DVFCT) 212–13
drinking log 237
Dynamic Risk Factors (DRFs) 305–6
  assessment 308
  conceptualization as skill defects 311–12
egocentrism 102–3
gogosyntonic behaviors 22
  empathic confrontation 78 empathy building and training 266 empirical criminal thinking literature 7
  Employee Assistance Programs (EAPs) 162
  entitlement 120
  erotopathic risk-needs 308–9 evidence-based practice for CBT 329–30 exaggerating society’s shortcomings 7 exercise, benefit of in addiction recovery 237 existential techniques 245–6
  experiential acceptance 44, 52–3
  experiential avoidance 43, 49
  failure, consequences of 2
  Family Advocacy Support Tool (FAST) 359 forensic schema modes 71, 72 fortune telling 6
  Frustration Intolerance (FI) 32
  Functional Analytic Psychotherapy (FAP) 165
  Functional Family Therapy (FFA) 363
gendered approach to CBT 334–5
  General Aggression Model (GAM) 214
  General Criminal Thinking (GCT) 106–7
global evaluations of human worth 32
Index

Good Lives Model (GLM) 284, 285–6, 437–9 analysis table 444, 446
case study 444, 449–50
description 446–8
detecting offending-related phenomena 448
formulation of GLP 449
practical identities 448
practical identities, selecting 448 social ecologies 449
eleven primary goods 439
etiological aspects 440–441
general concepts 439–40
mapping table 444, 445
women 337
Good Lives Plan (GLP) 443, 444
Good Lives Wheel 284, 285
Hassle log 364, 367
Healthy schema 69
High-Risk Situations (HRS) 318
horizontal coherence 441 hostility 142
imagery rescripting 77
impulsivity 44
inaction 44
inflexible attention 51
inside cues 127
Instigating–Impelling–(dis)Inhibiting (I3)
model 189–90, 200–201
impellance 190–191
inhibition 191–2
instigation 190
instigation × impellance 191
pretreatment assessment 193

case overview 193–4
process interaction 192–3
risk factors for IPV offenders 195 treatment for IPV offenders components 197–200
gereral motivational enhancement structure 196–7
logistics 194–6
integration 114
interaction schemas approach 458–9, 469
assessment and intervention 465–8
group session modifications 468–9
meaning of distorted cognitions 461–2
modifying distorted cognitions 462–4
self-appraisals 459–61
treatment plan 464–5
intermediate beliefs 24–7
Intermediate Beliefs Worksheet 38–9
Internal Barriers worksheet 56, 65
International Society for Schema Therapy (ISST) 80
internist model 247
interpersonal schemas 459 Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) 161–2, 164, 187–9, 200–201 couples-based violence reduction approach components 214–22
rationale 212
rationale for violence reduction program 213–14
review 212–13
traditional approaches 211–12
I3 model 189–90
impellance 190–191
inhibition 191–2
instigation 190
instigation × impellance 191
instigation 190
process interaction 192–3
pretreatment assessment 193

case overview 193–4
risk factors for offenders 195 similarities with non-IPV anger 164 treatment for offenders components 197–200
gereral motivational enhancement structure 196–7
logistics 194–6
irrational beliefs 30–31
issues and challenges 1 CBT, criminology, and thinking targets 5–8 complexities of clinical work in forensic settings 1–3
criminal risk variables 3
Risk–Need–Responsivity model (RNR) 3–4
treatment effectiveness with offenders 4–5
juvenile offenders 367
evidence-based programs 360
Aggression Replacement Training (ART) 363–4
Brief Strategic Family Therapy (BSFT) 362–3
coping course 365
Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) 364–5
Functional Family Therapy (FFA) 363
Multisystemic Therapy (MST) 360–361
Structures Psychotherapy for Adolescents Responding to Chronic Stress (SPARCS) 366
Teen Anger Management (TAME) 366–7
program implementation challenges 355–7 treatment needs assessment 357–9 effective program delivery 359–60 general assessment resources 358
Index

Index

juvenile offenders (cont’d)
specialized resources 358–9 treatment versus punishment 354–5

Kid in the Hole handout 52, 61

knowledge 2
criminal risk variables 3
Risk–Need–Responsivity model (RNR) 3–4
treatment effectiveness with offenders 4–5

learned from life handout 63–4

lifestyle disorder 20, 33
conflict 78–9
limited reparenting 77
loss of flexible contact with the now 43, 51 low frustration tolerance 5

maladaptive coping responses 67–9
Maladaptive Parent schema 69
Maladaptive schemas 67–9
Measure of Criminal Attitudes and Associates (MCAA) 89 Measure of Offender Thinking Styles (MOTS) 24, 90 mental filter 6
methadone 246
mindfulness exercises 243–4 Mindfulness-based Cognitive Therapy (MBCT) 164 breath exercise 182–3
introductory exercise 182
Modifying Automatic Thoughts Worksheet 29, 40–41
mollification 119
moral development 19
motivating change worksheets 205–6 Motivational Interviewing (MI) 109–10, 234, 411, 432

countering the ‘righting reflex’ 412–13 four processes 413, 414
engaging 413–19
evoking 421–4
focusing 419–21
planning 424–5
materials and resources 435
sequential and stylistic integration with CBT 425–6 differences between MI and CBT 426–7 MI as a pretreatment 427–8 more client-centered CBT delivery 428–32
women 336–7
Moving On program 344
Multisystemic Therapy (MST) 360–361

naltrexone 246
Narcissistic Personality disorder (NPD) schema modes 71, 75 nutrition for addiction therapy 246–7

Ossified schema 23
outside cues 127
Over-Compensatory schema 69–70
over-generalization 6

Passengers on the Bus handout 54, 64
pattern schemas 459
Penile Plethysmography (PPG) 289
personal health problems 161 Personality Disorders (PDs) 66–7
clinical practice 72
assessment and case conceptualization 72–6
empathic confrontation and limit setting 78–9
therapeutic style 77–8
treatment motivation 79–80
treatment strategies 76–7
pitfalls and recommendations limits and boundaries 80
requirements for therapists 80–81
schema therapy conceptual model
care maladaptive schemas and maladaptive coping responses 67–9
schema modes 69–72
schema modes, forensic 72
personalizing 6

perspective taking 44, 55

pharmacological strategies for addiction 246–7 pliance 49
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) 456 association with depression 456–7
power orientation 120
practical identities 439, 448
selection 448
present moment focus 44, 55–6
proactive criminal thinking 105, 107
Problem of Immediate Gratification (PIG) 318 problem-solving worksheets 209–10
professional burnout 247
prosocial cognitive restructuring 260–265
prosocial strengths assessment 269 prosocial treatment groups 270
Psychological Inventory of Criminal Thinking Styles (PICTS) 24, 89 interpretation 106–8
scales 105
validity scales 107
psychopathy 17–18
Psychopathy Checklist – Revised (PCL-R) 17–18
psychopathy schema modes 75
public health problems 161

Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy (REBT) 5, 6, 30–33
Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy (REBT) for addicted offenders 248, 233–4
individual versus group work 247
internist model 247
motivation 234–5
professional burnout 247
six-pronged approach 235–6
behavioral techniques 236–8
cognitive techniques 240–244
emotive techniques 238–40
interpersonal techniques 244–5
pharmacological strategies 246–7
spiritual/existential techniques 245–6
Zen caring 248

Rational Emotive Imagery (REI) 239
reactive criminal thinking 105, 107
recidivism risk reduction (3RT) 321
central eight criminal risk variables 3
model development 302–7
assessing limitations for sexual offenders 303–5 RNR model 305–7
overview 307
post-treatment phase 316–17 community transition planning 318–20 relapse prevention planning 317–18
pre-treatment phase 308 intake assessment 308–10
Social and Community Responsibility Therapy (SCRT) 257–8
treatment completion 320
treatment phase 311
adapting DBT skills 313–14 DRFs as skill defects 311–12
individual therapy sessions 316 sex-offence specific skill 313–15 relapse prevention outline 325–6 Relational–Cultural Theory (RCT) 335
relational disinhibitors 192
relational impellances 190 relationship building worksheets 208–9 relationship problems 288–9
relationship responsibility therapy 265–8 responsivity needs 310–311
Risk–Need–Responsivity model (RNR) 3–4, 122
sexual offenders 286–7
Strategic Training Initiative in Community Supervision (STICS) 124–5
women 330–331
Rockwood Psychological Services (RPS) programs for sexual offenders critical aspects of treatment delivery 291–2 development 281–2
efficacy 295–6
group versus individual treatment 292–4
motivation and engagement 283
phases 283–6
treatment target changing procedures 287–91
treatment targets 286–7
role-playing 244–5

schema domains 69
Schema Mode Inventory (SMI) 74
schema modes 67, 69–72
forensic 72
Schema Therapy (ST) 66–7
clinical practice 72
assessment and case conceptualization 72–6
empathic confrontation and limit setting 78–9
therapeutic style 77–8
treatment motivation 79–80
treatment strategies 76–7
conceptual model early maladaptive schemas and maladaptive coping responses 67–9
schema modes 69–72
schema modes, forensic 72
contraindications 74
pitfalls and recommendations limits and boundaries 80
requirements for therapists 80–81
schemas and core beliefs 23–4
Screen for Child Anxiety Disorders (SCARED) 359
Selective Serotonin Reuptake Inhibitors (SSRIs) 246 self of other rating 5
self-assessment of antisocial behavior 269
self-esteem 287
self-evaluation 265
self-justification 7
Self-Management and Recovery Training (SMART) 244
Index

self-regulation issues 287–8
self-schema 459
sentimentality 120
session-by-session
  assessment 393–4, 402
  approach 395–6
  adjunctive client data 399–400
  client rating timing 400 narrative in-session client data 398–9 quantitative in-session client data 396–8 case examples 400–401
  measurement of participation and progress 394–5 sexual issues 289–90
sexual offender treatment 281, 296
crimogenic factors to offending 285
efficacy 295–6
recidivism risk reduction (3RT) 303–5
specific skills 313–15
Rockwood Psychological Services (RPS)
approach
critical aspects of treatment delivery 291–2
group versus individual treatment 292–4
motivation and engagement 283
phases 283–6
program development 281–2
treatment target changing procedures 287–91
treatment targets 286–7
Shaman effect 110–111
shame attacks 238–40
single pill exercise 121
situational disinhibitors 192
situational impelling factors 190–191
sleep and addiction 246–7
sobriety sampling 238
Social and Community Responsibility Therapy (SCRT) 252–3, 271–3
addressing recidivism and relapse (R&R) 257–8
Cognitive-Behavioral Map (CB Map) 253–7
increasing social and community responsibility
  community responsibility therapy 268–71
  prosocial cognitive restructuring 260–265
  relationship responsibility therapy 265–8
increasing social and community responsibility strategies 260
practitioner tools 258–60
social skills training 245
Sociopathic Personality Disturbance 17
spiritual techniques 245–6
spousal involvement in addiction therapy 245
stages of change 238
Stop Light analogy 95–6
Strategic Training Initiative in Community Supervision (STICS) 124–5
challenge of integrating CBT 133–4
demonstrating thought–behavior link 126–9
identifying procriminal attitudes 129
importance of relationship 132–3
modeling and teaching 129–31
practice to generalize skills 131
setting the stage 125–6
strengths-based approach 336–8, 436–8, 450
clinical application 442–4
complementing forensic CBT 441–2
worksheets and exercises 444
Structured Psychotherapy for Adolescents Responding to Chronic Stress (SPARCS) 366
superoptimism 120
Surrendering Coping schema 69
sustain talk 421–2, 424
sympathy training 266–8
Teen Anger Management (TAME) 366–7
Texas Christian University Criminal Thinking Scales (TCU CTS) 24, 90
therapists, areas of competence 2
thinking errors 263–4
thinking patterns 119
thought mapping 263
TODATE acronym 91
Trauma History Checklist and Interview 370–371
Treatment As Usual (TAU) 213
treatment effectiveness with offenders 4–5
triggers
  avoiding 153
  barbing 154
  changing 153
  escaping 153
Unconditional Other Acceptance (UOA) 243
Unconditional Self-Acceptance (USA) 243
understanding patterns of conflict worksheets 206–7
urge impedance 192
urge readiness 191
value clarification 236, 246, 264–5
values problems 43–4, 49–50
Values worksheet 53, 61–3
vertical coherence 441

Shaman effect 110–111
shame attacks 238–40
single pill exercise 121
situational disinhibitors 192
situational impelling factors 190–191
sleep and addiction 246–7
sobriety sampling 238
Social and Community Responsibility Therapy (SCRT) 252–3, 271–3
addressing recidivism and relapse (R&R) 257–8
Cognitive-Behavioral Map (CB Map) 253–7
increasing social and community responsibility
  community responsibility therapy 268–71
  prosocial cognitive restructuring 260–265
  relationship responsibility therapy 265–8
increasing social and community responsibility strategies 260
practitioner tools 258–60
social skills training 245
Sociopathic Personality Disturbance 17
spiritual techniques 245–6
spousal involvement in addiction therapy 245
stages of change 238
Stop Light analogy 95–6
Strategic Training Initiative in Community Supervision (STICS) 124–5
challenge of integrating CBT 133–4
demonstrating thought–behavior link 126–9
identifying procriminal attitudes 129
importance of relationship 132–3
modeling and teaching 129–31
practice to generalize skills 131
setting the stage 125–6
strengths-based approach 336–8, 436–8, 450
clinical application 442–4
complementing forensic CBT 441–2
worksheets and exercises 444
Structured Psychotherapy for Adolescents Responding to Chronic Stress (SPARCS) 366
superoptimism 120
Surrendering Coping schema 69
sustain talk 421–2, 424
sympathy training 266–8
Teen Anger Management (TAME) 366–7
Texas Christian University Criminal Thinking Scales (TCU CTS) 24, 90
therapists, areas of competence 2
thinking errors 263–4
thinking patterns 119
thought mapping 263
TODATE acronym 91
Trauma History Checklist and Interview 370–371
Treatment As Usual (TAU) 213
treatment effectiveness with offenders 4–5
triggers
  avoiding 153
  barbing 154
  changing 153
  escaping 153
Unconditional Other Acceptance (UOA) 243
Unconditional Self-Acceptance (USA) 243
understanding patterns of conflict worksheets 206–7
urge impedance 192
urge readiness 191
value clarification 236, 246, 264–5
values problems 43–4, 49–50
Values worksheet 53, 61–3
vertical coherence 441
violent behavior, domestic and non-domestic 161
anger management and interpersonal violence 162–3
theoretical and empirical foundations of CART 161–2
similarities between IPV and non-IPV anger 164
willingness 45
win–lose strategies 153
CART programs goals and treatment modules 164–5
acceptance and anger regulation 171–2
cognitive defusion and reduction of problem rule-governed behavior 169–70
commitment to values-based behavior 173
developing mindful emotion awareness 168–9
integration, relapse prevention, and treatment termination 174–5
interpersonal skills training 173–4
modifying clinically relevant behavior 167–8
psychoeducation, values identification, and motivation enhancement 165–7
understanding and avoiding anger 171
win–win strategies 153–4 wisdom stories 245–6
women, justice-involved 329, 346
advancing the use of CBT 335
approach 335–9
intervention methods 339–44
bridging 344
Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy (CBT) 330
culture change 345
gendered approach to CBT 334–5
reactions to common experiences 351–3
Young Schema Questionnaire (YSQ) 74
Zen caring 248