INDEX

A
Absence of romance, 66–67
Abstinence, sexual, 64
Active learners, digital natives as, 166
Activism: CampusActivism.org, 135; and environmentalism, 135–136;
GBLT activist groups, 114; local,
141–142; protest activities, student engagement in, 119–123
Adams, H., 18, 19
Adderall, 62
Addiction disorders, and the
Internet, 73
AIDS epidemic, 19
Affection/intimacy, 67;
al-Qaeda, 13
Alcohol: abuse, 58–63; missed classes due to, 58–60; and peer pressure, 60–61
Alternative Spring Break, 145
Alverno College, 169
American Dream, 35, 148, 162, 181,
196–197; and civic engagement,
196–197
AmeriCorps, 194
Amphetamines, 62
“Angry Birds” (game), 73
Antidepressants, 62
AOL (America Online), 12
Apathy, 121
Apple, 12
Arab-Israeli conflict, 13
Arab Spring, 139, 160
Aregbe, F. O., 32
Attention deficit disorder, 90

B
Barbiturates, 62
Berlin Wall, 13; fall of, 19
Bin Laden, O., 28
Binge drinking, rises in, 58–59
Biracial students, 114–115
Black Planet, 32
Blackboard, replacement of, and the
Internet, 185
Blackhawk parents, 79
Blogging, 195
BP oil spill, 133
Burke, E., 182

C
Campus Compact, 145
Campus life, 54–57
CampusActivism.org, 135
Career fairs, 93
Career services, 180–181
Carnegie, A., 157–158
Carter, J., 132
Casual sex, 63–64, 67
CDs, 12
Cell phones, 20, 22–23, 51
Challenger disaster, 19
Change: climate, 66, 141; in degree rather than kind, 21; and digital technology, 21, 47, 159; generational, and President Obama, 32; global, 11; pace of, 158; social, 28, 161; technological, 159
Charitable organizations, working for, 142
Cheating, See also Plagiarism: collaboration viewed as, 167; increased incidence of, 50
Child and youth work, 142
Chinook parents, 79
Church/religious activities and attitudes, 142–145
Churchill, W., 155
CIRCLE, 31, 33
Civic engagement, 193; and the American Dream, 196; education for, 181–185
Class of 2012, see also College students: and aging of U.S. population, 15; chronology of major events in their lifetime, 12; and collapsing world order, 13; demographics, 14, 17; in digital age, 12; economy, 14; globe, 14; immigrants, 15–16; politics of red-blue states, 14; as products of the digital age, 12; racial and gender ceilings, cracks in, 16; technology, 14; and terrorism in America, 13–14; worlds of, 12–19
Clickers, 48
Clinton, W. J. (Bill), 63
Cocaine, 61, 62
Cold War, 13
College Board, 27
College students, See also Class of 2012; Undergraduates: career services, 180–181; characteristics of, 161–162; civic engagement, 181–185; compared to earlier generations, 163–164; complaints of poor customer service, 92; deficits, 163; differences between their parents and, 19; digital society, preparing students for life in, 165–171; diverse/global society, preparing students for life in, 171; diversity among, 15; education for life in an evolving information economy, 176–178; education for the twenty-first century, 164; employing, 186–190; enriched major, 176–178; extended adolescence among, 89; globalization, 174–176; key events in the lives of, 19–20; manufacturing sector, jobs in, 14; mounting financial debt, 15; multiculturalism, 171–174; pace of change, 158; parenting, 190–193; practical minors, 179; profound change, preparing students for, 164–165; psychological counseling, 89; racial and gender ceilings, cracks in, 16; as rule followers, 52, 77, 163; technology, 20–24
Columbine High School student massacre, 14
Commission on Higher Education for Democracy, 196
Common content, use of term, 139
Communication: digital, 75; online vs. face-to-face, 74; skills, 181–182; targeting, 195
Compartmentalization, 150
Competence in government, 196
Competition from for-profit sector, 168
Condoms, use of, 65
Consumerism, 91–92
Continual learning, 165
Cooper, P., 157
Crack, 62; electronic, 69
Creativity, 164–165
Critical thinking, 164
Crowd sourcing, 195
Cultural heroes, dismissal of, 87
Cureton, J., 19, 95, 108
Customized job descriptions, 189

D
DeAngelo, L. B., 25
Digital classroom, inappropriate behavior in, 52
Digital communication, and expectation of immediacy, 75
Digital Future Project, 24
Digital natives: as active learners, 166; and alternative higher education, 168; consumer-driven nature of, 167; educating, 169; as gatherers, 166; and goals of education, 166; methods of instruction, 166; orientation of, 167; soliciting counsel from, 189; world of, 166
Digital technologies, 21–22; and plagiarism/cheating incidents, 50
Diphobe, defined, 75
Disability services, use of term, 90
Dissociative drugs, 62
Diverse/global society, preparing students for life in, 171
Diversity, 171–174; student comfort with, 163
“Don’t ask, don’t tell” policy, 114
Dot-com bubble, 12
Drug abuse, 61–63; pharming, 63; prescription, rise in, 62–63
DVDs, 12, 51

E
E-mail, 23, 51
Earth Day, 132
Economy, 24–27; and college attendance, 25; and cost of college/textbooks, 26–27; international recession, 24–25; as key event in the lives of undergraduates, 20; politicized students, 27; and student loans, 27; and student stress/anxiety, 26; student survey, 24–25
Edison, T., 158
Education for the twenty-first century, 185–186
Electronic crack, 69
Employment, 186–190; customized job descriptions, 189; essential organizational practices, determining, 189; expectations, 189; extended orientation, 189; gym, signing up for, 190; offering internships/summer jobs, 188–189; soliciting counsel from digital natives, 189
Enriched majors, 176–178
Entitlement, sense of, 188
Environment, goal in studying, 183
Environmentalism, 133–136; activism, 135–136; environmental consciousness, 132–136; environmental disasters, 132; environmental study programs, 133; and Hurricane Katrina, 135; recycling/emission laws, 135; training events, 135
External reform, schools, 160

F
Face-to-face communication, online communication vs., 74
Facebook, 12, 32, 69, 72, 129; Arab Spring protests, 139; inappropriate behavior, 77; population, 69; and privacy, 76–77; and stalking, 75–76

Faces and vases, use of term, 11–12

Faculty, 42–43: comfort with student behavior, 52; curriculum and content, selection of, 167, 170; diversity in, 103; and environmentalism, 135; hiring and firing, undergraduate control of, 118 parent contact with, 80; parent grievances against, 92; student experiences with, 43; student grievances against, 119–120; on technology, 49–50; tenure, 43, 44, 174

Fadel, C., 173

Family support, and optimism regarding success, 153

Flickr, 32

Ford, H., 157–158

Friedman, T., 12

“Friending,” 70

Friends with benefits, 67

Fulton, R., 157

Future, 147–153; optimism about, 152–153; pessimism about, 150–152

G

Garfield, J., 167–168

GBLT (gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgender): activist groups, 114; dating, 66, 115

Gender barriers to race, economics, and geography, 196–197

Gender ceiling, cracks in, 16

GI Bill (1944), 194

Gibson, C., 14

Global, digital, information economy 1.0, 158

Global, digital, information economy 2.0, 158–159; advances in existing technologies, 159; globalization, 158–159; information economy, unfolding of, 160; new technologies, 159

Global warming, 132, 139

Globalism, 136–139; and international engagement, 136–137; pollution, 139

Globalization, 174–176; institutional activities related to, 175; student comfort with, 163

God, as hero, 87

Gore, A., 132–133

Gould, J., 157, 158

Government: financial aid, 174; replacement of, 160; top down, 195

Grade inflation, 43–44

Green generation, 132–136

Guided internships, enriched majors, 178; practical minors, 179

Guided team projects, 173–174

H

Hallcest/dormcest, 67

Hallucinogens, 61, 62

Hard work, payoffs of, 149–150

Harriman, E. H., 157, 158

Helicopter parents, 79

Heroes: cultural, dismissal of, 87; and cynicism, 87; parents as, 87–89

Heroin, 61

Home schooling, 160

Hook-ups, 63–64

Hookah bars, 61

Hopkins, M., 167–168, 170

Human heritage, goal in studying, 182

Hurricane Katrina, 132, 135
I
Immerwaht, J. A., 91
Immigration: children as immigrants of the old world, 18; and communications technology, 74; and diversity, 15–17; immigrant population, 15; as political issue, 129; restrictive view of, 137; undocumented and illegal immigrants, 132; 137
Inappropriate behavior: in digital classroom, 52; and Facebook, 77
Inconvenient Truth, An (film), 132
Individual roles, 183–184
Industrial Revolution, 156–158
Inhalants, 62
Institute of Politics, 27, 127, 128, 129, 130, 193
Institute on International Education, 136
Integrity in government, 196
Intergroup collaboration, 116
Internal reform, schools, 160
International issues: immigration, 137; student interest in, 136–139
International recession, 24–25
Internationalization of higher education, 175–176
Internet, 12, 161; addiction disorders, 73; color-blind nature of, 113; as distraction/time sponge, 73; plagiarism/cheating incidents, 50; and replacement of the blackboard, 185; stalking, 66
Internships, 188–189
Interracial dating/marriage, 33, 66
Intimacy, 67;
IPod, 73
Irving, W., 17
Issue orientation, 130–132

J
Jacobsen, L. A., 16
Jesus, as hero, 87
Job descriptions, customized, 189
Johns Hopkins University, 175
Jung, K., 14

K
Kennedy, J. F., 193–194
Kennedy, T., 108, 110, 138
Ketamine, 62
King, R., 19
KIPP (Knowledge Is Power Program), 160
Knowledge-production organizations, and knowledge-distributing organizations, convergence of, 168
Kyoto Protocol on Climate, 132

L
Large corporations, America as nation of, 157
Lawnmower parents, 79
Levine, A., 19
Lewin, T., 148
Lexapro, 62
Libraries, 169–170
LinkedIn, 32; population, 69
Local activism, 141–142

M
Maastricht Treaty, 13
Magical thinking, 150
Main Circle, 134, 146
Marijuana use, 61, 62
Marriage/relationships, 149
Mather, M., 16
Media: as consumer-driven industry, 161; as individual phenomenon, 140
Medicare, 15
Merit-based vs. need-based financial aid, 174
Methamphetamines, 62
Microsoft, 12
Middlebury College, 133
Mobile phones, 12
Money/material goods, 149
Morgan, J. P., 157
Mosaica, 160
Multiculturalism, 95–116; attitudes regarding multicultural issues by race, 104–105; on campus, 97–101; causes of change, 107–116; diversity within groups, 113–116; gender homogeneity among ethnic/racial/gender groups, 107–113; improved opportunity for women, beliefs about, 103–106; multicultural practices on campus: perceptions of, 116; polarization among racial/ethnic groups on race issues, 101–103; student satisfaction with college, 101
Muslim state, in Iran, 13
Myspace, 12, 21, 32; population, 69

N
Nation states, 136, 159; independence of, 13; as superpowers/Cold War, 12, 13
National Center for Education Statistics, 41
National Center for Institute of Education Sciences, 42, 43
Need-based financial aid, 174
Nelson, L. A., 148
Nest parents, 79
New media, speed of adoption, 21
New tribalism, 68–77
New York City (Times Square) car bombing, 14
News sources, 139–141; “All Things Considered” (National Public Radio), 140–141; media as individual phenomenon, 140; preferred, 140
Nuclear accidents, 132
Nuclear war, threat of, 13
Nur-Abdul, M., 112

O
Obama, B., 19, 128–129; and digital media, 32; election of, 31–34; focus on issues students care about, 32; and generational change, 32; media strategy, 32–33; message of, 31–32; presidential campaign (2008), 195; votes received by, 33
Occupy Campus movement (2011), 115
Occupy Colleges protests, 123–124; OccupyColleges.com, 126; student support/participation, 126–127
Occupy Wall Street protests, 123, 126–127, 148
Office of Immigration Statistics, 15
Oklahoma City federal building, bombing of, 13
On-campus politics, 117–128; apathy, 121; economy as primary issue, 123; multicultural concerns, 123; Occupy Colleges protests, 123–126; politics of individual concerns, 121; protest activities, student engagement in, 119–123
Online schooling, 160
Online voting, 195
Opiates, 62
Optimism, 152–153
Oregon container recycling law, 132
P
Parents, 190–193; and antimiscegenation laws, 14; career fairs, 93; and college students, 83–86; consumerism, 91–92; control of the nation’s institutions, 17; as customers, 91–92; demographics, 14, 17; economy, 14; excessive involvement, examples of, 81–82; globe, 14; grievances against faculty members/staff, 92; as heroes, 87–89; increased involvement, reasons for, 87–93; involvement/intervention, 80, 87–93; politics of, 14; as products of an analog world, 12; as products of an industrial society, 14; rise in stature of, 89; technology, 14; worlds of, 12–19
Party identification, 130–132
Paxil, 62
Peace Corps, 194
Persian Gulf war, 19
Personal computers, 12
Pessimism about the future, 150–152
Pew Internet and American Life Project, 24, 69, 70
Pew Research Center, 33, 69–70, 129, 130
Pew Social Trends Center, 148
Pharming, 63
Plagiarism, See also Cheating: increases in incidents of, 50; plagiarism-detecting software, 52; students’ lack of understanding concerning, 50–51
Political disengagement, 129–130
Politicized students, 27
Pollard, K., 16
PowerPoint, 48
Practical minors, 179
Prescription drug abuse, rise in, 62–63
President’s Commission on Higher Education, 196
Privacy, and Facebook, 76–77
Project Prometheus, 145
Provigil, 62
Prozac, 62
Pryor, J. H., 25
Psychological counseling, increased use of among students, 89
R
Race, 33; racial ceiling, cracks in, 16; self-segregation by, 115
Railroads, 156–157
Recession, international, 24–25; Reform, school, 160
Religious barriers, to race, economics, and geography, 196–197
Ritalin, student use of, 62–63
Rockefeller, J. D., 157, 158
Rohypnol, 62
Romance, See Sex and romance
Rowling, J. K., 35
Rugged individualism, 150
Rule followers, college students as, 52, 77, 163
Russell, B., 184
Rust belt, 14
S
Safe sex, 65
Sedatives/relaxants, 61, 62
Self-segregation, by race and ethnicity, 115
Senior programs, 15
September 11 attack, 27–31; as defining moment, 29; effect on student and campus life, 29; and growing international focus, 29–30; as key event in the lives of undergraduates, 20; students’ view of importance of, 29
Service activities, 141–145; and change, 145; commitment, 146; compensation for, 146; least popular of, 145; students’ reasons for participation in, 145
Sex and romance: absence of romance, 66–67; affection/intimacy, 67; commitment, 67; condoms, use of, 65; continuing relationships vs. encounters, 67–68; Facebook brides, 68; fall back, 67; formal dating, demise of, 65; friends with benefits, 67; gay/lesbian/bisexual/transgender dating, 66; hallcest/dormcest, 67; hook-ups/casual sex, 63–64; interracial dating, 66; LUG, 67; making out, 63; multiple partners, 65; openness/explicitness, 65; safe sex, 65; sexiled, use of term, 67; sexual abstinence, 64; sexually active students, 64–65; student terminology used to describe sexual relations, 67; walk of shame/stride of pride, 67
Shoe bombing, 14
Skype, 12
Slater, S., 157
Smart phones, 12
Snowplow parents, 79
Social class, as diversity issue, 115
Social institutions, rethinking of, 160
Social life, 53–77; and alcohol abuse, 58–63; campus life, 54–57; and the classroom, 53–54; drug abuse, 61–63; new tribalism, 68–77; sex and romance, 63–68; what students do for fun, 57–58
Social media, and student interaction, 70–71
Social networking, 167; as communication tool, 73; and employee characteristics, 187; “friending,” 70; sites, populations of, 69; and student isolation, 72–74; tribes, 72–73
Social Security, 15, 149
Social skills, and texting, 74
Soviet Union, 13; breakup of, 19
Stalking, rise in, 75–76
Stanford, L., 157
Stimulant medication, 62
Stimulants, 62
Student Affairs Survey, 23, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30, 46, 47, 51, 59, 61, 66, 73, 74, 75, 80, 89, 90, 92, 116, 119, 120, 133, 141, 142, 148, 172
Student-faculty relations, 43
Student isolation, and the Internet, 72–74
Student loans, 27
Student social life, See Social life
Summer jobs, 188–189
T
TCKs (third culture kids), 114
Teach For America, 160, 194
Technology, 20–24, 47–48, 170; clickers, 48; level at which college undergraduates use technology, 23–24; new media, speed of adoption of, 21; use in the classroom, 47–49
Technology-related incivility, 75
Telegraph, invention of, 157
Telephone, invention of, 157
Text messaging, 51
Texting, 12; and social skills, 74; and vulnerability, 74
Thinking: critical, 164; magical, 150; rethinking of social institutions, 160
Thirsty Thursday, 58
Time sponge, Internet as, 73
Time zones, creation of, 157
Tobacco/nicotine, 61, 62
Transparency, 195
Transportation revolution, 156–157
Treason, 160
Trilling, B., 173
Truman, H., 196
21st Century Skills (Trilling/Fadel), 173
Twitter, 32, 129; Arab Spring protests, 139; users, 69

U
Umbrella parents, 79
Underage drinking, 58
Undergraduate Survey, 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, 26, 27, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 38, 39, 42, 43, 46, 47, 54, 55, 56, 57, 59, 62, 63, 64, 65, 69, 70, 72, 74, 76, 77, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 89, 92, 118, 119, 123, 128, 129, 130, 131, 134, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 142, 144, 146, 149, 150, 165, 176, 180
Undergraduates: as employees, 186–190; key events in the lives of, 20; names unrecognized by, 137–138; personal and material aspirations, 148–149
Uniform, time-based education, 160
Union College, 167
U.S. Administration on Aging, 15
U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 25, 26
U.S. Census Bureau, 16
U.S.-China relations, 13

V
Valium, 62
Values, 184
Vanderbilt, C., 157
Vassar College Greens, 133–135
Virtual town halls, 195

W
Watergate, 19
Watkins, S. C., 32
We are the 99 percent (OccupyWallSt.org), 148
Web browsers, 12, 161
When Hope and Fear Collide, 16–17, 95, 122, 132, 155, 181
Wikipedia, 22, 49, 178
World Trade Center disaster, See September 11 attack

X
Xanax, 62

Y
Yahoo!, 12, 20, 109, 140
Yale University, classical curriculum, 168–169
Year spent abroad, 136
YouTube, 32

Z
Zoloft, 62
Zone of indifference, 116