INDEX

adaptability, lack of in business model failure 24 advisers, warning about 45 advisory boards
— advantage of 44
— starting with 47
Andreesen, Marc (venture capitalist) 37–8, 113, 139 angel and super angel investors 149 angels, choosing 31 annual fees, charging 67 annual holidays, scheduling 103 anxiety 99
apps for mental fitness 102 arrogance in founders 97
assumptions
— reviewing initial 83
— testing and proving 114
asymmetrical scaling 142
Atlassian (startup) 98
Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD), Company Directors course 44 awareness meetings 155 bad failure vs good failure 3–4 bad founders, characteristics of 36 Balsamiq Mockups for wireframes 129

‘beauty in eye of beholder’ (case study) 114 beauty therapists, app for 114 beginning, questions before 11–13 ‘best technical product wins’ myth 116–17
Blank, Steve, The Startup Owner’s Manual 17 board charter 47
board members, appointing 43–4, 47–8 boards
— legal and regulatory obligations of 48
— size of 44
book, building for capital raising 159–60 bookkeeper, need for 73 bootstrapping 109
budgeting phase 109
bullish investment environment 74 business, in Hollywood 106–7 business model, developing 125
Business Model Canvas tool 57, 66–7, 125
business model fit 113
Business Model Generation, Alex Osterwalder and Yves Pigneur 57, 66–7 business models
— at startup 18
— defining 55
— documentation of 57
— experimenting with 66–7
— flawed 19, 23
— having effective 57–60
— value of 54–5

business-to-business products, marketing strategy for 141
business-to-consumer products,
  marketing strategy for 141

Cannon-Brookes, Mike (co-founder of Atlassian) 98 capability and capacity for founder fitness 94–5
capital raising 145–63
  — allowing time for 158–9
  — not paying retainers on 49
  — owning the process 158–60
  — preparing for 155–6
  — timetable for 159–60
case studies
  — beauty in eye of beholder 114
  — Clipp startup 7–9
  — Foxtel vs streaming 68
  — REFFIND 76
  — Sized startup 27–8
  — Velteo startup 41–2
cash
  — held and needed 77–8
  — running out of 78–9
cash burn rate 78, 84
cash flows, actual 78
cash runway 78–9

Catagram idea 62–4
CEO, myth of needing to be 37
Clipp startup (case study) 7–9 co-founders
  — choosing technical (or not) 133–4
  — getting to know early 42–3
  — success of 21
  — types of 40
couchability 96–7, 152
  — of founders 8
coffee catchups with investors 82 communication points with investors 82
Company Directors course, Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD) 44 corporate advisors, cost of 49 cost scaling 142
crichton, Michael 110, 111
  — Jurassic Park (book) 105–6 criticism, ability to take 97 Cruise, Tom, being 110–11
current market valuations, researching 154
customer acquisition cost (CAC) 58–9 — ratio to lifetime value (LTV) 59
  — and sales strategy 141 customer acquisition strategies 141 customer development 116 customer empathy and design thinking 115 customer lifetime 59 customer lifetime value (LTV) 58, 59 customer relationship management (CRM) software 160 customer-prototype interactions, recording 131 customers
— getting, keeping and growing 140–2
— retention rate of 58–9
— studying 30
dashboard of key metrics 84–5 data rooms, creating 156 dead zone for pricing 141–2 deal terms
— for investors 153–4
— for partners 48–9
deals with investors, doing 160–1 default alive and default dead startups 2, 76–7 determining which 84
design thinking 114–15
desirability, lack of in business model failure 24 development paths, choosing 133–6 development phase
— in Hollywood Method 122–7
— in movie making 107–8
dilution of ownership stake 77–8
directors
— appointing 43–4
— linking fees to stock options 49
disruptive innovations 57
diversity
— of founders 38–9
— in startup teams 22
DNA of startups 17–18
due diligence
— on board members 47
— on co-founders 40, 42–3
directors
— appointing 43–4
— linking fees to stock options 49
disruptive innovations 57
diversity
— of founders 38–9
— in startup teams 22
DNA of startups 17–18
due diligence
— on board members 47
— on co-founders 40, 42–3
eyearly-stage financial models, wrongness of 75–6 Eastwood, Clint, not being 110–11 Edison, Thomas, reaction to adversity 165 emotional fitness 98–9 Emotional Intelligence, Dan Goleman 96 empathy 97
empathy for prospective customers, developing 121–2 escrow arrangements 80 ethnographic interviewing 30, 123–4 see also human-centred design expectations of investors 149–51 experience of investors 150 external pressure on founders 93 external threats, managing 61–2 F3 capital rounds 109
fail fast 2–3
failure
— becoming a student of 14–15
— due to funding-related issues 71
— financial and personal impact of 6–7
— good vs bad 3–4
— reasons for 19, 20
— three Fs of 18–19
failures
— drivers of funding-related 86
— founder-driven 20–1 fear, negative effects of 98–9 feasibility, lack of in business model failure 24
fee-for-service business model 58 Ferris, Tim and stoicism 165 films, financing 106 finance director appointment 73 finances, important questions 73–5 financial impact of failure 6–7 financial matters, knowing 73 financial models, building 75–6 fit of ideas, kinds of 112–13 flawed business models 19 founder fitness
— 3 steps to achieving 101–3
— capacity and capability for 94–5 — test 99–100
The Founder Lab 167
founder teams
— avoiding divorce in 46–9
— success of 21
founder vesting agreements 46 founder waste 7 founder-driven failure 20–1 founders
— at startup 17
— capacity and capability of 21
— challenges faced by 10
— characteristics of 33–4 — characteristics of bad 36
— characteristics of good 37–9 — disharmony between 39
— disharmony with investors 81–2 — diversity of 38–9
— dumping by boards 93
— failure of 19, 34–5
— importance to investors 152
Foxtel vs streaming (case study) 68 freemium business model 58, 67 friends, family and fans (F3)
investors 149
functional specifications 136 funding, at startup 178 funding failure 19
— three steps to avoiding 83–5 funding fitness 145–63
— model 146–7
funding tranches 80–1
funding-related failures, 3 drivers of 86 fundraising 145–63
‘fundraising equals success’ myth 72
Giuliani, Rudy, on hope as a strategy 121 go-to-market strategy
— matching with customer acquisition cost (CAC) 141 — testing 141
Goleman, Dan, Emotional Intelligence 96 good failure vs bad failure 3–4 good founders, characteristics of 37–9

Google Adwords 57–8
Google business model 57–8

Graham, Paul (venture capitalist and co-founder of Y Combinator) 2 growth hypothesis 140

hackers 40

Headspace app 102

hipsters 40

history, learning from 26

Hoffman, Reid (founder of LinkedIn) 84

Hollywood, movie making in 107–9

Hollywood Method™ 106–7, 122–43 hope as a strategy, Rudy Giuliani 121 human impact on founders and teams 91–2 human resources 60–1

human-centred design 145–7 see also ethnographic interviewing hustlers 40

‘ideas are everything’ myth 54–5

ignorance of founders 97

‘I’m the boss’ myth 154–5

imposter syndrome 98

in-house development 134

Indiana Jones (movie) 112

initial assumptions, reviewing 83 insolvent, trading while 48

Instagram for Cats (idea) 62–4 institutional investors 149 intellectual property (IP) assignment clause in contracts 136 introspection 100

investable ideas, essentials of 56–62 investor empathy, building 148 investor value proposition, pitching 156–8 investor-centred design 145–7

investors

— categories of 149

— choosing 23

— disharmony with founders 81–2

— doing a deal with 160–1

— expectations of and managing 81–2

— experience of 150

— networks of 150

— references for 151

— styles and expectations of 149–50

— warning about 45

— what they look for 151–4

— what to look for in 149–51
InVision (for creating 'fake apps') 130 iteration concept 2–3

Jurassic Park (movie) 105–6, 110, 111 key metrics, dashboard of 84–5 Keynotopia for wireframes 129

lawyers
— finding 160–1
— referrals to 161
lead investors 161
leaders
— function of 121
— in Hollywood 110

The Lean Startup, Eric Ries 2–3 life coaching 102

lifetime value (LTV) of customers 58
— ratio to customer acquisition cost (CAC) 59

LinkedIn (professional networking app) 84 listening during pitching 158 market, knowing 152

market research, doing 116
— achieving 102
mentors, finding 15
metrics, most common 84–5 minimum viable product (MVP) 2–3, 117
— deploying to early adopters 138
— developing 136

motives, questioning 14 movie making in Hollywood, 4 phases of 107–9 Musk, Elon (founder of Tesla) 38 myth busting, 3 steps to 29–31 myths

— best technical product wins 116–17
— fundraising equals success 72 — ideas are everything 54–5
— I’m the boss 154–5
— needing to be a software developer 25
— needing to be CEO 37
— needing to work 24/7 94
— not believing them 26
— secrecy is key 64
— startups are glamorous 11
— the Super Founder 35
— valuation is the scoreboard 162
— you don’t need a plan 120

‘needing to work 24/7’ myth 94

Netflix (online streaming service) 68 networks of investors 150 non-disclosure agreements (NDAs) 64

one-off fees, charging 67 onshore outsourced development, advantage of 135

Osterwalder, Alex, Value Proposition Canvas tool 124
Osterwalder, Alex et al, Value Proposition Design 55, 124 Osterwalder, Alex and Yves Pigneur
— Business Model Canvas tool 57, 66–7, 125
— Business Model Generation 57, 66–7 outcompeted, being 62
outsourced development in early stages 134–6 over-optimism 83
overfunding, dangers of 23, 79–81
owning the process 158–60 ‘paper fits’ 113
partners, deal terms for 48–9 patience, need for 29 people, studying 30 per-use pricing business model 75 persona creation 128 personal impact of failure 6–7 personal style for pitching 157–8 Phi Digital Ventures 167 physical fitness 95–6, 101
Pigneur, Yves and Alex Osterwalder, Business Model Generation 57, 66–7 pilot customers 126
Pipedrive (CRM software) 160 pitch deck for investors, formula for 157 pitching
— personal style for 157–8
— to consolidate thinking 126–7 pivoting 139–40
planning phase 109
plans
— need for 4
— to show investors 152–3 post-money valuations 77 post-production phase
— in Hollywood Method 140–3
— in movie making 108–9
pre-money valuations 77
pre-production phase
— in Hollywood Method 127–32
— in movie making 108
preparation phase 109
preparation for startup founders 93–4 pricing, dead zone for 141–2 problem validation 123 problem/solution fit 112–13 problems
— finding those you care about 65
— solving relevant 56–7
— thinking about 30
product development, understanding first 2 phases 115–16 product/market fit 113
achieving 138–9
product/solution fit, testing 131 production phase
— in Hollywood Method 132–40
— in movie making 108
profit and loss (P&L) accounting report 78 profitability of business models 58 proof of revenue for investors 153 prospect lists, building 160 prospective customers, developing empathy for 121–2 prototypes
— building 129–30
— power of 136
— testing on target customers 130–2 questions before beginning 11–13 Rachleff, Andy (venture capitalist and entrepreneur) 113 reality checks 83
references for investors 151
REFFIND
— case study 76
— story of 89–91
resources, having necessary 60–1 retainers on capital raising, not paying 49 retention rate of customers 58–9 revenue, proof for investors 153 Ries, Eric, The Lean Startup 2–3 risk mitigation and venture capitalists 4–5 risks, sharing with partners 48–9 runway see cash runway

Saving Private Ryan (movie) 112 scalability of business models 58, 59–60 scalable businesses, examples of 142 scaling 142–3
Schindler’s List (movie) 112 script, stick to the 137 ‘secrecy is key’ myth 64 self-awareness 96
self-control, maintaining 137–8 self-doubt 99
self-harm 3–4
Silicon Valley (HBO startup comedy) 80
Sized startup (case study) 27–8
Sketch (software for wireframes) 129 skills for co-founders 41 sleep, need for 96
slide decks 126–7
slot-machine effect 5–6 Smiling Mind app 102
snake-oil salesmen, prevalence of 45
The Social Network, Mark Zuckerberg 27 software developers, myth of needing to be one 25 specialists in Hollywood 110–11
Spielberg, Steven (movie producer) 111, 112 Stan 68
startup communities, joining 30–1 startup ecosystem, education about 31 startup founders see founders The Startup Owner’s Manual, Steve Blank 17 startup teams, need for diversity in 22 startups
— anatomy of 18
— DNA of 17–18
— two lives of 139, 143 ‘startups are glamorous’ myth 11 stock options, linking director’s fees to 49 stoicism 165–6
stress on founders and teams 91–2 styles of investors 149–50 subscription business model 58, 67, 75 success, three steps to 14–15 success fees 49
successful founders 37–9 ‘Super Founder’ myth 35 switching off 102–3 target customers, feedback from 125–6 team, importance to investors 152 teams, in Hollywood 111–12 teams of founders
— need for diversity in 22
— resources of 60–1
— success of 21
tech to show investors 153 technical co-founders, choosing or not 133–4 technical literacy, need for 25 technology, relative irrelevance of 119–22 test and iterate 125–6
Thiel, Peter, Zero to One 141 3D printers for prototypes 129 time out, having 102–3 timing and scaling 142 timing for capital raising 158–9 trade creditors and receivables 78 trade press, reading 31 trading while insolvent 48 tranches of funding 80–1 triggers for funding tranche release 80–1 trustworthiness, demonstrating your 152 two-sided markets 57–8 Uber (car-ride connection service), reason for success 54 underfunding, failure due to 71–2 unethical behaviour in business 45 unscalable businesses, examples of 143 user journey mapping 128 ‘valuation is the scoreboard’ myth 162 value hypothesis 140
value proposition
— developing 123–4
— refining and iterating 148 value proposition ad-lib statements 124 Value Proposition Canvas, Alex Osterwalder 124 Value Proposition Design, Alex Osterwalder et al 55 value propositions
— components of 56–7
— experimenting with 65–6
— understanding 54, 55
Vaynerchuk, Gary on defeat 165 Velteo startup (case study) 41–2 venture capital (VC) funds
investors 149
venture capitalists (VCs), and risk mitigation 4–5 viability, lack of in business model failure 24 wantrapreneurs, not being 27 wireframes, creating 128–9 writing, putting co-founder agreements in 46

Y Combinator (startup seed accelerator) 2

Zero to One, Peter Thiel 141
Zuckerberg, Mark, The Social Network 27