Index

Note: Page numbers in italics refer to Figures; those in bold to Tables.

acid-fast bacilli (AFB), 115, 183 Act for the Prevention of Livestock Epidemics in the Republic of Korea, 206 Act on the Prevention of Contagious Animal Diseases, 203 AFB see acid-fast bacilli (AFB) African 1 (Af1), 83
African 2 (Afr2), 82
agarose gel–based methods, genotyping, 91–2 AMA see American Medical Association (AMA)
American Medical Association (AMA), 10
American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA), 10
Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS), 278
Animal Epidemic Prevention Law of the People’s Republic of China, 213 Animal Health Emerging Animal Diseases (AHEAD), 17
Animal Health State Committees (OASAs), 305, 306 animal to human transmission
M. bovis bovine TB eradication programs, 27–8 distribution, 26–7 eradication, 27
genotyping (spoligotyping), 27 human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) and, 28 infection source, 27 normal bovine and severely tuberculous udder, 26 occupational exposure, 27
pasteurization, 27
unpasteurized milk products, consumption, 25, 27 Mycobacterium tuberculosis, 28–9 annual risk of tuberculosis infection (ARTI) study, 199 antemortem diagnostic tests, detecting BTB infection in U.S. approved tests CCT testing procedures, 284
  CFT, 284–5
  FPF standard, 285
assessing test sensitivity experimentally versus naturally infected animals, 280 infection and transmission, dynamics, 280 assessing test specificity BTB free, 281
  noninfected cattle populations, 281 blinded studies, 281 dependency between tests, 281–2 new diagnostic test evaluation serum bank, NVSL, 284
USDA cooperation with other groups, 284 antemortem diagnostic tests, detecting BTB infection in U.S. (cont’d) nontuberculin antemortem tests, approval gamma interferon test, 279
  Virus Serum Toxin Act, 279
  WHO policy statement, 279 official tests, approval Bovigam test, 283
  CERVIDTB STAT-PAK test, 283
  gamma interferon test, 282 phases of evaluation, 283 repeatability and reporting, 282 sensitivity of gold standards, 280–281 stages of infection, test sensitivity, 279–80 test characteristics and parameters, 282 tuberculin tests
  APHIS, 278
  CCT, 278
  CFT, 277–8
  intradermal tuberculin test, 277 live-animal testing, 278 outbreak of BTB, 278
  PPD, 278
  SCT and CCT, 278
U.S. Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Program, 277 Argentina, M. bovis infection in cattle, control methods for TB epidemiological analysis, 36 geo-referencing system, 37 meat processing plants and slaughterhouses, 37 official TB-free certification, 36 SENASA, 36–7
  trends of slaughterhouse condemnations, 37–8 tuberculin tests, 36
human TB
  direct working relationships, 38 extrapulmonary (EP) disease, 38
  HIV coinfection, 40
  Mycobacterium bovis isolations, patients, 39 smear-positive pulmonary TB patients, 39
ARTI see annual risk of tuberculosis infection (ARTI) study Australia, zoonotic tuberculosis control and eradication of TB, wildlife, 229
  M. bovis infection, wildlife deer species, 226
domestic pigs, 225–6 feral and semidomesticated buffalo, 225
M. bovis in livestock, control
  Free TB status, 224
  pasteurization, 223
  tail tagging, 223
  TB-free accreditation scheme, 223 TFAP, 224
  trade threat, 223
  Tuberculin, 222
  undetected residual infection, elimination, 224 5-year approved property programs, 223–4 zoonotic impact, 222
AVMA see American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) Bacillus Calmette-Guérin (BCG) vaccination assessment, African buffalos, 104 test-and-slaughter approach, 125 BCS see body condition score (BCS) biomolecular assay application, 364–5 bivariate frequency analysis, 185 body condition score (BCS), 121 bovine husbandry systems, 310 Brazil, M. bovis infection bovine TB control and eradication program, 40–41
  in cattle, 40
  human TB, 41–2
  livestock traceability program (SISBOV), 41 SCT and the CFT, 40
  surveillance in abattoirs, 41
  TB-free herds, certification, 40–41 traceability and movement controls, 41 breeding systems, BTB eradication in France, 345–6 Brock test, 334
Canada’s BTB eradication program blood tests, 288
  continued vigilance, 290 elimination, animal/public health problem, 288, 289 federal legislation, 287–8 infected herds, 289 restricted area plan approach, 287 Riding Mountain National Park, 289 surveillance activities, 2009–2011, 288, 289
  Wood Buffalo National Park, 289 Canadian Food Inspection Agency’s Ottawa Laboratory (Fallowfield) (CFIA-OLF), 90, 91 captive cervids
epidemiology
infected cervids, farm to farm movement, 270 interherd and cross-country movement, 269–70 prevention, control, and eradication programs, BTB, 265, 272 regulations and rules
NTE Uniform Methods and Rules for captive Cervidae, 271
SCT, 271
TB prevention, control, and eradication programs, 274 caudal fold test (CFT), 36, 277–8 caudal fold tuberculin test (CFT), 206, 235 CCT see comparative cervical test (CCT) cell-mediated immunity (CMI), 207–8, 279 Central Europe and Soviet Union, BTB control animals, 370, 372
cattle
Baltic countries, 377
and human populations, Russian federation, 377 Russia and former states of Soviet Union, 374–6, 375–6 seven countries of Central Europe, 2000–2010, 370, 371 Ukraine, 377
European Commission Decision, 369 lesions, pigs and cattle mycobacterial species, 373–4 Rhodococcus equi, 374 occurrence, red deer in Austria, 373
Centre for Veterinary Epidemiology and Risk Analysis (CVERA), 324
CERVIDTB STAT-PAK test, 283
CFT see caudal fold test (CFT) Chile, M. bovis infection bovine TB control activities, 42–3, 43
in humans, 43–4
China, M. bovis infection/control bovine PPD skin test, 217 cattle and other animals intradermal test, 214 national surveillance of BTB, 214 prevalence of BTB, 214, 215 test and slaughter method, 214 diagnosis of BTB, 217 infection in cattle
human M. tb to cattle, transmission, 216 molecular biological methods, 216 infection in humans
milk consumption, 216
prevalence, 215–16
“three Hs”, prevalence of TB, 213
Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) Surveillance Program, 270
CMI see cell-mediated immunity (CMI) Colombia, M. bovis infection, 44 comparative cervical test (CCT), 278 control programs for M. bovis complete depopulation, 70 differentiate infected from vaccinated animals (DIVA), 71
in humans
antimicrobial resistance, 72 isoniazid and rifampicin, 72 hygiene and biosecurity practices, 70 livestock, 70–71
“test and remove” programs, 70
wildlife
behavior modification, 71 population control, 71 vaccination, 71
Costa Rica, M. bovis infection, 44 culture isolation method, 183
CVERA see Centre for Veterinary Epidemiology and Risk Analysis (CVERA) detailed meat inspection (DMI), 112, 114–15 diagnostic tools, M. bovis eradication and control, 362 direct detection method, M. bovis in tissues genotyping, 91–2
identification, 90–91
isolation, 90
MIRU-VNTR, 93–5, 95
PCR, 89–90
spoligotyping, 92, 92–3, 93
WGS, 96–7
DMI see detailed meat inspection (DMI)
DNA fingerprinting, 198
Ecuador, M. bovis infection, 45 Elephant TB STAT-PAK assay, 192 epidemiology, M. bovis control programs for M. bovis, 70–72 host species for M. bovis infection, 63–5 prevention approaches, 72–3 surveillance for M. bovis, 68–70 transmission of M. bovis, 66–8
EPTB see extrapulmonary TB (EPTB) Eradication of Animal Disease (ERAD), 324 Ethiopia, BTB control in abattoir infection survey, 112–13 ancillary activities, 127 animal movement control, 127 BCG vaccination, 125–6 blood-based laboratory tests, 116
cattle, 126
design, eradication program, 126 detection, infection, 126–7 economic significance, 124, 124–5 epidemiologic features, 126
EPTB, 109
Hamer pastoral areas, southern Ethiopia, 113 identification, mycobacteria culture, 116–17
microscopic examination, 116 molecular typing, 117–18, 118 mass tuberculin survey, 110, 112 Mycobacterium species isolation, cattle and domestic animals, 110, 111 necropsy, 114–16
pathology, 118
risk factors age and sex, 121
BCS, 121
breed, 120
cattle movement, 119–20 farm-level hygienic practices, 119 herd size, 119
livestock management system, 119 mixed farming, 120 wildlife habitats, 121
test and slaughter policy, 125
TST, 113
zoonotic tuberculosis close physical contact, 122–3 cultural beliefs and awareness, 123 eating habits, 122 effect, HIV/AIDS, 123
extrapulmonary TB, 122
Isolation, Mycobacterium tuberculosis, 124 extrapulmonary TB (EPTB), 109, 121–2 false-positive fraction (FPF) standard, 285 France, BTB eradication breeding systems and risk factors, 345–6 control program objectives, 346 epidemiology, cattle control, sanitary supervision quality, 343 evolution, infected herds, 341, 342 global screening, 343
systematic screening, 343 national program, 344 prevalence and incidence rates, 344, 345 free-roaming cervids bovine to deer transmission, 264
epidemiology
awareness of BTB, 269 BTB transmission and maintenance, 268 critical factors, 268 deer densities, 268–9 deer-to-deer transmission, 268 lack of awareness of BTB, 269 respiratory transmission, 268 prevention, control, and eradication programs, BTB, 264, 271–2
regulations and rules
CWD Surveillance Program, 270 detection of gross lesions, 270 trap-test-cull approach, 270 surveillance efforts, 264
TB prevention, control, and eradication programs, 272–3
gamma interferon test, 282
General Directorate of Zoosanitary Campaigns, 294, 296
genetic-based drug susceptibility testing, 183 genotyping techniques, 91–2 Ghana, BTB in challenges
Ghana VSD, 178–9
national tuberculosis medical health plan, 179 control, 178

diagnosis
  direct smear microscopy, 178 tuberculin skin test, 177 ecosystem-based approach, 179
human TB, 175
national parks and forest reserves, 175, 176 NTP strategic plan, 176–7
One Health approach, 179
prevalence, 177
slaughter inspection protocols, 179
VSD, 179
WHO’s Global Fund, 177

The Health for Animals and Livelihood Improvement (HALI) program, 17 heat-concentrated synthetic medium (HCSM), 204 host species for M. bovis infection host behavior, 63–4 humans consumption of unpasteurized dairy products, 65 contact with infected animals, 65 livestock
  cattle, 64
  prolonged survival, 64 maintenance host or spillover host, 63 wildlife hosts consumption of infected carcasses, 64 free-ranging wildlife maintenance hosts, 64 hybridization technique, 80, 81 identification methods, M. bovis, 90–91 ILIAD program see International Lookout for Infectious Animal Disease (ILIAD) program

India, zoonotic tuberculosis ARTI study, 199–200 bovine TB infection in humans, reports, 197–8 M. bovis, isolation, 198
    prevalence, 197
  DNA fingerprinting, 198
  extrapulmonary tuberculosis, 198 human-to-cattle transmission, 199
  M. bovis/M. tuberculosis, isolation, 198–9

N-PCR assay, 198
subclinical infection in herd, 199
TB in cattle, 197
interferon-gamma (IFN-γ) assay herds control, 2004–2011, 363, 364 SITT, 363
International Lookout for Infectious Animal Disease (ILIAD) program, 17

Ireland, BTB eradication program
  CVERA
    premovement testing, 335 publications covering, 335 “reactor pool”, 335
  scientific support and research, 334
data handling systems
  Animal Identification and Movement Systemis, 329 Herdfinder, 330 density of TB incidence, 336, 337 improvements in diagnostics anamnestic ELISA testing, 332–3
  Bovigam Interferon-γ (IFN-γ) assay, 332
  DNA fingerprinting, 333 measuring outcomes in context, 331 measuring performance in context EU-mandated annual screening program, 330 Irish eradication program, 330 ongoing research on immunodiagnostics badger IFN-γ assay, 334 DNA-based tests, PCR, 333 lymphocyte transformation assay, 334 MAPIA, 334
  sensitive and specific diagnosis of TB, badgers, 333–4 Stat-Pak rapid test, 334 isolation methods, M. bovis, 90 IS6110 restriction fragment length polymorphism (RFLP) typing, 81–2

Italy, BTB eradication
  biomolecular assay application, 364–5
diagnostic tools, M. bovis eradication and control, 362 European Union law, 366
  IFN-γ assay, 363–4, 364
Italy, BTB eradication (cont’d)

M. bovis prevalence, man and cattle-to-human-to-cattle transmission, 365–6 measures, organization of plan, 358

Mycobacterium bovis infection, wildlife, 360, 360–362, 361

national annual prevalence, infected herds, 358, 358

officially TB-free qualification, 358–60

KNP see Kruger National Park (KNP)

Korea, M. bovis infections in domestic and wild animals decreased period, 204
diagnosis
CMI or humoral immunity, 207–8 immunological methods, 207–8 PPD, 208

epidemic period, 204 eradication program annual skin testing, 207
BTB outbreaks, 207
Category 2 disease, 206
caudal-fold-tuberculin test, 206 controlling BTB, guidelines, 206 “test and slaughter”, 206 “test-suspect”, surveillance testing, 206–7 history and epidemiology, 204, 206 incidence rate, 204 “legal infectious diseases”, 203 outbreaks, cattle and deer, 204, 205, 206 prevalence, 204, 204
research
CMI-based diagnostic tests, 208
ELISA, 208
epidemiological characteristics, 209 multiplex real-time PCR, 208–9

Kruger National Park (KNP) disease, kudus, 103
molecular epidemiological work, 101, 102 strain and variants, buffalos, 102

latent tuberculosis infection (LTBI), 4, 22 lipoarabinomannan (LAM), 57 lymphoproliferative assay (LPA), 390

MAPIA see multiantigen print immuno assay (MAPIA)

M. bovis cases in U.S. cattle, 2001–2011 affected herds animal-level BTB prevalence, 256 beef/dairy/mixed herds, 255, 256 captive-cervid, 256–7 dairy herds
BTB strains, 257
Pasteurized Milk Ordinance testing, 257 potential of BTB, 257–8 slaughtering surveillance, 257 infected cattle in beef herds, 256 National BTB herd prevalence, 255–6 roping steers and rodeo event cattle, 258–9
sporadic beef cases, 258
unweighted within-herd BTB prevalence, 256
white-tailed deer, 256
BTB introduction, potential for, 260 granuloma submission, 254 humans to cattle transmission, 260 purchasing or leasing cattle, 259 slaughtering surveillance, 254–5, 255
U.S. dairy operations, 260 wildlife reservoir of BTB, 259–60

MDR-TB see multi-drug-resistant tuberculosis
(MDR-TB)

Mexico, BTB eradication program accredited veterinarians in ruminants, 305 Animal and Plant Health Inspection Offices (OISAs), 302
Animal Health’s General Directorate organization, chart, 294, 295
Animal Health State Committees (OASAs), 305, 306
cattle exports, 305 diagnosis infrastructure (laboratories), 307
epidemiology, 302
federal funds, SENASICA approved, 304
General Directorate of Zoosanitary Campaigns, 294, 296
historical perspectives
General Directorate of Agriculture, 292 National Control Program, 292 management of infected herds, 305 National Bovine Tuberculosis Program budget, 294, 296 skin test surveillance, 299–300 National Reference Laboratory (CENASA), 307 national system of movement control, 302 positive samples, epidemiological investigations, 298 Promotion and Protection Livestock State Committees (CFPPs), 305 quarantine issuance, 302 regionalization and status classification, 298, 302
SAGARPA, 291
SENASICA organization, chart, 294, 295 status classification SENASICA, 301 USDA, 303
strategic plan
clean large, BTB-affected dairy herds, 298 efficient communication and coordination, 297 funds and eliminating tuberculin reactor/exposed animals, 294 legal and regulatory framework, 294–7 ongoing training, 297 support research projects and new technologies, 297 veterinary services, restructuring, 294 United States-Mexico Binational Commission for BTB current Mexican BTB program, 293–4 industry-agency tuberculosis task force, 292 role of BNC, 293
TB committee, 293
microbial forensics approach, 84
Minnesota Department of Natural Resources (MNDNR), 273 molecular epidemiology, Mycobacterium bovis definition, 79
epigenetics, 86
techniques, genotyping see Molecular techniques, M. bovis WGS see whole genome sequencing (WGS) molecular techniques, M. bovis application, epidemiology cows, infection, 84 geographical origins, strains, 82–3 human-to-human transmission, 83–4 infection, human, 83 research, strains evolution, 85 transmission, species, 84
genotyping
IS6110 RFLP typing, 81–2
spoligotyping, 80–81, 81
VNTR typing, 82
MTBC see Mycobacterium tuberculosis complex (MTBC) multiantigen print immuno assay (MAPIA), 334 multi-drug-resistant tuberculosis (MDR-TB), 193, 213 mycobacterial interspersed repetitive unit–variable number of tandem repeat (MIRU-VNTR) genotypes identification, Michigan-origin cattle and wildlife, 94, 95 multilocus variable number tandem repeat analysis, 93 spoligotype SB0673, 95
and spoligotyping, 92
mycobacterial virulence factors complex lipids extraction, 57 cord factor, 57
glycolipid complexes, 57
LAM, 57
M. bovis proteins, 58, 59
pathogenicity, 57
sulfur-containing glycolipids, isolation, 57 virulent bovine tubercle bacilli, 57 Mycobacterium bovis infections Argentina
human TB, 38–40
TB in cattle, control methods, 36–8 Brazil
bovine TB control and eradication program, 40–41
in cattle, 40
human TB, 41–2
surveillance in abattoirs, 41
traceability and movement controls, 41
Chile
bovine TB control activities, 42–3
in humans, 43–4
Colombia, 44
Costa Rica, 44
direct detection see direct detection method,
M. bovis in tissues
Mycobacterium bovis infections (cont’d)
Ecuador, 45
molecular epidemiology see molecular epidemiology, Mycobacterium bovis mycobacteriology laboratory functions, 89 Nicaragua, 45
Uruguay
bovine TB control, 45–6 current program, 46
future, 46–7
human TB, 47
slaughterhouse surveillance, 46 Venezuela, 47
wildlife
molecular assays, microbiological techniques, 362 spatial distribution, cattle TB outbreaks, 360, 361 strains detection, wild boar specimens, 360, 360 Mycobacterium bovis transmission see animal to human transmission Mycobacterium tuberculosis complex (MTBC) badgers, maintenance, 352 composition, 21–2
contact investigations, 24 epidemiology and wild and domestic host species, 349 goats, maintenance in Spain, 351 humans tuberculosis, 22 human-to-animal and human-to-human transmission, 29–30 latent tuberculosis infection (LTBI), 22 primary host species, 24 public health officials, 24 radiologic imaging, 22 reactivation tuberculosis, 22 species, 22, 23
strains, 171 transmission prevention, 22
wildlife reservoirs, 352

National Tuberculosis Program’s (NTP) strategic plan, 176–7 National Veterinary Services Laboratories (NVSL) and CFIA-OLF, 90, 91 isolation, genotyping database, 93, 93 U.S. BTB program, 92
necropsy
DMI, 114
RAI, 114
sensitivity, 114–15
specificity, 115–16, 116
Nepal Elephant Tuberculosis Control and Management Action Plan, 192 Nepal, zoonotic tuberculosis elephants tuberculosis captive elephants, 192
Elephant TB STAT-PAK assay, 192
MDR tuberculosis, 193
Mycobacterium tuberculosis complex, 192
Nepal’s conservation program, 192
RT-PCR assays, 192
USDA-approved Elephant TB STAT-PAK assay, 192 tuberculosis in cattle and buffalo human infection with M. bovis, 193
One Health approach, 194
SID, USDA M. bovis PPD tuberculin, 193
XDR (extensively drug resistant) TB, 191 nested PCR (N-PCR) assay, 198
New Tuberculosis Eradication Uniform Methods and Rules for captive Cervidae, 265
New Zealand, zoonotic tuberculosis control and eradication of TB, wildlife ferret control, 230
national-scale TB control program, 230 “overkill” approach, 230 possum control, 230
“Proof of Freedom” framework, 231 wildlife TB control program, 230
M. bovis in livestock, control
possum control, 225
Slaughterhouse inspection, 225 test-and-cull program, dairy cattle, 224–5 tuberculin skin test, 224 vector risk areas (VRAs), 225
wildlife
feral ferrets, 227–8
feral pigs, 228
other species, 228
possums, 226–7
Seal TB, 229
wild and farmed deer, 227
zoonotic impact, 222
Index

NHPs see nonhuman primates (NHPs) Nicaragua, M. bovis infection, 45 Nigeria, BTB control in epidemiology of BTB, 150–151 human to human pulmonary transmission, 157 immunological and molecular tools, 151 lack of control measures, 156 modern immunological assays lack of expertise, 152 use of interferon gamma, 152 molecular epidemiology African 1 clonal complex, 152 deletion typing, 151 multiple locus VNTR analysis (MLVA), 151
spoligotyping, 151
variable number of tandem repeats (VNTR) typing, 151
nontuberculous mycobacteria (NTM), lesions in cattle, 157
on-farm surveillance/tuberculin screening, 150 poor laboratory services, 156–7 recommendations insurance schemes, 157 public and private partnership, 157 research and initiatives, 151 risk factors, control of BTB intrinsic factors, 153 unrestricted/indiscriminate movement of animals, 152
situation of bovine TB, 149 situation of human TB, 149
TB–HIV coinfection rate, 149
TB in wildlife and zoo animals, 156 transmission from cattle to humans, humans to humans, 154–5
tuberculin screening test (TST), 150 Ziehl Neelsen staining method, 151 zoonotic risks and transmission contact and ownership of cattle, 154 exposure, livestock workers, 153–4 Fulani pastoralists, 154 infected food products, 153 periurban livestock farming, 154 nonhuman primates (NHPs) culture, 392
diagnostic testing cell-mediated response, 388 culture and speciation, mycobacteria, 391 enzyme-linked immunosorbent assays, 390
in vitro assay, interferon gamma (IFN-g), 390 intradermal intrapaperial test, 388, 389 LPA, 390
nonspecific responses, 389 refinement, antibody assays, 391
TST, 388, 389
disease progression, 386 genus Mycobacterium, 383 gross pathology, 386–7, 387 hematologic, 392–3
histopathologic appearance, 387–8 infection, monkeys, 384 injection, eyelid, 384 Macaca muatta, 384
pathogenesis, 386
prevention and control institutions’ programs, 395 quarantine, 394 self-sustaining populations, 394 space, 395
treatment, tuberculosis, 395 radiographs, thorax, 391–2, 392 signs and symptoms, 385 staining, 392
veterinary practice, 385
“no visible lesion” (NVL) infections, 267, 334, 363
N-PCR see nested PCR (N-PCR) assay
NTE see United States National Tuberculosis Eradication (NTE) Program
NVSL see National Veterinary Services Laboratories (NVSL)
OHITF see One Health Initiative Task Force (OHITF)
One Health approach
acceptance
AVMA, 10
Ecosystem Health, 11 global health training, 10–11
OHC, 10
OHITF strategies, 10
surveillance programs, 11 World Bank recognition, 10
One Health approach (cont’d)

advantages combined public health and veterinary ministries, 12 economic costs, zoonotic diseases, 12 effective disease control programs, 11 human and veterinary medical professionals, coordination, 11 interdisciplinary, 12 joint animal-human vaccination campaigns, 12 surveillance programs, 11–12
systems theory, 12
wildlife conservation and ecosystem preservation, 12 zoonotic diseases management, 11

history animal and human diseases, associations, 9–10 milk-borne diseases, 10 Minamata disease, 9–10 human and animal medicine, integration education and active participation, 15 livestock BTB, 14
test-and-cull policies, affected animals, 14 in wildlife reservoirs, 14 human and veterinary resources sharing educational efforts, 16 health sciences workers training, 16 research sharing, between disciplines diagnostic tools, 17–18 HALI program, 17
ILIAD program, 17
livestock and wildlife vaccination, 18
SACIDS, 17
TB vaccines development, 18
TBVAC Consortium, 18 vaccine delivery systems, 18 surveillance, diagnosis, and control programs, 19 zoonotic TB, control programs, 13–16
One Health Commission (OHC), 10
One Health Initiative Task Force (OHITF), 10

Pakistan, tuberculosis in animals control program housing system and environmental conditions, 187 husbandry practices, 188

One Health Initiative, 188–9 private farms, 187
test-and-cull programs in livestock, 188 large ruminants and risk association, prevalence AFB in milk samples, 183 analysis of variance technique, 185
bivariate frequency analysis, 185
culture isolation method, 183
genetic-based drug susceptibility testing, 183 logistic regression model, 184 PCR-based diagnostic tools, 182 skin test-positive animals, 183–4 tuberculin testing, 181–3, 182 small ruminants and risk association, prevalence, 186 zoo animals, prevalence, 186–7 Pasteurized Milk Ordinance testing, 257 pathogenesis tuberculosis, by Mycobacterium bovis aerosol exposure, 53–4 asymptomatic cattle, analysis, 55 cell-mediated immune (CMI) responses, 54 cellular responses, 54
effector mechanisms
CD8 T cells activation, 60
IFN-gamma production, 59 innate immunity, 59
macrophage activation, 59–60 macrophages lysis, 61
“pathogen–associated molecular patterns”, 59 “pattern recognition receptors”, 59 protein-arabinomannan, conjugated vaccine, 60 tuberculin skin test, 60–61
genomics and evolutionary implications ancestral M. canettii strain, mycobacterial pathogens, 53 BCG, 52
human-adapted variety, 52 point mutation, 52 sequence changes, 52
granuloma formation, 54–5 intracellular location, phagocytic cells acid-fast bacilli, localization, 56–7 actin tail formation, 56
ESAT-6 homologue, 55
H37Rv virulent and H37Ra avirulent, 55 mouse peritoneal macrophages, 55 myeloid cells, subcellular pathway, 55, 56 phagosomes, 55
lung and associated lymph nodes, 54 mycobacterial virulence factors, 57–9 tuberculin skin sensitivity, 53 PCR see polymerase chain reaction (PCR) polymerase chain reaction (PCR) acid-fast bacteria, 90 direct PCR, fresh, 90
genotyping techniques, 91 and hybridization technique, 80, 81 in-house assays, 91
PPD see purified protein derivative (PPD) PPD skin test, 217
prescapular lymph gland biopsy (PSLG), 199 prevention of M. bovis infection infection in humans, 73 infection in livestock premovement testing of cattle, 72
tuberculin skin test, 72
infection in wildlife, 72
“Proof of Freedom” framework, 231
PSLG see prescapular lymph gland biopsy (public health significance animal to human transmission Mycobacterium bovis, 25–8 Mycobacterium tuberculosis, 28–9 historical background, 24–5 outbreaks of tuberculosis in animals, 30 purified protein derivative (PPD) concentration, 390
M. bovis and M. avium, 390, 393
vs. MOT, 388
RAI see routine abattoir inspection (RAI) real-time reverse transcription-polymerase chain reaction (RT-PCR) assays, 192 Reform law, 1978, 357
Republic of Serbia, BTB animal gathering management, 310 animal species, period 2002–2012, 313, 314 biosecurity measures, 312 control policy formalin fixation, 310
granuloma program, 312
holdings and cattle, 2002–2012, 310, 311 intradermal tuberculin testing, 312 epidemiological situation European Commission documentation, 315 monitoring, cattle population, 318 national bovine tuberculosis eradication program, 318 herd-level characteristics BTB cases, cattle, 315, 320 geospatial distribution, 315, 319 measurements, correlation, 315, 316 odds ratio, strata, 315, 318 prevalence period in cattle, 2002–2012, 315, 316 relative risk, strata, 315, 318 stratum-specific epidemiological data, 315, 317 histopathological examination, lungs, 310 molecular epidemiological studies, 321 prevalence, 313, 313
stratification, size of holdings, 313, 313 tuberculin test, 321 type, cattle production, 312 restricted area plan’s approach, 287 Rhodococcus equi, 374
routine abattoir inspection (RAI), 114–15 RT-PCR see real-time reverse transcription-polymerase chain reaction (RT-PCR) assays SACIDS see Southern Center for Infectious Disease Surveillance (SACIDS)
SAGARPA, 291
sequencing technology, 96 SID see single intradermal skin test (SID) single cervical test (SCT), 36, 271 single intradermal cervical comparative tuberculin test (SICCT), 324–5 single intradermal skin test (SID), 193 single intradermal tuberculin test (SITT) European Union regulation, 363
IFN-γ test, 363
Italian eradication scheme, 359 single nucleotide polymorphism (SNP) profiling and deletion typing, 85 development, 85
and microarrays, 96
SITT see single intradermal tuberculin test (SITT)

South Africa, tuberculosis in animals
- closed clonies, 106
- livestock, 100

Mycobacterium bovis infections see Mycobacterium bovis infections

wildlife
- BCG vaccination, African buffalos, 104
- buffalos, lesion distribution pattern, 103
- domesticated cattle and wildlife, 105–6
- epidemiological cycle, diseases, 105
- farming practices, 101
- kudus, KNP, 103
- molecular epidemiological work, 101, 102
- ranching, 100–101
- situation, lions, 104
- testing, animals, 103

Southern Center for Infectious Disease Surveillance (SACIDS), 17

Spain, animal TB
- badger and hosts, 353
- cattle, 349–51, 350
- goat, 351
- MTBC reservoirs, 352
- pig, 351–2
- red and fallow deer, 353
- research and control, 354–5
- strain diversity and zoonotic TB, 353–4
- wild boar, 352–3

spoligotyping
- isolates, NVSL’s genotyping database, 93, 93
- membrane, 93, 93

Sudan, BTB control status animal level risk factors
- age, 166
- breed, 166
- gender, 166

cattle-to-cattle transmission via fecal-oral route
- contact between animals, 168
- movement of livestock, 168

challenges
- culling of wild species, 172
- future management of BTB, 173
- hosts in wildlife populations, maintenance, 172
- husbandry practices, 172

diagnosis
- antemortem inspection, 164–5
- cultures of tissues, 164
- detection rate of TB lesions, 164
- mycobacterial culture, 165–6
- polymerase chain reaction (PCR), 165
- Ziehl-Neelsen’s staining, 164–5 distribution and prevalence data, 163

- movement of cattle, 161, 162
- tuberculin skin test (TST), 161, 163 farming system and housing of cattle, 167 herd-level risk factors, management, 167 HIV/AIDS epidemic, 160

human consumption, 159

pathology
- diagnostic methods, 163
- granulomatous lesions formation, 163 public health

- HIV prevalence, 171
- MTBC strains, 171

region/country level risk factors
- international trade and transborder movements, cattle, 170
- prevalence and antecedents, 170

wildlife
- “multispecies host-pathogen system”, Africa, 169
- transmission rates, 169–70

surveillance for M. bovis
- goals, 68

human
- primary routes of infection, 70
- pulmonary infection, 70

livestock
- antemortem evaluations, 68
- gamma interferon assay, 69
- inflammation and swelling, 68–9
- slaughterhouse carcass inspection, 69

wildlife, 69
- diagnostic tests, 69
- lack of denominator data, 69

- test-and-cull programs in livestock, 188
- test-and-slaughter approach, 125, 206
TFAP see Tuberculosis Freedom Assurance Program (TFAP)

“The Future of the National Tuberculosis Program”, 248

“three Hs”, prevalence of TB high drug resistance, 213 high morbidity, 213 high mortality, 213

transmission of M. bovis
  humans and animals agricultural workers, 68 consumption of infected offal, 68 hunters and abattoir workers, 68 ingestion of unpasteurized milk, 68

lesions, 66

livestock and wildlife direct contact, 67 mathematical models, 68

within livestock hosts aerosol transmission, 67 pseudovertical transmission, cattle, 67 location of tuberculous lesions, 66

main routes, 66

within wildlife hosts infection more than once, 67 inhalation of aerosols, 67

TST see tuberculin skin test (TST)

tuberculin skin test (TST) advantage, 390
  NHPs, 388
  palpebral, 393
  surveillance, BTB, 164
  validation, 113

Tuberculosis Freedom Assurance Program (TFAP), 224 tuberculosis, in animals and humans human-to-human transmission, 5 immunocompromised persons, 5 investigations, 5

  M. bovis disease, 5
  M. tuberculosis complex, 3 pulmonary and systemic disease, 4 susceptibility, 4
  tubercle bacillus, 3–4

Uganda, BTB caused by M. bovis control programs, 143 diagnostics abattoir inspection, 141

antemortem skin testing, 141 auramine staining, 142 molecular typing (spoligotyping), 142
  mycobacterial culture, 142 PCR-based spoligotyping, 142

future of BTB constraints, 144
  One Health paradigm, 145 surveillance and control program, FAO, 144–5 humans, epidemiology cervical lymphadenitis, 141 livestock husbandry practices, 140 humans, pathology transmission, ingestion of raw milk and meat, 137 zoonotic transmission of BTB, 137 humans, prevalence of BTB, 135 livestock, epidemiology agro-ecological zones (AEZs), 138 animal contact, 137

  animal factors, 139–40
  animal movement, 137 influence of AEZ, 139
  interspecies interactions, 138
  susceptibility, 140
  transmission of MAP, 138

livestock, pathology alimentary tract infection, 136 tuberculous granulomas, 136

livestock, prevalence of BTB PCR-based spoligotyping, 134 postmortem inspection surveys, 134 at slaughter, 134
  spoligotypes recovered from various hosts, 134 tuberculin skin testing, 134

mycobacteria other than tuberculosis (MOTT) isolation, 136
  MTBC, 136

National Animal Disease Diagnostic and Epidemiology Center, 143

surveillance programs
  antemortem testing, 143 meat inspection at slaughterhouses, 143 wildlife, prevalence of BTB, 135 United States, BTB eradication

- BTB in livestock, 272
  - captive cervids see captive cervids
- cervical tuberculin test, 237
- CFT test, 238, 238
- cost-benefit analyses, 239
- diagnostic tests performance, 246–7
- economics, 247
- epidemiological tools application
  - molecular techniques, 242
  - surveillance activities, 242–3
  - tracing cattle movements, 242
- eradication programs, 266
- federal Meat Inspection Act, 236
- federal/state/industry cooperation, 239–40
- free-roaming cervids see free-roaming cervids
- gamma interferon test, 237
- herd and area classification systems, use
  - “modified accredited” for BTB, 241
- state statuses, 241, 242
  - “tuberculosis-free accredited herds”, 241
- high-risk subpopulations of livestock
  - Canadian-origin cattle, 245
  - cattle from Mexico, 245
- historical perspectives, 235–7
- indemnity funding availability, 240–241
- livestock industries, changes in structure
  - captive cervids, 244
  - large dairy herds, 243–4
  - role of traceability, 244–5
- low initial prevalence and emphasis, 240
- M. bovis infections in humans, reduction, 238–9
- new approach, management of BTB
  - change in policy-affected herds, 248–9
- public meetings and symposium, 248
- TB/brucellosis working group and regulatory framework, 250
- TB concept paper, 249
- TB federal order, 249–50
- pasteurization of milk, 236
- pathology/clinical presentation
  - BTB-positive white-tailed deer, 267
  - lymph node lesions, 267
  - NVL infections, wildlife, 267
  - red deer, 267
- prevalence reduction in cattle, 237–8
- public health risks, 265
- resurgence of BTB, 236
- Tuberculosis Eradication Division, 236
- wildlife reservoirs, 246
- United States Department of Agriculture’s (USDA) National Bovine Tuberculosis (TB) Eradication Program, 235
- United States National Tuberculosis Eradication (NTE) Program, 263
- Uruguay, Mycobacterium bovis infection
  - bovine TB control, 45–6
  - current program, 46
  - future, 46–7
  - human TB, 47
- USAHA see U.S. Animal Health Association (USAHA)
- U.S. Animal Health Association (USAHA), 282
- 1999 USDA-APHIS Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Uniform Methods and Rules, 270–271
- USDA-approved Elephant TB STAT-PAK assay, 192
- U.S. National Tuberculosis Eradication Program, 253
- variable nucleotide tandem repeats (VNTR) analysis, 326
- variable-number tandem repeat (VNTR) typing
  - genotyping strains methods, M. bovis, 81, 82
  - and spoligotyping, 83–5
- vector risk areas (VRAs), 225
- Venezuela, Mycobacterium bovis infection, 47
- Veterinary Services Department (VSD), 178–9
- Virus Serum Toxin Act, 279
- VNTR see variable nucleotide tandem repeats (VNTR) analysis
- VRAs see vector risk areas (VRAs)
- VSD see Veterinary Services Department (VSD)
- WGS see whole genome sequencing (WGS)
- whole genome sequencing (WGS)
  - advantage, M. bovis routine surveillance, 86
  - decrement, cost, 85
  - microarrays and SNPs, 96
  - NVSL, 96
SNP profiling method, 85–6 software programs, 97 wildlife and BTB eradication program, Ireland animals per thousand tests (APT), 336, 337 badgers, 325, 338
current wildlife program badgers, removal, 327 badger vaccine development program, 327 strategic badger cull program, 327 sustained cattle testing, 327 Four Area project, 325 future progress, 338 initial BTB eradication program bovine-to-bovine transmission, 324 CVERA, 324
ERAD, 324
future policy direction, 324–5 initial voluntary pilot eradication program, 324 SICTT, 324–5
M. bovis infection in badgers, epidemiology, 326 proactive badger, removal, 325 program quality assurance, 331–2 ractor animals, 336, 336 transmission pathways, M. bovis, 326, 326 vaccination studies bait-uptake studies, 329 capture/vaccinate/release protocol, 328 framework-supported research program, 328 in vivo diagnostic tests, 328 injectable BCG vaccine, 328 optimal vaccination strategies, 329 variable nucleotide tandem repeats (VNTR) analysis, 326
zoonotic TB, control programs BTB infection, sources, 15 infection route, 15–16
livestock management practices, 13
M. bovis and M. tuberculosis, isolation, 15 mycobacterial species, differentiation, 13–14 wildlife disease detection and surveillance programs, 16 wildlife reservoirs, 15