Contents

Preface vii

Introduction ix

1 Courage: The daring of Ramesses II at Kadesh 1

2 Risk taking: Thutmose III’s handling of his forces 15

3 The ability to motivate: The military revolution of Wuling 29

4 Creating a compelling vision: The commoner emperor Liu Bang 45

5 Developing people: The Han emperor Wu Di’s approach 57

6 Focusing on results: The strategy of Themistocles 73

7 Integrity: The political supremacy of Pericles 89

8 Taking decisive action: The critical decisions of Epaminondas 103
9 Influencing people: Alexander’s multi-ethnic kingdom 117
10 Leaving a legacy: The abdication of Candragupta 135
11 Representing the business: Hannibal’s invasion of Italy 151
12 Creativity: The resourcefulness of Zhu Geliang 167
13 Learning: Li Shimin and Wei Zheng 183
14 Change: Sulla’s constitutional reforms 199
15 Networking: Cicero’s efforts to find allies 215
16 Dealing with conflict: The policies of Vespasian 231
17 Empowerment: Diocletian’s imperial reforms 249
18 Recognising achievement: The triumph of Belisarius 265
19 Winning as a leader 281

Suggestions for further reading 297

Index 311