abilities, doubting, 202
acceptable loss–potential gain model, 142–147
Access to Employability Programme, 112, 116–121
evaluation, 120–121
structure, 116–120 student access to, 116
work placement, 119–120
workshops, 117–119
barriers to employment, 118–119 disclosure of dyslexia, 118 employer/recruiter talk, 118 future suggestions, 120–121
by year groups, 117–118 Access to Work scheme, 97, 113, 170, 177 coaching provision, 171 funding of reasonable adjustments, 171 workplace assessment, 182 accessibility, eLearning and online documents, 86, 87 accommodation (integration of positive notion into sense of self), 18 AcrossRCA initiative, 79
action words, 57
Adult Basic Education, 13
Adult Reading Test (ART), 95
‘alienated’, feeling of, 47
Alpha to Omega, 173 alternative (alt) text tags, 87 alternatives, ability to try, 200
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 136
Amendments 2008, 136
analogies, use of, 165 anger management, 173 anxiety, 27
over computer use, 104 over disclosure to employers, 118 over work, 27, 105
social, 61
Arial font, 186–192
art and design institutions, number of dyslexic students, 185 artists and designers, dyslexic, 199–200 assessment of dyslexia see screening Assessment of Needs, 60–61, 103
assessment report, 60–61
assistive technology, 61–62, 103–104 accessibility of online materials, 85, 87 in higher education, 61–62, 85–88
on USB pen drives, 88
in workplace, 159, 173
Association for Adult Attention Deficit Disorder, 38
Association for Graduate Careers Advisory Services (AGCAS) Disabilities Task Group, 113–114
Association for Adult Attention Deficit Disorder, 38
Association for Graduate Careers Advisory Services (AGCAS) Disabilities Task Group, 113–114
Association of Dyslexia Specialists in Higher Education (ADSHE), 43 guidelines for support, 102 Assurance of Academic Quality and Standards in Higher Education, Code of Practice, 4–5
‘At Risk Quotient’ (ARQ), 36
ATbar toolbar, 89 attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder, 3 screening test, 37–38
Audacity (software), 76 aural feedback, 61, 85
Index

awareness training, on dyslexia, 158–159
Metropolitan police and London Fire Brigade, 160–161

Bangor Dyslexia Test (BDT), 33, 34
scoring system, 36
subtests, 36, 38
University of Worcester experience, 35, 36
University of Worcester test package, 39, 41

Being Dyslexia website, 70 blended learning, 85
Boolean search, 88

brain
deficit, 15
‘left brain’ skills, 199
right hemisphere development, 199

Branson, Richard, 204

British Dyslexia Association (BDA), 33, 102 font recommendation, 185–186, 191 International Conference (2008), on disclosure, 118 support for adult learners, 167–176 see also specialist SpLD tutors

browsers, 84, 86
improving webpage accessibility, 89 spell-checkers, 89

BTEC, 26
‘buddy’ support, 30
BUG method©, 55–57
bullying, 154

calculated risk, 142
call centres, 174

Campaigners discourse, 19 career paths, 2, 131 career programmes, 113
Careers Service, 115
Catell, James, 186
Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning in Design (CETLD), 76 charity, for schoolchildren with dyslexia/dyspraxia, 82 chunking, 47, 106

ClaroRead, 87, 89

coaching, 161–163
by BDA, Access to Work programme, 171
case study, 163–164
concept and relationship-based, 161–162 failure to attend, 171 focus and aims, 162
goal setting, 164
learning process, 162 organization and delivery, 171 self-advocacy development, 164–165

skills required for, 174–175 by specialist SpLD tutors, 171, 174–175 timescale, 175
coaching partnership, 162–163
Code of Practice on Further and Higher Education, 63 cognitive strategy instruction (CSI), 52, 53 see also metacognitive strategy instruction collaborative dialogues, 54 colour overlays, 97 communication culture, 157–158 compensatory strategies, 3–4, 18
comprehension, 94
reading see reading comprehension cravings over use, 104
see also assistive technology concept mapping, 61, 69, 168 see also mind mapping

Confederation of British Industry Higher Education Task Force (2009) report, 113 content management systems, 84 continuous professional development (CPD), 176 coping strategies, 82, 109 non-disclosure reason, 109, 130, 151 specialist SpLD tutor help with, 171–173 counselling skills, 66, 107 course materials (university), 66, 70
eLearning, 84–85
‘creative functioning’, 203 creativity, and dyslexia, 197–205 alternative and fresh approaches, 200 challenging of conventions/assumptions, 198 critical reflection on ideas/actions/outcomes, 200
definition, 200
environment effect, 204
envisaging what might be, 199 intellectual abilities and, 201–202 inventive connections, 198–199 knowledge and, 202
motivation, 204
persistence despite resistance, 200–201 personality and, 203–204 thinking styles, 202–203 criticisms, 200
see also negative views of dyslexic-type difficulties
cruelty, after disclosure of dyslexia, 155 cultural barrier, 19 customer service methods, 170 ‘cycle of self-regulated behaviour’, 162 da Vinci, Leonardo, 199 decision-making skills, 54, 55

  self-advocacy and, 143
decoding (in reading), 92 deficits in dyslexia, 92–94 non-decoded words inferred, 92–93
  strategies for improving, 94–97
  comprehension not improved, 96 supportive strategies, 94 detection of dyslexia see diagnosis/detection of dyslexia

Developmental Coordination Disorder (DCD) see dyspraxia developmental disorders, 3 developmental typeface testing, 185, 187–188 dyslexic vs non-dyslexic readers, 188 findings and analysis, 191–192 formative stage, 188–190 summative stage, 188, 190
  evaluation, 191–192
see also Sylexiad typeface/font; typography diagnosis/detection of dyslexia, 44 delayed, damage by, 39, 41 handwriting checklist, 189 specialist SpLD tutors and, 168 undiagnosed dyslexia, 149–151, 156, 182 at university/as adult, 130–131 see also screening
digit span test, 35, 37, 38, 39 digital talking books, format, 86 digital voice recorder, 61 Dine typefaces, 188–190, 192
  Dine 1 (monocase), 189, 191
  Dine 2 (duocase), 189
  Dine 3, 189, 191
origin of name, 188–189 disability, 72
  dyslexia as, 4, 13, 60, 177
  medical model, 59–60, 66 as physical/mental shortcoming, 19 social model, 19–20, 60, 66
disability discrimination employment, 181–184
  further education, 180–181 higher education, 181
  schools, 178–180
  amendments (2001), [2005], 178
  impact, on disclosure, 142 knowledge by specialist SpLD tutors, 170
Disability Equality Duty, 177
Disability Equality Scheme, 177 ‘disabled students’, caution over treatment as separate category, 27

Disabled Students’ Allowance (DSA), 43, 59, 74, 112 aids/support funded by, 34, 100 awareness of by students, 24 student response to, and tutors advice, 66 disciplinary procedure, 170–171 disclosure form, 109 disclosure of dyslexia, to employers, 2, 125–135, 136–148, 151 acceptable loss–potential gain model, 142–147 Access to Employability Programme workshop, 118–119
  case study, 145–146
  context and situation for, 140, 143
  definition, 136
  education of employer after, 132–133, 141 Internal Decisions vs External Manifestations, 144 legal aspects, 137–138, 142, 144, 151, 182 mentoring after, 109 negative effects, 2, 140, 146–148, 152, 197 cruelty, 154
    hostility after, 154
    lack of understanding, 154–155, 197 resentment, 152–153
  no legal requirement for, 182 non-disclosure see non-disclosure of dyslexia personal choice, 137, 144 positive effects, 109, 140, 152 adjustments after, 134, 138, 152–153 improved self-awareness, 140, 147
    in USA, 138
    reactions to/support after, 140, 151–152 reasons for disclosing, 109, 126, 132, 158 receptive environment for, 140, 143 reframing and, 144–146 requirement, for Access to Work Scheme, 97 risk assessment for, 143–144 risks inherent, 146
  self-advocacy and, 142–144
  student views, 119, 125–136 study/questionnaire on, 125–136 disclosure reasons, 130 discussion of findings, 131–133 non-disclosure reasons, 129–130 non-UK residents, 129–130 online, limitations/advantages, 132 questionnaire and method, 126–127, 132 reported difficulties, 128 response rate, 127
  results, 127–130
  self-reported problems, 127
Index

disclosure of dyslexia, to employers (cont'd) self-reported strengths, 128 types of employment, 128–129 UK pilot study, 138–143 face-to-face interview method, 139 research questions/findings, 139–141
In USA, 138, 144
  what to say, 134
  when to disclose, 132–133 whom to tell, 133–134
  work placement, 109–110
disclosure of dyslexia, to friends/family/community, 141–143, 150 discourses on dyslexia, 18 discrimination against dyslexic persons, 1 fear of
    in final-year students, 115 reason for non-disclosure to employer, 129–130, 131 illegality, 1, 4
    in workplace, types of discrimination, 181–182 discussion forums, 85
dismissal of employee, 170 distance learning, 85
drawing, dyslexia and, 79–82, 198, 199 Dreyer, William, 201
dyscalculia, 3
dysgraphia, 3
dyslexia, 149
  compensatory strategies, 3–4, 18
  definition, 2–3, 197
  as disability, 4, 13, 60, 177 hidden nature, 133, 137, 138, 143, 155, 157 impact on individual, 4, 157 as learning difference, 4, 60, 74, 146, 149 legal view, 4–5 negative views see negative views of dyslexic type difficulties outcomes/prognosis, 137 positive views see positive perception of dyslexia as problem in education but not workplace, 133 signs in adulthood, 4 socio-emotional aspects see socio-emotional aspects strengths/weaknesses in, 4, 61, 127, 128, 150, 162–163 students see university students (dyslexic)
  as variation of 'normal' brain function, 20 within-person deficit model, 71 see also specific topics on dyslexia Dyslexia Action (Dyslexia Institute), 33, 192 Dyslexia Adult Screening Test (DAST), 33, 35 in best combination screening test, 37, 41
  digit span test, 35, 37, 38, 41
  scoring system, 35–36
  sensitivity and specificity, 35
  subtests included, 35
University of Worcester experience, 35
dyslexia advisers
  in Metropolitan Police Service, 161 see also support tutors (university/work placement) Dyslexia and Disability Service (DDS), 37
  'Dyslexia Clinic', 71–72
dyslexia coaching, 162
Dyslexia College website, 70
  'dyslexia-friendly' institution, 70, 75 dyslexia support tutorials see tutorials (dyslexia support) dyslexia support tutors see support tutors (university/work placement) dyslexikit, 173
dyspraxia, 3, 33
  characteristics, checklist, 38 difficulties, at Royal School of Art, 75 disclosure and reasons for, 152 cruelty after, 155
  screening test, 37
education, previous (basic/inadequate), 43, 44, 46, 102, 169
effects, 44, 48
  reteaching of basic concepts, 45, 106 subject-based support for, 48 see also higher education educational barrier, 19, 20 educational system (Western), 23 shortcomings for dyslexic pupils, 20 transitions in, 23
eLearning, 84–86
  advantages and flexibility of use, 85 assessment and review in, 86 book conversion to interactive files, 86 clear presentation of materials, 88–89 online discussions, 85, 89
  online document accessibility, 85, 87, 88–89 personal preferences, setting up, 85 platforms, applications and eSkills, 86–88 Statement of Technology, 88
  strategies for improving, 88–89
  text-to-speech, 85, 88
email addresses, problems in disclosure survey, 126–127 Emin, Tracey, 198
emotional issues, 65–66, 74, 106–107 in coaching, in workplace, 162 empathy, specialist SpLD tutors, 173 employability

dyslexic vs non-dyslexic graduates, 113–114 extra-curricular activities importance, 115, 116 as Key Performance Indicator for HE institutions, 121 undergraduate concerns over, 115

employers
awareness of and lookout for dyslexia, 156, 182 awareness training, 159 concealing of exclusion strategy, 197 concerns over acceptance of impairments, 118 difficult working relationship with employee, 172 disability discrimination, 181–184
burden of proof, 183 compensation liability, 181 Malcolm case, 182
no cap on compensation, 183
time limits, 183–184 disclosure to see disclosure of dyslexia, to employers dyslexia seen as weakness, 130, 131 education on dyslexia after disclosure, 132–133, 141 lack of understanding on dyslexia, 153, 155, 156, 157 improving, 159, 160
manager, at coaching by specialist SpLD tutors, 172 manager’s role, for dyslexic person’s success, 160 training of key staff on dyslexia, 182–183 employment (dyslexic person) ability to do job, non-disclosure and, 129–130, 131 barriers to, 118–119 disclosure barriers see non-disclosure of dyslexia grievance, disciplinary and capability procedures, 170 impact of undergraduate support on, 113–114
job retention, 114
lack of awareness by colleagues, 153, 155, 156 training in awareness, 170 literacy problems impact on, 93 number of jobs held by dyslexic graduates, 129, 133 numbers of dyslexic graduates in, 113–114 office-based, assistive technology for, 159 organization role in support, 158–159 preparation for see preparation for work reasonable adjustments for, 5, 134, 138, 153, 158
assistive technology, 159
resolution of difficulties, 155 transition to see transitions
undergraduate concerns over, 115
unsupported vs supported dyslexic graduates, 121 whole-organization culture change, 155, 159 see also workplace
employment law, 170
employment practices, knowledge by SpLD tutors, 170 employment tribunal, 178, 183 empowerment, 136 entrepreneurs, dyslexic, 203 environment, supportive, for creativity, 205 equality, 72
Equality Act (2010), 4, 62, 63, 109, 177, 182–183 burden of proof shift, 183 disabled person definition, 177 knowledge by specialist SpLD tutors, 170
no cap on compensation, 183
in workplace, 181–184
Equality Impact Assessments, 177 equipment for support in higher education, 61–62
see also assistive technology
eSkills, 86–88
assistive technology use, 86–87 Boolean searches, 88
essay writing linear thought and, 61
metacognitive strategy instruction, 54–55 evidence-based dyslexia support, 2 examinations
alternatives, 69, 70
arrangements, 67
students’ strategy for, 68–69 exclusion, of dyslexic people, 197 executive coaching, 162 executive functioning, 162 experiential perspective, 15–19 awareness of differences from peers, 16 changing personal perceptions, 16–17 dyslexia label, making sense of difficulties, 17, 18 teachers’ attitudes, 16, 17, 107 External Manifestations, loss and gain in dyslexia, 144 extra-curricular activities, importance for employability, 115, 116 Fairley House School, 79 familial incidence, in screening test, 35, 37 Faraday, Michael, 199 fashion industry and dyslexia, 80–81 fonts ‘standard’, 188
see also typefaces
further education, support in, 141 disability discrimination and, 180–181 gap years, 24
glance back, in BUG method©, 55, 56, 57 ‘goodness of fit’, 131, 134 Google, 88, 89, 90
graduateness, notion of, 50 graduates career paths and ‘goodness of fit’, 131 destinations/employability, 113–114, 115 disclosure to employers see disclosure of dyslexia, to employers dyslexic vs non-disabled, employment, 113–114
job retention, 114
numbers employed vs unemployed, 113–114
professional careers, 113
see also university students (dyslexic) Hampshire, Susan, 198
handwriting checklist, diagnostic, 189 health education field, 168
Heideggerian phenomenology, 47
Helvetica font, 186
Hemispherist discourse, 18–19
higher education, 60–61
disability discrimination, 181
employability as Key Performance Indicator, 121 preparation for see preparation for higher education screening in, 35
support for transition to work, 115–116 support in see support in higher education traditional methods vs virtual environments, 66 transition to, from school see transitions transition to work from see transitions see also universities
High Education Academy (HEA), 62–63
Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE), 112
Higher Education Institutions (HEIs), duty for screening/detection, 33–35 Hodgkin, Howard, 204
homophones, 97
hostility, after disclosure of dyslexia, 153–155 humiliation, 6, 16, 155 imagination, 202
inclusive learning, 29, 66, 70–71 vs specialist provision for transition to work, 115–116
inclusive teaching, reasons, 63
Individualized Education Program (IEP), 143
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) (USA), 137, 138
information technology dyslexia support, 103–104, 158 as problem in dyslexia, 158
see also assistive technology
innovators, 117 insight, 199, 201
instant messaging, 86 intellectual abilities/skills, 201–202 intelligence, in dyslexia, 18 non-verbal, test, 41 working memory discrepancy, 38 Interaction Design, 80
Internal Decisions, 144 Internet
assistive technology for online documents, 85, 87 online text editors, 89 ‘screen mask’, 87
see also browsers
Internet Explorer, 89
interviews, practising, workshops required on, 120 invisibility, of dyslexia, 133, 137, 138, 143, 155, 157
jargon, in workplace, 173 keywords, in text, 95 knowledge, 202 development/construction, 14, 16 explicit vs ‘knowability of world’, 202 label
as disabled, 60
living with, 18, 146
language
abstract, linking to actions, 54, 55, 56, 57 in BUG method©, 55–57
constitutive aspects, 14 ‘everyday’, translating academic text into, 45 structures, teaching, 54 late diagnosis of dyslexia, 130–131 lateral thinking, 198–199, 203 learned helplessness, 13 learners independent/self-managing, 52 taking an active role, 52 learning, 51
adult, principles, 168–169 blended, 85
communication devices used in, 84 electronic see eLearning facilitated by dyslexia support tutorials, 103 maturation of, as continuum, 168 motivation, loss in adults, 169 personalized, 52 process in coaching, 162 self-management, 52
BUG method©, 55–57
stages, developmental progression, 53 styles, 169, 202
through demonstrations, 76 understanding meaning of, 48 ‘learning difference’, dyslexia as, 4, 60, 74, 146, 149 ‘learning difficulty’, 60 learning disabilities, terminology, USA, 138 ‘learning disabled’, 66 learning materials, eLearning, development, 84 learning styles, 169, 203 learning support service (university), 30, 72 lectures, students’ strategy, 68 ‘left brain’ skills, 199–200
left/right confusion, 35 legal aspects, dyslexia, 4–5 of disclosure, 137, 138, 142, 144, 151, 182 entitlement to support, 4 universities, 62
see also Disability Discrimination Act (1995) legislative thinking style, 203 Leonardo da Vinci, 199 letter-reversal difficulties, 191 LexDis guides, 87, 90
life coaching, 107
linear thought, 61, 69, 75 listening comprehension, 92 listening skills, specialist SpLD tutors, 174 literacy, 91
characteristics in adult dyslexia, 93–94 improving, in workplace, 97 problems, 15, 36, 44, 47, 91, 157 dyslexia diagnosis and, 44 impact on employment, 93 at university, 44, 48, 91, 93–94
in workplace, 2, 91, 172–173 teaching, funding for, 173 see also reading ‘living with the label’, 18
London Fire Brigade, 161
Lucid Adult Dyslexia Screening Test (LADS), 34 comparison with other methods, 36, 37 non-verbal intelligence, 39 results and ‘borderline’ risk, 36
subtests, 36, 39
University of Worcester experience, 36
University of Worcester test package, 39, 41 working memory task, 38
Malcolm vs. the London Borough of Lewisham (2008), 182
Matrices subtest, 39
Matsuszowicz vs. Kingston upon Hull Council, 184 Meares–Irlen syndrome, 3, 33
as predictor of SpLD, 37 screening, 36–37, 38
website, 37
see also visual stress (glare) ‘mediated learning experience’, 53 medical model of disability, 59–60, 66 memory, working see working memory memory techniques, 46 mental impairment, definition, 4 mentoring, 161
mentoring scheme, in workplace, 97 mentors, work placement disclosure of dyslexia to, 109 guidance by support tutors, 110–111 metacognition, 48, 52, 54 reading comprehension strategy, 95 reading difficulties and, 92 metacognitive interrogation, 55, 56
metacognitive strategy instruction, 51–57 bottom-up and top-down concepts, 54
BUG method©, 55–57
teaching framework elements, 52–53 apprenticeship/modelling, 53–54 cognitive strategy instruction, 53 developmental progression, 53 example (essay writing), 54–55 operating/method of use, 54–55 Metropolitan Police, awareness training and support, 160–161
midwifery staff, disclosure of dyslexia, 110 mind mapping, 61, 65, 69, 95, 168 ADSHE guidelines for support, 102 online tools, 90 for reading comprehension, 97 mobile phone, 84
model, practise and review cycle, 104 monitoring, adult learners, 175
motivation, 204
of adult learners, 169, 175 intrinsic, for creativity, 204 support tutor’s role, 107–109
Mozilla Firefox, 89
multi-sensory technique, 44 multimedia content, courses, 85 multiple-choice questions, difficulties, 200 multisensory approaches, adult learning, 169, 172 multitasking, 55–56 musical notation, reading, 80 negative views of dyslexic-type difficulties, 13, 20, 74, 107 case report, 150–151 doubting of abilities, 202 by employers and colleagues, 152 impact of teachers, 16, 107 neurodiversity, 72
Neveroddoreven art and research project, 192 non-disclosure of dyslexia effects, 96–97, 144
reasons, 118, 125, 126, 129–130, 137, 151 anxiety about outcome, 118, 149 discrimination fear, 129–130, 129, 137, 165 embarrassment, 130, 131–132, 151 good coping strategies, 109, 130, 151 inability to do job concerns, 128–129, 131, 149, 151 of job applicants, 152 lack of relevance at work, 128, 131, 133
stigma, 138
see also disclosure of dyslexia, to employers non-verbal intelligence, test, 39 Norwich University College of the Arts, 185, 188, 190, 192 nurses, dyslexic, 2, 98
disclosure of dyslexia, 109
occupational choices, 2
Office for Fair Access (OFFA), 72
Office of the Independent Adjudicatur for Higher Education (OIAHE), 181 Oliver, Jamie, 198
one minute writing test, 37
one-to-one dyslexia support see support tutors (university/work placement)
online discussions, 85, 89
online documents, accessibility, 85, 87, 88–89 Open University, 71, 85 optical character recognition, 96 ‘overlearning’, 85
overload, pressure of, 105 parallel letter recognition model, 187, 190 Patient discourse, 18
PDFAloud, 87
peer differences, awareness, 16 Pelmanism games, 57
perfectionism, 104, 200
persistence, despite resistance, 200–201 personal choice, invisibility of dyslexia and disclosure, 137, 144 personal organization, 81 helping students with, 65 personality, creativity and, 203–204 personalized learning, 52 phonemic difficulties, 35 phonemic segmentation subtest, 35 phonological processing, poor, in adults with dyslexia, 93 planning, support tutors’ help, 106–107 podcasts, 85, 118
polysyllables subtest, 36, 37, 38 portable document formats (pdfs), 86 positive perception of dyslexia, 14–15, 197 self-perception, 17, 18 self-understanding see self-understanding see also creativity, and dyslexia; strengths in dyslexia postural stability subtest, 36 pre-reading task, 95 preparation for higher education, 22–32, 29, 43, 59 challenges for dyslexia students, 25–26, 27 preparing for ‘unknown’, 28, 29, 30 strategies for reducing, 29 extent of, assessment, 23–30 findings and explanation, 24–30 research questions, 23
by family/friends, 24 inadequacy, 22, 25, 47
students’ concerns over, 27
support strategies, 48
students’ concerns over, 27
support strategies, 48
strategies for improving, 29–30
learning support service strategies, 30 subject-specific approach, 29, 30, 43 by teachers/colleges, 24–25 views of disabled learners, 22, 24–29 preparation for work, 112–122 key concerns of students, 115 transition stage, 112, 113 universities’ role, 115–116 see also Access to Employability Programme; graduates presentation skills, workshops required on, 120 problem-centred approach, 168 problem-solving skills, 54
procrastination, 200
managing, 105
professional careers, 113 concern over disclosure, 118 ‘professionalization’, 50 proofreading, 97 psychological interventions, 156 psychotherapy, 156
pupils, sole responsibility for difficulties, 16 qualifications, need for, 158 Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education, 135–136 quality of life, 143, 145 Quickscan, 34

rapid naming subtest, 35
Read and Write programme, 61, 87, 89
Read Regular font, 78
reading, 91–99
accuracy, 93
comprehension see reading comprehension current theories, 92
decoding see decoding
difficulties, 4, 44, 92
factors involved, 92
severity, 5
in workplace, 172
extra time requirement, 94, 97
non-decoded words inferred, 92, 93
process, 92–93
rereading of text, 45, 92, 94 semantic-based strategy, 93 simple model, 92
skills, development, 45 supportive strategies, 94–97
for students, 67, 68
see also literacy
reading comprehension, 91–99, 92 strategies for improving, 94–97
methods focused on, 95, 97 training methods, effects, 95, 96 weaknesses in dyslexia, 92, 93
reading speeds
improving, methods, 46 low/slow, 27, 44, 92, 93, 94, 95 reasonable adjustments, 4 definition (legal), 177
in higher education, 4–5, 62
individual requirements of students, 5 for work placement, 109, 110
in workplace, 5, 134, 138, 153, 158, 182
definition, 177
elements, 183
failure, disability discrimination, 182 funding, Access to Work scheme, 170 identification, 182–183 jobs unchangeable, 174
legal obligation, 182
during recruitment, 151, 152, 153 reframing, 144–146, 162
definition, 144
relationship-based intervention, 162
rereading of text, 45, 92, 94
Research in Adult Dyslexia (ReAD) group, 135 resentment, after disclosure, 153–154 revision, in timetable, 46 risk assessment, for disclosure of dyslexia, 143–144 risk management, personal information, 142 risk-taking, by dyslexic persons, 204 Robbins Report (1963), 113
Rogers, Richard, 196 role model, graduate recruiter, 118
Royal College of Art (RCA), 74–83
AcrossRCA initiative, 79
alumni/dyslexia support talks, 80–82 art and design teaching method, 75 ceramics students’ experience, 75, 77 dyslexia and drawing, 79–82 dyslexia database, 75
films and videos, 76, 77, 78 ‘Learning through Demonstration’, 76–77 interdisciplinary collaborative projects, 79 jewellery students’ experience, 78 learning through demonstrations, 76–78 ‘Legendary Masterclasses’, 76–77 printmaking student’s experience, 78 students making a difference to support, 78–79 support making a difference for students, 74–78 tutorials, 76
sans serif fonts, 182, 185, 187, 191 Sassoon Primary font, 186, 188, 189
schools
admissions and exclusions, 180 disability discrimination and, 177–178
Schwab, Charles, 202
scotopic sensitivity syndrome see Meares–Irlen syndrome ‘screen mask’, 87
screening, for specific learning difficulties, 33–42, 60–61, 74 assessment report, 60
assessor, 60 availability to students, 34 computerized test (LADS), 36 comparison with tutor-delivered test, 37
see also Lucid Adult Dyslexia Screening Test (LADS) damage by delay in, 41
definition, 34, 60
developments, 38–39
in higher education
duty for, and reasons, 34–35 research on, 37–38
tests used, 34–35
University of Worcester, 35–36, 39, 42 screening, for specific learning difficulties (cont’d) self-referring students, 35 sensitivity and specificity, 34, 36 tests available, 34 best combination of tests, 37, 39, 41 what is tested for, 35 tutor-delivered, 35, 37, 39 value to assessor, 38–39 see also Bangor Dyslexia Test (BDT); Dyslexia Adult Screening Test (DAST) selﬁc-acceptance, 145 selﬁc-advocacy, 142–143, 144, 165
definition, 142
development of skills, 161–162
importance, 136–137
selﬁc-awareness, 16, 59, 70, 136, 143 lack of, 150
selﬁc-determination, 136
selﬁc-directed learners, 22, 25, 105, 110 selﬁc-disclosure see disclosure of dyslexia, to employers selﬁc-eﬃciency, 54
selﬁc-esteem, low, 60, 65, 102
  support tutor’s role, 106–108 selﬁc-knowledge, 60, 136, 144 development, 167
selﬁc-monitoring techniques, 56 selﬁc-perceptions
  based on teachers’ attitudes, 16, 17 basis for metacognitive strategy instruction, 54 changing, 16–17, 18
selﬁc-questioning technique, 54 selﬁc-regulation, 54
selﬁc-understanding, 137, 144
development, 159, 161
  by coaching, 161, 163
sentences
  construction, 47, 54
  font/capital letters, 63
serif fonts, 185, 187
Serpentine Gallery, 182
Shaywitz, Sally, 203 skills, showcasing (workshop), 116–118 Skills to Achieve Results Team (START), 161 SMART objectives, 175
social anxiety, 61
social attitude, as barrier, 20 social barrier, 19
social cognitive theory (Bandura), 53 social constructionism, 14, 16, 60 social media, 86, 90
social model of disability, 19–20, 60, 66 Society for Coloured Lens Prescribers, 39 selﬁc-emotional aspects, 13–21 different ways of understanding dyslexia, 14–15 negative views see negative views of dyslexic-type diﬃculties positive views see positive perception of dyslexia quantitative aspects, 14 see also experiential perspective software, online document accessibility, 86–87 sound recording, 64–66, 67, 70, 72
Special Educational Needs (SEN), 178 Statement see Statement of Special Educational Needs Special Educational Needs and Disability Act (SE A), 3, 137, 138, 178 tribunals, 179
website, 179
specialist SpLD tutors acceptance by learner, 169 communication dynamics with learners, 169 knowledge requirements, 167–168 adult learning principles, 168–169 of context around learner, 169–170 literacy and coping strategies, 173 for unemployed people, 172 skills needed, 173–176
  analysis, synthesis, 174 coaching, 175
  empathy and support, 174
  listening skills, 174 monitoring and evaluation, 175 planning and contracting, 175 speciﬁc learning diﬃculties (SpLDs), 33, 133 college course on awareness, effects, 137 conditions included, 102 diagnosis at university, 130–131 disclosure to employers, 125 guidelines for support from ADSHE, 102 Meares–Irlen syndrome as predictor, 37 screening see screening as ‘speciﬁc life diﬃculties’, 133 traditional view on employment, 167 see also speciﬁc topics speech-to-text software, 61
  in workplace, 156
spell-checking, 89, 97, 159 spelling ability, problems, 93 SpLD see speciﬁc learning diﬃculties (SpLDs)
staff see university staff
Standard Assessment Tests (SATs), 180 Statement of Special Educational Needs agreeing, 179–180
  appeals, 178–179
  application, 178–179 case management stage, 179 implementation, 180
Statutory Assessment, 178
Statement of Technology, 88
Sternberg, Robert, 201, 202, 203, 204
stigma, 138
strengths in dyslexia, 60, 129 development, in students, 115–116 self-awareness of, in workplace, 159, 160 see also positive perception of dyslexia stress, 104 Student discourse, 18
students
university see university students (dyslexic) study guide, for transition to higher education, 24 study methods, 48
study skills tuition, 51 Studyscan, 34
summary notes, 95
dictating, 97
support in higher education, 33–34, 59–73, 101–111, 141
additional support [reading/basic concepts], 44–46
assistive technology see assistive technology basic educational/language support, 45–46, 106
costs, 197
on coursework, 66 extent, 44
in group sessions, 65
intensive, 49 learning support specialist, 52 other forms of help, 49–50 for personal organization, 65, 81 in Royal College of Art see Royal College of Art (RCA) subject-based, 48
teaching environment, elements, 51–52 see also metacognitive strategy instruction UK legislation, 62
visual representation, 109 widening participation, 43–50 effectiveness, 48
for writing tasks, 64
see also universities; specific topics support in workplace, 123–206 specialist tutors see specialist SpLD tutors see also coaching; Workplace Assessment support tutors [university/work placement] crossing boundaries, 106 diversity of support, 103 embedding information technology, 104 handling emotional issues, 65, 106 learning profile of student, 44, 103 managing procrastination/perfectionism, 104–105
method of working, types of strategies, 44 planning, role in, 106 role, 43, 57, 106
transition to work, 112
visual representation, 109
work placement strategies, 110–111 self-esteem and motivational role, 107–108 summary of help provided, 101 teaching of basic concepts, 45, 106 toolbox of resources, 44, 107 traditional assessment methods and, 72 tutorials see tutorials work covered by, 103
Survey Monkey, survey of disclosure, 126, 132
Sylexiad Sans, 188
Sylexiad Sans Medium, 192, 195
Sylexiad Serif, 190, 191
Sylexiad Serif Medium, 192
Sylexiad typeface/font, 185–196, 190 application and uses, 192–195 characteristics, 189, 191 comparative testing with other fonts, 190, 191
development, 188–189
internal and external trials, 190 origins, 185–186 study of reading method using, 192 word space model vs, 191 Synote, 89
teachers (school) attitudes to dyslexic pupils, 16, 107 need to recognise skills of dyslexic pupils, 198 negative impact, 16, 107 positive impact, 17, 198 teaching adults
specialist tutors see specialist SpLD tutors vs children, 168
teaching environment/framework, 52–53
see also metacognitive strategy instruction teaching methods, at RCA see Royal College of Art (RCA) team dynamics, 170 technology enhanced learning (TEL), 84, 86
see also eLearning
text editors, online, 89 text-readers, 45, 47, 61, 86
text-to-speech, 61
improving reading comprehension, 94, 95 online pages, 85, 88
for proofreading, 97
in workplace, 159
Index

Text understanding, 91 see also reading comprehension textbooks, CDs with, 70
TextHelp Read and Write, 87, 89
TextHelp Screenshot Reader, 87 talking skills, 55 talking styles, 202–203 three-dimensional form, ideas, 69, 71 time management problems, 4 Times New Roman font, 186, 188, 189, 190, 191 Toe by Toe reading scheme, 173 ‘Train to Gain’ programme, 172 transitions
in educational system, 23 into employment, 112–122 graduate destinations, 115 higher education institutions’ role, 115–116 planning activities for, 121 preparation see preparation for work to higher education, 22, 27, 112
definition, 23
disabled students, 27
dyslexic vs non-dyslexic students, 27, 28 strategies for improving, 29–30
workshops focusing on, 117–118 Twitter, 86, 90
two-dimensional form, ideas, 69 typefaces, 185–196
designed by non-dyslexic designers, 186 developmental testing see developmental typeface testing
early recommendations, 185–186 uppercase sentences, 63 uppercase vs lowercase, 186, 189, 190, 191 see also individual fonts Typography, 187
aesthetic principles, 186, 190 dyslexic readers’ preferences, 191 key characteristics for dyslexic people, 191 models of legibility, 186–187 non-dyslexic readers, preferences, 191
parallel letter recognition model, 187, 190
recommendations by dyslexia organizations, 185, 191
aesthetic principles contradicting, 185–186 shortcomings, 186
Sylexiad fonts preferred, 191 Sylexiad see Sylexiad typeface/font word shape model, 186, 187, 190 refuted by Sylexiad font preference, 191 UK Disability Movement, 19 undergraduate students see university students (dyslexic)
undiagnosed dyslexia, 149, 150–151, 156, 182
unemployment graduate numbers, 113–114 specialist SpLD tutor help, 173 Union of the Physically Impaired Against Segregation (UPIAS), 19
universities
alternative assessment methods, 50, 69, 70, 71 challenges, on dyslexia, 72 course assessment, forms of, 66
course delivery, 63–64
students’ strategy for lectures, 68 course materials, 66, 70
eLearning, 84–85
coursework, 66–67
curriculum, frustrations with, 198–199, 201 dyslexia diagnosis at, 130–131 examination arrangements, 67, 68–69, 71 inclusive teaching, 63, 66, 70–71 legislation involving dyslexic students, 62 open day, 71
policy on dyslexia, 70
prospectuses, 71
staff see university staff
students see university students (dyslexic)
support for transition to work, 115–116 support tutors see support tutors (university/work placement)
types/forms/examples of help, 50–51 websites, 71
see also higher education
University of Buckingham, 131, 132 disclosure of dyslexia, survey, 126
see also disclosure of dyslexia, to employers
Research in Adult Dyslexia (ReAD) group, 135
University of East Anglia, The, 190 University of Leicester Access to Employability see Access to Employability Programme
AccessAbility Centre, 116
Careers Service not adequately used, 115 graduate destination data, 115 number of graduates in employment, 114 University of Worcester
research on screening, 37 screening experience, 35–36 screening test package, 39, 40 university staff (lecturers) awareness of emotional issues, 65–66
course delivery, 63–64
development, on inclusive practices, 71 group sessions by, guidelines, 65 guidance for/duties under DDA, 62–63 support for students on writing tasks, 64 talking and listening, 64–65 university students (dyslexic)

Access to Employability Programme, 117–118

feedback on, 120–121 difficulties/challenges, 25, 26, 27, 46

linear thought, 61, 69
self-esteem and social anxiety, 61 spectrum, 46–47

University of Buckingham, 128

‘disabled’, caution over treatment as separate category, 27 dyslexia not only issue of concern, 44 extra-curricular activities and employability, 115 final-year, concerns over employment, 115

graduates see graduates impact of support on employability, 113–114 individual requirements, reasonable adjustments, 5 key concerns over employment/employability, 115 learning profile, 103

long-term aspirations, 113 number, 1, 59, 91, 112, 197

at art and design institutions, 185 preparation see preparation for higher education previous (poor) educational experience, 43, 44, 45, 46, 102

effects, 48

progression/success, 1–2 strategies, 67–70

examinations, 68–69

for lectures, 68

reading, 67, 68

writing, 68, 69

strengths, developing, 117–118 talking about dyslexia, 118 timetable, revision inclusion, 46 transition to university see transitions transition to work see transitions websites supporting, 70 verbal retrieval, slow, 75, 76

victimization, 155

Vinegrad’s revised adult dyslexia checklist, 34 virtual learning environments (VLEs), 66, 84 visual imagery, for information recall, 97 visual perceptual difficulties, 75, 77 visual stress (glare), 3

in workplace
disclosure and adjustments, 153 ‘reasonable adjustments’, 5

see also Meares–Irlen syndrome visualization, 199

visual–spatial thinkers, 199 voice-activated software, 97 voice recognition software, 61

weaknesses in dyslexia
raising awareness of, 163
self-awareness of, in workplace, 163

see also negative views of dyslexic-type difficulties

Web 2.0, 86, 90

webpages

browser features for, 89 improving accessibility, 85, 87–88
reading, 87

websites

for dyslexic university students, 70 university, accessibility, 70, 71

Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale (WAIS), 38
West Mercia Police Force, 174
West Midlands Police Force, 168

Wide Range Intelligence Test, 39

Wikis, 86

word prediction software, 87–88 word recognition theory, 187

word shape

Dine fonts, 189
importance, 186

word shape model, 186, 187, 190, 191

word spacing, 187

Sylexiad fonts, 190, 191

work, transition to see transitions work experience, students not undertaking, 115

work placement, 120

concerns, 109
disclosure of dyslexia, 109–110
dyslexia support on, 109–111 good practice and guidance of mentors, 110–111 reasons for, 120

strategies, 110

support tutors see support tutors (university/work placement) supportive, and support for, 120 supportive resources, 120

work-shadowing, 115, 120

working memory

difficulties, 44–45, 81
coaching to improve, 163 intelligence discrepancy, 38
reading difficulties and, 92

working memory subtest/task (of LADS), 38, 39 workload, organisation, 46 workplace

  assistive technology in, 159, 173
  awareness training, on dyslexia, 158–159 dyslexia not problem in (non-disclosure reason), 129, 131, 133 good practice, 160–161 literacy-based tasks, 97, 157, 159 pressure in vs pressure at university, 130 reasonable adjustments in see reasonable adjustments success of dyslexic people in, 157–166 coaching role see coaching dyslexic person’s role, 161–165
    factors involved, 158
    good practice cases, 160–161 manager’s role, 160
    organization’s role, 158–159
    self-advocacy development, 165–166
  see also employers; employment (dyslexic person) Workplace Assessment, 159–160, 177–178, 183 aspects included, 159, 160 dyslexia advisers trained for, 161 new contracts/tenders, 171 purpose, 159
  reasonable adjustments recommended, 183 workplace assessors, 159, 161, 167 Metropolitan police, 161
  see also specialist SpLD tutors workplace Needs Assessment see Workplace Assessment
writing
  students’ strategy, 68, 69 support for students, 64 writing speed subtest, 38 written language processing difficulties, 88 workshops required on, 120 York Adult Assessment battery, tests, 34
Young People’s Learning Agency (YPLA), 180–181
YouTube, 88, 90