CONTENTS AT A GLANCE

About the authors
xv
Acknowledgements
xvii
Preface
xix

Part I: Preparation for the global reality race

Destination: Australia

Chapter 1: The Amazing Innovation Race
Who wins, who loses, who gets eliminated — and why we need to change the game
3

Chapter 2: Shifting Perspectives
The value of diverse perspectives on creative thinking and innovation
29

Chapter 3: Are you a Tourist or Traveller?
How cultural awareness can encourage empathy and increase the potential for purpose-driven innovation
51

Chapter 4: Picasso and the Paradoxical Innovation Process
Understanding the challenges of innovation journey, from imagination and ideation to implementation 67

Part II: Destinations

Chapter 5: Liberate
How to liberate a culture for open innovation
Destination: Africa
93

Chapter 6: Initiate
How to initiate the innovation process through open connections for exploring diverse ideas
Destination: Europe
139

Chapter 7: Motivate
How to motivate individuals and teams to come up with unified solutions
Destination: Asia
183

Chapter 8: Transform
How to transform a culture for implementing innovation
Destination: The Americas
223

Part III: The future of the race

Destination: Antarctica

Chapter 9: Pawns and Players
Who really wins in the end?
263

Chapter 10: Future Trends
The new innovation agenda
279

Notes
297
Index
339
CONTENTS

About the authors xv
Acknowledgements xvii
Preface xix

Part I: Preparation for the global reality race 1
Destination: Australia

Chapter 1: The Amazing Innovation Race 3
Who wins, who loses, who gets eliminated — and why we need to change the game
    Technology vs tradition 5
    Addicted to adrenaline 6
    Why do we need to innovate responsibly? 8
    Keeping pace with the race 9
    Disruptors and breakthroughs 11
    Playing snakes and ladders: evolution or revolution? 13
    Transformational innovation: beyond exploration and exploitation 15
    Bridging the innovation purpose gap 17
    The dark side of desire 19
    Changing the culture to change the game 21
    Roadblocks and fast-forward advantages 22
    Purpose-Driven Innovation (PDI) 24
    Back to the future 25

Chapter 2: Shifting Perspectives 29
The value of diverse perspectives on creative thinking and innovation
    The value of shifting perspectives 31
    Psychological blocks and enablers 33
    Culture to culture — creative insights from different cultural perspectives 34
    Why are we so different? Genetics or geography 37
    Some other clues to differences — politics and power 38
    Comparing apples and rambutans 40
    Linear vs circular thinking 43
    Hollywood and the westernisation of innovation 44
The inevitable shift towards a global village 47
Starting to see things differently 48

Chapter 3: Are you a Tourist or Traveller? 51
How cultural awareness can encourage empathy and increase the potential for purpose-driven innovation

Seeing from the heart’s mind 54
Commercial innovation that connects 55
Shukantei and kyakkantei: elements of authentic empathy 57
Are you a tourist or traveller? 60
Travel stretches the open mind 61
Fresh ideas from the fringe 63

Chapter 4: Picasso and the Paradoxical Innovation Process 67
Understanding the challenges of the innovation journey, from imagination and ideation to implementation

Imagination ➔ Ideation ➔ Implementation 69
What if? 71
The tension that frustrates or fuels innovation 73
Shadow and light: the power of paradox 75
Einstein and the ambidextrous organisation 77
Leading between the ponds and the pits 79
Strategies for Purpose-Driven Innovation (PDI) 82
On the fast track to Mars 85

Part II: Destinations 91

Chapter 5: Liberate 93
How to liberate a culture for open innovation

Destination: Africa (Paradox Challenge: Control vs Freedom)

Challenging the systems 95
Oppressive control: behind the motives of mighty monarchs 96
The pride before the fall 98
Are we scaling the pyramid? 101
Inequality impacts innovation, innovation impacts inequality 102
Where did that cheap t-shirt come from? 103
The race to dominate 106
Education for empowerment 108
The Singapore sprint 109
More creative courage, fewer constraints 111
Can there be too much freedom? 112
The deeper purpose: to dominate or to progress? 114
Applications for the organisation 117
Chapter 6: Initiate
How to initiate the innovation process through open connections for exploring diverse ideas
Destination: Europe (Paradox Challenge: Focus vs Openness)

- Initiating innovation through openness
- A cultural safari in the minibus bubble
- Tourist traps
- A risky experiment
- Proximity and the printing machine
- Connected cities and lucky errors
- Viral connections
- Faster than the speed of light
- The internet as the ultimate enabler
- Hyperconnection: the paradox of connection and isolation
- Too close for comfort: is there such a thing as too much openness?
- Targeted openness
- Applications for the organisation

Chapter 7: Motivate
How to motivate individuals and teams to come up with unified solutions
Destination: Asia (Paradox Challenge: Individualism vs Group Engagement)

- When TV came to town
- Motivation for finding collaborative solutions
- Ancient wisdom and modern metropolises
- Outwit, Outplay, Outlast
- The neuroscience behind the tragedy of the commons
- The rice paddy principle
- $1000 buzzers and booths
- The power of the collective
- Trust in the tribe
- Can there be too much of a collectivist approach?
- Solving the prisoner’s dilemma
- Authentic collaboration—beyond ‘tit for tat’
- Applications for the organisation

Chapter 8: Transform
How to transform a culture for implementing innovation
Destination: The Americas (Paradox Challenge: Stability vs Flexibility)

- The implementation challenge
- Unpacking the American Dream
- The essence of the entrepreneurial spirit
From cultivators to innovators 228
The world’s most optimistic country? 230
Bodyguards and bombs 232
Hurricane survivors and adaptors 234
Relying on resilience 237
The cosmic bet 238
In the hands of higher powers 240
The inverse relationship between fatalism and innovation 243
Learned helplessness or enabled action? 245
Is it possible to be too optimistic and flexible? 246
Applications for the organisation 249

Part III: The future of the race 261

Chapter 9: Pawns and Players 263
Who really wins in the end?
Innovation roadblocks and fast-forward enablers 265
Are you smarter than a third grader? 266
Changing the status quo 268
The inherent value of ethical innovation 270
Can strong company cultures block innovation? 271
Out of the shark tank 272
The sociological equivalent of splitting the atom: transitioning to higher stages 273
True organisational culture change 275
Deciphering the code 275

Chapter 10: Future Trends 279
The new innovation agenda
It’s time for the real game changers 281
The innovation agenda 282
How to change a culture to change the game 290
Doing things differently 292
Pawns, players—or empowered producers 293
To be continued… 295

Notes 297
Index 339