Contents

Foreword xi
Acknowledgments xv
About the Authors xvii
Introduction 1

1 Making the Case for Personalized Learning 5
Disconnection between Traditional School and Preparation for a Postsecondary World 6
The Power of a Student-Driven Model 7
Contemporary Issues of Control 12
Personalized Learning Evolution 15
Conclusion and Reflective Questions 21
Works Cited 21

2 The Aims of Contemporary Schooling 23
Element 1: Disciplinary Outcomes 25
Element 2: Cross-Disciplinary Outcomes 30
Element 3: Mindsets 47
Conclusion and Reflective Questions 55
Works Cited 56

3 The Design of a Student-Driven Learning Experience 59
Element 4: Task 60
Element 5: Audience 63
Element 6: Feedback 67
Element 7: Evaluation 70
Conclusion and Reflective Questions 72
Works Cited 73
To Jay McTighe—a connector of people and ideas. You open the door and show the vision of what schools can be and welcome people to join you in that pursuit.