Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure.

A
Academy of Human Resource Development: conferences sponsored by, 287fig; Standards on Ethics and Integrity by, 268, 269
Accountability standard (JCSEE), 263fig
The achiever world view, 40fig, 41
ADDIE model, 273–274
AEAs Guiding Principles for Evaluators, 260, 264fig–268fig
Ahmed, M., 275
Allen, M., 273
Altschuld, J. W., 84, 206, 286fig
American Evaluation Association Guiding Principles for Evaluators, 260, 264fig–268fig, 269
Analysis for Improving Performance (Swanson), 286fig
Analytic needs, 21
Applicability, 83
Artifacts: compared to other data collection methods, 76fig; data collection using, 73; tips for using data from, 73
ASTD: Code of Ethics of the, 269; professional conferences held by, 287fig
Australiasian Evaluation Society Code of Ethical Conduct and Guidelines for the Ethical Conduct of Evaluations, 269

B
Badger, K., 234
Baizerman, M. L., 272
BarON EQ-I, 61fig
Beck, D. E., 39
Behavior Engineering Model (BEM): description of the, 41–42; measuring performance function of the, 42, 44
Behavioral interviews: competency-based needs assessment, 153, 155–160; pitfalls to avoid, 158–159; sample script for a, 156fig; steps for conducting, 153, 155–160
Bergmann, H., 190
Blessing White's High-Performance Culture Scan, 61fig
Block, P., 232, 235
Bober, M. J., 149
Boehringer Mannheim Corporation (BMC), 138–141
Boyatzis, R., 147
Brache, A. P., 47, 185, 187
Bracken, D., 66
Brainstorming performance gaps, 191, 194
Brannick, M. T., 118
Buckingham, M., 214
Building Evaluation Capacity: 72 Activities for Teaching and Training (Preskill and Russ-Eft), 287fig
Bulleted focus group reports, 59fig
Burns, J. Z., 269
Business analysis, 39
Business plans: components of a, 184fig; mission, goal, and strategies of a, 184fig
Butruille, S., 118

C
Callahan, M., 70, 118
Canadian Evaluation Society Guidelines for Ethical Conduct, 269
Caruthers, F. A., 260
Cases: CDC's HIV-prevention needs assessment, 258; competency-based needs assessment of Government Agency Q's Division One, 166–171; complex needs assessment of EOSH skills of AMEG, 220–226; complex needs assessment on work team, 209–213; complex needs assessment using DOCS Model, 217–219; Globious (pseudonym) and their Asia Corporate University needs assessment, 275, 276–280; how world views can impact a needs assessment, 41; Humanitarian Aid (pseudonym), 96–97; informal needs assessment, 284–285; job and task analysis for Boehringer Mannheim Corporation (BMC), 138–141; knowledge and skills assessment of HumanitarianAid (pseudonym), 96–97; knowledge and skills assessment report on Packaged Delivery, Inc., 109–115fig; measuring performance, 43–44; strategic needs assessment of pump manufacturing firm, 195–196; strategic needs assessment use of community asset mapping, 185; XYZ Corporation (pseudonym), 198–203
Casey, M. A., 57, 59
Cause analysis, 39

393
CEB Valtera, 61
Center for Creative Leadership, 61, 275, 276
Centers for Disease Control, 74
Change Readiness Checklist, 197
Chartered Accountants of Canada, 146
The choice seeker world view, 40
Christian, L. M., 70
Clark, D., 273

Clients: contracting needs assessment with, 234–239; explore decisions on not using needs assessment findings with, 273; gathering information on expectations of, 237–239; negotiating changes in purpose with, 273; tip on avoiding using professional jargon with, 255; tip on reviewing draft proposal with, 244; world views of your, 39–40; writing the proposal to, 239–246

Closed-ended questions: interview, 54; survey, 65, 67

Community asset mapping, 185
Community development: definition of, 1; needs assessment role and benefits for, 24–25; new challenges for conducting needs assessments facing, 288; strategic needs assessment and, 175; typical assessment requests made to, 16. See also Developmental initiatives
Community surveys, 213–214
Company domain, 149
Competency: definition of, 149; dictionary of definitions related to, 150, 160, 161
Competency-based needs assessment: using already available competency models, 165–166; benefits and drawbacks of, 148; case: Government Agency Q's Division One, 166–171; Competency Dictionary—Sales, 160, 161; Competency Model—A Sales Position, 160, 162; critical success factors for, 148–150; description of, 29; effort and time required for, 30; Individual Learning Development Plan for, 150, 164; matrix of, 31; overview of, 146–147; phases of a, 150–165; tip on reviewing an actual, 164; Toolkit job aids for, 145–146; when to use, 147
Competency dictionary, 150, 160
Competency Model—A Sales Position, 160, 162
Competency models: using already available, 165–166; description of, 149–150
Competency statement, 149
Complex needs assessment: benefits and drawbacks, 207; case: DOCS Model survey used for, 217–219; case: work team, 209–213; cash: EOSH (environmental and occupational safety and health), 220–226; community and organization surveys used for, 213–217; description of, 29–30; matrix of, 32; overview of, the, 206–207; phases of the, 208–209; tip on using vendor instrument for, 213; Toolkit job aids for, 205; when to use, 207
Complex needs assessment phases: 1: conduct the preassessment, 208; 2: conduct the needs assessment, 208; 3: conduct the post assessment, 208

Computer technology: data analysis using, 74; snowflake effect permitted by, 2–3

Conducting behavioral interviews: Step 1: designing Behavioral Interview Guide, 155–156; Step 2: obtaining behavioral information, 156–158; Step 3: analysis of behavioral information, 159–160

Confidentiality: DOCS (Denison Organizational Culture Survey), 218; survey data, 62

Consistency, 83
Consultants: competencies of, 233; contracting a needs assessment, 232–239; definition of, 232; gathering information to draft written proposal, 237–239; tip on assessing potential ethical issues, 237

Contracting needs assessment: gathering information to write proposal, 237–239; identifying purpose of needs assessment, 234; Needs Assessment Checklist, 239; potential obstacles and tips for overcoming them, 235–237. See also Needs assessment proposals

Cover letter/email for survey, 68–69

Cowan, C. C., 39

Critical Incident Method, 155

Cronbach's alpha, 82

Cronshaw, S. F., 118

Cronshaw, S. E., 118
Customers: input from, 152; SIPOC diagram of, 188–189, 190

D
Data: human resource information system (HRIS), 63; organized for decision making, 83–84; prioritizing needs based on interview and survey, 84; qualitative, 74, 81–82; quantitative, 74, 77–78; synthesis example of organizing interview and survey, 84

Data analysis: behavioral interview, 159–160; computer software for, 74, 77; focus group, 59; knowledge and skills assessment, 106–107; measures used during, 79–80; qualitative data, 81–82; quantitative data, 77–78; reliability, validity, and trustworthiness related to, 82–83

Data collection: behavioral interviews for competency-based needs assessment, 153, 155–160; job and task analysis, 128–131; knowledge and skills assessment, 93–95, 106; methods for, 52–76; reliability, validity, and trustworthiness of, 82–83; strategic needs assessment, 179–185

Data collection methods: comparison of different, 75–76; documents and artifacts, 73, 76; focus groups, 57–59; interviews, 52–57; observation, 72–73; photos and videos, 74, 76; surveys, 59–71; 75–76; 213–219

de la Teja, I., 149

Dean, P. J., 269

Decision making: on not using needs assessment findings, 273; organizing data for, 83–84; prioritizing needs based on interviews and survey data, 84

Democratic needs, 20–21

Denison Organizational Culture Survey (DOCS), 217–219

Descriptive statistics, 77

Development initiatives: HPT and HRD, 36; international, 16, 24–25; no economic value criticism of, 41. See also Community development
Diagnosing systems: evident deep structures, 48; subtle deep structures, 49; surface structures, 48–49
Diagnostic needs, 21
Dillman, D. A., 70
Dimensions of the Learning Organization Questionnaire (DLOQ), 61 fg
DiSC, 61 fg, 210, 211
Discrepancy needs, 20
Documents: compared to other data collection methods, 76 fg; data collection found in, 73; managing needs assessment, 246–247; tips for using data from, 73. See also Reports
Domain of competencies, 149
Downsizing, 274–275
Duple, R., 25–33

E
Electronic focus group reports, 59 fg
Employee engagement surveys: activities in each phase of an, 215 fg–217 fg case: complex needs assessment using, 217–219; DOCS Model used for, 217–219; vendor sites with items on, 214 fg
Engineers Australia, 146
Environment: charting future, 200; external, 180–182, 183 fg, 199–200; internal, 182, 184–196, 199–200
Environmental and occupational safety and health (EOSH): complex needs assessment on training for, 220–226; description of, 220; example of strategic plan training schedule for, 225 fg
Eoyang, G., 48
Ethical guiding principles (AEA): compared to JCSEE standards, 268; competence, 264 fg–265 fg; integrity/honesty, 265 fg–266 fg; responsibilities for general and public welfare, 267 fg–268 fg; respect for people, 266 fg–267 fg; systematic inquiry, 264 fg
Ethical issues: additional resources for managing, 268–269; AEA’s Guiding Principles for Evaluators on, 260, 264 fg–268 fg; case: CDC’s HIV-prevention needs assessment data, 258; comparison of AEA principles and JCSEE standards, 268; examples of real-life scenarios on, 259 fg; JCSEE Standards on, 260, 261 fg–263 fg; Joint Committee’s Program Evaluation Standards for, 260; overview of, 257; professional and personal factors impacting, 258–260; tip on assessing potential, 237; tip on political nature of needs assessments and, 258
Ethical standards (JCSEE): accuracy, 262 fg–263 fg; compared to AEA guiding principles, 268; evaluation accountability, 263 fg; feasibility, 261 fg; propriety, 262 fg; utility, 261 fg
Evaluation: book resources on, 287 fg; Performance Improvement/HPT Model for, 287 fg; purpose of an, 282; relationship between needs assessment and, 281–282. See also Needs assessment
Evaluation in Organizations: A Systematic Approach to Enhancing Learning, Performance, and Change (Russ-Eft and Preskill), 287 fg
Excel, 74
Executive Summary: as part of final report, 253; providing framework to summarize report, 248; T & J Marine Products needs assessment, 250 fg
External environment: strategic needs assessment phase of examining the, 180–182, 183 fg; XYZ Corporation case on examining their, 199–200

F
Fields, D. C., 149
Figuring Things Out (Zemke and Kramlinger), 286 fg
Fine, S. A., 118
Fink, A., 272
First Things Fast (Rossett), 286 fg
Fishbone diagram: on management, labor, machines, and materials impact, 194 fg; showing causes for workers dissatisfaction, 191, 194 fg
Fisher, S. R., 187
The Five Dysfunctions of a Team: Team Assessment, 210
Flanagan, J. C., 150, 155, 159
Flight Inspection Services Aircraft Maintenance and Engineering Group (AMEG), 220–226
Focus groups: analyzing data of, 59; compared to other data collection methods, 75 fg; conducting a, 58–59; description of, 57; preparing a, 58; suggestions for facilitators of, 57–58; types of reports made on, 59 fg
Forecasting the Financial Benefits of HRD (Swanson and Gradous), 44
Foundations of Human Resource Development (Swanson and Holton), 287 fg
Foxon, M. J., 149
Frequency measurements, 78 fg
Frequently asked questions and answers: additional resources on conducting a needs assessment, 282, 286 fg–287 fg; avoiding having the results used for inappropriate actions, 274–275; dealing with multiple stakeholders, 275; how successive approximation works in a needs assessment, 273–274; learning why some stakeholders to not want to participate, 280–281; the relationship between needs assessment and evaluation, 281–282; strategies for increasing usability of your needs assessments, 271–273; on usefulness of informal needs assessments, 282–285
Future environment, 200

G
Gallup, 214 fg
Gephart, M. A., 185
Gilbert, T., 36, 41, 42, 45
The global viewer world view, 40 fg
Globious (pseudonym) case study: description of, 275; Example Data-Collection Instruments from, 275; needs assessment for the Asia Corporate University of, 276–280
Government Agency Q Division One case, 166–171
Gradous, D. B., 44
Griffiths, B., 148
Guba, E. G., 83
Guerra-Lopez, I., 37, 46, 286 fg
A Guide to Assessing Needs (Watkins, West Meiers, and Visser), 286 fg
Guiding Principles for Evaluators (AEA), 260, 264 fg–268 fg, 269
Gupta, K., 167
INDEX

H
Hale, 255
Handbook of Human Performance Technology (Pershing), 287
Hannum, K. M., 275
Harless, J., 36, 45
Hatcher, T. G., 269
Harless, J., 36, 45
Hannum, K. M., 275
Hoole, E. R., 269
Hopson, K., 150
HumanitarianAid (pseudonym) case study, 96–97
Human resource information system (HRIS), 63
Human Resource Development Quarterly, 213
Hurson, K., 150
Hodgins, W., 2
Human performance technology (HPT): book resources on, 287; development initiatives by, 36; job and task analysis as powerful tool for, 141, 143; knowledge and skills assessment role by, 90–91, 98; needs assessment as preceding, 1; needs assessment role and benefits for, 24–25; new challenges for conducting needs assessments facing, 288; no economic value criticism of, 41; strategic needs assessment role by, 175; typical assessment requests made to, 16
Human resource development (HRD): book resources on, 287; development initiatives by, 36; job and task analysis as powerful tool for, 141, 143; knowledge and skills assessment role by, 90–91, 98; needs assessment as preceding, 1; needs assessment role and benefits for, 24–25; new challenges for conducting needs assessments facing, 288; no economic value criticism of, 41; strategic needs assessment role by, 175; typical assessment requests made to, 16
HumanitarianAid (pseudonym) case study, 96–97
Holton, E. F., III, 52, 108, 287
Hoole, E. R., 275
Hopson, R. K., 260

I
Improving Performance (Rummler and Brache), 47
In Action: Conducting Needs Assessment (Phillips and Holton), 52
In-person oral presentations/reports, 254–255
Individual Learning Development Plan, 150, 164
Individual performance: diagnosing causes of poor, 45–46; needs of, 38
Informal needs assessments: case on, 284–285; comparing formal and, 282–283
Inputs: from customers, 152; definition of, 46; Fishbone or Ishikawa diagram of problem causes as, 191, 194; job and task analysis of, 125; managing stakeholder, 255; OEM used to obtain information about, 47, 286–287; process mapping of, 188–190; 192, 193; SIPOC diagram of, 188–189, 190; system diagram on, 27
Instructional design (ID): job and task analysis as powerful tool for, 141, 143; knowledge and skills assessment role by, 90–91, 98; typical assessment requests made to, 16
Internal environment: strategic needs assessment phase of examining the, 182, 184–196; XYZ Corporation case on examining the, 199–200
International Board of Standards for Training, Performance, and Instruction, 146, 149, 233
International development: needs assessment role and benefits for, 24–25; new challenges for conducting needs assessments facing, 288; strategic needs assessment and, 175; typical assessment requests made to, 16
International Society for Performance Improvement: conferences sponsored by, 287; Human Performance Technology Code of Ethics by, 268
Interquartile range, 80
Interval scale, 66, 67
Interview questions: closed-ended, 54; knowledge and skills assessment, 113–115; sample, 55; tips for developing, 56
Interviews: compared to other data collection methods, 75; competency-based needs assessment behavioral, 153, 155–160; description of, 52–53; different approaches used for, 54; prioritizing needs based on data from, 84; sample protocol, script, and questions for, 55; tips for conducting an, 57; tips for preparing for an, 56; types of, 53–54
The involver world view, 40, 41
Ishikawa diagram: on management, machines, labor, and materials impact, 194; showing causes for workers dissatisfaction, 191, 194
ISO 9001:2000 management standards, 27

J
JCSEE (Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation, Program Evaluation Standards), 260, 261–263
Job Activity Self-Assessment, 101
Job analysis: conducting work session on, 128–131; Job Analysis Questionnaire, 125–127
Job Analysis Questionnaire, 125–127
Job and task analysis: benefits and drawbacks of, 119–120; case: Boehringer Mannheim Corporation (BMC), 138–141; critical success factors, 120–121; definition of terms related to, 121; description of, 28–29; effort and time required for, 30; key phases of, 124–137; matrix of, 31; overview of a, 118–119; time-saving tips for conducting a, 137–138; Toolkit job aids for, 118; when to use, 119
Job and task analysis forms: Job Training and Non-Training Recommendations I, 132–134; Job Training and Non-Training Recommendations II, 134–136
Job and task analysis phases: 1: prepare, 124–128; 2: conduct job task analysis work session, 128–131; 3: develop and present job training and non-training recommendations, 132–137
Job responsibilities: behavioral interview on, 156–158; definition of, 121; Job Analysis Questionnaire to identify, 125–127; refining the, 130
Job task analysis work session: preparing for the, 128–130; refining job responsibilities during the, 130
Job task statements: standard added at the end of, 123; writing, 121–123
index

Job tasks: definition of, 121; identifying the, 130–131; writing job task statements, 121–123. See also Tasks Jobs: definition of, 118; tasks for fulfilling responsibilities of, 121
Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation (JCSEE) Program Evaluation Standards, 260, 261
Joint Committee’s Program Evaluation Standards, 260
Jordan, B., 283
Journal of Applied Psychology, 213

K
Kaminski, K., 255
Kaufman, R., 36, 37, 46, 286
Kekale, T., 27
Keller, M., 138
King, S. B., 233
Knowledge: definition of, 22; soccer example of difference between skills and, 23. See also Skills Knowledge and skills assessment: benefits and drawbacks of, 92; common purposes of, 99; critical success factors, 92; data analysis, 106–107; data collection, 93–95; 106; description of, 28; effort and time required for, 30; key phases of, 92–115; matrix of, 31; overview of, 90–91; Performance Analysis for Training (PAT) Model for, 287; Toolkit job aids for, 89–90; when to use, 91
Knowledge and skills assessment report: case: Packaged Delivery, Inc., 109–115; content areas to include in, 108; different elements of a, 107; guidelines for presenting recommendations, 108
Koszalka, T. A., 149, 150
Kramlinger, T., 286
Krueger, R. A., 57, 59
Kumar, D. D., 206
Kunneman, D. E., 287

L
Layoffs, 274–275
Leader Navigator (Wilson Learning), 61
Learning: advances over time in knowledge about, 49; Individual Learning Development Plan for, 150, 164; need assessment requests related to, 22; performance connection to, 22, 24
Learning needs: definition of, 38; requests related to, 22
Levine, E. L., 118
Likert, R., 66
Likert scale, 66, 67
Lincoln, Y. S., 83
Lominger: Success Profile Architect, 165; Voices 360, 61
The loner world view, 40
Lopes, T., 255
The loyalist world view, 40

M
Mager, R., 36
Mager, R. E., 45
Mankins, M. C., 186
Marrelli, A. E., 149
Massive online learning courses (MOOCS), 4
Mathews, B. P., 27
McClelland, D. C., 146, 150
McCullough, C., 283
McCullough Group, 283
McLagan, P., 146
McLean, G. N., 95
McNamara, C., 235
Measure of variability, 80
Measuring performance. See Performance measurements
Measuring Return on Investment (ROI) Basics (Phillips and Phillips), 44
Median, 79
Microsoft, 146
Miniwatts Marketing Group, 4
Mode, 79
Multiple-choice questions, 65, 67
Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 61

N
Narrative focus group reports, 59
Needs: analytic, 21; definition of, 17; democratic, 20–21; diagnostic, 21; discrepancy, 20; how world views influence prioritizing of, 39–40; individual performance, 38; learning, 38; operational or tactical, 38; prioritizing, 37–39; strategic, 38
Needs assessment: additional resources on conducting, 282, 286–287; benefits of, 24–25; contracting a, 232–239; definition of, 17–18; ethical issues of, 237, 257–269; FAQs (frequently asked questions) and answers on, 271–288; five approaches to, 25–33; focus and insider information required by, 1–2; importance in performance improvement, 1; Overview of the Needs Assessment, 242–243; 244–245, 248; potential obstacles and tips for overcoming them, 235–237; purpose of, 234; relationship between evaluation and, 281–282; reporting on, 59, 107–115; 231–255; technology advances that have impacted, 2–5. See also Evaluation; Toolkit job aids
Needs assessment advisory committee (NAC), 272
The Needs Assessment (Altschuld), 286
Needs assessment approaches: comparison of effort and time required for, 30; competency-based, 29, 31; complex, 29–30, 32; 205–227; job and task analysis, 28–29, 31; 117–143; knowledge and skills, 28, 31; strategic, 29, 32; 173–203
Needs Assessment for Organizational Success (Guerra-Lopez and Kaufman), 286

Needs assessment practices: diagnosing the causes of poor performance, 45–49; measuring performance, 41–44; overview of, 36–37; prioritizing needs, 37–39; world views that may impact, 39–40; 41

Needs assessment proposals: gathering information to write, 237–239; identifying purpose of needs assessment, 234; Needs Assessment Checklist, 239; overview of the Needs Assessment in the, 242; practical tips for writing a, 245–246; reviewing draft version with clients, 244; T & J Marine Products draft, 240; ways to effectively use the, 244–245. See also contracting needs assessment; reports

Needs assessment requests: differences among, 20–24; similarities among, 16–20; typical examples of, 16

Neutrality, 83

O

Observations: compared to other data collection methods, 76; description of, 72; structured and unstructured, 72–73

Open-ended questions: interview, 64, 67; survey, 64

Operational (or tactical) needs, 38

Oral focus group reports, 59

Organization Elements Model (OEM), 46–47, 286–287

Organizational performance: process mapping, 188, 189, 191, 192; SIPOC diagram for measuring, 188–189, 190

Organizational Performance Models, 187

Organizational surveys: Denison Organizational Culture Survey (DOCS), 217–219; description and function of, 214; employee engagement, 214–219

Organizations: definition of, 1; mapping performance of, 188, 189, 191, 192; SIPOC diagram of, 188–189, 190

Photographic data collection: compared to other methods, 76; description of, 74

Photovoice, 74

Piontek, M. E., 108, 248

Pipe, P., 45

Planning: competency-based needs assessment, 151–153, 154; complex needs assessment, 208; job and task analysis, 124–128; knowledge and skills assessment, 95–99; strategic needs assessment, 179, 180

Pilot-testing survey, 69–70

Porter, M. E., 180

A Practical Guide to Needs Assessment (2007), 2, 4

Preskill, H. S., 19, 83, 98, 108, 248, 269, 287

Problems: fishbone or Ishikawa diagram of inputs or causes of, 191, 194; opportunities for improvement presented by, 26; tip on not throwing resources at, 18

Procedure analysis: description and purpose of, 195–196; gap analysis worksheet, 197

Process mapping, 188–190; 192; 193

Processes: benchmarking industry leaders to improve organizational, 191; definition of, 46; OEM used to obtain information about, 47, 286–287; procedure analysis of, 195–196, 197; SIPOC diagram of, 188–189, 190

Products: definition of, 46; OEM used to obtain information about, 47, 286–287

Performance: accomplishments, process, and capacity of, 23–24; advances over time in knowledge about, 49; barriers to individual, 45–46; diagnosing the causes of poor, 45–49; learning connection to, 22, 24; needs assessment to diagnose deficits in, 22

Performance analysis, 39

Performance Analysis for training (PAT) model, 287

Performance gap: competency-based needs assessment to identify, 161, 163; OEM used to obtain information of, 100; identifying causes of, 191, 194; knowledge and skills assessment of, 100–106

Performance improvement: needs assessment importance to, 1; strategic needs assessment plan for, 196–198

Performance Improvement Plan: components of the, 201; results of the, 202–203; XYZ Corporation case on developing a, 200–203

Performance Improvement/HPT Model, 287

Performance measurements: case on, 43–44; case on needs assessment and, 43–44; needs assessment issues related to, 41–44; organization, 188; ROI (return-on-investment), 44; SIPOC diagram for organization, 188–189, 190; strategic needs assessment sample, 186; tips on how to best approach, 42, 44

Performance problems: diagnosing causes of individual, 45–46; diagnosing causes of organizational, 46–48; diagnosing causes of system, 48–49

Performance Skills Profile, 102–104

Performance statement, 149

Pershing, J. A., 287

Phillips, J. J., 44, 52, 255

Phillips, P. P., 44

Phillips, 108

Planning: competency-based needs assessment, 151–153, 154; complex needs assessment, 208; job and task analysis, 124–128; knowledge and skills assessment, 95–99; strategic needs assessment, 179, 180

Pilot-testing survey, 69–70

Porter, M. E., 180

A Practical Guide to Needs Assessment (2007), 2, 4

Preskill, H. S., 19, 83, 98, 108, 248, 269, 287

Problems: fishbone or Ishikawa diagram of inputs or causes of, 191, 194; opportunities for improvement presented by, 26; tip on not throwing resources at, 18

Procedure analysis: description and purpose of, 195–196; gap analysis worksheet, 197

Process mapping, 188–190; 192; 193

Processes: benchmarking industry leaders to improve organizational, 191; definition of, 46; OEM used to obtain information about, 47, 286–287; procedure analysis of, 195–196, 197; SIPOC diagram of, 188–189, 190

Products: definition of, 46; OEM used to obtain information about, 47, 286–287
Index

Project creep, 244
Project shrink, 244
Proposals. See Needs assessment proposals
Putz, P., 283

Q
Qualitative data: analyzing, 81–82; collection of, 74
Quality Control Inspector Position Training plan, 142
Quantitative data: analyzing, 77–78; collection of, 74; computer software for analysis of, 74, 77
R
Range, 80
Raynor, M. E., 275
Reiser, R., 150
Reliability, 82
Repka, M., 27
Reports: Executive Summary, 248, 250
Revis, R., 150
Raynor, M. E., 275
Range, 80
Reiser, R., 150

S
Sales Leader Navigator (Wilson Learning), 61
Sales Navigator (Wilson Learning), 61
SAS, 74, 77
Scales: interval, 66, 67; Likert, 66, 67; tip on using same, 68
Schwarz, R., 57
Scriven, M., 19, 282

Shepherd, A., 118
Shulha, L. M., 260
Silva, G., 27
Simplified systems diagram, 26–27
SIPOC diagram, 188–189, 190
Sirota, 214
Skills: behavioral interview on, 156–158; definition of, 22; soccer example of difference between knowledge and, 23. See also Knowledge
Sleezer, C. M., 167, 187, 387
Smyth, J. D., 70
Snowflake effect, 2–3
Spencer, L. M., 146, 150, 153
Spencer, S. M., 146, 153
SPSS, 74, 77
Stakeholders: checking on correct spellings of names and titles of, 238; negotiating changes in purpose with, 273; world views of your, 39–40
Standard deviation, 80
Standards für Evaluation (DeGEval-Standards), 269
Staton-Tindall, M., 234
Steele, R., 186
Strategic Issues Worksheet, 179, 180
Strategic needs, 38
Strategic needs assessment: benefits and drawbacks, 175–176; case: pump manufacturing firm, 195–196; case: XYZ Corporation, 198–203; community asset mapping used with, 185; critical success factors, 176–177; description of, 29; effort and time required for, 30; Fishbone diagram showing causes for workers dissatisfaction, 191, 194; key phases of a, 177–203; matrix of, 32; overview of the multiple functions of the, 174–175; Process map Worksheet, 192–193; sample performance measures, 186; SIPOC diagram for measuring performance, 188–189, 190; Strategic Issues Worksheet, 179, 180; SWOT analysis as part of the, 178; Toolkit job aids for, 173–174, 192–193; 197; when to use, 175
Strategic needs assessment phases: examine internal environmental, 182, 184–196, 199–200; examine the external environment, 180–182, 183; 199–200; gather preliminary information about the situation, 179–180; Structured evaluation, 72
Stufflebeam, D. L., 20
Success Profile Architect (Lominger), 165
Survey preparation: designing, 61–63; developing questions for, 63–68; pilot-testing survey, 69–70; tip on scaling survey items, 68; tips for, 70–71; writing cover letter/email, 68–69; writing instructions, 68
Survey questions: closed-ended, 65, 67; development of, 63–64; interval and Likert scales used for, 66–68; multiple-choice, 65, 67; open-ended, 64, 67; two-choice, 65, 67; when to use specific types of, 67
Surveys: community, 213–214; compared to other data collection methods, 75–76; conducting and follow-up, 70–71; description of, 59–60; examples of commercially available need assessment, 61; organizational, 214–219; preparing, 60–71; prioritizing needs based on data from, 84
INDEX

The survivalist world view, 40
SWOT analysis, 178
Systems: comparing traditional and systems views of organizations, 48ff.; diagnosing, 48–49
Systems Model of Evaluation, 19ff.–20

T
Tactical (or operational) needs, 38
Tasks, 118. See also Job tasks

Test-retest reliability, 82
Tips: on analyst’s areas of expertise and integrity, 37; on assessing potential ethical issues, 237; on avoiding poorly managed needs assessment, 232; on benchmarking industry leaders to improve organization processes, 191; on checking on correct spellings of names and titles of stakeholders, 238; on comparing AEA guiding principles and JCSEE ethical standards, 268; on conducting strategic needs assessment, 179; on converting soft measures into hard numbers, 44; on ethical issues resources, 269; on ethics due to political nature of needs assessments, 258; on language to use in reports, 255; on limitations of systems tools, 47; on limiting responses for open-ended survey questions, 64; on measuring performance, 42, 44; on not throwing resources at problems or opportunities, 18; on overcoming potential obstacles to needs assessment, 235ff.–237ff.; on recognizing that problems present opportunities for improvement, 26; on reviewing an actual competency assessment, 164; on reviewing draft proposal with clients, 244; on scaling survey items, 68; on writing a needs assessment proposal, 245–246
Top-line focus group reports, 59ff.
Torres, R. T., 108, 248
Towers Watson, 214ff.

Training: advances over time in knowledge about, 49; EOSH (Environmental and occupational safety and health) complex needs assessment on, 220–226; example of EOSH schedule for strategic, 225ff.; job and task analysis to identify need for, 131; Job Training and Non-Training Recommendations I, 132ff.–134ff.; Job Training and Non-Training Recommendations II, 134ff.–136ff.; knowledge and skills assessment of need for, 100–106
Training needs assessment, 39
The tribesperson world view, 40
Trustworthiness, 83
Truth value, 83
Two-choice questions, 65, 67ff.

U
Ueno, A., 27
Unstructured observation, 72–73
U.S. Army, 146, 273
U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 258
U.S. Departments of Defense, 143
U.S. Departments of Labor, 143

V
Validity, 82–83
Van Buren, M. E., 185
Video data collection: compared to other methods, 76ff.; description of, 74
Visser, Y. L., 21, 84, 286ff.

W
Watkins, R., 21, 84, 286ff.
Webster, J. M., 234
West Meiers, M., 21, 84, 286ff.
White, J. L., 84
White, R., 146
Wilson Learning, 61ff.
WinSCP (Windows Secure Copy), 59ff.
Witkin, B. R., 206
Wood, T., 220
Worker dissatisfaction: fishbone diagram on, 191, 194; on management, labor, machines, and materials impact on, 194ff.
World views: assessing the client’s, stakeholders’, and your, 39; reasonable needs assessment actions based on specific, 40ff.

X
XYZ Corporation (pseudonym) case, 198–203

Y
Yarbrough, D. B., 260

Z
Zemke, R., 286ff.