Index

acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT), 143–4 acupressure, 96
acupuncture points, stimulation of, 96 acupuncture programmes of study, see also acupuncture services core syllabus for, 102–3 foundation training for nurses, 102 ‘in-house’ courses of study, 103–4 professional development, 104–5 supervisors on, 103
acupuncture services for chronic pain treatment, 99–100 clinical considerations for children, 98
contraindications, 95–6 mainstream services and, 98–9
patient selection, 95
potential side effects, 96–7 for pregnant women, 98 clinical governance, 105 audit, 107
complaints system, 108
documentation, 107
insurance, 107
liaison and communications, 108–9 patient consent, 107 patient information, 107 policies and procedures, 106 safety and risk assessments, 108 process of referrals for, 94–5 staff development
continuing professional development, 104–5 foundation training, 102–4, see also acupuncture programmes of study interprofessional learning and working, 105 top-ups/one-offs, 101–2 treatment courses, 100–101 acute pain management, see also acute pain service analgesic drugs for, 14–15, 17 nurse prescribing for, 165, 166 for patients with hip fracture, 15 problems in, 5
acute pain service
challenges in implementing adverse effects, 37–8 attitude of clinicians, 37 development of nurses, 33–4 pain nurse specialists, 34
patient selection, 34
protocols, guidelines and policies for, 36–7 stakeholder support for, 35–6
ketamine uses, 33
advanced nurse practitioner (ANP) competencies, 123–4 development of, 2
entrepreneurial services in pain management, see entrepreneurial services in pain management role in FNB service, 24 role in PMP, 150, 158–9 advanced nursing practice, 1
concept, 2
constituents of, 40–41
definition, 2
FNB service, 24, see also femoral nerve block (FNB) knowing-how knowledge, 3 knowing-that knowledge, 3–4 neuropathic pain clinic development, 58 in pain management, 6–7, 33–4 requirements of, 4
and strategic alliances, 123–4, see also entrepreneurial services in pain management typology, 5
advanced practice, see advanced nursing practice advanced practitioner, 41, 197 awareness of local and national policies, 25
definition, 2
role of, 6–7
advancing practice and advanced practice, differences between, 4
concept, 4
integration of knowledge in, 5 model of development, 4 of specialist pain practitioners, 195 alliance in health care, 113 allodynia, 30
analgesia, see also opioid analgesics and elderly patients, 14–15 in hospital setting, 71 for pain control, 12
Brief Pain Inventory (BPI), 134
bupivacaine, 82
intravenous infusion of, 72
Canadian advanced nurse practitioners, pain management by, 7 cardiac tamponade, 97
CBT-based PMPs, efficacy of, 151 central sensitization of NMDA receptor, 30 chronic pain
acupuncture services for, see acupuncture services
definition, 5
independent prescribing for, 165, 166
management, 6
prevalence rate, 5, 127, 143 specialist nurses medicine prescription for, 167 chronic post-surgical pain incidence of, 31
risk factors for developing, 32 role of ketamine in, 32–3 clinical leadership importance, 198
in nurse-led services, 197 qualities, 196, 197
clinical management plan template, 169 clinical risk reporting system, 75 cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), 143 community pain clinics, 127 challenges associated with cross-organisational agreement, 132–3 nurse consultant role, 132 development audit of patient satisfaction, 129 MDT approaches, 131
service design, 129–30
service model formulation, 131–2 service redesign, 131–2
Southampton Pain Service project, 130–1
evaluation
aims and objectives, 137 clinical outcomes, 134, 138 clinical outcomes questionnaires, 139
diffusion of innovation theory, 135–6 formative/summative, 138
GP interact with organisations, 136–7 satisfaction questionnaires, 139 service development from experience, 134–5 inclusion and exclusion criteria, 133 patient pathways into, 128–9 provision in NHS, 128
scope of service of, 134
Index

company structure, 154
complaints system, 108
contextual cognitive behavioral therapy (CCBT), 143–4 continuing professional development (CPD), 102, 104–5
diffusion of innovation theory, 135–6
diffusion of innovation theory, 135–6 derganoid patients and analgesic drugs, 13–14 drugs pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics in, 13 pain assessment, 14
pain perception, 13–14
electroacupuncture, 95
electronic reporting system, 76 entrepreneurial nurses, 114
entrepreneurial nurses, 114
entrepreneurial nurses, 114
entrepreneurial services in pain management development of, 115 entrepreneurial services in pain management development of, 115
entrepreneurs, categories of, 120 Entreprenurses, 116
epidural analgesia for acute pain management, 73–4
epidural analgesia for acute pain management, 73–4
documentation, 81–2
prescription document, 85 recommendations for NHS, 81 storage and administration, 84 epidural business case, 86 expert model, 3
facial pain, acupuncture influence on, 100 femoral nerve block (FNB) benefits, 15–16 challenges in implementing, 20–21, 26 contraindications for performing, 16 doctor training for performing, 16–17 nurse training for administration of local anaesthetic, 19 problem encountered with, 19–20 for patients with fractured neck of femur, 17 performing, 34
pilot project, patient with fractured neck of femur, 22 passive hip flexion, 22, 23 patient record, 21
service feedback, 23
protocol development, 17 audit data collection process, 19 patient group directories, 18–19 patient information sheet, 18
risk of, 16
fibromyalgia, 99
gabapentin, 39
general practitioner (GP), 172, 200, see also community pain clinics gluteal and pain transmission, 30 headaches, 99
hip fractures
incidence, 11
intensive nursing care in, 11 analgesia administration, 14–15 local anaesthetic use, 15 pain control, 12–13
under-treated pain, 13
mortality rate, 11
post-operative complications, 12 stress response, 12
surgery delay in, 11
hyperalgesia, 30
injectable medicines, 72
International Association for the Study of Pain (IASP), 5 interprofessional education (IPE) course advanced nursing contribution to, 191–2 approval, 186 challenges in setting up and running accreditation and validation, 187–8 business plan, 187
cost considerations, 188 students’ interests, 188–9
definition, 181
distance learning module assignment questions, 187 types, 184
evaluation, 184, 189–91
importance in interprofessional working, 181 MSc programme, 181, 186, 191 need for, 183, 184
planning team, 185–6 sessions at residential weekend, 186 interprofessional learning and working concept, 105 interprofessional working ANP competencies, 200–201 challenges associated with, 201 importance of, 200
IPE role in, 181, 199, 201–2
intrapreneurs, 115, 120
intrathecal vincristine, 72 IR1 system, see clinical risk reporting system IV/PCA/Enteral Pain Assessment Chart cover page, 78 pain assessment tool from, 79 ketamine, see also acute pain service adverse effects, 37–8 analgesic effect, 29
for chronic post-surgical pain treatment, 32–3, 39–40 efficacy of, 33
intravenous trial of, 34, 35 oral suspension of, 38
tolerance to, 38
uses of, 29
knowing-how and knowing-that knowledge framework, 3–4, 195 LANSS neuropathic pain assessment tool, 52 levobupivacaine in combination with Fentanyl, 83 side effects, 16
local anaesthetic blocks, 15–16 low back pain, 99
medication-related adverse events (MRAEs) analgesia-related, 88 incident reporting, 75–6, 87
injectable medicines, 72
media coverage, 72
risk of, 71
strategies to minimize, 74 medication safety initiative (MSI) group development and initiation of, 74, 89 management, 74
and medication safety, 88 medicines management, 130, 137 nursing involvement in, 74, 75 multidisciplinary team (MDT) pain management, 131, 140 National Health Service (NHS), 20 acupuncture services within, see acupuncture services alliances within, 113 changes in service provision of, 114 chronic pain services provision in, 128
FNB service implementation into, 21
PMPs, see pain management programme (PMP)
National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE), 21
National Patient Safety Agency (NPSA), 71, 81
National Service Framework for Older People, 20
needle breakage, 97
nerve injury, 46
nerve irritation, 97
neuropathic pain assessment tools, 52–3 causes of, 46
definitions, 45
nurse-led neuropathic pain clinic, 58 advanced nursing contribution to, 176–7 role in medicines management, 74, 75 skills development for advancing roles and responsibilities, 199
entrepreneurship, 114–15 training for FNB services, 19–20
ketamine uses, 36
Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC), 18 nursing knowledge, typology of, 2–3 occupational therapists (OTs), 145, 148 ongoing support in PMP, 149–50, 152
opioid analogues
adjuvant to perioperative, 32
documentation, 78–80
effectiveness in pain, 77
ostearthritis of knee, 99 outpatient programme, 148 pain in acupuncure treatment, 96 assessment, 14
control, 12–13
definition, 5
and elderly patients, see elderly under-treated, 13 pain clinic audit, 140 nurse-led neuropathic, see nurse-led neuropathic pain clinic in primary care, see community pain clinics programmes of study for nurses in, 103 pain education programmes (PEPs), 148 painful diabetic neuropathy patients nurse-led service for, 49, 63–4 work productivity, 48 pain management advanced practice in, 6 attributes of, 7
development of, 7–8
ketamine, see ketamine
PMPs, see pain management programme (PMP) advancing practice in, 202–3 challenges in interprofessional working, 182–3 challenges of, 5–6
cognitive behavioural therapy for, 143 treatment regimes in, see entrepreneurial services in pain management FNB services for, see femoral nerve block (FNB) multidisciplinary team, 131 nurse involvement and expertise in, 144–5 preventative analgesia in, 29 sub-optimal, 48
pain management, nurse prescribing in acute pain, 165, 166 advanced nursing contribution to, 176–7 audits, 176
chronic benign pain, 165–7 history, 164
organisational agreement for clinical management plan template, 168, 169 medicines group, 168, 169 non-medical prescribing, 169, 171–2, 173–6 patients’ pain relief community, 168
hospital, 167–8
prescriber plans for CPD, 172, 176 specialist nurses prescriptions, 172 pain management programme (PMP), 143 aims of, 144
beliefs and behaviours affecting, 159 development and design ANP roles, 158–9 assessment approach, 147–8 clinical team, 145
evaluation of progress, 150 group sessions, 148
ongoing support, 149–50 as outpatient programme, 148 screening of participants, 146–7
evaluation, 153
clinical governance criteria, 155–7
entrepreneurship, 168
marketing, 151–2
red flags identification, 150–151 referral management, 151 pain management service (PMS), 88 guidelines for non-medical prescribing in, 173–6 prescribing in, 173–6
internal guideline for clinical staff, 82 pain scores
in FNB services, 19, 22
in pre- and post-ketamine trial, 40
Index
Index

pain transmission and NMDA receptor, 29–30 patient-controlled analgesia (PCA), 32 adverse events related to, 73 business case, 86
commercially prepared morphine, 80
documentation, 78–80
infusion devices for, 80–81
intravenous opioid, 72–3, 89 patient group directions (PGDs) medicine administration under, 165 for performing nerve block, 18–19 template for Nottingham University Hospitals, 170–171 patient information sheet, 18
patient selection
for acupuncture services, 95 for acute pain service, 34 peripheral nerve blocks, 15
pneumothorax, 96–7
practical knowledge, 2, 3 pregnancy, acupuncture during, 98 pre-operative nerve blocks, 15 psychological approaches, neuropathic pain, 49–50 psychosocial yellow flags, 159 registered nurse, 198
Royal College of Nursing (RCN), 115
sedation policy, 36
social enterprise, 115
social entrepreneurs, 115
Southampton Pain Service project, 130–131 spinal pathology, red flags indicative of, 159 strategic alliance in health care, 113, 115, 119 supplementary prescribers, 164, 165 supplementary prescribing clinical management plan template, 169 surgeons and ketamine uses, 37 systemic analgesia, 17
telephone screening, 146–7 theoretical knowledge, 2, 3 trauma analgesia, 12
under-treated pain
factors influencing management of, 13 opioid use and, 14
vincristine, inadvertent administration of, 72
Wallace’s model, 117–19