Contents

The Authors xxxii
Contributing Authors xiv
Foreword: Stanley McGreal xv

All chapters authored by Andrea Colantonio and Tim Dixon unless otherwise stated

PART I SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY AND URBAN REGENERATION 1

1 Introduction 3
   Background and context 3
   Urban regeneration and social sustainability 7
   Aims and objectives 9
   Methodology for the research 11
   Case study selection 13
   Outline of the book 17

2 Social Sustainability and Sustainable Communities:
   Towards a Conceptual Framework 18
   Introduction 18
   What is social sustainability? 19
   Traditional and emerging themes and dimensions 24
   Sustainable cities and communities 30
   Conclusions 35

3 Metrics and Tools for Social Sustainability 37
   Introduction 37
   Impact assessment and social sustainability assessment 38
   A brief overview of sustainability indicators and social sustainability tools 47
   Traditional social indicators versus emerging social sustainability indicators 50
   Conclusions 52
4 Urban Regeneration: Delivering Social Sustainability 54
   Introduction 54
   A question of definition 55
   Evolution of urban regeneration policy 57
   Responsible investment practices 62
   Institutional involvement in urban regeneration 65
   Partnership models 71
   Integrating and measuring social sustainability in urban regeneration 77
   Conclusions 78

PART II SOCIALLY SUSTAINABLE URBAN REGENERATION IN EUROPE 81

5 Integrated Urban Regeneration and Sustainability: Approaches from the European Union 83
   Juliet Carpenter
   Introduction 83
   The EU policy framework 84
   The Structural Funds and Cohesion Fund to 2006 88
   The URBAN Community Initiative 95
   Structural Funds 2007–2013 97
   Conclusions 100

6 The Future Regeneration of Roath Basin, Cardiff Bay 102
   Tim Dixon and Austine Ng’ombe
   Introduction 102
   Historic perspective 103
   Regeneration policy: Cardiff Bay 105
   Policy and context: Recent developments 110
   Regeneration of Roath Basin 112
   Conclusions 121

7 The Regeneration of La Mina – Sant Adrià de Besòs 122
   Venere Stefania Sanna and Andrea Colantonio
   Introduction 122
   Urban development and decline 124
   The policy context 125
   Urban regeneration and partnership arrangements 127
   Social sustainability 135
   Conclusions 141
8 The Regeneration of Turin and Porta Palazzo 143

Introduction 143
Urban development and decline 144
The policy context 145
Urban regeneration and partnership arrangements 149
Social sustainability 159
Conclusions 167

9 The Regeneration of Rotterdam and the ‘South Pact’ 168

Introduction 168
Urban development and decline 170
Policy context 171
The regeneration of South Rotterdam and partnership arrangements 174
Social sustainability 179
Conclusions 185

10 Leipzig East and the Socially Integrative City ('Soziale Stadt') Programme 187
Robin Ganser

Introduction 187
Policy context 188
Funding structures 199
Partnership arrangements 200
Social sustainability 201
Conclusions 204

PART III BEST PRACTICES IN URBAN REGENERATION: CONCLUDING PERSPECTIVES 207

11 Towards Best Practice and a Social Sustainability Assessment Framework 209

Introduction and context 209
Best practice in social sustainability monitoring systems: igloo's SRI system 211
The social sustainability assessment framework 215
Conclusions 238

12 Conclusions 240

Introduction 240
Setting the scene: From distressed urban areas to regenerated urban areas? 242
Socially sustainable urban regeneration policy 245
Best approaches and practices to implement and monitor social sustainability 249
Public–private partnerships and emerging urban regeneration delivery vehicles 253
The future of urban regeneration: Moving out of recession and retaining the social dimension 254

Appendices 259
1 Interviews conducted as part of the research process and fieldworks 259
2 Vancouver’s quality of life and social sustainability indicators 262
3 The evolution of sustainable development metrics initiatives by governmental and institutional organisations 263
4 Main CSR and social capital initiatives, tools and techniques 266
5 Assessment of igloo’s SRI policy objectives 270
6 List of comparative baseline basic indicators for La Mina neighbourhood [2001] 273

Bibliography 285
Index 309