Index

3M, 96

A
Accountability, 42, 114
Alcoa, 11
    accounting close, 144
    mission, 84
    new headquarters design, 164
Amazon.com, 8–9
American Express, 137
    forecasting process, 183–184
Apple, 12
    customer relevance, 201, 204
    flexibility, 75
    forecasting, 171
    leadership, 280, 281
    as a market leader, 75, 214,
    Armstrong, J. Scott, 172
Audi, customer relevance, 203

B Balanced scorecard, 158–159
    dimensions, 158–159
    excessive use of, 30, 235 usefulness of, 65, 169, 206, 264
Ballmer, Steve, 88, 93–94, 150
Bank of America, 16
    risk management, 205
    selling change, 269
Barnes and Noble, 9
Benchmarking
    disadvantages of, 39 metrics. See Metrics performance management process, 39–40 predictions, 284
    value of, 38
Bernstein, Peter L., 196
Best Buy, 17
Best practices
    adoption, 34–36
    application, 32–34
    definition, 27–31
    history of, 61–64
    types, 31–32
    value of, 35–37
Beyond Budgeting Round Table (BBRT), 178, 184
BHAGs (big hairy audacious goals), 97, 107
Black Swan events, 197, 198, 219
Blockbuster, versus Netflix, 200, 214
BMW
    loss of market share, 100
    strategic focus, 45
Boeing, 8
Boo.com, 75, 97, 210, 237
Bossidy, Larry, 15, 50, 95, 104, 116
Briloff, Abraham, 158 Budgeting
    annual, 70
    automation, 130
    Beyond Budgeting, 287
    capital, 109
    level of detail, 127–130
    transfer pricing, 71
Buffett, Warren, 92–93

C
Champy, James, 259
Charles Schwab, 17
Chief executive officer (CEO), role of, 93–94
Chief risk officer (CRO), role of, 207, 216
Christensen, Clayton, 100
Churchill, Winston, 274, 280
Cisco Systems
  accounting close, 144
  managing IT investments, 125
Coca-Cola,
  brand value, 16
  Goizueta, Roberto, 93, 115, 276
  near-term forecasting, 190
  new Coke, 276
  performance measures, 153
Collins, Jim, 152–153, 281
Collopy, Fred, 172
Continental Airlines, 161–162
Corning, risk management at, 219
Corporate planning, 75
Critical success factors (CSFs), for best practice implementation approaching program in stages, 264 building commitment, 267–269 comprehensive planning, 264–265
    dedicating resources, 265–266, 270 involving senior management, 271–272
    flexibility, 271
    managing morale, 272 momentum, 269–270
    organizational politics, 270 “silver bullets,” 263–264
    technology control, 271
definition, 249
  “game,” 251
  and planning process, 256–257
Crockett, Andrew, 200
Culture, corporate, 80–81
Customer relevance, 200–201
  Apple, 201, 204
  Audi, 203
  Yum! brands, 201
Cycle time, 51–52

D
Davenport, Thomas H., 154
Detail versus accuracy in reporting, 48–49
Disney, 75, 79,
  Pixar acquisition of, 75
Disraeli, Benjamin, 5
Dow Chemical, 11
Drohan, William, 82
Drucker, Peter, 64, 68–69, 152, 163, 184, 191, 198–199

E
E*Trade, 9
eBay, 8
Edison, Thomas, 99, 171
Ellison, Larry, 263
Enron, 30
  values, 91–92
Enterprise risk management. See Risk management
ExxonMobil, 11, 101, 137
  Valdez, 101

F
Facebook, 276
FedEx, 19, 154, 202
  mission, 81
Financial planning, 26
  best practices
    alternative scenarios, 134–136
    business drivers, 127 cycle, 137
    eliminating detail, 127–130
    eliminating politics, 133–134
    flexibility, 136–137
    focus on materiality and volatility, 132–133
    generating baselines, 130–131
    responsibility, 133
    summary, 138–139
definition, 26, 109
  process, 110–111
  and tactical planning, 109–111, 117
  targeting for, 96, 112–113 terminology, 2
  versus forecasting, 178
Index

Ford, Henry, 7
Forecasting,
cycle time, 172
definition, 26, 172
hockey stick effect, 191
rolling, 180–183
sales, 179
time horizon, 185
versus financial planning, 178

Fortune magazine, 77
Fraser, Robin, 287

G
Galbraith, John Kenneth, 100
Gartner Research, 24
Gates, Bill, 18, 65, 87, 93
Geithner, Timothy, 200
General Electric, 10–11, 32
performance measures, 153
values, 89–90
General Motors, 8, 13, 74, 127
Gerstner, Lou, 83–84
GlaxoSmithKline, mission, 86
Globalization, 13
Goizueta, Roberto, 93, 115, 276
Goizigian, Greg, 228
Google, 8, 18–19, 285
forecasting, 186
growth, 66, 67
mission and values, 80, 88, 90–91
Greenspan, Alan, 21, 221

H
H1N1 virus, 5, 23
as Black Swan event, 197
and globalization, 198
Hamel, Gary, 103–104, 191
Hammer, Michael, 259
Harry Potter books, 9
Henley, Jeff, 263
Hewlett-Packard, 99, 105
culture, 80
leadership, 261
Hofmann, Michael, 196
Honeywell, 11, 46
Bossidy, Larry, See Bossidy, Larry Hope, Jeremy, 287

I IBM
leadership, 274
vision, 83–84
Iger, Robert, 75
Immelt, Jeffrey, 90
Implementing best practices, approaches, 247–248
defining critical factors, 249–251
designing user experience, 255–256
integrating reporting and planning processes, 256–257
performance measures, 251–253
defining, 251–253
sourcing, 253–255
phases, 248
questions, 261
skills required, 257–258

Incentive compensation for management, 43–44, 257
for sales, 179
Industrial Revolution, 7, 19–20
Information technology. See also Technology
convergence, 223–224
history, 222–223
implementation approaches, 235–236
return on investment, 238–240
spending, 8, 221

Innovation
discipline, 100
failure, 99
products, 12
Intangible assets, 16

J
Johnson & Johnson
innovation, 100
values, 88–89
K
Kaplan, Robert, 158
Kelleher, Herb, 98
Kellner, Lawrence, 161
Kelly, Gary, 176
Kennedy, John F., 83
Kirk, James T., 86
Kiva, mission, 86
Koch Industries, risk management, 196
Krause, Art, 271

L
Lehman Brothers, 5
Levi Strauss, 17
Liddell Hart, B.H., 64
L.L. Bean, 34, 277
Lynette, L. W., 273

M Malmstein, Ernst, 75–76
Management reporting best practice attributes, 154–155
content, 149–150
definition, 26
design, 166
information types, 141
relationships, 147–148 Manufacturing productivity 10–11
supply chain, 7–9
U.S. sector decline, 11–12, 16, 72
Mayo Clinic, 34
Maytag
brand, 203
price of success, 189
McDonald’s, 116,
defined strengths, 94, 202, 211
forecasting, 116, 174
swift decision making, 31, 38
McNealy, Scott, 92, 114
Merck, 34
Mergers and acquisitions, 15–16
Merrill Lynch, 9

Metrics
best practices for, 57–58, 168, 214
common problems
accountability, 42–43
automation, 54
communication, 46
compensation, 43–45
cycle time, 51–52
detail vs. accuracy, 48–49
financial focus, 49
inflexibility, 50–51
integration, 46–47
strategy definition, 45
outdated management practices, 41
project orientation, 49–50
risk recognition, 45
spreadsheets, 55
staff leverage, 52–54
too much information, 47–48
wrong information, 42, 156
in mobilization process, 123
setting targets, 96 testing, 216
Microsoft, Ballmer, Steve, 88, 93–94, 150
benchmarking, 150
Gates, Bill, 18, 65, 87, 93–94
mission and vision, 80, 87–88
sustaining performance, 66, 78–79
Mission, 79, 281
changing, 87–88
defining, 81–82
GlaxoSmithKline, 86
Google, 91
IBM, 83
importance of, 80
Starbucks, 84–85
values. See Values, corporate Moore’s Law, 20–21
Motorola, loss of market share, 73, 188, 210
Myers, Maury, 279
Index

N Netflix, 12
  versus Blockbuster, 200, 214
Netscape, 5
New York Times, 1
Nike, 9
Norton, David, 158

O
O’Neill, Paul, 164
Oppenheimer, Peter, 171
Oracle Corporation, 263
Organization structure, 66–67, 146

P
Patton, George S., 24
Performance management, definition, 25
Performance measures,
  composition of, 47–48
  definition, 249–250
  sourcing, 253–255
Peters, Tom, 64, 78–79, 119, 158
Player, Gary, 189
Porter, Michael, 105
Princess Cruise Lines, leveraging technology, 227–229
Pritchett, Price, 272
Procter & Gamble, flexible budgeting at, 137 Productivity
  history of
    in best practices, 260, 284
    in manufacturing, 10–12
    improving, 35, 72, 221–222
    staff, 52–54, 71–72
    technology, 166, 221–222, 230
Progressive Insurance, business model, 212

R
Reed, John, 94
Regulation, 13
  compliance, 203
recent history of, 13–15
and risk management, 199–200, 219
telecommunications industry, 13–15, 102
Recession, 22–23
Risk management
  Black Swan events, 197–198
  COSO framework, 206
  customer relevance, 200–201
  definition, 27
  developing capability, 204–206
  early-warning system, 207–210
  enterprise risk management (ERM) teams, 216–217 external risk profile, 210–211
  forecasting, 186–187
    variance, 192
  mitigation techniques, 217–218
  performance management, 30, 213
  summary, 219
S Sandbagging, 43–44, 180, 228, 247
SAS Institute, values, 80
Save the Children, mission, 86
Scenario planning, example scenarios, 103
  and financial planning, 134–135
  history, 74
  resistance to, 101–102
  time horizon, 185–186
  value of, 101, 102, 171, 206
Schapiro, Mary, 44
Schmidt, Eric, 186
Schwartz, Peter 101, 171
Schwarzkopf, H. Norman, 105
Service sector productivity, 10–12
Sloan, Jr., Alfred P., 64, 69–70
Spreadsheets
  as budgeting tools, 55
  ineffiency, 54, 163, 172
Sonax GmbH & Co., 113
Southwest Airlines, 80, 197
  forecasting, 176–178
Sprint, 102, 271
Stack, Jack, 179
Starbucks, 95, 200
mission and values, 84–86
State Farm, business model, 212
Stent, Jim, 29
Strategic planning attributes, 76
definition, 25, 76
level of detail, 104
loss of focus, 98
participation, 95

T Tactical planning,
accountability, 115
alternative scenarios, 134–136
and budgets, 117, 126
communication, 116–117
components of, 111–112
definition, 25
and financial planning, 26
projects, 118–119
completion, 124
conception, 119
execution, 123–124
life cycle, 120
mobilization, 123
postimplementation, 124–125
prioritization, 119–123
and strategic planning, 25, 113–114
summary, 138
target setting, 112–113
time horizon, 115
typical process, 110
Target,
market disruption, 100
mission and vision, 87
Target setting, 96–97
and planning, 112
and risk measures, 216
typical process, 78
Technology
best practices, 72, 136,

business planning, 229–230
communication, 163, 236–237
information delivery, 161–162
leverage, 54, 55, 229, 238
performance management, 225–227
return on investments, 238–239
selecting systems, 231–233
summary, 241
training, 163
user-centric approach, 160–161
customer relevance, 203, 223
exploiting, 29, 69, 225
impact on business, 8–9, 13, 18–22, 210
inefficiency, 54, 72, 140, 233–235
information. See Information technology generating baselines, 130
Moore’s law, 21
problems with, 21, 54, 121, 265, 271
Time-based competition, 17–18
Toffler, Alvin, 165
Truman, Harry S., 263
Tufte, Edward, 166

U
Union Carbide, 101
U.S. Forest Service, mission, 86

V Values, corporate constituencies, 92
definition, 88
Enron, 91–92
GE, 89–90
Google, 91
Johnson & Johnson, 88–89

W Wal-Mart
business model, 214
leverage technology, 19, 116, 136–137, 161, 207
Index

market disruption, 11, 98, 100
threats, 46, 205, 211
Waste Management, 279
Waterman, Robert, 64, 78–79
Welch, Jack, 19, 75, 89–90, 93, 245, 275, 278
W. L. Gore & Associates, 80–81
WorldCom, 109

X
Xerox, 34

Y
Yum! brands, customer relevance, 201

Z Zuckerberg, Mark, 276