Contents

List of Tables and Figures ix

Foreword Robert D. Myrick, PhD xi

Chapter 1 Introduction to School Counselors as Consultants 1
Personal and Professional Growth Orientation 2
Knowledge of Consultation and Human Behavior 2
Consulting Skills 2
A Multicultural and Diversity Perspective 3
Why Consult? 5

Chapter 2 A School-Based Approach to Consultation: Supporting Models and Theories 9
Consultation in Schools 9
Theoretical Approach 10
Models of Consultation 12
Another Approach to Organization of Models 14
Models and Theory Central to This Approach 15
Case Consultation Model 16
Teaching/Workshop Model 16

Chapter 3 Ethical Issues in Consultation 19
Tripartite Relationship 19
Information about the Student (Client) 20
Information about the Consultee 23
Nonsupervisory Relationship 23
Voluntary and Temporary Relationship 24
Voluntary and Temporary 24
Encourages Consultee Self-Reliance 25
Work-Related Relationship 25
Other Ethical Issues 26
Working with Other Professionals 26
Competence 28
Values 28
Fees for Service 29
Additional Considerations 29
Chapter 4  Case Consultation with Teachers and Parents

Basic Consultation Model
Before the Consultation
   Step I: Prepare for the Consultation
During the Consultation
   Step II: Define the Process and Develop the Relationship
   Step III: Present and Gather Information about the Student
   Step IV: Choose Behaviors to Work On—Identify/Plan Intervention and Follow-Up Strategies
After the Consultation
   Step V: Follow-Up

Chapter 5  Typical Issues in School Consultation

How to Refer Students
What Parents and Teachers Can Tell Students about Seeing the Counselor
Frequently Asked Questions
Consultee Resistance

Chapter 6  Workshops and Education Programs

Workshop Model
Programs for Teachers
   Cooperative Discipline
   Tribes: A New Way of Learning and Being Together
   Systematic Training for Effective Teaching
Preparing Parents for a Different Approach
Programs for Parents
   MegaSkills
   Roots and Wings: Raising Resilient Children
   Building Successful Partnerships: A Guide for Developing Parent and Family Involvement Programs
   Systematic Training for Effective Parenting
   The Next STEP (Systematic Training for Effective Parenting through Problem Solving)
   Strengthening Stepfamilies
   Active Parenting Now
   Family Talk
   Bowdoin Parent Education Program

Chapter 7  Other Opportunities for Consultation in Schools

Parent-Teacher-Counselor Conferences
Student-Teacher-Counselor Conferences
CONTENTS

Teacher Team Consultation 67
  Grade Level Team Meetings 67
  School-Based Teams 68
  Referral Teams 74
Common School-Based Recommendations for Students with Task Completion Difficulties 75
Teacher Advisor Programs 76
Other Suggestions about Kinds of Consultation 78

Chapter 8  Classroom Meetings: Creating a Climate of Cooperation 81
Benefits of Classroom Meetings 81
The Classroom Meeting Format 82
Teaching Teachers to Use Classroom Meetings 84
Barriers to Effective Classroom Meetings and Strategies to Overcome Them 86

Chapter 9  Consultation with Administrators 89
Crisis Intervention: Planning for and Responding to a Crisis 90
  The Role of the School Counselor 90
  Guidelines for Responding to a Crisis 92
Schoolwide Plans 92
  The Process of Schoolwide Change 94
  The School Counselor and Discipline Planning 95
  A Four-KEY Approach to Schoolwide Discipline 97

Chapter 10  Consultation in the Community 101
Referrals 101
  Speaker’s Bureau 102
  Parent Group 102
  Service or Civic Clubs 103
  Business Partners or Partners in Education 103
Community Task Forces 103
  Grandparent Program 104
Keys to Successful Community Involvement 104

Concluding Remarks 107

Appendix A: Adlerian Theory 109
Appendix B: Ethical Standards for School Counselors 117
Appendix C: The American Counseling Association Code of Ethics 131