A
After-school programs, 25, 275–289, 319; and CRE, 277–279; mission of, 276

B
Bias awareness education, 236–273; training for adults, 255–256; age appropriateness of, 260–261
Bullying prevention, 10, 22, 221–250, 322; adults intervening, 229–231; and restorative justice, 226–227; misconceptions about bullying, 223–225; student reporting, 227–228; statistics on, 10

C
Circle processes, 203. See also Restorative justice
Classroom agreements, 68. See also Classroom practices that promote CRE
Classroom practices that promote CRE, 48–59; assessing social skills, 55–57; cooperative learning, 54–55; developing group guidelines and agreements, 49–50; engaging in negotiated learning, 50–52; gatherings and closings, 57–58; holding class meetings, 52–54
Community Accountability Board, 232; See also Bullying prevention
Community group conferencing, 203. See also Restorative justice
Conflict resolution education, basic guidelines for implementing, 31–33; building caring communities, 292–296; connecting CRE efforts, 292–296; critical skills taught, 20, 23; definition of, 19; goals of, 21–28; institutionalizing, 302–305; prevalence of programs, 19; program models, 28–29; program standards and accountability, 300–302; relationship to other fields, 23–24; research proven benefits, 27, 30–31; tension between prepared programs and philosophy-based practices, 298–300
Conflict styles, 20, 89. See also Negotiation
Contemporary education, 4–5, 12–22; changing educational models, 4–5; increasing diversity in, 14; mission of, 12; pressure on academic achievement, 13
Contemporary student experience, 8–15
Council, 70–72. See also Social and emotional learning
Curriculum infusion, 27–29, 173–197, 304; administrative challenges to, 178–180; classroom environments that support, 175–176; examples of, in language arts and drama, 180–183; examples of, in history, 183–185; examples of, in math and science, 185–186; professional development that supports, 177–180
D
Dialogue curriculum, 185
Direct skill instruction, 28, 37–40; guidelines for, 38–39; in elementary schools, 39; in high schools, 39–40; in middle schools, 39
Discipline, 12–13, 199–200
Divorce (and family challenges), 11–12

E
Emotional intelligence, 63–67; and emotional literacy, 63–64
Expressive arts and CRE, 20, 147–171, 297, 320–322; conflict discovery through, 147–151; guidelines for, 151–152; models for schoolwide focus, 157–159; promoting awareness through, 153–155; using, within the curriculum, 155–157. See also Partnership for Conflict Resolution Education in the Arts in Name Index

I
I Messages, 65–66, 259

L
Layered learning, 174–175. See also Curriculum infusion
Listening, 66, 70

N
National Educational Goals, 21
Negotiation, 89–108; challenges of negotiation programs in schools, 93–96; collaborative approach to, 90; definition of, 90; negotiation curricula, 90–97. See also Program for Young Negotiators; Talk It Out; and Teaching Students to be Peacemakers in

P
Parental involvement, in bullying prevention, 233; in restorative justice, 206; in social and emotional learning, 73–74 “Peace place,” 280. See also After-school programs
Perspective taking, 259

R
Restorative justice, 20, 199–220; age appropriateness, 207; challenges to restorative justice in schools, 204–205; essentials of successful programs, 205–207; models of, 202–204; principles of, 200–202; research on, 202

S
Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1994, 21
Schoolwide practices that support CRE, 40–48; adult modeling, 36–37; healthy play, 41–42; promoting positive peer culture, 46–48; service and stewardship, 46; student orientations, 43–46
Social and emotional learning, 20, 63–88, 292, 322–323; partnership with CRE, 64–67; proven benefits of, 38

V
Victim offender mediation, 202–203. See also Restorative justice
Violence in schools, 9