Contents

Foreword by Randy Komisar xiii
Preface xvii
Prologue xxiii

Part One: Leadership Communication: Personal Awareness and Competing Dynamics 1

1 Discovering What Matters 9
   Who Are You? 10
   What Do You Want? 11
   Recognizing and Reflecting on Your Point of View—Defining Moments 15
   Communicating Through the Prism of Your Values 18
   Distilling Values into Conviction 18

2 Deepening Emotional Awareness 23
   Recognition, Resonance, Regulation, and Response 24
   The Neurobiology of Empathy: The Magic of the Mirror 28
   Transmitting Empathy to Show Character: Developing Trust 32
   Leadership: Empathy in Action 34

3 Connecting with Others 45
   Unconscious and Unspoken Harmonies 46
   Image and Symbol 48
   Analogy and Metaphor 51
   Narrative as Connection—Myth, Story, and Experience 56
   The Rules of Engagement—Authenticity Is Paramount 64
4 Writing—Applying Discipline to Authenticity 67
   Writing as a Process 68
   Your Voice Comes Through 71
   Documenting Competence and Connection 74

Part Two: The Personal Leadership Communication Guide:
   Biography with a Purpose 79

5 Establishing Competence and Building Trustworthiness 85
   Establishing Competence 85
   Building Trust—Authenticity 94

6 Creating Shared Context 115
   Building a Common Understanding 116
   Evidence: Logic and Data 133
   Revealing the Personal: Showing the Passion 134
   The Context Complete 136

7 Declaring and Describing the Future 141
   Declaration: An Act of Creation 141
   Making It Real: Spelling Out the Alternatives 144
   Creating the World We Want 152

8 Committing to Action 155
   Organizational and Personal Steps Toward Change 155
   Personal Commitment, Personal Action 158
   Involving Others—Asking for Commitment 165

9 Leadership Communication in Action 171
   Projecting Your Message 173
   Listening and Responding with Emotional Intelligence 177
   The Daily Practice of Leadership Communication 187

Epilogue: Communication:
   The Cauldron of Leadership 197
Appendixes

A: The Choice and Use of Evidence in Leadership
   Communication

B: Framework for Personal Leadership
   Communication Guide

Notes
Recommended Reading
Acknowledgments
About the Author
Index