Admissions decisions (Continued)
dealing with disappointment, 320–321;
summarizing the factors determining the,
42–44; tentative, 51–52; unpredictability of the, 20–21; See also Acceptance decisions;
Student applicants
Admissions officers: ambassador and gatekeeper roles of, 46–47; how they help build the applicant pool, 46; what they look for in letters of recommendation, 33, 279, 303–304; who are the, 45–46
Admissions process: the admissions officers involved in, 45–47; “holistic,” 47–48; how college access programs can help you in,
58–59; how the application is evaluated,
49–50; how the final decision is made,
52–54; at the most selective colleges, 56–57;
the parental role during the, 60–61; reading the application and file, 48–49; role of your high school counselor in the, 57; tentative decisions made during, 50–52; UCLA example of the, 54–55; what happens to your submitted application, 47–50
Admissions rates: factors that affect, 14–15;
how they contribute to college frenzy, 14–16; ways colleges can increase their yield, 15–16
Admit programs, 322–323
Advanced Placement (AP) courses: academic record inclusion of, 24–25; “Be reasonable and stay sane” approach to taking, 25–26; importance of both course load and grades in, 25; required by English, Welsh, and Northern Irish universities, 238; school profile on, 27
Affirmative action admissions, 40
Affordability. See Finances
Agnes Scott College, 78
Air Force Academy, 76
Alcohol use, 87
Allen, Seth, 292
American University (AU), 215
Americans with Disabilities Act
(ADA), 268–269
Amherst College, 68, 92, 154, 244
Appealing financial aid package, 192
Applerouth, Jed, 138
Applicant pool: the competitiveness of the, 53;
parents’ lack of understanding of the, 53;
personalized “search” letters used to build college, 109–110. See also Student applicants
Application choices: Cappex Application,
204–205; Coalition Application, 204, 210,
232; Common Application, 6, 202–203,
210, 214, 232, 264, 285, 303; Universal College Application, 203, 210, 224, 232;
what should determine your, 205
Application preparation: fighting the urge to procrastinate, 162–163, 200–201, 344;
follow directions, 202; neatness, proofing, and completeness, 201–202; for student artists, 257–261; tips for getting off to a good start, 200–202; to-do list and timeline for your, 216–218. See also The essay Applications: the academic record as the heart of your, 23; build your college list for sending your, 101–126; Canadian, British,
Irish, and Dutch universities, 235–241; evaluating the, 49–50, 52; getting them in early vs. procrastinating your, 162–163, 200–201, 344; priority deadlines for,
162–163, 216; reading the submitted,
48–49; what happens to your submitted,
47–50; what to do after you’ve submitted your, 241; whether to disclose disability on your, 273–274. See also EA (early action) applications; ED (early decision) applications
Arizona State University, 73, 146
Artists. See Student artists
Asbury College (Kentucky), 75
Aspire (ACT-related test for younger students), 137
Athletic recruitment: admissibility and academic index (AI) required for, 249–250;
issues for the student athlete to consider,
244–246; making the commitment,
252–253; signs of coach interest in,
250–252; structure of college athletics impacting, 243–244; understanding the process of, 246–249; what if you are not recruited, 253. See also National Collegiate Athletic Association
Atlantic Bridge Program (international applicants), 239
Auditions: performing arts, 262–264; student artist preparation for, 258–259
Autism spectrum disorder, 266–267
Babson College, 74
Baccalaureate colleges, 74–75
Bankston, Tony, 201
Barnard College, 69, 78, 256
Bauld, Harry, 206
Beach, Barry, 260
Bentley College, 76
BigFuture website: information on college majors and careers on, 88–89; international student resources on, 294; to narrow down your college list, 110–111; net price calculators available on, 190; as tool to build college list, 103–104
Black, William, 29
Bagnoli, Joe, 40
Bollinger, Lee, 13
Boston College, 77, 157
Boston University, 211–212
Bowdoin College, 154, 244
Bowen, William, 39
Brandeis University, 77, 322
Brigham Young University, 77
Bright Futures Scholarship Program (Florida), 184
Brown University, 92
Bucknell University, 36, 67, 69, 73
California College of the Arts, 256
California Institute of Technology, 207
California Institute of the Arts, 75, 256
California State University, Chico, 243
California State University system, 134, 184
Caltech, 48, 72
Cambridge University (UK), 237–238
Campus safety: Clery Report on crime statistics and, 86; college–student fit and issue of, 85–86
Campus size and community feel: college website as way to explore the, 112; college–student fit and issue of, 84–85; intellectual atmosphere, 86–87; liberal arts colleges, 69; outside of class time, 87; research universities, 72; social life, 86
Campus social life: college–student fit and, 86; recreational time and activities, 87. See also Athletics and activities; Extracurricular activities
Canadian universities: applying for, 236–237; SAT, ACT, and SAT Subject Tests required by, 237; study abroad at, 79
Cappex Application, 204–205
Career planning, 87–94
Carnegie Mellon University, 193, 244
Carroll College (Montana), 75
Casper, Gerhard, 11
Catalogs (or college bulletins), 112–113, 295
Catholic colleges, 77
CBOs (community-based organizations) college access programs, 58
Certification of Finances (international student applicants), 306
Cheron, Elizabeth, 209
Claremont Colleges consortium, 68, 78
Claremont McKenna College, 68, 78, 279
Clark, Richard, 326
Clarkson University, 244
Class rank, 26–27
Clery Report, 86
Clinton, Hillary, 78
Coaches: how to assess real interest by, 250–252; NCAA recruitment guidelines followed by, 248–249; screening for student admissibility and academic index (AI), 249–250; understanding the recruiting process by, 246–248
Coalition Application: Coalition Locker, 204, 233; description of the, 204; essay word-length guidelines by the, 210; highlighting what you’ve accomplished on the, 232
Coca Cola Scholars Program Scholarships, 185
Colby College, 41, 179
Coleman, David, 128
Colgate University, 73
College access programs, 58–59
College Affordability and Transparency Center website, 104, 189
College fairs: virtual, 106–107; getting the most out of, 105–106
College Greenlight, 58
College lists: college search tools used to build, 103–105; financial considerations, 125–126, 188–190; how to begin building your, 101–103; how to narrow down your, 110–113, 116–118, 121–123; length of, 123–124; meeting college representatives to build your, 105–109; selectivity and your, 119–121
College Navigator, 104
College partnership programs, 185–186
College priorities: college–student fit and issue of institutional mission and, 66; influence on college admissions decisions by, 24, 36–42
College programs abroad: in Canada, 79, 236–237; deadline differences, 236; Dutch example of English-taught programs in non-English-speaking country, 81–82; Foundation Year or Programme (UK, Ireland, or Holland) requirement, 241; language differences, 80; overview of, 78–79; paying for, 235–236; tuition, 79, 80, 81–82; understanding the differences among countries, 235; in the United Kingdom and Ireland, 79–81
College Scholarship Service Profile (CSS PROFILE), 166, 169–171
College search tools: 103–105
College Summit, 58
College visits: the “bench test” to end your, 114; how parents can help your, 117–118; narrowing down your college list through the, 113–118; parent accompany but stay back during, 341; transfer student applicants and, 287; YouniversityTV for virtual, 118
College Week Live (virtual college fair), 106–107
Colleges: admission decisions influenced by priorities of the, 50–51; admissions rates of, 8–9, 14–16; checking accreditation status of, 295; elite, 7–9, 11–14, 16–18; Ivy League, 8, 10–11, 39; need blind, need-aware, and full need policies of, 165, 179–180, 306; priorities and institutional mission of, 24, 36–42, 66; rankings of, 5–6, 8, 10–14; receiving personalized “search” letter from, 109–110; test-optional, 148–149; watching out for similar names or names that may mislead you, 73; websites of individual, 111–113. See also Selective colleges
Colleges with special affiliations: Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), 77; religious affiliations, 77; women’s colleges, 77–78
College–student fit factors: campus size, 84–85; the intangibles to consider, 85–87; location, weather and culture, 65–66, 83–84
CollegeXpress, 105
Colorado School of Mines, 76
Colorado State University, 203
Columbia University, 78, 256
Common Application: “additional information” section of the, 214, 232; description of the, 202–203; essay word limit, 210; increasing use of, 6; international student applicants using, 304; SlideRoom portal for artist applications, 264; for transfer student applicants, 285
Common Data Set, 122
Community colleges: college–student fit at, 66–67; students transferring from, 281–288
Community service: admission decision influence of, 31; highlighting your accomplishments in, 232–235
Connecticut College, 208
Cooper Union (New York), 76
Cornell University, 161, 193
Costs. See Finances
Counseling and health services, 94
Counselors. See High school counselors; Independent college counselors
Coverdell Education Savings Accounts (Education IRAs), 195
Creighton University, 74
CSS PROFILE: deadline for, 217; description of the, 166–167, 169–170; differences in aid calculations of FAFSA and, 172–173; for international students, 306; net price calculators on schools using, 190; submitting the, 170–171
DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) program, 307, 308
Index

Dahl, Margit, 205
Dale, Stacey, 17–18
Dance auditions, 263–264
Dartmouth College, 52
Davenport, David, 18
Davidson College, 77
Deacon, Charles, 37

Decisions. See Admissions decisions
Deferral decisions: handling ED (early decision), 160, 316–317; send fall semester grades to college that has sent, 218; what to do if you receive a, 317–318
Degrees. See Academic programs
Demonstrated interest: how to show your, 231–232; increasing college yield by considering, 16; by wait-listed students, 327, 329
Denial decisions: handling ED (early decision), 160, 316–317; high school senior's remarks upon hearing the, 54; how the final decision is made, 52–53. See also Admission decisions
Dependents Education Assistance program (DEA), 184
Deposit ethics, 329–330
Development admits, 38
Disabilities: disclosing on application, 273–274; federal government definition of, 266–267; laws relevant to, 268–270; support for, 270–272. See also Students with disabilities
Disciplinary violations in high school, 224–225
"Displacement" financial aid rule, 186–187
Diversity: admissions decisions based on, 40–41; college–student fit and issue of, 65; "fly-in programs," 40
DREAM Act proposed legislation, 307
Drexel University, 93
DRT (IRS Data Retrieval Tool), 168, 171
Dual-degree programs, 90–91
Duke University, 41, 108, 193
Dutch university system: applying for the, 240–241; Foundation Year or Programme requirement of, 241; study abroad at the, 81–82
Dysgraphia, 267
Dyslexia, 267

EA (early action) applications: comparing different options for, 157; CSS PROFILE submission deadline for, 170; differences between ED (early decision) and, 146; follow the directions for, 202; honoring your commitment to, 157; making the decision for, 158–159; restrictions that may be placed on, 156–157. See also Applications
Eastern Illinois University, 243
ED (early decision) applications: advantages and disadvantages of, 151–156; class of 2020 admission rates by percentage, 154; comparing different options for, 157; CSS PROFILE submission deadline for, 170; differences between EA (early action) and, 156; ED I and ED II rounds of, 160–161; financial aid issue related to, 193–194; handling denial or deferral decisions, 160, 316–317; have Plan B in place, 160; honoring your commitment to, 157; increasing college yield by accepting more, 15–16; likely letters and early notification, 161–162; making the decision for, 158–159; overview of early acceptance programs, 150–151; your college list used to select, 124. See also Applications
ED (early decision) notifications: emotions of waiting and receiving, 314–315; financial aid issues, 193–194, 315–316; handling denied or deferred, 160, 316–317; how you will receive, 314; student acceptance of positive, 316; what to do once you've received the, 315
Education IRAs (Coverdell Education Savings Accounts), 195
Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) [University of California], 93
Educational quality: admission to graduate school and undergraduate, 18; belief that college rankings indicate, 13; characteristics of student, not college, as key to, 17–18; "I'll make more money if I graduate from elite college" myth, 16–17. See also Prestige
Educational Talent Search, 58
EducationUSA website, 294, 295, 296, 302
EFC (expected family contribution): college flexibility in determining the final, 178;
description of the, 172; evaluating the financial aid package and, 191; planning ahead when your child is young, 194–195; thinking about options for handling the, 188

Elite colleges: admissions selectivity of, 7–9; association between college selectivity and, 17; future income tied to characteristics of student and not, 17–18; myth of “I’ll make more money if I graduate from,” 16–18; ranking of, 11–14

Elizabethtown College (Pennsylvania), 75
Elon University, 74
Emory University, 244

English proficiency tests, 298–300, 309
Erasmus Programme (UK and Ireland), 80
Erdmann, David, 28

The essay: admissions decisions importance of, 34; getting inappropriate help on your, 213, 302–303; how colleges use, 34–35; how much they count in admissions decisions, 35; international student application, 302–303; SAT and ACT optional add-on, 131, 134, 139; transfer students and the Common Application, 285; why colleges ask for a written, 205–206; writing an effective personal, 205–215. See also Application preparation

Essay writing process: adhering to word limits, 210–211; for answering the “Tell us about yourself” question, 206–207; answering the “Why College X?” question, 211–212; importance of the “optional” questions, 213–215; look inward for a topic, 208–209; pay attention to short answer questions, 212; recommended steps to take for your, 215; show–don’t tell advice for, 207; tell a story, 207–208; what is and is not appropriate help, 213; what topics to avoid and essay don’ts, 209–210

Expected Family Contribution. See EFC (expected family contribution)

Ethical behaviors: deposit ethics, 329–330; honesty on standardized tests, 297–298; parents modeling integrity and, 340–341; write your own essay and applications, 213, 302–303

Extracurricular activities: admission decision influence of, 30–31; homeschoolers and, 279; international student applicants, 290–291; tips for highlighting your high school, 232–235; transfer student applicants and, 285–286. See also Campus social life

FAFSA. See Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 225, 304, 308
Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG), 174
Finances: College Affordability and Transparency Center site on, 104; college programs abroad, 79, 80, 81–82; College Scorecard to compare affordability and, 104; financial aid to help cover, 125; international student applicants, 304–307; “net price calculators” for calculating, 125, 172, 189–190; paying for college abroad, 235–236; planning ahead when your child is young for, 194–195; tuition, 79, 80, 81–82, 104, 167, 180–181, 184, 189

Financial aid: calculating your, 167, 172–173, 189–190; “displacement” rule of, 186–187; Financial Aid Shopping Sheet for, 176; full need policies, 179, 180; international students and offers of, 305; key concepts for understanding, 165–166; need blind, need-aware, and full need, 165, 179–180, 185, 306; questions to ask colleges about, 188; revisiting before making acceptance decision, 323–324; two major types of, 164; for veterans and their families, 182–184; your college list and considerations of, 125–126, 188–190. See also Scholarships/merit aid awards; Tuition

Financial aid calculation: CSS PROFILE’s “institutional methodology” for, 170; differences between PROFILE and FAFSA, 172–173; EFC, 172, 178, 188, 191, 194–195; FAFSA “federal methodology” formula for, 167–168; flexibility of colleges in determining the final, 178; IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) for, 168, 171; the key equation for, 167

Financial aid package: appealing your offer, 192; ask if colleges will “match” another’s offer of, 192–193; college differences in need-based, 177–178; components of the, 173–174; ED (early decision), 193–194, 315–316; evaluating after you’ve been accepted, 190–193; grants, 174, 176; how it is put together, 176; loans, 174–175, 176; understand what goes into the, 173–174; work study, 174

First-generation students: academic advising and support services to, 93; colleges interested in identifying, 41

Fit: be honest with yourself when choosing schools for, 343; for colleges with special affiliations, 76–78; for community colleges, 66–67; deciding which kind of college will provide your, 82–87; determining your priorities worksheet, 94–98; for earning your degree abroad, in English, 78–82; help your child make realistic choices for a good, 342; how to begin finding the, 63–64; how to get the advice and help you need to find your, 92–94; importance of predicting the, 62; for liberal arts colleges, 67–69; majors, careers, and curriculum issues of the, 87–92; for master’s universities and baccalaureate colleges, 73–75; for research universities, 70–73; some questions to ask yourself to find the, 64–66; for specialized programs, 75–76. See also Student applicants

529 College Savings Plans, 170

Florida’s Bright Futures Scholarship Program, 184

Foundation Year or Programme (UK, Ireland, or Holland), 241

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA): deadlines for, 171, 217; description, federal methodology, and completion of the, 166–168; differences in calculating aid by PROFILE and, 172–173; for international students, 306; required for state need-based scholarship programs, 185; sometimes required for merit aid application, 182; verification process for, 171

FSEOG (Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants), 174

Furda, Eric, 162

Gap year: considering a, 330–332; post-graduate (PG) year option, 332–333; recommendations for a smooth, 333; self-directed, 333; taking it after you have been admitted, 331–332; taking one with plan to apply the following year, 332–333

Gates Millennial Scholars Program, 185

General education requirements, 91–92. See also Majors

Georgetown University, 48, 77, 108, 202

Georgia’s Zell Miller scholarships, 184

Get Me To College website, 40

GI Bill: the Post 9/11, 183; Selective Reserve, 184

Golden, Daniel, 38

Golden Door Scholars program, 186

Gore, Joseph, 334

Grades (GPA): caution against senioritis and declining, 334–335; class rank and, 26–27; college recalculation of your, 25; homeschooler transcripts and, 277–278; importance of both course load and, 25; putting grades in context, 26–28; school profile included with transcript of, 27–28; transfer applications and college course, 284. See also Academic record; Transcripts

Graham, Martha, 259

Greenberg, Joseph, 115

Hamilton College, 92, 201

Hampshire College, 68

Hargadon, Fred, 35
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 268
International Baccalaureate (IB) program: description of, 24; required by Oxford and Cambridge universities, 238; school profile on, 27
International student applicants: advantages and disadvantages of being an, 290; application tips, 300–304; college search tools available to, 294, 305–306; English proficiency tests for, 298–300, 309; financial issues, 304–307; getting the application completed, 300–304; growing community of, 310; how colleges define, 309; how your application will be reviewed, 292–293; interviews of, 304; agents and consultants, 295–296; standardized tests and, 296–298; strategies for deciding where to apply, 293–296; student visas for, 295, 296; undocumented, 307–309; what colleges are looking for in, 290–292
Internships, 32
Interviews: alumni interviewers conducting the, 218; arranging the, 228–231; frequently asked questions, 229–230; homeschoolers, 279–280; informational versus evaluative, 225–226; international student applicants, 304; as misunderstood part of college admissions process, 35–36; tips for shining in your, 225–231; transfer student applicants, 287
Inzer, Monica, 327
Iowa State University, 146, 181
Ireland universities: applying for, 239–240; Foundation Year or Programme requirement of, 241; studying abroad at UK and, 79–81;
IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT), 168, 171
Ivy League colleges: academic index (AI) required for athlete admissibility, 250; the “admissions advantage” for athletes at, 39; description and origins of term, 10; matching financial aid offers offered by other, 193; now synonymous with prestige and academic reputation, 11
Jack Kent Cooke Foundation College Scholars Program, 185
Jacksonville State University (Alabama), 74
Johns Hopkins University: 72, 154, 208
Jones, Marilee, 60–61
Juilliard School, 75, 76, 256

The K & W Guide to College Programs and Services for Students with Learning Differences, 269, 272
Kalamazoo College, 211
Kent, Jennie, 305
Kenyon College, 244
Kostell, Stacey, 289
Kravets, Marybeth, 272
Krueger, Alan, 17–18

Lafayette College, 67
Landmark College, 272
Lawrence University, 212, 256
Learning disabilities: common types of, 267; disclosing on application, 273–274; federal government definition of, 266; special accommodations for standardized testing due to, 146–147, 267, 274–275; student success versus student access, 269; submitted documentation of, 147; Tier One, Tier Two, Tier Three school support services for, 270–272
Legacy status: boost provided by, 36–37; controversy over admissions based on, 37–38. See also Parents
Leider, Anna and Robert, 176
Letters of recommendation: waive your FERPA right to see the, 225, 304; get them in on time, 217; get to know your teachers prior to asking for, 34; homeschoolers and, 278–279; how many letters should you submit, 222–223; international student applicants, 303–304; student artists, 259; tips for getting great, 219–225; transfer student applicants, 286–287; what admissions officers look for in, 33; wide variation in usefulness of, 33–34
Levin, Sarah, 39
Levy, Jeff, 305
Lewis and Clark College, 108
Lewis, Stephen, 19
Liberal arts colleges: academic programs of, 68; campus size and community feel of, 69; the college–student fit at, 67–69
Likely letters/early notification, 161–162
Linfield College, 244
Loans: description of, 174–175; different types of, 175; “no-loan” policy on grants replacing, 176
Location: college–student fit and issue of, 65–66, 83–84
Macalester College, 69, 179
Majors: college–student fit issue of, 87–91; different paths to the same career, 90; dual-degree programs, 90–91; relationship between career and, 88–89; selecting, 88; student artists pursuing the arts, 254–257; 3/2 programs, 89–90; United Kingdom and Ireland universities, 80. See also Academic programs; General education requirements
Manhattan College, 243
Marthers, Paul, 36
Martin, Dallas, 187
Maryville University, 162
Master’s universities, 73–74, 75
Matching financial aid packages, 192–193
Mayher, Bill, 7
Medical conditions, 267
Merit aid awards. See Scholarships/merit aid awards
Merrow, John, 52
Mexican American Legal Defense Education Fund, 308
Miami University (Ohio), 73
Michigan State University, 162
Middlebury College, 144, 154, 322
Mills College, 256
Millsaps College, 144
MIT, 147, 193, 202
Montoya, James, 291
Morehead State University (Kentucky), 74
Morehouse College, 77
Mt. Holyoke College, 68, 78
“Multicultural fly-in programs,” 40
Music auditions, 263

Index
NAFSA website, 305
National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC) website: college fairs listed on, 106; colleges still seeking applicants posted on, 6; Performing and Visual Arts College Fairs sponsored by, 256–257; “Principles of Good Practice” on wait lists by, 325–326; student visas information on, 295
National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), 74, 75, 243, 245–246, 249
National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, 189
National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA): Divisions I, II, and III, 69, 243–244, 245, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253; master's universities as typically Division II, 74; “official visit” rules of, 251; recruitment guidelines by, 248–249
National Hispanic Recognition Program, 146
National Immigration Law Center, 308
National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA), 243
National Letter of Intent (NLI), 252–253
National Merit Scholarship, 145–146, 181
National Portfolio Day Association, 26
Naviance: scattergrams on college data created through, 122; SuperMatch college search engine using, 102, 104
Need-aware policies, 179–180
Need-based aid: description of, 165; differences between colleges offering, 177–178; FAFSA required for state scholarship programs, 185; financial aid package for, 173–176; forms to file for, 170–171; getting an estimate of your, 172–173; how colleges determine your, 166–170; loans as, 175; need-aware vs. need-blind admission policies, 179–180, 306; principle behind, 166
Need blind admissions: colleges with policies on, 179, 180; international Canadian and Mexican students included in, 306
Net price calculators, 125, 172, 189–190
The Netherlands university system: applying for the, 240–241; Foundation Year or Programme requirement of, 241; study abroad at the, 81–82
New England Conservatory, 75
New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC), 250
New York University, 144, 244
“No-loan” policy, 176
Northeastern University, 41, 93–94, 322
Northwestern University, 154
Oberlin College, 256
Occupational Outlook Handbook (online resource), 104
Ohio State University, 203
Optional add-on essay (SAT/ACT), 131, 134, 139
Organization scholarship awards, 185
O’Shea, Joseph, 330
Out-of-pocket cost. See Net price calculators
Oxford University (UK), 237–238
Pace University, 243–244
Parents: advice for, 336–342; college admissions process and appropriate role of, 60, 61; and child's essay, 213; financial aid information required from, 168, 170, 171; financial planning when your child is young, 194–195; helping with college visit, 117–118; over-involvement, 60–61; respecting your child's privacy, 315; a word about standardized tests to, 149. See also Legacy status
Parker, Thomas, 38
Pauls, Kenton, 297
Pell Grants, 174, 176, 185
Pemberton, Stephen, 193
Pennsylvania State University, 73
Performing and Visual Arts College Fairs, 256–257
Performing arts audition, 262–264
Personal qualities: admission decision influence of, 33–36; the admission essay to assess, 34–35; evaluated using a numerical rating, 49–50; interviews of applicants to assess, 35–36, 225–232; letters of recom-

See also Special talents

Phillips, Delsie, 206

Physical environment. See Campus size and community feel

Pitzer College, 41, 68, 227

PLUS loans (Parent Loans to Undergraduate Students), 175

Poch, Bruce, 278

Poirot, William, 210

Pomona College, 68

Portfolios: for applying to British schools, 261; documenting your, 261; National Portfolio Day Association sponsoring portfolio day events, 260–261; résumés and recommendations, 259; visual arts, 260

Posse Foundation, 186

Post 9/11 GI Bill, 183

Post-graduate (PG) year, 332–333

PPY (prior-prior year), 168, 170

Pre-professional advising, 93–94

PreSAT/PreACT: checking the box for receiving information from colleges on, 109; how they fit into the application process, 137

Prestige: belief that college rankings indicate, 13; college–student fit issue of, 65. See also Educational quality

Princeton University, 36, 157

Prior-prior year (PPY), 168, 170

Priority deadlines (rolling admissions), 163

Private high schools: decreasing use of class rank by, 26–27; letters of recommendation from public versus, 33–34

Procrastinating application, 162–163, 200–201, 344

PROFILE. See CSS PROFILE

Programs abroad. See College programs abroad

Providence College, 74

PSAT (PSAT-NMSQT): checking the box for receiving information from colleges on, 109; how they fit into the application process, 137; National Merit Scholarship semifinalists based on score of, 145–146; special accommodations for, 274

QuestBridge, 185–186

Race-sensitive admissions, 40

Rankings: belief in “quality” or “prestige” association with, 13; concerns about, 13–14; interest focused on small group of, 10–11; Ivy League, 8, 10–11; ranking of, 11–14; reasons behind popularity of, 14; social media investment by, 5–6; United Kingdom universities, 81; U.S. News and World Report’s, 11–13, 14

Recruited athletes: the admissions advantage of, 39; admissions decisions on, 38–39; definition of a, 39

Reed College, 108

Regional compacts, 189

Regis University, 244

Religious affiliation colleges, 77

Research activities (student applicants), 32

Research universities: academic programs of, 70–71; athletics and activities of, 72; campus size and community feel of, 72; college–student fit at, 70–73; Division I teams of, 72; honors programs of, 73; the role of research at, 71–72

Residence halls: alcohol- and substance-free, 87; college–student fit and, 85

Résumés (student artist), 259

Rubinoff, Matt, 58

St. John’s College, 201

St. Olaf College, 77

Saint Louis University, 162

Saint Mary’s College (California), 74

SALT program (University of Arizona), 272, 273

San Francisco State University, 74

San Jose State University, 74

Santa Clara University, 211
SAR (Student Aid Report), 169
SAT Subject Tests: homeschoolers, 278; overview of the, 147–148; required for international colleges, 237, 238; special accommodations for standardized, 146–147, 267, 268, 274–275
SAT/ACT tests: admissions decision role of, 28–29; all about the scores and superscoring, 132–136, 143, 144–145, 278; checking the box for receiving information from colleges on, 109; comparison of the SAT and ACT, 129–134; concerns over the test prep industry, 29; concordance table to compare scores of SAT and ACT, 138; deciding whether to take the SAT or ACT, 138–139; essay optional add-on of, 131, 134, 139; how much they count in the application, 134–136; international student applicants and, 296–298; National Merit Scholarship and, 145–146; origins and evolution of, 127–128; practice tests for, 138; Question-and-Answer Service for copy of your, 143; required by colleges abroad, 237, 239–240; school profile on distributions of, 27–28; submitting scores to colleges, 217; test fees, 142, 143; test Optional schools and, 148–149; test prep for, 29, 139–142, 297–298; a word to parents about, 149. See also Standardized tests
Savings plans/programs: Education IRAs (Coverdell Education Savings Accounts), 195; “financial aid advantaged,” 194–195; “Tax-advantaged” savings strategy (529 state plan), 195
Sawyer, Diane, 78
Schiffman, Jeff, 214
Scholarship search service, 187
Scholarships/merit aid awards: apply early for, 186; awards cannot exceed cost of attendance, 186–187; from businesses and organizations, 185; college partnership programs, 185–186; community-based, 186; controversy over, 182; description of, 165, 180; evaluating aid after you’ve been accepted, 190–193; FAFSA sometime required for applying for, 182; grants, 174, 185; maximizing your changes of receiving, 181–182; National Hispanic Recognition Program, 146; National Merit Scholarship, 145–146, 181; state scholarships, 184–185; thinking early about applying for, 188; using a scholarship search service, 187; Veteran financial aid programs and, 182–184. See also Financial aid; Tuition
School profile, 27–28
School report, 28
Scripps College, 68, 78
Seattle University, 243
Selective colleges: admissions process at the most, 56–57; association between income and, 17; of colleges by admissions rates for class of 2020, 8–9; definition of, 7, 9; importance of fit to, 18–19; understanding what it is all about, 7; your college list and consideration of, 119–121. See also Colleges
Selective Reserve GI Bill, 184
Self-directed gap year, 333
Senioritis, 334–335
SEVIS (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System), 295
Shapiro, Morton Owen, 178
Skidmore College, 67
SlideRoom portal (Common App), 264
Smith College, 68, 78, 212
Social changes, 5
Social life. See Campus social life
Sophia University (Japan), 78
Southern Oregon University, 213
Special circumstances: homeschoolers, 276–280; students with disabilities, 146–147, 266–276; transferring from community colleges, 281–288; undocumented student applicants, 307–309
Special interests and hobbies, 234
Special talents: admissions decisions preference of, 41–42; filmmakers, writers, and theater tech and design, 261–265; student artists, 253–261; student athlete and athletic recruitment, 242–253. See also Accomplishments; Personal qualities Specialized colleges, 75–76
Spelman College, 77
Spring admits, 321–322
Standardized tests: admissions decision role of, 28–29; all about scores and superscoring, 132–136, 143, 144–145, 278; CAT (computer adaptive testing) used for, 129; cheating on, 297–298; checking the box for receiving information from colleges on, 109; concerns over the test prep industry, 29; concordance table to compare, 138; deciding which test to take, 138–139; how much do they count?, 134–136; international student applicants and, 296–298; National Merit Scholarship and, 145–146; overview of the, 127–134; the PSAT, PSAT10, PreACT, Aspire, 109, 137, 145–146, 274; required by some Canadian universities, 237; scattergrams to help interpret college data on, 122–123; school profile on distributions of, 27–28; to show proficiency in English, 298–300; special accommodations for, 146–147, 267, 274–275; submitting scores to colleges, 217; test-optional schools and, 148–149; test prep for, 29, 139–142, 297–298; a word to parents about, 149. See also SAT/ ACT testing
Stanford University: 36, 108, 157, 193, 212, 243
State scholarships, 184–185
Statement of purpose (student artists), 259
Steidel, Michael, 299
Stephens College, 78
Stetson University, 162
Stony Brook University, 162
Strive for College, 58–59
Stroud, Jonathan, 208
Student Aid Report (SAR), 169
Student applicants: acceptance decision by, 316, 318–324; building your college list of where to apply, 101–126; colleges sponsoring regional events for parents and, 108; demonstrated interest by, 16, 231–232, 327, 329; deposit ethics for, 329–330; e-mail address that reflects maturity of, 216; educational quality determined by characteristics of, 17–18; explaining high school disciplinary violations, 224–225; first-generation, 41, 93; getting applications in early vs. procrastination by, 162–163, 200–201, 344; homeschoolers, 276–280; international, 289–310; parting thoughts for, 342–345; receiving personalized “search” letter from colleges, 109–110; remarks by one on her denial, 54; senioritis, 334–335; social media postings by, 216; students with disabilities, 146–147, 266–276; taking a gap year, 330–333; transferring from community colleges, 281–288; undocumented, 307–309; wait-listed, 16, 324–329. See also Admissions decisions; Applicant pool; Fit
Student artist applications: assembling your work, 260; evaluation of your, 265; portfolios and auditions, 258–261; process of the, 257–258; résumés and recommendations, 259; showcasing your artistic talents as part of, 264–265; statement of purpose, 259; visual arts portfolio, 260; the “Why us?” question, 260
Student artists: application process for the, 257–261; filmmakers, writers, and theater tech and design, 261–264; multiple options for the, 253–254; portfolios and auditions, 258–261; pursuing the arts as major, 254–257; showcasing your artistic talents, 264–265
Student athletes: the academic index (AI) and, 250; admissibility of, 249–250; athletic recruitment of, 246–249; how to assess real interest by a coach, 250–252; if you are not recruited, 253; issues to consider for the, 244–246; National Letter of Intent (NLI) and making the commitment, 252–253; options available to, 242–243; structure of college athletics and, 243–244; time commitments of, 245
Student support services: academic advising, 92–94; advance planning by inquiring
SAT/ACT tests (Continued)
about, 94; advance planning to finding out about, 94; categories of disabilities support and, 270–272; health and counseling, 94; The K & W Guide to College Programs and Services for Students with Learning Differences (Kravets), 269, 272; pre-professional, 93–94
Student visas, 295, 296
Students with disabilities: blind (or visually impaired students), 146–147; categories of disabilities support for, 270–272; choosing colleges that meet your needs, 272–273; contacting disabilities services office after acceptance, 276; definition of disability, 266–267; laws that apply in college, 268–270; laws that apply to high school, 267–268; the most common disabilities, 267; standardized testing accommodations, 146–147, 267, 274–275; whether to disclose disability on application, 273–274.
Subsidized federal direct loans, 175
Summer activities, 234
SuperMatch college search engine (Naviance), 102, 104
Superscoring SAT/ACT, 144–145
Swarthmore College, 77
Syracuse University, 211
Tags. See Hooks (tags)
TEACH Grants Program, 174
Test-optimal schools, 148–149
Test prep: different forms available for, 140–141; how does it work?, 139–140; industry grown around, 29; what is covered in, 141–142
Test scores: comparing SAT and ACT, 132–134; concordance table to compare SAT or ACT, 138; homeschoolers and, 278; how much do they count?, 134–135; middle 50 percent of, 135; percentile and likelihood of admission and, 135–136; superscoring SAT/ACT, 144–145; TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language), 298–299
Testing accommodations: Section 504 on, 268; standardized tests, 146–147, 267, 274–275
Texas A&M University in College Station, 72
Theater auditions, 262–263
TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language), 298–300, 309
Toor, Rachel, 15
Trachtenberg, Stephen, 181
Transcripts: college review of final, 334–335; homeschooler, 277–278; international student applications, 300–301; school profile included with, 27–28. See also Grades (GPA)
Transfer student applicants: advising, visits, and interviews of, 287–288; assessing if transferring is right for you, 282–283; Common Application and essay for, 285; extracurricular activities of, 285–286; how the application process differs for, 284–287; letters you will need, 286–287; reasons to transfer colleges, 281
Trinity College (Hartford), 69, 73, 244
Trinity University (Dublin), 239, 241
Trinity University (Texas), 24
TRIO programs, 58
Tufts University, 41, 179, 207, 208
Tuition: College Affordability and Transparency Center site on costs of, 104; college programs abroad, 79, 80, 81–82; College Scorecard to compare affordability and, 104; financial aid calculation consideration of, 167; regional compacts for reducing, 189. See also Financial aid; Scholarships/merit aid awards
Underrepresented student applicants, 40
Undocumented student applicants, 307–309
Unified Auditions, 262–263
Union College, 67, 244
United Kingdom universities: Foundation Year or Programme requirement of, 241; preparing art portfolios for, 261; studying abroad at, 79–81; UCAS (Universities and Colleges Admissions Service) online application for, 237–239
Universal College Application: description and when to use the, 203, 210; essay word-length guidelines by the, 210; highlighting what you’ve accomplished on
...